I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2825-vid did not disturb the girl and just quietly listened.

As Peach talked more, David captured some of the key points.

For example, the relationship between the two of them.

He figured they were lovers, and he had no idea why he fell asleep for so long.

The other party had been taking care of himself silently, and now she seemed to have no choice but to leave.

Therefore, he could only continue to sleep here.

Now that she was here, she came to say goodbye. That was why she was crying so sadly.

David tried hard to recall everything before, but it was of no use.

He could not remember anything except for his name.

Peach cried for a long time. Then, she felt it was time for her to leave.

When she put her hands on David's chest to support her body, she saw his face.

Two bright eyes were staring back at her.

As their eyes met, Peach was stunned, and her mind went blank.

David did not know what to say at this time. He could not even remember the other person's name.

The two of them stared at each other for a full minute before David took the lead and said, "Thank you."

"You... You... W-When did you wake up?" Peach stammered.

"Just now," David replied.

“A-Are you hungry? I-I’m going to get you something to eat.” Peach looked a little flustered.

‘Thank you, I’m not hungry!’

David no longer needed to eat since he was already a partial Heavenly Overlord.

‘Then... Do you feel unwell? I’ll go find my grandpa right away.’

“No! I feel fine! It’s just that I’ve slept for so long that I don’t remember anything except that my name is David Lidell,” David said truthfully.

“Huh? You lost your memory?” Peach’s eyes widened.

‘Yeah, but I think it’s temporary. I’ll get it back soon.’

“Um, David, wait a moment. I’m going to get Grandpa so he can take a look at you.”

After Peach finished speaking, she quickly stood up and left.

She did not know how to face David, especially since she had just spilled everything in her heart to him. How much did he hear?

Peach turned around, and her heart was pounding.

Then, she blushed.

It turned out his name was David.

Not only was he handsome, but his voice was also nice.

After leaving the cellar, Peach searched the house but could not find her grandfather.

Just as she was about to go out, Cy came back from outside.

“Peach!” Cy called out.

“Grandpa, come with me quickly! I need you!” Peach cried anxiously.

“What’s wrong? Peach, what happened?” Cy wondered.

“David is awake! He only remembers his own name and nothing else. Grandpa, please go and have a look at him.”

She pulled Cy towards the cellar.

Her words left Cy confused.

David?

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2826-‘Who’s awake?’ Cy wondered.

‘Wait.

‘Could it be...’ Cy shuddered.

He asked in shock, “Peach, are you saying the man we saved from Lake Pescado is awake?”

“Yes! His name is David, but he doesn’t remember the rest. He seems to have lost his memory. Grandpa, go and take a look!” Peach answered as she walked.

When Cy heard that the man was awake, he quickened his pace and followed Peach to the cellar.

At first, he thought that Peach was just hallucinating from sadness, but when he saw the man sitting there on the bed, he believed it.

He thought to himself, ‘Is this kid really awake?’

‘He’s been asleep for over half a year, and yet he’s still fine?’

‘This is a miracle!’

‘He’s indeed a big shot that knows how to fly, so that’s why he’s fine not eating or drinking for more than half a year.’ David turned and looked at the two of them.

‘Thank you for taking care of me during this time. For some reason, I can’t remember anything. May I know what you’re called?’ David asked politely.

“David, my name is Peach, and this is my grandfather Cy. You’re in Village Pescado,” Peach replied.

“I see. Miss Peach, Old Master Cy, thank you for caring for me.”

“David, you’re welcome! In fact, we didn’t take much care of you. You didn’t eat, drink, or defecate this entire time. Even if you haven’t washed your body for half a year, you’re still clean. We only spent some effort transporting you here,”

Peach said.

“Can you tell me what happened?”

“Sure.”

So, Peach told David what happened.

In the end, Cy chimed in as well.

They told David that because of his arrival, the fish in Lake Pescado were almost extinct. Therefore, Village Pescado no longer had a food source. Since they were about to run out of food, they were preparing to migrate.

Yet, this was not important to Cy.

He must tell David about the difficulties faced by Village Pescado.

If this guy could solve the problems Village Pescado encountered, they would not have to move, and Peach would not have to wait on Jagger.

It would be a joyous result!

David was silent for a while before he apologized, “I see. I’m sorry for causing trouble to Village Pescado.”

He never expected to fall from the sky and land in Lake Pescado.

He did not know the grandfather and granddaughter, and he was not dating Peach.

Then, why did she lie on his chest and say all those things?

Did she fall for him because she had taken care of him every day?

David shook his head, feeling a little amused.

She even formed feelings for a vegetable.

David must admit this cute little girl was pretty strange.

“No need to apologize, but if you can...”

Cy wanted to ask David to help solve the food shortage problem in Village Pescado.

Yet, before he could finish, Peach interrupted him.

“Grandpa, David just woke up and lost his memories. You should check his body first and see if you can help him regain his memory.”

“Alright!”

Cy nodded. Then, he walked to the bed and began to examine David.

David did not resist either.

He also wanted to regain his memory as soon as possible.

He wanted to know where he came from, where he wanted to go, and why he fell into Lake Pescado.

After some examinations, Cy found that David’s body was in great shape, and nothing was wrong with it. It was even doing better than expected.

As for why he lost his memories, Cy only had limited medical skills, so he had no clue.
