I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2562-He was caught off guard by this sudden joyful news.

He thought to himself, 'We only need to get rid of all Leila's living creatures?

'Isn't that what the Soul Devourers love to do?

'There are countless living souls.

'Especially the five Leila rulers.

'If I could devour the souls of these five Overlords, maybe I can finally take that half step and become a real Heavenly Overlord.

'A Heavenly Overlord!

'The realm that all Overlords dream of.'

There were countless level 9 civilizations in the universe but there were very few Heavenly Overlords, not even 100.

So, it could be seen how high the status of a Heavenly Overlord was.

Once he became a Heavenly Overlord, Stark could go anywhere in the universe.

"Of course, it is true! My original idea was to let the kids below me try to see if they could take Leila down and slowly clear those creatures. After I finish my meal here, I can move to Leila to continue. In the end, you also saw what happened. It didn't work! A level 9 civilization is still very powerful and it's not as weak as a level 8 civilization. It just so happens that you guys like to devour souls the most.

Since our interests do not conflict, I decided to work with you."

Stark thought about it and felt that this was possible.

The Robotias' mother brain only devoured the resources of each civilization and that was a certainty.

There was no need for the other party to deceive them.

The Soul Devourers roamed the cosmic void so they had nothing worthwhile for the Robotias to deceive.

As they helped the Robotias clear up the living creatures, they could devour their souls while they were at it.

It would be killing two birds with one stone.

How perfect!

If they succeeded this time, the Soul Devourers would follow the Robotias closely to become their cleaners.

After devouring a few level 9 civilizations, the Soul Devourers might grow to become the top race in the universe.

“If this is the case, then let’s have a happy cooperation.

Don’t worry, the Soul Devourers will clear all the living creatures in Leila for you and we will never miss a single one,” Stark promised loudly.

He was quite excited now.

Not only could he avenge the great revenge back then, but he could also greatly increase the strength of the Soul Devourers.

It was like a free lunch.

“Happy cooperation! You can go and gather all of the Soul Devourers now. I will set off and go to Leila in a while.

However, if you can’t clear as quickly as I eat, I can always kick you out.”

“You don’t have to worry about that. The Soul Devourers love clearing up living creatures.”

Stark left excitedly.

He was going to summon all the Soul Devourers to get ready for this big fight.
