

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 711

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 711

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 711

It made her feel like a failure.

Was she really that bad?

Or was David disgusted with her because she used to hang out with different kids from rich families?

However, she did not choose anyone and she was still chaste. She never even had a first kiss yet.

The last time, she wanted to give all this to David to let David know that she was not so easy.

Unfortunately, David escaped at the last minute.

Since then, the relationship between the two had grown farther apart.

If she had known, she would have let go of her restraints and pounced directly on David.

If something happened to the two and she let David know that it was her first time, they would not be so unfamiliar with each other like they were now.

After thinking about it for a long time, Amelia decided to come and have a look.

She did not know how long David would stay this time he was back. They all had to start an internship next semester, and by then, it would be even harder for her to find him.

If she did not seize the opportunity, the two might only ever brush past each other in the future.

Amelia knew she had to take the initiative for her future happiness.

With that, the two goddesses from South River University blocked David at the door of the classroom together.

David had another headache when he saw the two of them.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Luna and Amelia.

One looked excited and emotional like he was her prey.

Meanwhile, the other looked upset and resentful like he had let her down and he was a heartless rat.

He was not that close with these two, right?

For Luna, he owed her a favor because she saved Celia in Capital City.

She should probably know who he was, and she thought her favor would develop according to the situation. Since it was of great help to her, it was understandable that she had that expression on her face.

However, what the hell was Amelia's resentful gaze?

He did not do anything to her, right?

Why was she making him look like a heartless rat?

Luna and Amelia blocked David's path while Patrick and the others were watching this with interest.

At this moment, the class monitor Dean walked to Ava's desk and said, "Ava, let's have lunch together."

"I'm sorry, I'm busy in the afternoon."

After Ava said that, she got up and called out to David behind him.

Dean stood on his ground, his face looked extremely gloomy.

Meanwhile, the other students looked at him curiously and Dean could only feel his face burning. It was fine that Ava rejected his invitation.

However, she even got up and went to David. Wasn't this slapping him right in the face?

Ava walked over and was stunned when she saw Luna and Amelia in front of David.

The three women looked at each other and the air around them became heavy.

The other students in the class widened their eyes and their mouths were left gaping, with their jaws almost dropping to the floor.

The Three Campus Belles of SRU were gathering because of a man.

This was such huge news!

A lot of students started to take out their phones to snap pictures in secret.

Patrick and the gang left the circle and stood at one side to watch this unfold. They could not do anything to help in this situation.

If David was surrounded by three men, they could rush over to help. However, since he was surrounded by three goddesses, they could only watch.

They would be lying if they said they were not jealous.

However, they were feeling happy for David.

They did not expect that David to have a new relationship right after Sarah dumped him.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 712

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 712

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 712

David stood between the three campus belles of South River University and felt a little confused.

'What the hell is Ava doing here?'

'These three unfamiliar female classmates chose to look for me at the same time?'

"Um, ladies, are you all looking for me?" David asked, breaking the silence.

"Yes."

The three answered at the same time.

"How about we find a place to chat then?"

"You should talk to them first. I'll find you when you have time," Ava said and left.

"What about you two? Are you also coming?" David asked.

“Forget it, I’ll come back when you have time,” Amelia said after thinking.

If she stayed here now, she would not know what to say to David.

Plus, there were so many people here.

After she finished saying that, Amelia also turned and left.

In the end, Luna was the only one who remained.

“Luna, how can I help you?”

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

“David, let’s find a place to chat.”

“Alright.”

The two found a quiet place on campus together.

It was lunchtime now so there were not a lot of people on campus.

“You can tell me now, Luna,” David said.

“David, do you remember the last time you were in Capital City?” Luna asked.

“Don’t worry, I won’t forget that. I owe you a favor because you saved Celia. Why? Do you want to use it now?”

“It’s good that you didn’t forget. I won’t use it for the time being, but I want to borrow your name.”

“Are you going to do something in my name instead of using the favor?” David asked.

He knew what Luna had in mind as soon as he heard it.

If she wanted to reveal to everyone that he had owed her a favor, it would deter a lot of people with his current identity.

In this way, David would be helping her, but at the same time, she would not use up the favor David owed her. She had planned this amazingly.

“Yes, you’re a big shot now, and a favor from you is priceless, plus it will only become increasingly valuable in the future. I am not stupid,” Luna admitted magnanimously.

“Luna, if you need anything, you can just tell me directly. As long as it doesn’t violate my principles, I will help take care of it. After the matter is over, we will not owe each other any more favors.”

David did not want to give Luna a chance to do this.

He had to pay back this favor as soon as possible and did not want to have anything to do with someone who was as cunning as her.

“No! Using your favor to accomplish what I want to do now will be too much. I just need to use your name for something.”

“What if I say no?”

“David, I know you hate me because I intended to use you from the beginning,” Luna said in a deep voice.

“It’s good that you know, so you better use up the favor as soon as possible so we won’t owe each other anything anymore,” David replied.

He really did not like this kind of woman who was too cunning. It did not matter how beautiful she was.

