

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2596-Almost everyone was immobilized by this energy, including Mayor Salem.

He was in his study, dealing with the affairs of the city, but he fell immediately to the ground when this terrifying energy touched him.

His eyes were full of fear.

He had never met such a strong person.

The five Leila rulers were nothing compared to this.

Salem knew it was not targeted at him.

Otherwise, the energy would have crushed him into a pulp.

It was too strong.

Unimaginably strong.

Countless creatures in Amber City lain prostrate on the ground, silently offering their prayers.

They hoped to escape this.

Many people felt remorseful.

Some had left The Spirit Cage earlier because of the murder of the descendants of the Campbell and the Marche families, but they came back when they thought it was safe.

They never expected to encounter such a situation.

Although they did not know what happened yet, everyone knew in their hearts that something big was about to happen.

And they had no idea if they would be affected.

They would undoubtedly die if they were touched by the shockwaves of a battle involving such a strong person.

After David unleashed all his soul power, he suddenly appeared in front of Sylvio.

Before Sylvio could react, David pushed him to the ground and started beating him.

Boom!

David's manor was razed to the ground.

All the buildings within a radius of tens of kilometers from his home also collapsed.

Fortunately, although David was mad, he was still reasonable and did not hurt any innocent people.

The guards had no idea what happened.

They lain inexplicably among the ruins, unable to move.

It was fine just now. How did it suddenly become like this?

At this moment, Sylvio was in a daze, his mind in turmoil.

He thought he was dreaming, or even hallucinating.

The soul of a dignified partial Heavenly Overlord defeated in The Spirit Cage before he could even react?

It felt so familiar but not the first time this happened.

When was the last time he was defeated?

Not long ago, Lufian achieved Heavenly Overlord Rank and defeated him too.

How long had it been?

In less than a year, he was defeated in seconds again.

Sylvio could not believe it was real.

However, the pain in his body told him this was real.

He, Sylvio, was truly instantly defeated.

He could not even resist.

The only people who could do this would be those above Heavenly Overlord Rank.

When were there so many Heavenly Overlords?

Was Lufian not enough? And now there was a second one.

Of course, the other party might not be the Heavenly Overlord.

There were differences between The Spirit Cage and the real world.

Having the soul of a Heavenly Overlord did not necessarily mean that that person was a Heavenly Overlord.

However, it was only a matter of time before they became Heavenly Overlord.

In some aspects, they could compete with a real Heavenly Overlord.

Anyway, it was not easy for a Heavenly Overlord to kill someone with a Heavenly Overlord soul.

Of course, the reverse was even more impossible!
