I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2648-Boom!!!

Blood splattered everywhere.

Captain Himmel's blade had stopped the Soul Fracturing Arrow, but it had also caused his teammate to explode into a million pieces that scattered everywhere.

However, the danger had been temporarily taken care of.

Captain Himmel had no regrets.

There was no possibility of survival after being hit by a Soul Fracturing Arrow.

Even if the guard did survive the shot, he would have died soon after. It was a situation Captain Himmel had witnessed many times.

Everything was worth it if he could ensure the safety of the Madam and the Young Master.

"Focus, everyone, and be careful. We can't be losing everything we fought for at the very last hour. Think of the lives we'll lead in the future. We'll be able to enjoy a life of fortune and luxury if we're able to get Madam and Young Master safely to their destination," Captain Himmel said loudly.

The battle continued.

Even though the guards managed to find the enemies hidden inside the forest, there was a limited number of guards. With the enemies scattered all around, they were unable to take care of them all in a short time.

The guards protecting by the side of the Madam and the Young Master died one after the other.

Even if they were at the top of their game, they would have been unable to stop the attack of the Soul Fracturing Arrows, much less so when they were physically drained.

Only Captain Himmel and a few other more powerful guards were able to stand their ground, but their conditions were getting worse as well.

Right then, the guards who had rushed into the forest were met with a strong counterattack.

A group of enemies suddenly appeared.

Their close combat abilities were just as good as these elite guards.

This caused a great loss to the guards.

Captain Himmel eventually realized something was wrong.

By right, it had been quite some time since the guards had entered the forest. They should have taken care of most of the hidden enemies by now.

However, arrows continued coming at them from the forest.

Suddenly, something happened!!!

Clang, clang, clang....

A series of sounds was heard in the air.

Captain Himmel and the remaining guards turned toward the sound.

They saw a rain of Soul Fracturing Arrows flying toward them.

There were at least hundreds of them.

Captain Himmel and the others were shocked to see so many Soul Fracturing Arrows.

They stood where they were, reeling from the shock as they watched the arrows coming at them. They were rendered motionless.

It was because they had given up.

How were they able to stop so many Soul Fracturing Arrows?

Even Captain Himmel, the strongest among them, began to give up the whole mission.

He knew that he would not be able to save the Madam and the Young Master from an attack with so many of these arrows.

It was a powerful attack from the Soul Fracturing Arrows.

The minor defense they had for the luxury carriage was nothing compared to the attack.

Soon, the carriage containing the Madam and the Young Master would be shot full of holes and both of them would die from the strong attack of the Soul Fracturing Arrows.

The time would come when the Madam and the Young Master would die.

It was not difficult to imagine what would be of the fate of these guards.

The Soul Fracturing Arrows came nearer and nearer.

Captain Himmel snapped out of it and shouted, “Madam, Young Master, run!!!”

The beautiful woman and the little boy inside the carriage heard Captain Himmel’s voice coming from outside.

The strong call of death was coming for them both.

“Aunt... Aunt Leticia!!!” Zion called out with a pale face.

“Don’t be afraid, Zion. I’m here. Everything will be alright,” Leticia comforted him gently.
