I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2501-After hearing what Arian said, the rest of the law enforcers gritted their teeth and got ready.

At this critical moment...

Boom!

A huge and suffocating energy suddenly appeared and enveloped the scene.

Everyone felt as if their bodies had been plunged into an ice cave.

The guards of the Marche family and the Campbell family all stopped. They stood where they were and did not dare to move.

It was as if they were being stared at by an ancient ferocious beast. If they moved, they would be killed immediately.

Perry and Fabiola showed even more terrified expressions on their faces.

It was because they were the main target of this energy.

The feeling of being killed immediately if they moved made the scalps of the two direct descendants of major families tingle.

When had they ever experienced this kind of crisis?

It was as if time stood still at the scene and no one dared to move.

“Wow! Davey, why did they stop moving all of a sudden? This is so amazing!” When she saw this scene, the little girl cried out curiously.

“It’s because they are afraid of death, so that’s why they dare not move!” David explained with a smile.

After he said that, he carried Pebbles and stepped between the two parties.

The whole process took about ten seconds.

No one in the audience dared to move. They did not even dare to move a finger.

That huge suffocating energy was still around.

Who would dare to move in the face of death?

For more than ten seconds, although everyone dared not move, they had their thoughts in their hearts.

The people who were the most delighted were Arian and the law enforcers he brought.

Fortunately, Arian persisted until the last moment.

Otherwise, he would miss the best opportunity to have a good relationship with David.

The surrounding onlookers also showed joyful expressions.

They still vividly remembered Fabiola's random killings.

They hoped that someone would take care of this fat hideous woman.

"Rivers, briefly tell me what happened," David asked suddenly.

"Yes, Master David!" Thor replied respectfully.

Then, he told David how Perry brought people to block the entrance to the shop, how Arian came to stop him, and how Fabiola appeared out of the blue.

When David heard that the people who died around him were killed because they could not stop themselves from vomiting when they first met Fabiola, he frowned.

It was fine if she was ugly.

She could just stay home.

However, she had to come out to scare others. Then after that, she wanted to kill the people who got scared. What kind of logic was that?

To be honest, David almost threw up when he first saw Fabiola.

Which one of the women around him was not graceful, one in a million?

When he suddenly saw a woman like Fabiola, his body would surely have a drastic reaction.

However, this was not the reason for Fabiola to kill.

After hearing Thor's recount, David continued to walk forward. He walked past the Marche and Campbell family guards and came to Perry and Fabiola.

When the two saw David approaching them, the fear in their hearts skyrocketed.

They knew this threat of death was real.

If they did not pay attention, they would die here.

As the direct descendants of major families, they did not want to die.

"W-What do you want?" Perry asked, shaking.

"I-I'm the biological granddaughter of the head of the Marche family. Y-You can't kill me o-or my grandpa won't spare you," Fabiola also stammered.

She had never experienced a real threat of death.

She was terrified.

David turned to look at Fabiola.

"It's not a big deal if you look ugly, but why do you want to come out to scare others? I can forgive you for scaring others, but you even dare to kill them? Who gave you the right to disregard other human lives and kill them just because you want to? Your grandpa, who's the head of the family?"
