I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2688-If the other party went all out, it could still cause some trouble for them.

Others aside, the combat power of nearly ten Eternals was enough for everyone if they were to fight to the death.

Neither the coalition of the six top forces nor the Divine Snow Mountain had any intention of fighting again.

It seemed that they were waiting for something.

There were bursts of noise in the sky.

Boom boom boom!

There was a fierce battle going on there.

Everyone is waiting for the result of that battle.

After a while...

Boom!

A loud noise caused everyone on the top of the Divine Snow Mountain to shake.

Those with low strength even held their chests and felt difficulty breathing.

Then, a figure descended from the sky and landed in front of the disciples of the Divine Snow Mountain.

It was an old woman on crutches. She even had a trace of blood remaining at the corner of her mouth.

“Grandmaster!” All the disciples of the Divine Snow Mountain shouted in unison.

“Cough! Don’t worry, I’m fine! My old bones can still hold on,” the old woman said while coughing.

Not long after she descended, another figure descended from the sky and landed in front of the coalition of the six top forces.

It was a burly middle-aged man.

“Madam Nubia, since the Divine Snow Mountain has made a lot of contributions to the Boundless Galaxy over the years, I can spare you if you hand over that treasure, otherwise, today will be your day of destruction,” the middle-aged man said to the old woman.

“How delusional! Diablo, do you think I don’t know what’s going on in your head? First, you will use the Divine Snow Mountain to threaten me to hand over the treasure, and then, it will be easy for you to destroy the sect. You’re still not born yet when I was traveling unhindered within the Boundless Galaxy, you brat! Now, you want to deceive me with this little trick? You must be dreaming!” The old woman flatly refused.

She knew in her heart that no matter whether she handed over the treasure today or not, the Divine Snow Mountain would still not be able to escape if nothing unexpected happened.

Diablo Foley had been preparing for this day for a long time.

In fact, Diablo did not just break through to Sovereign Rank. He had already broken through hundreds of years ago, but he never told anyone.

Only recently he decided to expose his strength so he could gather other forces to besiege the Divine Snow Mountain together.

“Madam Nubia, I only gave you a chance because of the Divine Snow Mountain’s great contribution to the Boundless Galaxy. We can do it the easy way or the hard way. I won’t be merciful when I take action again. You are already old so it’s time for you to hand over the authority.”

“Diablo, the founder of the Divine Snow Mountain paid for that treasure with her life. Why should I give it to you? What qualifications do you have to own it?” Madam Nubia asked.

“You should know that the Divine Snow Mountain was not the only one who went to explore the ruin that suddenly appeared outside the Boundless Galaxy. A lot of the seniors of the Boundless Galaxy were also involved. In the end, only the grandmaster of the Divine Snow Mountain came back with the treasure. Who knows what happened in the ruins? Did they work together to obtain the treasure? Since then, the Divine Snow Mountain has prospered and firmly controlled the power of the Boundless Galaxy. Now it is time for a change.”

“Nonsense! The treasure was obtained by the founder of the Divine Snow Mountain at the cost of her life. It has nothing to do with anyone else so I can’t hand it over to you!”

“I don’t want to waste my breath with you anymore, Madam Nubia. I’ll ask you one last time, are you handing it over or not?” Diablo gradually lost patience.

Although both of them were partial Sovereign Rankers, he was in his prime and was obviously better than the aging Madam Nubia.

The only thing he needed to worry about was whether Madam Nubia would use that treasure.

“No!” Madam Nubia still refused.

She could not hand over the Divine Snow Mountain’s treasure no matter what.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2689-Two partial Sovereign Rankers were arguing.

From their conversation and the blood remaining at the corner of Madam Nubia’s mouth, it was proved that Diablo had the absolute upper hand in the battle just now.

Originally, the Divine Snow Mountain was no match for the coalition of the six top forces.

Madam Nubia, the Grandmaster, was their only hope.

As a result, even the strongest person in the Divine Snow Mountain was no match for the enemy.

All the disciples of the Divine Snow Mountain could not help but think sadly, ‘Is God trying to destroy the Divine Snow Mountain?’

‘Even if we hand over the treasure, the enemy may still kill and silence us.’

At the very back of the Divine Snow Mountain's troops, Lucia was healing Reva.

When the recovery was at 70 to 80%, Reva whispered, " Lucia, even Grandmaster is no match for Diablo. The Divine Snow Mountain may be doomed this time. If there is another fight later, I will create an opportunity for you to escape. You must try your best to escape among the chaos. Don't think about fighting and don't think about perishing with the Divine Snow Mountain. You are still young, so when you have strength in the future, you can rebuild the glory of the Divine Snow Mountain."

"Master, I won't leave! I want to fight side by side with you," Lucia refused.

"Nonsense! With your little strength, you staying here will only distract me. I can only fight with no restraints if you escape first," Reva scolded.

"But..."

Lucia wanted to say something else, but Reva interrupted her.

"No buts! It's settled. When the time comes, I will create an opportunity for you to escape. You must seize it, and remember, don't try to fight."

