I am a quadrillionarire chapter 2793-"David, stop talking nonsense! I don't need you to teach me how to do anything, and you stole my wife. Isn't this a big feud? I will kill you! And after I get Elora, I will completely resolve my inner demon. Then, nothing will hold me down anymore, and I, Lu an, will be able to roam freely in this vast universe!" Lu an laughed as he spoke.

David shook his head helplessly on hearing this.

Since he did not want to do this the easy way, David would do this the hard way! He would de nitely take Lu an's life next time.

"Lu an, I won't offend anyone unless they offend me. If you want to take my life, you have to be prepared to be killed. Besides, there's no relationship between you and Elora. It's just your wishful thinking, so how did I steal your wife?" "You want to kill me? David, I'm not afraid to tell you that you only had a chance because my injuries have not yet healed. You won't have a chance next time. If you hadn't appeared, it wouldn't take long before Elora agreed to be with me. This all happened because of you! You're the culprit!" Lu an snapped and became emotional again.

Initially, the ve Leila rulers were doing well, and everything was improving.

However, the Robotias and the Soul Devourers came to cause trouble, and then

David came to destroy his relationship with Elora.

As a result, things began to develop in an uncontrollable direction.

He, Lu an, was the real victim.

In the end, everyone stood against him.

"Whatever, but you have to think this through. If you come back to Leila to cause trouble next time, I will kill you." After David nished speaking, a murderous intent ashed across his eyes.

"Hahaha! You? How dare a mere partial Heavenly Overlord like you threaten me? If you can kill me, why don't you kill me now? I think you've also reached your limit! David, you think too highly of yourself. Even if you have the three ancient weapons and a heaven-defying technique, you are still just a partial Heavenly Overlord. If I weren't afraid that my injuries would affect my future progress, I would kill you now." Lu an laughed.

"Lu an, you're right. I have indeed reached my limit, but I'm afraid you can't kill me. Of course, you can risk everything and give it a try. After all, this is your last and best chance. If you miss it, you will not have it anymore."

"David, I told you this is the end of it. I will not attack you again, so you should live well. Enjoy your last moments.

When I come back after I've healed my injuries, it will be your death day. Before this, you can run away like a coward, but if you do this, Leila will disappear from the universe under my rage. It's up to you," Lu an threatened.

He was afraid that David would leave Leila early.

If he did, where would he nd David in the vast universe?

Once David became a Heavenly Overlord, it would be truly terrifying. He had the top three Ancient Weapons, plus the heavendefying Cloning that would produce dozens of Heavenly Overlord clones that would self-destruct if they could not win the battle.

Who else could rival him if not the Almighty?

If David became a Heavenly Overlord, he would be almost invincible among other Heavenly Overlords.

Even peak Heavenly Overlords would not be able to defeat him.

Therefore, Lu an must kill David before he becomes a Heavenly Overlord.

Otherwise, no one would be able to restrain him.

So, the only way was to threaten David with Leila's entire being.

"I'll wait." David only replied with two simple words.

"Okay! We'll meet again later! I hope you won't run away then."

nished speaking, he looked deeply at David as if to remember this After Lu an person. Then he disappeared as his body turned into dots of starlight.

David stood where he was.

After he felt that Lu an had indeed left, he let out a long breath.

"Phew!"

The clone holding the Sun Bow dissipated, and the bow fell into his hands.

David put it away, together with the God of Thunder Hammer and the Evil Splitting Sword.

Then, David seemed to have lost all energy. He almost could not hold himself

The tearing pain in his brain caused him to gasp for air.

He was just pretending to be calm just now.

This battle was de nitely the most dif cult and dangerous one he had ever experienced.

He looked like he had the upper hand, and Lu an never once touched him, but only David, the person involved, knew the dangers involved.

Lu an was a true Heavenly Overlord.
