

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 784

Chapter 784 "Then, how is your relationship with him?" Delmont asked nervously again. "It's okay. Grandpa, can you tell me what happened to Silver Face first?" Selena asked anxiously. Delmont came to his senses.

The more he looked at Selena, the more elated and overjoyed he got. This granddaughter not only roped in David, the peerless talent, she even knew Silver Face, the supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank. Judging from her reaction, she had a pretty good relationship with both of them. Delmont might even start forming a relationship with the two.

With the current strength of the King family, if there was a peak God Ranker behind them, their strength would increase by leaps and bounds, and they would become an existence second only to the five major forces.

When he thought about this, Delmont, an old man who was accustomed to the changes in the world, also felt his heart beating faster at this moment. Next, Delmont told everyone how Silver Face had went against the Mosley family alone. After listening to what Delmont said, the entire hall was silent.

This was even more shocking than the news that Mason was alive. Then, everyone looked at Selena. Since she just said that she knew Silver Face and she had a pretty alright relationship with this supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank, what would that mean?

All the core members of the King family understood. Selena was stunned when she heard the news. The shock in her heart was stronger than anyone else's. It was because she knew the true identity of Silver Face. Silver Face was David.

Did this mean that David was now a supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank? He was standing at the top of the world's ecosystem. Selena showed a bitter smile. The two were not that different in terms of age, right? However, this gap in power was too large. As for the other number one among the younger generation in different fields, they could not compare to David at all.

They were worlds apart. However, at that moment, Selena felt pride in her heart. This was her future husband. A person to whom she was willing to show everything, including her soul and body. The more excellent David was, the more it proved that Selena had good taste.

Alright, she should quickly establish a relationship between the two of them. Selena was pretty confident in herself. She was confident that she was not inferior to anyone in any aspect.

Plus, she knew David had feelings for her. However, the only trouble was that David already had a girlfriend. He should like his girlfriend very much. Therefore, it seemed that she should start with David's . girlfriend.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 785

"Selena, can you invite Silver Face to the house as a guest?" Delmont asked expectantly. As long as Silver Face, the peak God Ranker, came to the King family as a guest, the status of the King family would instantly rise. | All the core members of the King family in the hall stared at Selena, waiting for her answer.

"Grandpa, I'm afraid this won't work! I promised Silver Face that I wouldn't reveal his identity. You know the consequences of making such a powerful man angry, so let's forget it for now," Selena replied. "Then... Let's forget it. Don't make Silver Face angry, you must maintain a good relationship with him as this will be of great benefit to the King family," Delmont said in disappointment. It was not just him who was disappointed.

The core of the King family in the hall showed disappointed expressions as well. Now, who would not want to meet this supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank? Selena noticed too. She said again, "But don't worry, Grandpa, I have a very good relationship with Silver Face.

He doesn't want to reveal his identity now, so he always wears a mask. If he reveals his identity one day, I promise I will invite him over as a guest." Delmont's eyes lit up when he heard Selena's reassurance.

He hurriedly said, "That's great! Selena, your relationship with Silver Face must continue. It'll be better if you can get even closer to him. The King family will fully support you with whatever you need." "Okay, Grandpa!" Selena replied. "Also, Selena, since you have a a relationship with David, Somerland is stable now and David will be back soon.

He's still young and I'm sure he's very vigorous now. You should move out and live with him," Delmont added. His idea was simple. Even though Silver Face knew Selena, it was impossible to rope him into the King family. It would be enough to keep a good relationship with him. However, David was the King family's son-in-law.

He had a pretty good chance of becoming a peak God Ranker in the future and the King family would be the biggest benefactor in this case. "Huh? Um... Grandpa, isn't this too fast?" Selena said while blushing. "Fast? Is it as fast as you two?" Delmont countered. He was not very suspicious of Selena's relationship with David.

The last time Selena was sent to the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland, she was sent with the goal of marrying the number one among the younger generation in Somerland.

David was indeed the most outstanding one among everyone. However, at the same time, he was also a young man full of vigor. As long as Selena took the initiative, Delmont genuinely did not think David could resist. Or at least no young man could resist.

“Okay, I understand.” “Alright, everyone, dismissed.” Within a day, two consecutive shocking events swept the world like a storm. However, the speed at which everyone received the news was different. It started with the big forces first and then slowly spread to the ears of some small forces.

Of course, the reaction was the same within the small forces. In the eyes of ordinary people, this kind of news was beyond their reach. All the hidden families and sects in Somerland, except the King family, were beating their chests and stamping their feet.

They regretted it so much! Why did they not offer help when the Somerland Discipline Team asked for support? Somerland had two supreme powerhouses at peak God Rank and they were already one of the five major forces.

All the other forces showed only one peak God Ranker. When the King family were fully supporting Somerland, they were waiting to watch the King family make a fool of themselves. Great. The King family was originally the number one hidden family, now they betted heavily on Somerland and won.

Who could shake this position in the future? The gap between them would only get wider. The King family would surely stand out. No wonder the King family had been the number one hidden family for so many years. They had very good eyes. And this made the other forces feel ashamed. As for the Dominic family and the Star Alliance...

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 786

Chapter 786 It seemed that they had completely disappeared in the land of Somerland. There was no news about them at all. At this time, they just wanted to find a place to hide well and not get spotted by Somerland. Otherwise, it would be the day that their entire family would be wiped out.

After what they did in Somerland, they were destined to spend the rest of their lives in fear. They might be discovered one day and get wiped from the face of the earth. The next day.

Springfield in Somerland. Inside the headquarters of East League Capitals. Pearl was working in the general manager's office. After returning to Somerland and experiencing that event with Walt, she only rested for two days before coming back to Springfield to start work.

Although David asked her to take more days off, David was busy, and she got bored staying by herself. Thus, she came to Springfield and started to work. Ring ring ring!

Ring ring ring! Pearl, who was buried in her work, heard her phone ring. Then, she picked up the phone and took a look. It was from a subordinate who had gone abroad with her. Before she left, she also handed over all her work abroad to the subordinate. "Hello?" Pearl answered the phone. "Hello? Ms. Warner?" A female voice came from the phone. "Is something wrong?" Pearl asked.

"Ms. Warner, you asked me to secretly inquire about the Mosley family and I just paid a huge price to get some news about the Mosley family from a partner." "Oh? Tell me now. Has the Mosley family done anything big recently?"

Pearl asked eagerly. When she heard that it was about the Mosley family, she immediately became nervous. The direct descendant of the Mosley family, Walt, was still being held in Somerland! With the power of the Mosley family, they would not just let this go so easily.

Once the other party got serious, she was really afraid that David might get hurt. David was everything to Pearl now. Even if David told her not to worry, how could she not? She had been abroad for a long time, so she had a deep understanding of the power of the Mosley family.

As soon as people heard that surname, everyone whom she got into contact with would run to hide like rats encountering a cat. There were even several big conglomerates stronger than East League Capitals who were so scared they did not dare to make a peep.

They were terrified by just a surname, which showed how powerful the Mosley family was. She also found out that the Mosley family was one of the five top major forces in the world. Meanwhile, Somerland was also among these five powers. That was to say, only the entire country of Somerland could compete with the Mosley family.

Even if David had a powerful background, he could not match the whole of Somerland. Once the Mosley family negotiated with Somerland under their family name, David might become an outcast. What should she do then? How would she save David?
