I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2841-Although battles were happening everywhere in Village Pott, the final battle here was what really determined the outcome.

Behind Five were the powerhouses sent by Hive City to help him.

Meanwhile, on Ouro's side was the secret power he had cultivated, including the Avian Troops hovering in the sky.

"Miss, please give me a helping hand to avenge my father," Five said to the veiled woman beside him.

"Don't worry! Since I'm here, Ouro can't run away." Jade took two steps forward and looked at Ouro.

At this moment, Ouro felt as if a poisonous snake was targeting him, and cold air rushed from the soles of his feet to the top of his head.

Did Five hire this woman to help him?

Who was she?

She was so strong!

She was probably the one behind the Blackwing's disappearance.

Only such a strong person could steal a Blackwing silently.

Jagger stood behind his father, Ouro. When he saw Five speaking to the veiled woman respectfully, he felt a chill in his back and a cold sweat on his forehead.

Jade was the helper Five hired from the big city.

No wonder she could stay on the top floor of Nightly Desires.

Fortunately, he did not use force on her. Otherwise, he would not even know how he died.

“Who are you? Why do you want to get involved in our internal affairs? Are you not worried that you’ll die here?” asked Ouro.

“You’re just a mere village chief, and you have no right to know who I am. If you’re smart, hand over the village to me, and then I can consider sparing your life. Do you think you have the power to kill me?”

“What a joke! What have I not experienced in my life? There is no such thing as surrender in my world!”

“In that case, you can’t blame me. You are asking for this.”

“Come on! My name is not Ouro Pott if I utter a single complaint!”

Jade sneered and floated towards Ouro. At the same time, all the powerhouses behind her took action and rushed towards Ouro’s people.

Ouro was not afraid and charged forward with the people behind him.

At the same time, he smiled arrogantly and said, “You stupid girl! How dare you be so arrogant! I’ll make you wish you’re dead when I catch you!”

“You rascal! You’re asking for death!” Jade gritted her teeth and accelerated.

Boom!

Both sides collided.

However, the imagined crushing situation did not appear.

Logically speaking, even if Ouro secretly cultivated a secret power, he was still not invincible against the powerhouses from a big city like Hive City.

However, this was not the case.

The people on Ouro’s side could easily handle Hive City’s fierce attack.

At the same time, Jade was also blocked by a mysterious old man.

Five soon realized something was wrong.

There was no way Village Pott had so many powerful people.

Did Ouro also hire foreign aid?

Did he come prepared?

“Ouro, there can’t be so many powerful people in Village Pott. Are you also colluding with other cities?” Ouro, who was fighting against Five, laughed wildly again.

“Hahaha! Five, are you surprised? I have all your whereabouts under my control. Since you dare to collude with others, I can also call in foreign aid.

Today, I will our old man who doesn’t know what’s good for him!”

“You did kill Father! You father-killing scumbag!”

‘That old fart even asked me to help you! What a joke! Only I can be the village chief of Village Pott. Since he refused, there will be no reason for him to stay in this world.’

Five did not say anything.

It would be useless anyway, and it would also confuse him.

It would be good if he won, but his only ending would be death if he lost.

Meanwhile, if Jade exposed her identity, Ouro would not dare to do anything to her since she had Hive City as her support.

Otherwise, he would suffer the wrath of Hive City, and Ouro did not have the power to resist that.

Five knew there was nowhere for him to run now.

So, in his rage, he used more strength and forced Ouro to retreat.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2842-Ouro’s strength was not even close to Five’s, so he naturally was no match for him.

Ouro was not worried when Five aggressively attacked him. Instead, he showed a victorious grin.

On the other side, Jade was getting more and more frightened.

No matter how she attacked, the old man could easily dodge them.

She was certain that the other party was not from Village Pott.

How could a small village like Village Pott have such a powerful person?

It seemed that Ouro had also taken precautions in advance.

Today's battle was supposed to be a sure win, and after winning, Hive City would have one more affiliated village. She did not expect such a surprise.

Half an hour later, it was all over.

Five fell to the ground, seriously injured. At the same time, Ouro was stepping on him.

Jade was not seriously injured, but she was exhausted and unable to fight anymore.

The other powerhouses in Hive City also suffered heavy casualties.

On the other hand, there were more injuries and fewer deaths on Ouro's side.

Therefore, the result was clear to see.

Five lost.

Although he had been preparing for this battle for a long time, Ouro was able to kill his father, seize power, and become the village chief of Village Pott. So, how could Five be as schemeful as him?

Ouro, who had already predicted that Five would secretly find helpers to take revenge, had been paying attention to his every move.

"Five, do you accept your defeat?" Ouro asked condescendingly.

