I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2768-David, Isa, and Evie then disappeared from above the Misty Forest.

After a while, one of the Vingean elders lifted his head to the sky and sighed.

“We’re sinners! Sinners! Without Eternals, how can the Vingean survive in Leila? Is God trying to wipe us out?”

The Vingean who fell from Eternal Realm desperately tried to move their bodies and regain their strength.

However, it did not work.

Eternal Realm was right in front of them, but a gate was blocking the way. No matter how hard they pushed, the gate would not budge.

“It’s over! It’s over!!!”

All those above Eternal Realm collapsed to the ground.

They could not accept that their strength had fallen below Eternal Realm.

A reduction in life span would also accompany the decline in strength.

Only an Eternal could have a lifespan of an epoch.

Now that their strength had declined, everyone could feel themselves aging rapidly.

It would not be long before they died.

Countless earth-shattering cries resounded throughout the Misty Forest.

However, this was none of David’s business anymore.

At that moment, the three returned to the Elven Forest.

“Ms. Isa, I have dispersed the fog of the Misty Forest and planted a bloodline seal on the Vingean. No matter how talented they are, they will never be able to break through to Eternal Realm. You can rest assured of the future. They can't threaten you anymore," David said.

'Thank you, Master David!'

'Thank you, David!'

Isa and Evie thanked him at the same time.

"You're welcome! It's a small matter. If you need anything, just ask Evie to contact me! As long as it's within my capabilities and doesn't violate my principles, I will do my best to satisfy you."

"Okay, we got it, Master David!"

"Alright, very well. Sylvio still has important things waiting for me, so I'll leave first. Goodbye!"

"Goodbye, Master David! Have a safe journey!"

"Goodbye, brother David! Have a safe journey!"

David left the Elven Forest under Isa and Evie's reluctant gazes.

Long after he left, Evie was still standing there, staring blankly at the spot where he had stood.

Seeing her daughter like that, Isa could not help but remind her, "Sigh... Evie, stop thinking about it. You are not from the same world."

"Mother, I know. David is an Overlord. I am afraid only Empress Elora is worthy of him in the entire Leila," Evie whispered.

"It's good that you know! Did you see Empress Elora's tone and eyes when she was talking to Master David? Based on my intuition, the two must have an extraordinary relationship."

"Of course, it's extraordinary! How can normal people address each other like that? But since Empress Elora was calling Master David Davey, there must be something between them.”

“Evie, regardless of whether David is interested in you, just forget it! How will Empress Elora allow other women to go after her man? If you persist in your obsession, you will be like a moth drawn to a flame.”

“Mother, please stop. I am aware. How amazing is Empress Elora? How can I, an ordinary girl, compare to her?”

“Let’s go! Let’s take our people to the Vingean and regain all the resources they have taken away from us. We’ll let them know that if they want to survive in the future, they can only surrender to the Elves.” A sinister energy emerged in Isa’s eyes.

She hated the Vingean with all her heart.

However, now that David had set a bloodline seal on the Vingean, they were not a threat, and the Elves would not exterminate them.

Keeping them alive would be more painful than death.

“Okay! Mother, let’s go!”

The two then took some of the elites of the Elves to the Misty Forest.

Without the fog blocking their sight, they soon arrived at the Vingean’s lair.

The Vingean had no Eternals, so the Elves managed to control them effortlessly.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2769-Somewhere in Leila.

There was a luxurious palace floating in the void.

Five people sat together in the palace.

They were Sylvio, Elora, Valentin, Drogo, and David, who just arrived.

Looking at the four Overlords among the five Leila rulers, David turned to Valentin and Drogo.

He had already met Elora and Sylvio.

Valentin and Drogo were also looking at David curiously.

How many years had it been since a new Overlord emerged in Leila?

It might be hundreds of epochs!

Unexpectedly, one had suddenly appeared.

Was he here to fill Lufian's position?

"Come, let me introduce Valentin and Drogo."

Sylvio looked at Valentin and Drogo and continued, "This is the David I told you about."

"Hello, Emperors!" David stood up and greeted them politely.

"David, don't be so polite! Don't use any honorifics. Just call us by our names.

Only Sylvio here is the true emperor. We're just small potatoes," Valentin said with a smile.

"Yes, Sylvio is the true emperor. We can just get along as equals," Drogo added.

David thought for a while and said, "Alright, I'll just call you by your names then."

"That's fine! Just don't call us Emperors. It sounds very awkward."

Since the three of them just met, they chatted briefly. Then David went straight to the topic and asked Sylvio, "Sylvio, you said Lufian has appeared. Where is he?"

The other three also cast questioning glances.

They all knew about Lufian's appearance but did not know where he was or whether he went on a rampage.

