

Read I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2671

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2671-David's words directly sent Spencer into complete despair.

His eyes were lifeless. It was as if all his energy and life force had been sucked out of him.

His little remaining vitality was also leaving him at an accelerated rate.

He had obviously seen the hope of life but then, he was ruthlessly rejected. Not everyone could bear this emotional rollercoaster.

In addition to that, Spencer was tortured for more than a year.

He knew that no matter how much he promised or swore, it would still be useless. The other party would never lift the curse for him.

The ministers and maids quietly breathed a sigh of relief.

David was absolutely right.

Due to Spencer's extreme personality and ruthless nature, he was not only in the royal family but he was also powerful. After he plotted to harm his brother and logically became the emperor of the Great Quinn Empire, many people privately called him a tyrant. However, they only dared to get mad at him but not say anything out loud.

Anyone who dared to contradict him would end badly.

Over time, the name Tyrant began to spread.

However, everyone was calling him this behind his back, and did not dare to say it out loud.

David was the first person to call Spencer a tyrant in front of him.

No one in the entire Great Quinn Empire had such courage.

Looking at Spencer who was completely desperate and heartbroken, David knew that Spencer would die soon.

He could have survived for another year or so, but now that he was so triggered by David, he probably would not be able to survive even a month.

This situation was quite common.

For example, two ordinary people suffered from the same terminal disease.

The one who knew their illness and was in despair all day long would naturally not feel better, and would soon die of depression.

On the contrary, the other person had no idea they were sick so they lived their life happily every day and lived much longer than the first person.

The secret of ordinary people's longevity often had a lot to do with their mentality.

People with a good attitude would naturally live longer. On the other hand, people with a bad attitude would often get enraged because of trivial things, and ultimately, they would have to pay for it with their bodies.

This was almost the case with Spencer.

Before he met David, the doctors who treated him kept changing. However, he still did not despair even though they did not find the symptoms.

However, after David did this to him, his body was already exhausted and he could no longer endure this anymore.

The mouthful of blood he spat out was the best proof.

He lost all desire to live anymore.

The power of the curse began to erode Spencer's body.

In just a moment, the emperor of the Great Quinn Empire changed from a middle-aged man to a dying old man.

He might die at anytime.

An old doctor who was kneeling on the ground looked up to take a look at Spencer. As a doctor who had been practicing medicine for hundreds of years, he naturally knew what this meant, so he could not hold himself back from shouting in a trembling voice, “Y-Y-Your Majesty!”

When the others heard the sound, they all looked at Emperor Spencer.

They could all imagine the ending.

The emperor, who was just a middle-aged man, turned into an old man who was about to die.

This change stunned everyone.

“Your Majesty!”

“Your Majesty!”

One by one, they cried.

Spencer seemed to not hear the shouts of the ministers and sat there in a daze.

An aura of death surged out of his body.