"Pah!" Five spat, but Ouro got out of the way.

Then he exerted more force on his foot.

Five, who was already seriously injured, had blood pouring out of his mouth. His eyes were fixed on Ouro as if he wanted to eat his flesh and drink his blood.

Not only was everything that should have belonged to him taken away, but he also had to die at the hands of his enemy. So, it would be strange if Five was able to accept this.

“Five, I know you are not convinced. Unfortunately, you’ve lost. You will never have a chance to take revenge, so go to hell and accompany that old man who appreciates you!”

After saying that, Ouro stomped his foot down, crushing Five’s entire chest.

“Pfft!”

A large amount of blood mixed with internal organs spurted out of Five’s mouth and splashed Ouro’s leg, causing him to pull his feet back in disgust.

Now that Five was on the verge of death, he would take his last breath soon.

Jagger looked at the scene before him and remembered the conversation between his father and uncle. Not only was he not afraid, but he felt a sense of understanding.

To be a big shot, he had to be ruthless.

People who were too soft-hearted would only become stepping stones.

From now on, he must grow to become a big shot, be ruthless, and do whatever it takes to achieve his goals.

Then Jagger looked up at the sky.

Suddenly, he noticed something.

Upon taking a closer look, there were two people!

On taking another closer look, he realized that his plaything, Peach, was happily nestled in the arms of a young man.

Jagger fancied Peach.

He had been thinking about her for days and nights. Moreover, he even dispatched the Avian Troops to get the girl as soon as possible.

Since he did not dare to provoke Jade, he must get his hands on the beautiful girl from this small fishing village.

However, she was in that young man's arms now, and she had such a happy look on her face.

This filled Jagger with overwhelming anger, which directly went to his head and made him lose his mind. It was as if he had accidentally discovered that his wife was unfaithful and made him a cuckold.

So, he roared at Peach in the sky.

"Peach, you bitch, I want your entire village to pay for this!"

If Jagger calmed down and thought for a moment, he would know that he could not afford to mess with someone who could fly in the sky by himself.

However, it was a pity that he would not have this chance.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2843-"Master? You have a Master? Who is it? Are they a man or a woman? What's their identity? How strong are they?" Nimbus asked a bunch of questions when he heard that his daughter had a master.

One did not acknowledge a master by will.

Once acknowledged, they would share the same roots.

A lot of the forces in the Milky Way were families.

If they were related by blood, then they would be more united.

Not that there weren't any forces with masters and disciples, but there were very few.

When they got themselves a master, their lives and death were tied together.

If someone was a master, they would be half-parent to their disciple.

Once this relationship was established, it would be permanent That was why Nimbus placed so much value on this.

This was no small matter.

“Gosh, Father! You’re asking me so many questions. Which one should I answer first?” Nimbus’ questions confused Astrid.

“Answer me one by one. Is your master a man or a woman?” Nimbus repeated the first question.

If the other party was a man, he would be worried that his daughter had been deceived.

Astrid has been very sheltered since she was small, and she had never experienced the evils of the outside world.

Even though David was around and he might not have to worry about this, Nimbus still could not stop himself from asking.

“She’s a woman, of course!” Astrid rolled her eyes at her father.

“What’s her identity?”

“The head of the Iridescent Sect!”

“Is she powerful?”

“Anyone who can be the head of a sect is, of course, powerful!”

“How powerful?”

“I heard Celia say that she’s an Eternal Realm peak Sovereign Ranker, which is also the last rank of Eternal Realm. If she breaks through again, she’ll be a partial Saint,” Astrid reflected and answered.

She did not pay much attention to the different ranks.

However, she still knew some after being influenced.

When Nimbus and the others heard that, they shuddered, ‘Eternal Realm peak Sovereign Ranker?’

‘She’ll be a partial Saint after she breaks through?’

‘Her strength is enough to wipe out all of the galaxies nearby. 9 While the trio was still stunned, Astrid added suddenly,’ Even though Master is amazing, she’s still miles from David. Father. Mother, Grandpa Wilfred, you have no idea. David is the belief of every intelligent creature in Star Kingdom because he saved Star Kingdom. If it's not for him, Star Kingdom would have been invaded and scattered."

As Astrid said that, she had a proud look on her face.

The more exceptional David was, the more it proved she was right about him.

Who would not want the man they liked to become a man of indomitable spirit?

Astrid made a huge decision back then to leave with David and venture to a new place.

Luckily, the women never thought of her as an outsider.

Astrid was happy living with everyone, and she never regretted her decision.

Nimbus and the others were still in a state of shock, and Astrid's new piece of information stunned them even further.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2844-'An Eternal Realm peak Sovereign Ranker is miles apart from David?

