

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2728-She did not expose David.

Since he was making excuses to help the Elves, Evie naturally had to go with the show and not do anything to expose him.

This would not be good for the Elves either.

“Okay! Evie, please don’t be so polite to me. We are friends, so we should help each other if its within our capabilities. And

I really can’t stand the Vingeans’ trafficking of Elven women. In my opinion, this is extremely disrespectful to all lives. As long as you’re not lying about this, I will definitely punish the Vingeans severely.”

David looked serious at the end.

Just like he said, if it was true that the Vingeans had been secretly abducting and selling Elven women as Evie said, they should be punished.

If others dared not do it, then he would do it himself.

Did the Vingeans think they could do anything they wanted?

“David, don’t worry! I swear to God that I have not told a lie or exaggerated anything about the Vingeans. It is all true. The Elves have been troubled by the Vingeans until this day. Unfortunately, the territories between the two clans are adjacent to each other, and we are weaker than Vingeans, so we really have no way to deal with them. That’s why we can only avoid them as much as possible to prevent more people from being captured.”

Evie paused, took a deep breath, and continued, “And a large part of how the Vingeans can develop to the scale it is today is due to us. You must know that Elven women are worth a lot in Leila’s underground auction and the Vingeans capture a lot of Elven women every year to gain huge profits which they use to strengthen themselves.”

After saying this, Evie showed a sad expression.

The Vingeans took advantage of their geographical advantages to secretly capture Elven women, sell them to various underground auction houses in Leila, and then use the profits to develop themselves.

At the same time, they kept abducting more Elven women.

The Vingeans grew in strength by exploiting this vicious cycle.

Therefore, the Elves had no choice but to shrink their range of activities.

Fortunately, after Isa became the Elven Queen, she went out and made friends with all the major forces.

Only after getting recognition from all the major forces in Leila did the Vingeans gradually become more restrained and did not dare to be too blatant with their crimes.

Otherwise, the rounding up of tens of thousands of Elven women at once would definitely have continued.

“Evie, I believe you, otherwise, I wouldn’t stay here anymore. Let’s leave quickly! Don’t keep Queen Isa waiting. According to her plan, she should be using the Elven women to attract the Vingeans just in time for me to discover it. It will be bad if we’re late and cause the Elven women to be captured,” David urged.

Of course, he trusted Evie.

It was impossible for such a naive little girl to lie. Moreover, David believed his eyes.

After hearing what David said, Evie began to become anxious.

There was indeed a time limit to her mother’s plan.

They originally had more than enough time, but it was wasted because Evie got preoccupied along the way, and now she had wasted so much time here.

If they did not resume the journey, they might not be able to catch up.

If the Vigeans captured the Elven women sent to seduce them, things would be very troublesome.

“Oksy! David, thank you for trusting me. Let’s set off quickly now!”

“Evie, we have already wasted a lot of time. Next, you should tell me the direction and I will take you. It will be faster this way.”

“Okay! David, our destination is in that direction.” Evie pointed to the right in front of them and said.

David did not say anything. He held Evie’s hand and their bodies disappeared in an instant as they moved quickly in the direction that Evie had pointed.
