

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2499

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2499-Fabiola was the granddaughter of the head of the Marche family.

Even though she was not up to beauty standards because she was fat and hideous- she would embarrass her entire family when she was out in public- she still had a pretty high status.

Therefore, Fabiola's guards were very strong.

Their strength was several times higher than Perry's guards.

The reality was cruel if one was born into a big family.

The higher the status, the stronger the guards around you.

Of course, the first-in-line heirs would have a lot of very powerful guards around them

As for why David did not have guards, Arian also wondered.

He concluded that this was done to hide his identity.

After all, he was an heir cultivated in secret. If there were too many powerhouses around him, he would be easily exposed.

Although it was a little far-fetched, it made sense.

On Fabiola's order, dozens of the Marche family guards sprang into action.

They surrounded David to try to snatch the little girl in his arms and hand her over to their young mistress.

Arian stepped forward immediately and shouted, "This is Amber City! You guys are not allowed to act so recklessly! It's not too late to stop now. If you take action, it will be hard to predict what will happen to you. When the time comes, don't blame the law enforcement team for being merciless."

His righteous words won the applause of the crowd around them.

Someone even yelled, “Good job, Captain Longer! We support you! Don’t let these outsiders do whatever they want and disturb the law and order of Amber City!”

Immediately, others followed.

‘Yes! We support you, Captain Longer! Return peace to Amber City.’

“We support Captain Longer!”

“We support Captain Longer!”

Little did they know that they were making things very hard for Arian.

He did not want to offend Perry and Fabiola.

However, he had already chosen David so if he did not do anything now, it would be unfavorable to both parties in the end.

Then, the loss would outweigh the gain even more.

Now that a choice has been made, he just had to brace himself and stick with the path that he chose.

Regardless of whether it was a cliff or a broad avenue in front of him, he could only bite the bullet.

Arian believed that David’s strength would definitely be no worse than Perry and Fabiola’s.

He was just worried that he would be the sacrifice.

Whenever powerful people fought, the onlookers would often be the ones suffering.

In the eyes of the Campbell family, a big family in Leila, wasn’t he just an onlooker?

Arian could only bet that David was not the type to burn bridges.

Otherwise, he might fall head first.

If he had David's support and Salem's protection, he should be able to handle pressure from the Campbell family and the Marche family.

"Since you all want to seek death, then I will fulfill that today. Go! Get that brat for me and then destroy these people who are seeking death," Fabiola spat through gritted teeth.

Now, all she could think about was making the life of that little girl worse than death.

As for the threats?

She was the granddaughter of the head of the Marche family, so who was Fabiola afraid of?

'Yes, Miss!'

Dozens of the Marche family guards rushed over at high speed, aiming at Pebbles in David's arms.

At this time, the little girl was looking outside curiously and showing no sign of fear.

Although she lost her previous memory, she instinctively felt that this was nothing.

She was not afraid of anything now that she was in Davey's arms.

"Stop them!" Arian yelled.

The powerhouses of the law enforcement team who followed him all took action and stood in a row in front of David. They were prepared to block the Marche family's guards.

Perry took a look.

Great! This is exactly what he wanted.

If he were to fight Arian, the people he brought might not win.

However, with Fabiola's guards in the mix, it might not be the case.