

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2722-It was deep enough for her to give up everything to make the Vingean pay.

“Evie, don’t worry! If we get revenge, I will have no other regrets in this life. At that time, I will pass on the position of Elven Queen to you, and then go to David to confess and atone for my sins,” Isa said seriously.

“Mother! I don’t want this! Can’t we find other ways to get revenge?” Evie could not hold back her tears anymore. ’

If she followed her mother’s wishes, she would lose two of the people closest to her.

One was David, who saved her and gave her a new life when she was at her most desperate.

The other one was her mother, who raised her since she was a child and taught her many things.

Those two could be regarded as the most important people in Evie’s life.

She did not want to lose either of them.

“Evie, don’t be naive. If there were any other way, I wouldn’t have rushed over desperately upon seeing the tiniest glimmer of hope. I don’t even know if we can succeed. If David’s identity is not as amazing as we, particularly with regards to the the forces behind him, then revenge will be an afterthought,” Isa sighed.

“Mother...”

Evie wanted to say something but she did not know what to say.

The mother and daughter knew each other very well and knew what the other was thinking.

Next, Isa began to prepare intensively for her revenge plan.

She wanted to create the right time and the right place for David and the Vingean to collide.

At the same time, Evie had to explain to David the bloody feud between the Elves and the Vingean on the side so that David would be overlooking with sympathy.

In addition to the Vingean’s invasion, there was a high probability that the two parties would have a conflict.

Once the conflict broke out, everything else would fall into place.

Isa became more confident in this plan when she determined that David’s background was much stronger than that of the Loughy family.

Evie would still frequently accompany David, but the two of them would chat in the tree house and not venture out.

A week later, Isa told Evie to take David to a designated location.

It was close to the junction where the Elves and the Vingean were located. Moreover, it was also a pleasant place with beautiful scenery, so it was nice to visit.

After struggling for a long time, Evie finally chose to take David there.

She had no choice since she was the Elven Princess.

She had to do something for the Elves.

She had to do this even if it was against her personal wishes.

Evie went to the tree house where David lived.

“David, did you sleep well last night?” Evie asked.

“Not bad. Say, the Elven Forest is a really good place. After coming here, I feel a lot more relaxed,” David replied with a

“That’s good! If you like it here, you can spend more time here.”

“Not now! After the sacrificial ceremony, I still have other things to deal with. I will definitely come here again when I have time in the future.”

David thought that after settling the matter with Lu’an, he would return to Earth and wait for Celia and others to enter Eternal Realm. After that, he would bring them to the Elven Forest. He believed they would like it here.

Especially the Grand Canyon.

They felt that after Celia and the others came here, they would not want to leave.
