

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2608-Who was Sylvio?

The head of the five Leila rulers and also a partial Heavenly Overlord.

Even if he was a soul, he would still stand on the top of Leila.

He was injured by David attack while he was helping Elora, but one should not underestimate David's strength.

In terms of soul power, he was no weaker than Sylvio.

He could even cause Sylvio to suffer a backlash when using Zwei Arithmetics, showing that there were indeed many unknown secrets surrounding Davey.

If David could handle Lufian, Elora would not have to bear so much pressure.

Elora was really afraid that Lufian would threaten Leila.

She had worked her way up, step by step, from the bottom of Leila.

Although countless generations of Elora's family had passed, Leila was still her hometown after all.

Elora could not watch as Lufian destroyed Leila.

Now she could firmly say she did not want Lufian, but if Leila was threatened, Elora may weaken for Leila's sake.

"Sylvio, you mean, Davey can deal with Lufian?" Elora asked.

"It's possible! David will definitely not lose to Lufian in terms of soul power. Both have Heavenly Overlord Rank souls, but I don't know how strong David is in reality and whether he has reached real Heavenly Overlord Rank." Sylvio nodded.

"Davey's soul has reached Heavenly Overlord Rank?" Elora was shocked again.

She thought he was just on the same level as Sylvio!

"What do you think? If he wasn't a Heavenly Overlord, how would I be so helpless just now? Not to mention, this kid is ruthless." Sylvio rubbed his chest as he said that.

He was still hurting from when David put a hand on his chest and pressed him to the ground.

Elora was silent. She remembered David once telling her that she should tell him about the difficulties she encountered so that he can take care of all problems for her.

It turned out that Davey did as he promised her.

However, the strength of a Heavenly Overlord and the soul power of a Heavenly Overlord were not equal.

To put it simply, if one had the strength of a Heavenly Overlord, one must have the soul power of a Heavenly Overlord.

However, the opposite was not necessarily true.

One must first have the soul power of a Heavenly Overlord before one can become a real Heavenly Overlord.

Lufian was undoubtedly a Heavenly Overlord.

They only know David had the soul power of a Heavenly Overlord. It was hard to say whether he was a Heavenly Overlord in reality.

If he was not, he would not be Lufian's match.

"Sylvio, even if Davey has the soul of a Heavenly Overlord, he may not necessarily be Lufian's match! After all, Lufian is already a Heavenly Overlord." Elora calmed down and asked.

"That's why I said this is an opportunity, Elora. You probably don't know David's real strength, right?"

"I don't know. He never told me and I never asked." Elora shook her head.

"Then we have to talk to him first before making any decisions."

"Okay! Let's got out! Davey will be getting impatient," Elora agreed.