'How strong is David then?

'Is he a Saint?

'No!

'He's definitely a Saint. If not, how would he have the power to save Star Kingdom?' The trio felt as if their brains were not working anymore.

They could not understand.

David just got into Eternal Realm when he left Star Kingdom.

So how did he cross Eternal Realm and reach Saint Realm in such a short time?

He may be talented, but he can't be that talented, right?

Nimbus and Wilfred were stuck at partial Eternal Realm for a very long time, and they both knew how hard it was to become a true Eternal.

However, when it came to David, it was as easy as eating and drinking.

He did not meet any obstacles.

Not even Saint Realm could stop him, let alone Eternal Realm.

Perhaps he was truly the chosen one.

Except for this answer, they could not understand how David could get to where he was currently.

He did not just create history because it would be impossible for anyone to do this in the future too.

So, one could say that he had surpassed all others of his kind before and since.

“Huff...” After one minute, the three exhaled long and hard.

Astrid had a grin on her face.

She could guess their thoughts when her father, mother, and Grandpa Wilfred showed astonished expressions on their faces.

Back then, she always thought her father was the man with the most indomitable spirit.

No matter what she encountered and whatever trouble she faced, everything could be solved as long as her father was there.

When she met David, Astrid found out that there was someone even more exceptional than her father.

In Star Kingdom, countless people were more exceptional than her father.

“Astrid, you’re not lying, right? You’re not joking with me, right?” Nimbus came back to his senses and asked.

Astrid was not happy when she heard that. She pouted and was upset.

“Father, what are you saying? Do you not believe me? When have I lied to you?”

I am telling you very affirmatively now that I’m telling you the truth. I didn’t make anything up.

David is indeed that exceptional. If you don’t believe me, you can ask him the next time he comes to get me.”

“Astrid, don’t overthink. I’m not doubting you. However, what you said is too unbelievable. Before David, I thought I will be the first person in the Milky Way to become an Eternal.

However, he not only became an Eternal faster than me, he’s even a Saint now.

I don’t dare believe this. How can someone cultivate so insanely fast?” Nimbus explained with a forced smile.

If she were not his daughter, he would not have believed a single word.

“Father, there will always be someone better than you. Even if you don’t believe it, it will happen. You will know how big the world is if you go out and take a look.

The universe is so big, and the Milky Way is just a low civilization. Living here will just make you ignorant,” Astrid could not stop herself from educating her father.

Aside from David, she might be the only one in the Milky Way who dared to say this to Nimbus.

Frankly, after Astrid and the women reached Star Kingdom, they only stayed in the Iridescent Sect and never went anywhere.

However, this did not stop them from finding out about Star Kingdom from the other disciples of the Iridescent Sect.

“Astrid, is this how you should speak to your Father?” Gamora criticized.

“Mother, I’m just telling the truth, okay? I didn’t spew nonsense.”

“Even if you’re right, you can’t say that. He’s your father and you have to respect him. Even if you will surpass your father in the future, you should also show him respect.”

“Mother, I’m not disrespecting him. Instead, I just want him to know how big the outside world is so that he’ll be motivated.” Astrid looked aggrieved.

“Alright, you should stop talking about this. I get what Astrid is trying to say.

Compared to the middle and high civilizations, the Milky Way is indeed very inferior. As a monarch, I am responsible for this so I guess I have to go into seclusion to think of a way to break through to Eternal Realm,” Nimbus said seriousl

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2845-Then, Astrid started to tell them about what she had gone through.

She talked about Star Kingdom joining the Iridescent Sect, and acknowledging Nova as her master. Then, she talked about leaving Star Kingdom.

She went into details. All of them listened to her seriously.

They were very curious about everything in the level 7 civilization Star Kingdom.

When Astrid told them that David gave all of them two little wooden boxes that could save them during crises, they were all very interested.

“Astrid, did you say that David gave you all two things that could save your lives during cruises?” Wilfred asked curiously.

‘Yes! Grandpa Wilfred, David said they were the clones that he researched lately and they have the same strength as David. However, they also have weaknesses, which is that they can only survive two hours,” Astrid answered.

“Well... Can you show us?”

‘Yeah, why not?’

She took out two small delicate wooden boxes to put on the table.

Wilfred and the others stared at the wooden boxes carefully.

After looking carefully, they did not see anything strange about them nor could they sense any strong power from the boxes.

To them, they were just normal wooden boxes.

‘This is it?’ Nimbus asked.

‘Yeah, that’s them.’ Astrid nodded.

“We can summon David’s clones when we open them?”

‘Yeah!’

