

Read I am a quadrillionaire

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2703-After ending the conversation with Evie, David looked at the Elven women around him.

Their hostility was gone.

Instead, they were showing him respect from the bottom of their hearts.

Evie was the Elven Princess so she had a transcendent status. Since the princess said that this person was a distinguished guest of the Elves, it must be true.

“Master David, please forgive us for being disrespectful. Because the Elves’ sacrificial ceremony is approaching, many who were not invited are doing their best to enter the Elven Forest during this period. We had no choice,” the Elven woman explained politely.

“It’s fine! It’s my fault that I broke into the Elven Forest without permission. I feel sorry that I caused so much trouble to everyone,” David responded politely.

The Elven women around David looked at him with curious eyes.

This human’s identity was clearly not simple if Princess Evie was referring to him as a distinguished guest.

Otherwise, he would not deserve such treatment by the princess.

Yet, generally speaking, when the heirs of Leila’s big forces came to the Elven Forest, they all came in huge groups. Almost no one came alone.

Moreover, each of them was arrogant by nature and had their eyes above their heads. They would never speak so politely.

It was the first time they met such a good-tempered big shot, so the Elven women were very curious about David.

Moreover, David left a deep impression on them.

“Master David, thank you for your understanding. To be honest, you are the first big shot to understand us in this way. Thank you!” The Elven woman in the lead bowed to David.

“Thank you, Master David, for your understanding!” the other Elven women said in unison. At the same time, they also bowed in thanks.

“No, no, no! I am not worthy of that. I’m not a big shot, I’m just an ordinary person who happens to know Princess Evie.” David quickly stopped them.

However, the Elven women refused to believe him.

Those who knew Princess Evie were not ordinary people.

So, they were sure that David was not ordinary.

As for why David came alone and broke into the Elven Forest without saying anything, maybe he liked to be alone, which was not unusual.

“Master David, please come with me. I will take you into the depths of the Elven Forest. That is where the Elves live.

Now, many powerful people from Leila have arrived and I believe you will have some acquaintances.”

David then followed an Elven woman deep into the Elven Forest.

The other Elven women dispersed and returned to their post to continue their duties.

On the other side, Elven Princess Evie jumped in excitement after she learned that David had arrived in the Elven Forest. She immediately told her mother, Elven Queen Isa.

When David arrived at the Elves’ residence, Isa and Evie were already waiting.

Seeing David from a distance, Evie couldn’t help but rush to him.

“David!” Evie chirped happily.

“Princess Evie, long time no see!” David responded with a smile.

“I thought you weren’t coming, David!”

“Why would I not come? Since I promised you, I will definitely come as long as nothing unexpected happens.”

“I knew you’re a man of your word!”

“Of course!”

As the two exchanged pleasantries, Elven Queen Isa also came over.

“Welcome, Master David! Please forgive me if there is any lack of hospitality.”

“Queen Isa, you are too kind.”

“Master David, you are our distinguished guest. So if you have any requests, I will satisfy you.”