

Read I am a quadrillionaire

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2705-After David arrived at the Elven Forest, Evie stayed with him and enjoyed the scenery.

This caused a lot of discussion within the Elves.

Everyone was wondering who that kid was.

He actually had the Elven Princess accompany him personally.

One must know that the Elven Princess could not have any relationship with a man, otherwise, she would not be able to inherit the position of Elven Queen.

So, some senior and elders of the Elves who did not know what was going on, gathered together and went directly to Queen Isa.

“What’s wrong?” Isa asked, looking at the seniors.

“Your Majesty, we came to you to ask who Master David is?” asked a senior of the Elves.

“Why are you asking this question suddenly?”

“Because we want to know who he is and how he can make Princess Evie accompany him like that.”

“I see. I agreed for Evie to accompany David and Evie doesn’t mind too, so that’s why she went.”

“Your Majesty, the Elven Princess cannot have any relationship with a man. This is an insult to the Elves. I hope you can ask Princess Evie to come back. Now that the sacrificial ceremony is approaching, Leila’s many powerful people are here. Once word gets out, the Elves will be so embarrassed,” a stubborn elder said.

“Heh. Insult? Haven’t we been insulted enough over the years? We were captured like prey and then sold to various places in Leila, where we were tortured to death. Tell me, what could be worse than this kind of insult? Why didn’t you come forward back then?” Isa said with a sneer.

She had long been dissatisfied with these stubborn elders who took advantage of their seniority.

They held onto those old and obsolete ideas, saying it was for the Elves' sake.

When Isa first took over as queen, she wanted to have free rein and make big changes to the situation of the Elves, but she was stopped by these stubborn elders.

Nothing was allowed and as a result, Isa was very restrained.

Later, she had no option but to directly confront the Elders' Council. She would either resign as the Elven Queen or remain in power, but the only condition was that everyone in the clan had to heed her.

At that time, there was no superior candidate for the Elven Queen. Ultimately, after deliberation by the Elders' Council, Isa was permitted to remain as the Elven Queen, and the Elves were required to follow her decisions.

This led to a series of reforms of the clan, and finally, the Elves became what they were today.

If there had been another candidate for Queen, the Elves' probably won't have achieved what they have thus far.

In short, it would have been impossible for them to exceed Isa's current achievements.

As long as that group of stubborn elders and the Elders' Council were around, the Elves as a clan would never develop.

That was why Isa hated them.

They wanted to be involved in everything.

The stubborn elder who questioned Isa was speechless.

'Your Majesty, please calm down. We just want to know what your purpose is in letting Princess Evie accompany this so-called Master David?' Another senior member asked.

“Why? Do I need to report everything I do to you? Just mind your own business and don’t interfere with my affairs. You only need to know that everything I do is for the Elves.” Isa said in a deep and calm voice.

Well...

The old elders looked at each other and did not know what to do.

Isa was much better than those Elven Queens from before as she had truly made a huge contribution to the Elves.