Lorraine was stunning, right?

She was a peerless woman who astonished an entire era.

However, he also did not like her.

He would not want her even if she paid to marry him.

It was not that he had strong willpower, but rather, he did not like these women from the bottom of his heart.

“David, I have no choice. I have a younger sister who’s more talented than me so I can only be used by the family to arrange for marriages with others.

However, I’m not willing to accept this fate. I want freedom and I want my own life, so I have to think of ways to fight back. This whole time, I couldn’t find any other way. I finally saw a glimmer of hope when you showed up, so I’m sorry,” Luna sobbed as she said lowly.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 713

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 713

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 713

The last time she was in Capital City, she knew that David had discovered her true intentions.

She did not care much at the time.

As long as David owed her a favor, she would use this favor to get rid of the marriage arranged for her by the family.

However, as David exposed more and more of his strength and status, she changed her original plan.

She could not use David's favor so frivolously.

Why were all the hidden families resurfacing now?

It was none other than to get more resources and strengthen themselves to cope with the coming catastrophe.

Not only did she want to use David's name to make her family break off her marriage, but she also wanted to kick Wendy out and become the first heir of the Shoron family.

It was all because she had a trump card in David's favor.

If she told her grandpa that she could use David's favor to help the Shoron family deal with the catastrophe in the future as long as she became the first heir of the Shoron family and inherited the family title, her grandfather would not refuse because of David's current status.

This was because her family was too weak and they needed a backer like David.

Thus, if David kept his promise to her and let her use his name one time, she could kick Wendy out.

At this moment, she could only act pitiful and helpless to win David's sympathy.

"Don't apologize to me, I just want to repay your favor quickly," David said, unmoved.

Gosh, once the news that he owed Luna a favor comes out and as he began to reveal more of his strength, Luna would not need his favor to get things done.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

By then, would he still be able to repay this favor?

“I will use it, but not now. Right now, I just want to use your name.”

“You want to use my name to deter your family so that they will call off the marriage between you and the Quinn family, right?” David asked.

“Yes.”

David thought about it and said, “Okay, I’ll agree this time, but you have to promise that only the Shoron family are allowed to know this and you can’t reveal it to outsiders. If not, I’ll treat it as you using that favor. Plus, if you use my name again in the future, I will also treat it as if you’re using that favor.

“Alright, it’s a deal!” Luna said excitedly.

“Great! David said yes!”

She could not kick Wendy out and make herself the first heir of the Shoron family without using that favor.

Right now, Luna wanted to go home and tell them David was in the same university as her, and David also owed her a favor.

She wanted to see the shocked expressions of those people, including Wendy.

4 said I will give you a huge present, but I hope you can handle it.’

After finishing his business with Luna, David met up with his three roommates and went for lunch.

At this moment, the news about the three campus belles of SRU surrounding a man had spread on campus.

A photo was being shared crazily among the Instagram and chat groups of the university.

The reason behind this was that the photo was captured too perfectly.

Luna and Amelia stood in front of David while Ava was behind him.

Meanwhile, David stood in the middle of the three campus belles with a helpless expression on his face.

This made countless boys on campus jealous, envious, and hateful.

The three campus belles were fighting for a man.

David just came back to school for half a day and once again, he had become a legendary figure in the university.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 714

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 714

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 714

The legend surrounding David was circulating around South River University and many freshmen were curious about his deeds.

All the freshmen were amazed after learning that he was originally from a super-wealthy family but pretended to be a poor delivery boy every day because he wanted to find true love. Then, he reclaimed his status as a super-rich kid after he was cheated on by his girlfriend.

The plot that would only happen in dramas was now happening in real life! 1

The poor boy became a prince after being cheated on!

Could anything be more dramatic than this?

David's deeds actually resonated with many male students because many of them had gone through the same situation as him.

After going to university, the girls would be exposed to a lot of things and they could not resist the temptation of luxury cars and brand-name bags.

Hence, a lot of them would eventually abandon their poor boyfriends.

However, not every abandoned guy could be transformed like David. They could not become the children of the super-rich that countless others envy and also get surrounded by three campus belles.

Except for David, all the other boys who were abandoned by their girlfriends could only be sad in secret, praying that their girlfriends would change their minds.

Some girls who were about to break up with their boyfriends began secretly investigating the background of their boyfriends to see if they would meet a person like David, a super-rich kid pretending to be a pauper. 1

However, the result was often that the more they found out, the more disappointed they would be. Eventually, they would be even more determined to leave.

Of course, what everyone was more concerned about was the fate of David's ex-girlfriend and the person she cheated on David with.

Leo's family went bankrupt and he himself went to prison.

On the other hand, Sarah suffered from depression and dropped out before finishing her studies.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Everyone could be regarded as joyous after discovering how those two had ended up.

David also saw these rumors circulating in his class's chat group, but he did not take them seriously.

He could forcibly stop them since they had no right to talk about this. Still, although he could stop it, he did not need to.

They had freedom of speech.

