

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter: 2853

"What exactly do you want? People in the big family are like you, do you like to find trouble when nothing happens?"

Lin Dong also started to get a little angry.

He didn't want to conflict with Jiang Tiansheng.

I'm afraid it will affect my participation in the auction later.

But he couldn't stand others trying to make trouble for him.

Blindly giving in will only make the other party push forward.

The tit-for-tat words of the two made all the melon-eating people around show excited expressions.

No one thinks it's a big deal to watch the excitement.

The bigger the quarrel, the better. It is best to fight and let everyone see the good show.

The conflict involving the Jiang family is obviously much more attractive than the two just now.

The two sides are not at the same level at all.

At this moment, Huang Zheng breathed a sigh of relief.

He has worshiped Ling Xiaozong for many years, and thought that after all these years, the two cousins should have grown up.

In the end, I didn't expect to be more arrogant than before. The key is that I have no brains and can't see the situation clearly.

Had it not been for Jiang Tiansheng's arrival, the escalation of the conflict would have been interrupted.

Once it starts, it will inevitably be a result of mutual losses.

In case I hurt my junior sister.

How will I explain to Master when I go back?

Huang Zheng swore.

I will never look for these two idiots again next time.

Otherwise, they will kill them sooner or later.

Lin Dong's words also completely offended Jiang Tiansheng.

As the first in line heir of the Jiang family, when did a brat dare to talk to him like this?

What's more, there are so many people watching.

"Boy, I said, you can leave if you want, leave the wine jar in your arms and the wooden box on your back, and I will let you go, otherwise you don't want to leave today, this is Central China, not your seclusion In the primeval forest, no one can leave safely after offending me, Jiang Tiansheng."

When Jiang Tiansheng saw Lin Dong for the first time, he just felt that this kid was a bit special.

Others are paying attention to themselves.

He was eating and drinking on his own.

But after getting close.

do not know why.