"Yes, Master," Lucia replied reluctantly.

She did not want to leave her master behind as her master had been very kind to her.

However, she also understood in her heart that she would only bring trouble to her master if she was here.

Her master was attacked by the enemy in the previous battle just because she wanted to save her.

Suddenly, an idea flashed in Lucia's mind. She seemed to remember something.

During this time, they were actively preparing to deal with the coalition of the six top forces in the Boundless Galaxy and they forgot one thing.

Lucia still vividly remembered everything that happened on Planet Brechen half a year ago.

When David left, didn't he give Master two wooden boxes, saying that if she opened them when she was in danger, the boxes would be able to relieve the crisis?

Later, the two of them studied the boxes for a long time and found nothing special about the wooden boxes. Therefore, they did not take it to heart and forgot about it.

Although neither the master nor the disciple said it out loud, they all thought that David was just looking for an excuse not to help.

After all, they only meet by chance.

David looked so young, so his strength was probably only at Eternal Realm Beginner Ruler Rank.

How powerful could something he made with his own hands be?

However, the Divine Snow Mountain had reached a critical time, so why not take it out and give it a try?

What if it worked?

"Master, do you remember what happened on Planet Brechen half a year ago?" Lucia suddenly asked.

"Of course, I remember. Why?" Reva was stunned after she said that.

Clearly, she remembered the two wooden boxes David gave them.

"Lucia, you mean the two wooden boxes that David gave us when he left?"

"Yeah!" Lucia nodded.

"Didn't we analyze them after he left? Those are just two ordinary wooden boxes. David was just finding an excuse not to help. Although he comes from a level 7 civilization, he is still young and has limited strength."

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2690-"Master, you didn't throw away those two wooden boxes, right?"

“Of course, not! It’s just that I don’t think they’re of any use. Our enemy is Diablo, a partial Sovereign Ranker. Even the Grandmaster is no match for him. He is still the strongest man in the Boundless Galaxy.”

“Master, look at the situation we’re in! This concerns the life and death of the entire Divine Snow Mountain. Regardless of whether it works or not, you can always give it a try, right? Even if it doesn’t work, we have nothing to lose, right?”

While the master and disciple were discussing, Diablo had completely lost his patience.

“Madam Nubia, if you still want to be stubborn, you can’t blame me for being heartless.”

After Diablo finished speaking, his Eternal Realm Partial Sovereign Rank energy burst out in full force, making everyone below Eternal Realm on the top of the Divine Snow Mountain feel breathless and almost suffocated.

This was the strength of an Eternal Realm Partial Sovereign Ranker, and only the people in Eternal Realm could resist it.

“Diablo, you are going too far!” Madam Nubia shouted.

The same energy burst out to fight against it.

The two of them exchanged blows in the air.

Boom!

The powerful shockwave spread, causing people on the top of the mountain to flip over instantly.

Some people with low strength were directly stunned to death.

Reva quickly retreated while protecting Lucia.

Even she could not get close to the battle of two partial Sovereign Rankers.

“Master, take out the wooden boxes David gave you now. Try unlocking the seal to see if it has any effect,” Lucia urged.

“Let’s wait a little longer,” Reva replied.

“Grandmaster will be defeated if we wait any longer.” Lucia became anxious.

“Don’t worry! Grandmaster and Diablo are both partial Sovereign Rankers. Even if Diablo is stronger, he can’t kill Grandmaster. Besides, Grandmaster still has a trump card that she hasn’t used.”

“What trump card?”

“Just watch! Grandmaster won’t be able to take this any longer”

The people on the top of the mountain retreated to the edge, leaving room for the two powerhouses representing the strongest combat power of the Boundless Galaxy to fight.

Madam Nubia and Diablo were at war again.

There was a constant rumble on the top of the mountain, causing everyone’s blood to surge.

All of them were clutching their chests in pain.

Lucia’s strength was also very low, but she was not affected because her Master Reva had been protecting her.

Diablo punched Madam Nubia away but did not pursue her. Instead, he stood in the air, exuding a domineering aura.

“Madam Nubia, you are already old and are no match for me. Accept your fate! Hand over the treasure or I will crush the Divine Snow Mountain.”

Madam Nubia showed a scary grin after she got up from the ground.

“Really? Diablo, I know what you are waiting for. If that’s the case, then I will do as you wish. I want to see how you can resist the treasure of the Divine Snow Mountain.”

As soon as she finished speaking, Madam Nubia raised her head and spurted out a mouthful of blood.

The blood condensed in the air, forming a strange rune that emitted bursts of red light.

Madam Nubia then kept changing her gestures, and finally, she stretched out her finger.

The blood runes flew towards the only raised peak on the top of the Divine Snow Mountain before disappearing in front of everyone.

Immediately afterward, the mountain peak rose from the ground. It emitted a red light and began to slowly change. Eventually, it transformed into a super giant ax.

Diablo looked at the bloody giant ax and his face immediately showed excitement.

He had been waiting for this moment so that was why he did not make any ultimate moves.

The Divine Snow Mountain's Divine Ax that suppressed luck finally appeared.