Besides, with his current status, it was too tiring to care about these irrelevant things.

The afternoon class crawled by as everyone looked forward to the evening.

When the bell for the last class rang, David stood up and said after the lecturer left, "Everyone, in order to thank you for your care over the past three years, at your request, I will treat you all to dinner tonight.

Everyone, please head to the Golden Leaf Hotel. It's half-past five now and we will be assembling at the Golden Leaf Hotel at seven o'clock."

"All hail David!

“David, I love you!”

As soon as David finished speaking, the whole class cheered.

After everyone cheered, David said, “Everyone in the class is welcome! I hope you can all attend. After all, we have gathered here from all over the country, and it is not easy to be assigned to the same class. I believe whether it is in ten years or twenty years, these four years of university life will be a wonderful time we will never forget.”

After walking out of the class, David went straight to the South River International Residence. At the same time, he called his Aunt Sally and asked her to prepare a few tables of food as he was treating his classmates to dinner.

Patrick and the gang went back to their dorm to take a shower and change clothes.

David had asked them to organize the class and go to the Golden Leaf Hotel together after they were done washing up.

At about half-past six, David arrived at the Golden Leaf Hotel.

Sally and Diana were already waiting for him at the hotel.

David chatted with his Aunt Sally and Aunt Diana.

He had already told the lobby manager that if someone came looking for him, he should just take them directly to the prepared private room.

It did not take long for Patrick to bring his classmates over.

There were nearly 60 people in the class, and everyone was present.

After all, there were not many opportunities for them to dine in an eight-star hotel. If they missed this chance, they would not have another opportunity again in the future.

Even Dean, who had always been angry with David internally, could not resist the temptation and ended up following them.

Dean's family conditions could only be considered average. Although they were considered a pretty wealthy family, it was the first time he had entered an eight-star hotel, which was extremely costly.

After entering the lobby of the Golden Leaf Hotel, everyone was shocked by the grandeur of the place.

The enormous magnificent chandelier hanging above the hall was worth tens of millions.

There were more than 50 people in the group. Except for Patrick and a few classmates from rich families who had come here before, everyone else looked around curiously like a bunch of country bumpkins entering the city for the first time.

Many people dressed in ordinary clothes poured into the Golden Leaf Hotel so suddenly while looking around curiously, which naturally attracted contempt from some guests.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 715

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 715

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 715

"Patrick, you came here to eat before. How expensive is it, really?" A classmate next to Patrick asked.

"I've been here very few times. To come here, the minimum cost per person has to be over 10 thousand dollars," Patrick replied.

"Huh? The cost per person is over 10 thousand? It's so expensive! Then does it mean it'll cost 500 or 600 thousand for 50 to 60 of us?"

This frightened everyone.

The minimum cost per person exceeding 10 thousand meant that the minimum consumption of 50 or 60 people in the whole class would be 500 to 600 thousand.

Among these classmates, there were still many students whose family conditions were not very good.

Their monthly living expenses ranged from one to two thousand dollars.

The minimum consumption of 10 thousand was enough for their living expenses for a year.

'The rich's life is so luxurious.

'Is David really willing to spend so much money on us?'

Many people started to have the idea of giving up this meal.

Especially since they had not seen David yet. Could he be standing them up?

If they ended up having to go Dutch on this meal, they would not be able to afford it at all.

“This is only the minimum standard. It is impossible for people who can afford to come here to consume this minimum amount. I think that since we have so many people with us, we might end up spending millions of dollars or even more!” Patrick said.

‘Millions?’

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Patrick’s words once again made the hearts of many students from ordinary families nervous.

They genuinely did not want to eat this meal anymore.

In their opinions, no one would spend nearly a million dollars to treat them to a meal.

This was not the way to spend money even if one had money, right?

Wasn’t it better to buy a house or a car?

They would be finished if they were asked to pay the bill later.

Even if they went Dutch, everyone would still need to pay 20 thousand dollars.

“Where is David? Why is he not here?” Someone asked again.

“Yeah, why is David not here?”

The group started to discuss among themselves.

It seemed that after they heard Patrick talking about the price, a lot of them felt that David might have stood them up.

This was the first time he had treated them to a meal and he was going to spend millions. Even if he was from a rich family, that was not the way to do things.

Patrick was also looking for David.

David only asked him to organize the students in class and bring them over.

After that?

What else?

Of course, he felt that David would not intentionally fail to meet them.

This was because he had seen David's ability.

If it was not for David last semester, he would have been done for.

After what happened, he went to look up Six Camden.

He was the big shot in the underground world of River City. The entire underground world of River City would shake if he stomped his foot.

However, he was kneeling in front of David and apologizing.

It could be seen how powerful a junior like David was.

Meanwhile, Dean was secretly feeling pleased.

He was hoping that David would intentionally fail to meet them.

If they were to go Dutch, everyone would need to pay

20 thousand. If he lied to his family and bit the bullet, he would be able to pay for it as long as he could expose David's true face.

He could not stand a man like David who was better than him in everything.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you