

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2590-“I can only be considered half a master to you. However, you’ve never addressed me as your master,” Sylvio said with a grin.

“How do I address you then? Sir? Old man? Or... Old Thing?” The little girl asked excitedly.

She was elated that her master was here.

The little girl believed that with her master’s help, she could recover her memory soon and remember everything.

Well...

Sylvio was between laughter and tears.

It felt as if he had gone back to the time when he first met Elora.

She was so cheerful and active back then.

With time, she gradually became calmer.

“No. You usually call me your Sylvio,” Sylvio answered.

“Sylvio? Grandpa, your name is Sylvio!” Elora smiled.

“Ei-... Little girl, what’s your name now?”

“Sylvio, my name is Pebbles.”

“Pebbles? Who gave you this name? It sounds so bad.”

“Is it? I think it’s nice. Davey gave me the name.” The little girl pouted, a little upset.

Davey gave her this name. How was it bad?

‘Davey?’ Sylvio thought.

Sylvio caught a very important message from Pebble’s words.

Instinct told him that this Davey was David who could cause a backlash to Zwei Arithmetics and also a variable.

“Um, I was wrong. I meant to say it sounds nice.” Sylvio quickly corrected himself.

‘That’s more like it. I forgive you.’

“Right, Pebbles. What’s Davey’s real name? Where is he?” Sylvio went straight to the topic.

He could not wait to meet David.

“His name is David and he’s living in seclusion right now. I’m guarding the door for him. Sylvio, can we please talk more softly? Let’s not disturb him.” Pebbles lowered her voice.

As she whispered, she pointed at the room.

After Sylvio heard that, he was certain it was David.

However, Sylvio could not understand what Pebbles said next.

He wondered, ‘David is living in seclusion?’

‘How is that possible?’

‘I just detected this place and there’s no one in the room.’

“Pebbles, you have to be honest. It’s not right to lie,” Sylvio said with a smile.

“Sylvio, I didn’t lie. Davey’s indeed inside. Why don’t you wait with me? You’ll know I’m not lying when he comes out,” Pebbles said seriously.

When he saw the little girl’s face, Sylvio wondered if he was negligent just now.

So, he carefully detected the place again.

It was still the same.

He did not sense anyone in the room.

There were only two reasons for this.

It was either there was no one inside, or David could completely hide himself.

Even though Sulvio figured the first reason was more likely, the second one was not impossible since David could make Zwei Arithmetics lose its function.

At the same time, Sylvio was also very curious.

Could someone hide so perfectly in front of him?

If it was possible, then this person was undoubtedly outstanding in Leila just from his hiding abilities.
