I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2672-It indicated that the man who once stood at the pinnacle of the Great Quinn Empire was about to leave this world.

David looked on with cold eyes.

If he took action now, he could save Spencer.

However, David had no intention of doing so.

He was not joking.

Saving one person would lead to the death of more people, so it was better not to save them and let them fend for themselves.

David did not feel guilty that his appearance accelerated Spencer's death too.

After all, if he did not show up, these old doctors who examined Spencer's symptoms would all die.

Just as everyone watched Spencer's life countdown, David suddenly turned his head and looked towards a corner of the room.

About ten seconds later, they heard a strange voice in the room.

"How could this happen? According to my estimation, with your strength as the emperor of the Great Quinn Empire, you can still hold on for at least two years no matter how poorly you are. Why is it that it has only been one year and you have already reached the point of death? This is not right!"

After the voice stopped, a space crack appeared where David looked. Then, two figures walked out of the crack and their footsteps echoed on the ground.

Everyone also followed the sound and saw two strangers suddenly appearing.

Both of them were women. They were tall and were both wearing long white skirts, which showed their lithe figures.

At first glance, they looked like fairies descending to earth.

One of them looked to be in her twenties and the other was in her thirties.

The two women had the kind of stunning figures that were one in a million. Ordinary men would definitely fall in love with them unconsciously after seeing them.

The eyes of several ministers in the room almost popped out of their heads.

They held high positions in the Great Quinn Empire, so naturally, they had many women, but they had never seen such stunningly beautiful women.

The maids next to Spencer even felt ashamed compared to them.

Their bodies and appearances must pass the test to be favored by Spencer and become the maids beside the Emperor of the Great Quinn Empire.

However, compared to these two ethereal women, they felt very inferior.

Of course, no matter how stunning these two people were, they were no longer attractive to David.

At most, he would give them a couple more glances.

David's mind had long been so firm that it was difficult for external objects to move him, except for the people around him.

The others should not even think about moving him.

Spencer, who was sitting lifelessly on the bed, displayed a strong murderous intent in his eyes when he heard the woman's words.

That glance was formed after years of fighting and killing countless people. Then, the temperature in the room suddenly plunged.

This showed how strong his killing intent was.

He wished he could tear the person speaking in front of him into pieces.

Anyone with a sound mind could understand what the woman's words mean.

It was clear that the two were the ones who put the curse on Emperor Spencer of the Great Quinn Empire.

“Who are you? Why did you put such a vicious curse on me? What kind of sworn hatred do we have that makes you want to do this?” Spencer asked angrily as he looked at the two women who suddenly appeared.

Although the other party’s ability to tear apart space was far superior to his, he was already about to die at this time, so how could he care so much?

All he wanted to know was the reason why these two bitches cursed him.

“Your Majesty, honey, you have done too many bad things in your life, so naturally you can’t remember who I am, but for me, your face has been deeply engraved in my mind, so I’m always thinking of the day when I’ll get my revenge. Now, this day has finally come. What do you think? My master’s curse is very unbearable, isn’t it? How has it been this year?” The young woman said with a look of hatred.
