I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2852-When David thought of Lufian, an icy glint passed through David's eyes briefly.

In an instant, everyone on Planet Gorgon felt an unexplainable chill and shuddered involuntarily.

When they wanted to figure out what it was, the coolness had already disappeared without a trace.

Outside of Townlet Pescado, Fairy Eden and others still could not come to a conclusion.

No one was willing to give in.

Therefore, they had no choice but to make a move at the same time.

Fairy Eden was the first to enter the airspace above Townlet Pescado, followed by the other three as they did not want to fall behind.

When Peach and Jade saw the four top geniuses moving at the same time, they clasped their hands and prayed for David in their hearts.

At this moment, a golden light erupted from the ground into the sky.

Stopping in midair, David uttered only two words upon spotting Fairy Eden and the others, "Get lost!"

Boom!

Before anything else, the wind and clouds in the sky changed color. His words boomed like a clap of thunder that rang in everyone's ears.

At the same time, an unrivaled force knocked Fairy Eden and the others away.

Taken by surprise, they return to their original positions.

"Pfft!"

Upon landing, they spurted out mouthfuls of blood.

The blow was a testament to David's power.

If David had not shown them mercy, they would have died.

At this moment, there was no anger or hatred in their hearts -there was only gladness.

How fortunate it was that David was not a bloodthirsty man!

Only those who had a close shave with death would understand how terrifying it was.

After struggling to their feet, Fairy Eden and the others bowed to the golden figure above Townlet Pescado.

"Thank you for sparing us!"

"Go back to where you come from. Never show up in Townlet Pescado again,"

David said, his tone remaining stoic.

"Yes, my Lord! We promise never to set foot into Townlet Pescado in the future,"

The four arrogant geniuses replied respectfully.

Meanwhile, the onlookers watched the turn of events in stunned silence. They did not even dare to breathe too loudly.

Who would have thought that the four top geniuses of Planet Gorgon would be so submissive to thank David for not killing them? After all, they were just discussing ways to deal with David moments ago.

The tables turned so quickly that no one had time to react.

David, however, paid them no further attention as he had more important things to do. He released his mind power and enveloped the entire Planet Gorgon. He wanted to look for his lost Space Stone.

Upon locating it, he turned into a golden light, vanishing from view immediately.

After David left, a long time passed before the four geniuses of Planet Gorgon returned to their senses.

Fairy Eden and the others, especially, were still affected by their fear of the insanely powerful David.

How did David possess such power? The speed at which David left just now was probably beyond the reach of even the strongest people on Planet Gorgon.

Peach and Jade's eyes widened in confusion and awe.

The four top geniuses of Planet Gorgon could not resist even two words from David.

Just exactly how strong was David?

"J-Jade, did David win?" Peach asked with a stutter.

"Yeah, he won. It was also a crushing defeat," Jade replied.

"I told you David will create miracles!" Reassured, Peach smiled.

"It's more than a miracle. This is beyond everyone's expectations." Jade could not hide the astonishment in her voice.

"By the way, where is David going?"

"How would I know? Why didn't you ask him just now?"

"H-How would I know he was leaving? He disappeared in the blink of an eye and I didn't even have the chance to ask.

He'll come back, right?"

Jade answered reassuringly, "He will. David isn't that kind of person. If he wants to leave, he'll tell us. He won't leave without saying goodbye."

Although she had only met him a few times, she could tell from the way David acted that he was not a heartless person.

After Peach heard this, she stopped talking.

She could feel that something was different about David this time.

When she recalled how he tried everything to restore his memory in the past three years, Peach guessed that David must have regained some memories.

Even if he stayed this time, he would eventually leave.

Even though Peach did not want David to leave, she knew she had to accept the fate that she could not make him stay.
