

Read I am a quadrillionaire

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2702-In addition, pointed ears were also a feature of Elves.

One would not need to guess to know that they were Elves.

Now that he had met the Elves, David did not plan to continue his journey alone. Wouldn't it be more time-saving to have someone lead the way?

Moreover, Evie said that when he arrived at the Elven Forest, he could notify her or find an Elven woman to lead the way.

So David said loudly, "My dear Elven friends, I was invited to attend the Elves's sacrificial ceremony. I hope one of you can help me lead the way. Thank you!"

As soon as David finished speaking, he instantly heard whispers.

Soon, several Elven women with delicate faces appeared around David, surrounding him.

They were holding bows and arrows in both hands and they were all aimed at David. The tips of their arrows were coated in some kind of poison.

Everyone was wary of this strange man who suddenly appeared in the Elven Forest.

Those coming to participate in the Elves' sacrificial ceremony had to wait outside the Elven Forest until they were picked up by people sent by the Elves.

Those who suddenly appeared in the Elven Forest were not qualified to participate in the Elves' sacrificial ceremony, but they were unwilling and wanted to have a look, so they decided to force their way in.

The Elves encountered many such people during this period and they were all expelled from the Elven Forest.

“Since you said you’re here to participate in the Elves’ sacrificial ceremony, then please show us your invitation!” One of the Elven women asked indifferently.

Every force invited by the Elves to participate in the sacrificial ceremony would receive an invitation from the Elves.

The number of participants would be determined based on their strength.

The stronger the force, the more quota they would have.

However, David had just come to Leila from Earth and he did not have an invitation. He answered honestly, “Well... I don’t have an invitation.”

“You’re not eligible to participate in the Elves’ sacrificial ceremony if you don’t have an invitation. Please go back to where you came from. If you refuse to leave, we will take necessary measures to kick you out.”

After the leading Elven woman finished speaking, the others pulled their bows back. If David made any unusual move, they would immediately release the arrows to attack him.

While several Elven women were talking to David, more and more sparse voices emerged around him.

In less than a moment, hundreds of Elven women had gathered around him.

They all pointed their bows and arrows at David.

Apparently, they had already informed the others when they discovered David.

David did not show the slightest panic as he was being pointed at with hundreds of arrows covered with strong poison.

With his Supreme level 10 Body, even if he stood still and allowed these Elven women to shoot, they would not be able to hurt him at all.

Those bows and arrows probably could not even break open his skin.

“Don’t get me wrong! I was really invited to attend the ceremony, but I live far away and they couldn’t send me the invitation,” David explained.

“No one is allowed to enter the Elven Forest without an invitation. This is a rule set by our queen so no one can violate it. Please leave, otherwise, we will not be polite to you anymore.”

Seeing hundreds of Elven women around him preparing to shoot, David shouted quickly, “Stop, stop! I have a way to prove that I was invited. Everyone, wait a moment. I will contact the person who invited me right away. You definitely know her.”

After saying that, he used his system-modified communication device to contact Evie, the Elven Princess.

Soon, a figure appeared in the sky.

Then Evie’s voice of surprise could be heard.

“David! You are here?”

“Princess Evie, I am already here, but I was stopped. Please tell them to let me in,” David replied.

As soon as he finished speaking, hundreds of Elven women around him had already put away their bows and arrows. Then, they respectfully greeted Evie, “Your Royal Highness!”

Evie glanced around and said, “Ladies, David is our distinguished guest. Please bring him in.”

“Yes! Your Royal Highness, wait a moment! We will bring Master David in right away.”