I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2558-She had to eat a lot of treasures of heaven and earth every day.

If it were not for his previous experience, David would have doubted whether the little girl's body could bear it.

When he first met Pebbles, the little girl was only five or six years old, but now she was almost ten.

This was such a terrifying speed.

One morning, after Pebbles woke up, her big brother David was gone.

She could not find him, so she went to the roof alone. Then, sitting on the highest point, she looked at the distant sky in a daze.

She recalled something from the past, but the fragments were too chaotic for her to piece together.

Just as the little girl was lost in her thoughts, a figure sat beside her to look into the distance with her.

When David returned to the room, he did not see Pebbles, and after a little sensing, he found the little girl on the roof.

So, he came after her.

Two figures, one big and one small, sat next to each other. No one said anything.

After ten minutes of silence, Pebbles finally said, "Davey, do you have a lot of questions in your heart?"

"Of course, but I won't ask. When you want to tell me, I can be a qualified listener and also give you advice," David replied while looking into the distance.

"Thank you, Davey!" Pebbles turned her head to look at David's profile and showed a lovely smile.

To be honest, the little girl looked like a porcelain doll even in her teens and was very attractive.

“Why are you thanking me? I’m your big brother that you can rely on. If anyone dares to bully you in the future, just tell me. No matter who it is, I will help you beat them until they give up,” David also turned and said with a smile.

“Okay!” The little girl looked at David and nodded. The smile on her face became even wider.

There was an infinite supply of treasures of heaven and earth now that she followed David.

In addition, hanging on David’s body all the time and inhaling David’s scent helped her grow up a lot and remember things.

However, they were just bits and pieces of memory.

She could not piece them into a complete memory.

“Davey, I don’t remember a lot of things and they are very scattered, so I don’t know where to start. I’ll tell you everything after I remember! I assure you that I will not leave without saying goodbye this time,” the little girl said seriously.

As soon as she mentioned this, David instantly became displeased.

He thought to himself, ‘Alright, since she remembers, I’ll have to reprimand her.’

Then, the smile on his face disappeared, revealing a serious look. He glared at the little girl, and said angrily, ‘You remember that you left without saying goodbye last time, huh? I haven’t dealt with you yet! You didn’t say anything and only left a note before disappearing. I didn’t even know where you went and you didn’t even leave any contact information. What were you trying to do? Were you trying to cut ties with me? Cut all contact with me? So, was I spoiling you in vain?’

Seeing David so angry, the little girl also panicked.

It was the first time she had seen David angry. She pouted and almost burst into tears.

“Davey, I’m sorry! I was wrong. I shouldn’t have left without saying goodbye and not leaving any contact information. I don’t know what I was thinking at the time. I forgot and now I really hate myself for what I did back then.” The little girl answered with an apologetic look on her face.

David originally wanted to criticize her so she would remember.

In the end, when he saw that the little girl was about to cry, his heart softened.

Gosh, she was not crying, and already, his heart was about to melt.

What would happen if she did cry?

Being soft was always his weakness and David knew this.

Especially when he was facing a woman. He could not bring himself to heartlessly hurt her, let alone a teenager so adorable.

David quickly reached out to pull Pebbles into his arms. Then, he comforted, “Alright, alright, I’m not blaming you. Just don’t do this in the future. If not, I will be sad.”

“Alright, Davey, I remember. I will not make the same mistake anymore. I will discuss everything with you in the future.”

“That’s more like it. Good girl!”