"Lufian was seriously injured when he destroyed the Robotias, so he should be recuperating somewhere. After the Robotias were destroyed, a huge black hole appeared. I've sent people to monitor it, and I got news not long ago that Lufian was spotted emerging from the black hole," Sylvio explained.

"Did he go berserk?" David asked again.

"No idea." Sylvio shook his head.

The people he sent to monitor only saw a figure in the black hole they suspected was Lufian. They were still unsure whether it was him.

"What should we do now? Go directly to where Lufian was spotted?"

David wanted to try out the strength of a Heavenly Overlord now.

He wanted to know if his 81 clones could beat Lufian.

If not, he had to find a way to quickly get more than one million lavish points and upgrade your Body to Heavenly Overlord Rank.

Valentin and Drogo heard David's words and looked at each other as if they were looking at an idiot.

What did they hear?

Did this kid say he wanted to find Lufian?

Youngsters were fearless indeed.

Lufian was a mighty Heavenly Overlord, and even Sylvio was not a match for him.

Once he went berserk, no one could defeat him.

He, a kid who just became an Overlord for the first time, actually said he wanted to find Lufian.

Where did he get his confidence?

Valentin and Drogo both felt that David might not be very smart.

Otherwise, he would never say anything like that.

“Let’s leave Lufian’s affairs aside for the time being. As long as he doesn’t cause damage to Leila, don’t provoke him.

Lufian is no longer the Lufian he used to be now that he has fused his souls.

The most important thing for us now is to help Elora restore her body. The soul has too many restrictions for Elora,” Sylvio said.

“Okay! Then let’s not go to Lufian for the time being and restore Pebbles’ body.”

David nodded.

After getting the divine tree sap that could replenish blood essence, he was so eager to test a Heavenly Overlord’s combat power that he almost forgot to help

Elora restore her body.

Pebbles?

Valentin and Drogo were stunned when they heard the name.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2770-Was he talking about Elora?

Since when did Elora change her name to Pebbles?

The two were confused.

They could tell that Sylvio, Elora, and David were very close to each other.

However, they had never heard about this Overlord before.

It was as if he came out of thin air.

“What about you? Do you have anything you want to say?” Sylvio looked at Valentin and Drogo.

“No! We’ll let you make the arrangements, Sylvio!” they both said simultaneously.

“Okay! Then everyone, follow me! Let’s help Elora restore her body first. I have finished setting up the formation.

David, I will teach you how to maintain the formation later. It cannot be interrupted. Otherwise, once the formation stops, the restoration will also fail, and Elora’s soul will be severely damaged again.” Sylvio said seriously.

“Understood!” The three replied at the same time.

“Thank you, everyone!” Elora said.

Sylvio had set up an extremely complex formation on a planet.

In the center of the planet’s formation, a figure sitting cross- legged.

It was Elora’s soul.

Now, she was about to restore her body for the second time.

The failure of the first restoration had caused considerable damage to Elora’s soul.

If it failed again this time, the consequences would be more serious than the first time.

Outside the planet, Sylvio, David, Valentin, and Drogo were working hard to recompose themselves.

Sylvio and David were fine.

However, Valentin and Drogo had not recovered from their injuries fully, so they needed more time.

“David, keep the formation running according to the method I taught you. You have no problems, right?” Sylvio’s voice penetrated the void and reached David’s ears.

“Sylvio, don’t worry! There’s no problem at all,” David said confidently.

“Okay! Valentin, Drogo, what about you two? How’s your preparation?”

“Sylvio, we are ready! We can start at any time!” Valentin and Drogo replied at the same time.

“Very good! I believe you all know that when Elora restored her body the first time, it was interrupted by the Soul

Devourers and the Robotias, and that caused serious damage to her soul. The Soul Devourers and the Robotias will not appear this time, so there’s no reason for us to fail.”

“Understood!” The three of them replied together.

“Then let’s start now!”

After Sylvio finished speaking, he shouted.

“Rise!”

The formation of the planet was activated.

Beams of light appeared and shot into the void.

The four powerful Overlords could maintain the operation of the formation under normal circumstances, and there would not be too much of a problem, especially with the two partial Heavenly Overlords, Sylvio, and David, present.

Time passed little by little.

Soon, Elora’s restoration was 90% complete.

During the process, except for the injured Valentin and Drogo getting a little tired, they did not encounter any other problems, and no one came to cause trouble.

Valentin and Drogo were a little shocked to see how relaxed David was.

Although their injuries had not healed, they were both Ancient Overlords.

David just stepped into Overlord Realm, so how could he have such a strong accumulation?

This question arose in the two of them uncontrollably.

Did this kid really just become an Overlord?

Perhaps it was not that simple!

When this was over, they needed to find an opportunity to ask.

Just when everyone thought Elora's restoration was about to come to a successful end, a huge energy suddenly emerged.

The four of them were shocked at the same time. They knew it was Lufian.
