

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2250

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2250-They could be said to be almost the same in all aspects, but their ending was very different.

Of course, Lorraine had just experienced a life-and-death experience and was rescued by David, so perhaps she was already indifferent.

David chatted with Celia for a long time and felt that the time was almost up.

So, he gently pushed her away and looked at her.

Celia also stared blankly at the man in front of her, whom she had secretly liked since high school.

At that time, she was not brave and Sarah stole her chance.

Fortunately, Sarah did not know how to cherish David and gave Celia a chance.

She still remembered the first time she met David. Back then, he was a student delivering food part-time.

He had spilled all of his food to save her.

From the moment David saved her, Celia's heart was completely preoccupied with him and she was not interested in others anymore.

There were only ten centimeters between them.

The couple, who had not seen each other for a long time, just stared at each other.

There was an amorous atmosphere in the air.

Naturally, they began to move closer and in the end, they kissed.

After all, this was not the first time.

So, neither side needed to be reserved.

Soon, joyous sounds came from the room.

When David first entered the room, he released his mind power to isolate the room.

He already knew that Celeste was in the next room.

With her strength, she would surely hear the movements in this room if David did not isolate them.

Not long after, Celia was exhausted and fell asleep in David's arms.

David originally wanted to leave immediately but he could not bear to, so he stayed a while.

When it was dawn, he knew he had to leave even if he did not want to.

If the other women saw this, it would be hard for him to explain himself.

David was speechless. He was sleeping with his girlfriend but he was acting like he was having an affair.

When he moved, Celia woke in his arms.

"David, are you leaving?" Celia asked in a daze.

“Yeah, you should sleep a little longer. I’m leaving first and I’ll see you when I have time,” David replied softly.

“Okay, David, go back into seclusion. Don’t worry about me, I’m doing well with the ladies by my side.”

“I got it. Then I’ll leave first. I won’t be able to leave if the others discover me.”

“Okay, bye!”

“Bye!”

After David finished speaking, he leaned over and kissed Celia on the forehead before he turned around to leave.

After his departure, nobody knew except Celia.

When he went back to seclusion, David turned on the system and entered The Spirit Cage.

The Spirit Cage, Sole.

David opened his eyes. Then, he got up and went to the door to open it.

The little girl was sitting next to the door.

When she heard the door opening, she turned to look at David before pouncing on him. David also spread his arms to hold the little girl.

After nuzzling against David’s chest and inhaling David’s scent greedily, the little girl chirped happily.

“Yay, David feels so warm. Whenever you come out, your nice scent will become stronger.”

“You must be famished, Pebbles. Come, I’ll get you something to eat.”

After he said that, he picked Pebbles up and walked to the room to hand her some elixirs.

When the little girl saw them, her eyes lit up. She began eating as soon as she got her hands on them.

The elixirs were not cheap and they were destroyed by the little girl in a few chomps.

After eating the elixirs costing hundreds of billions, Pebbles burped and fell asleep in David’s arms.