

Read I am a quadrillionaire

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2695-“Miss Marwood, you are too kind, but I have to tell you that this is not my main form. I’m just a clone so I can only exist for one hour. In other words, if you have any needs, you must tell me within this hour, or else I will disappear once the time passes!” David’s clone explained.

Reva and Lucia immediately understood.

They were still wondering how Master David suddenly came out of the wooden box. However, he turned out to be a clone.

Even so, this clone was so powerful.

He was no different from the main form.

His strength was also terrifying that he could easily block Diablo’s shocking blow with just one hand.

If the clone was so powerful, how strong would Master David be?

“Master David, I don’t have any needs. I just hope that you can help the Divine Snow Mountain take back our most precious treasure, the Divine Ax, from Diablo, and then drive all these people out so that we can have our peace back,” Reva said loudly.

She did not ask David to kill all those who besieged the Divine Snow Mountain.

After all, judging from their initial meeting, David was not the kind to just murder anyone.

If she made such a request rashly and upset Master David, then the gain would outweigh the loss.

It would be fine if they could protect the Divine Snow Mountain for now.

‘That simple?’

“Yeah!” Reva nodded.

After getting a positive answer, David stopped asking any more questions. He turned to look at Diablo and others and said slowly, “We don’t know each other and I don’t know any grudges between you guys. Plus, I don’t want to make things hard for you. You heard what Miss Marwood said, leave the Divine Ax of the Divine Snow Mountain behind, leave, and never step foot here again. Then we can end this right here, what do you think?”

“Who are you?” Diablo stared at David and asked in a deep voice.

“That’s none of your business and it never will be. Let me ask you one last time, do you agree with what Miss Marwood said? If you don’t agree, I will take action. Don’t blame me if someone is accidentally injured or killed by mistake,” David said seriously.

“Boy, I advise you not to meddle in other people’s business. There are some things that you can’t interfere with,” Diablo sneered.

Although he was in awe of David’s strength and how David could catch his full blow with his bare hands, who was he?

An Eternal Realm Sovereign Ranker.

The number one of Boundless Galaxy.

How would he be afraid of a mere young boy?

If he spared the Divine Snow Mountain today, how would he show his face in public again?

No matter what, he had to fight first.

It was not Diablo’s character to surrender without a fight.

“Does that mean you don’t agree? My time is limited and I don’t have time to talk nonsense with you. In this case, don’t blame me.”

David did not continue to talk nonsense. After he finished speaking, he blocked the bloody giant ax with his right hand, put his index and middle fingers together, and snapped them.

Ding!

An ear-piercing voice suddenly resounded throughout the crowd.

Everyone on the top of the Divine Snow Mountain was covering their ears in pain.

However, it was of no use.

The sound did not seem to enter the body through the ears.

No matter what they did, it could still cause all of their blood to surge.

Diablo only felt an irresistible force coming from his right hand holding the Divine Ax. Before he could let go, this force had already spread throughout his body.

All of his internal organs were being shaken violently.

“Pfft!”

He spurted out a mouthful of blood mixed with some internal organs.

His Eternal Golden Body vanished directly.

Diablo’s body fell to the ground. His legs bent forward and he fell knees first. At the same time, he was using his hands to support his falling body.

Diablo was so arrogant just now.

However, in just a blink of an eye, he was already kneeling on the ground in pain. Blood mixed with his own internal organs was flowing out of his mouth.

The ground was dyed red in a moment.

Such a shocking scene made everyone on the top of the Divine Snow Mountain drop their jaws in horror.