Even with Astrid’s firm answer, they were still very doubtful.

It was just a normal wooden box. Could it summon a Saint Realm clone to help in one’s battle and solve crises?

“So do you just open it?” Wilfred asked again.

He felt that it was a little unreliable.

“No, there’s a seal on the box. David taught us how to undo it and only after we undo it can the clone be summoned,” Astrid explained.

‘A seal!’

‘No wonder we can’t sense anything.’ The trio finally understood.

However, they were still a little doubtful.

“Have you opened it?”

“No, we only have two each, so who will want to open it? We can’t take it back the moment we undo the seal. Then, it will be wasted.” Astrid shook her head.

‘You never opened it so how do you know it’s real? What if...’

Before Wilfred could finish his question, Astrid interrupted him.

‘There will be no what ifs. We believe David. Also, why would he lie to us?’

After Astrid said that, she stared straight at Wilfred.

This question stumped Wilfred.

He did not know why David would want to lie to Astrid and the women following him.

If it was useless, why would he be so superfluous?

When she saw Wilfred unable to answer for a long time, Astrid continued, "Grandpa Wilfred, you can't answer, right? David doesn't need to lie to us.

Before this, we had no idea he'd give something like this to us."

"I guess so," Wilfred agreed.

"So you shouldn't suspect David's intentions. He's doing this for everyone's safety."

"Alright, I was wrong. I shouldn't suspect David." Wilfred did not hesitate to correct himself.

"It's fine! I forgive you, Grandpa Wilfred. I believe David won't split hairs about this too." Astrid grinned happily.

After Astrid's approval, the three started to examine the structure of the small wooden boxes carefully.

They noticed that they were indeed normal boxes.

Then, they looked at each other and wanted Astrid to open one to see what was inside.

However, each knew that that was impossible.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2846-Astrid would never agree to undo the seal.

Level 9 civilization Leila.

Inside the dark void, a huge planet was sitting there quietly.

This planet was very big. Planet Royal, the biggest planet in the Milky Way, paled into insignificance by comparison.

They were not on the same level at all.

There was an altar on this planet.

Flora's soul was sitting crossed-legged on the altar.

If one looked closely, one would notice that there were no living creatures on the planet. Yet, it was not a dead star.

The vegetation was lush, and there were also signs of living creatures' activity on it.

However, all of the living creatures on the planet were moved away so that only plants were left.

The entire planet was shrouded in a huge array cast by Sylvio.

There were also countless precious materials.

Any one of them would cause a huge sensation if taken out.

If David saw them, his eyes would light up.

There were so many precious treasures.

If he could buy some, the lavish points he would get could allow him to soar beyond Overlord Realm and into another realm.

However, the treasures were not for sale.

So, one could not buy them with money.

Could someone buy things belonging to an Overlord?

Were they short of money?

They owned Leila, so what would they not have?

It was both easy and difficult to restore Flora's body.

The main thing was the realm of the body that needed to be restored.

It was easy for an Overlord to restore the body of a Saint. It would also be easy if it was a Deity. However, for an Overlord, they needed to make a lot of preparations.

At this moment, Sylvio, Lufian, Valentin, and Drogo, the Overlords, were stationed at the east, north, west, and south side of the planet.

“Since we have to restore the body of an Overlord this time, it will be very troublesome and time-consuming. I’ve prepared everything needed. So, you just need to fulfill my request and follow the prescribed order. We can’t allow any mistakes in the middle of doing it. If we do, we will not only fail, but we might also hurt Flora’s soul.” Sylvio’s stern voice rang in the other three’s ears.

“We understand. Don’t worry, Sylvio,” Lufian, Valentin, and Drogo answered at the same time.

Of course, they knew how important this was.

Especially Lufian.

This was the woman he fancied, so they had to succeed.

‘Thank you, Sylvio. Thank you, Lufian, Valentin, Drogo. Thank you! It’s an honor to work with you all.’ Flora thanked them.

“Flora, you don’t have to be so polite with us. The five Leila rulers are one unit and we can’t lose anyone. This is what we should do. After this, you just need to focus and wait for your body to be restored.”

Lufian was the first to answer.

“Yeah, you don’t have to be so polite with us. We’ve been together for so long, so we’re already a family.”

“No matter what, I still have to thank you all,” Flora said seriously.

“Okay, we’re short on time. Stop chatting. We can reminisce after the restoration is done. Are you all ready?” Sylvio interrupted.

“Ready,” the three Overlords answered at the same time.

“Since you’re ready, let’s start!” Sylvio yelled.

Then, four beams of light illuminated the void. The array over the planet was also activated. From afar, it looked like a flowing pearl.
