I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2692-Then, everyone saw the bloody giant ax being lifted into the air bit by bit.

Although Madam Nubia tried her best to suppress it, it was still to no avail.

As the Divine Ax lifted off the ground little by little, the dust dispersed, revealing the entire battlefield.

At this time, Diablo had transformed into a giant and he was holding the bloody giant ax in his hands and raising it.

“Madam Nubia, I said that with your strength, it is difficult for you to exert the power of the Divine Ax, so you should leave it to me! I will bring to a great height of development,” Diablo said excitedly.

“Diablo, you must be dreaming! I will never give you the Divine Ax!” Madam Nubia was extremely furious.

The Divine Ax was the most precious treasure of the Divine Snow Mountain. It was obtained by the founder of the Divine Snow Mountain with her life so she could not let Diablo get away with this.

“Really? This is not up to you. Do you know why I haven’t exposed my strength as a Sovereign Ranker for so long to defeat or even kill you? I was just waiting for you to take out the Divine Ax. Now that I have the Divine Ax, I, Diablo Foley, will prosper with the help of the Divine Ax. I will leave the Boundless Galaxy and move unhindered across the universe. No one can stop me. Hahaha!” Diablo laughed crazily.

Madam Nubia tried her best to take back the Divine Ax, but the Divine Ax did not move at all because Diablo had caught its other end.

When his laughter died down, Diablo shouted again.

“Let go!”

At the same time, a power belonging to a Sovereign Ranker was injected into the Divine Ax.

The blood color it exuded became even brighter now.

Madam Nubia felt a sharp burning sensation in her hand that was holding the Divine Ax so she was forced to let go.

Diablo grabbed the Divine Ax and put his right hand on the handle. His energy surged again, making him look as if he reigned supreme in this universe.

The energy alone caused partial Sovereign Ranker Madam Nubia to keep retreating with a look of fear in her eyes.

“Diablo, you scoundrel, return the Divine Ax to me! It belongs to the Divine Snow Mountain!” Madam Nubia cursed.

She wanted to forcefully come forward to snatch the Divine Ax, but no matter how hard she tried, she could not get close to Diablo.

There was already a huge gap in strength between the two.

In addition, Diablo had the Divine Ax’s help at this time, so his strength had reached a higher level. How could Madam Nubia, a partial Sovereign Ranker, handle that?

“Hahaha! This is indeed a great weapon. With it, I will be even more powerful from now on and it will no longer be a dream for me to travel across the universe unhindered.”

Diablo laughed wildly.

Then, he said pretentiously, “With the Divine Ax in my hand, I own the world!

“Those who follow me will prosper, those who go against me will perish!”

As he spoke, he raised the Divine Ax above his head.

At this time, his energy had climbed to a peak that had never been reached before. At the same time, it even seemed as if it had the tendency to go even higher.

This surprised and delighted Diablo.

His confidence had reached an unprecedented level.

He thought that he was the one chosen by God and he was destined to walk out of the Boundless Galaxy and suppress all realms of the universe.

Facing such a lofty and unrivaled man, Madam Nubia felt a sense of sadness in her heart.

When Diablo exposed his Sovereign Rank strength, she knew something was wrong.

Now that even the Divine Ax, which could suppress luck in the Divine Snow Mountain, had been taken away, their only hope was gone. What else could they use to fight against him?

It was over.
