Chapter 1061: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 85)

Di da di da di da. It was like time froze in that moment and everyone's eyes had fallen onto Luo Qing Chen.

Li Si Nai slightly knit his brows. He suddenly felt a bit confused, but he was certain that his girl had some status.

"Prin.....Prin.....Princess?" Bai Na almost couldn't stand anymore. She stumbled back a step as her face turned pale.

Mi Zhi looked at her mother in disbelief as she immediately refuted, "Did you make some mistake, what did you call her?"

"Ka." All the military officers on Luo Qing Chen's right took out their weapons, pointing them at Mi Zhi.

Mi Zhi was scared by this. She shook her head as her back was covered in a cold sweat.

Princess? Luo Qing Chen was a princess? France's.....royal family? How.....How was this possible?

There were countless questions that filled her mind. Actually there was a vague answer in her mind, but she refused to believe it.

"Your highness Jane, I didn't manage my disciple well, I will personally ask....."

"No need." Luo Qing Chen raised her hand and with absolute power, she looked at Jitov, "After all, miss Bai Na still needs to seriously discuss with the me who can't even afford a ticket to France the difference between commoners, nobles, and.....the royal family.

These words didn't sound that unpleasant, but Bai Na understood.

All the students understood.

The princess who descended from France's royal family, it was definitely different from all these nobles.

Bai Na and Mi Zhi in front of her were nothing more than clowns.

"You are....." Bai Na took a cold breath and her mind went blank.

But she knew that if she didn't say anything, she wouldn't be able to return to France.

What noble, she wouldn't even be considered a citizen.

"Greetings.....Greetings to your highness Jane."

"Mother.....Mother, you can't lose! She.....She is definitely a liar!" Mi Zhi still kept struggling at this moment since she wasn't willing to believe no matter what that Luo Qing Chen was actually from France's royal family.

“Pa.” There was a heavy slap that resounded. Bai Na didn’t even hesitate to come forward to give Mi Zhi a slap before angrily saying, “Do you still think that you are a noble? Do you know how foolish you are? Do you know what the royal family is? Do you know how embarrassing and stupid you are?”

Bai Na’s words slammed into Mi Zhi’s heart. Losing meant losing.

She was telling Mi Zhi this while also telling herself this.

With such a terrifying identity in front of them, she had to admit that she had lost.

Mi Zhi unwillingly bit her lip as her tears came out. At that moment, there was no one who knew what she was thinking. She had always felt a special kind of pride, looking down on the commoners.

But now a commoner had turned from a commoner into a princess.

No one could accept this change, not to mention a proud girl like her.

“I am a noble, I am a noble, I am a noble!” She tightly bit her lip and called out. Then she ran off towards the empty space behind her with all of F Class’ looks of disdain on her.

They penetrated her heart, filling it with extreme humiliation.

Chapter 1062: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 86)

“What? You want to escape? Your heart really is weak!” Her lips curled as she revealed a faint smile while releasing her full force.

Want to leave, did she ask Luo Qing Chen first?

Everyone in F Class heard this and they began talking.

“My head is a bit small. These things are developing so quickly, I can’t react in time.”

“Me too.....Damn, there’s only one thing to say! The princess is in our class???”

“Ah, ah, ah! I’m a bit excited, does anyone have heart medicine for me?”

Mi Zhi stopped at this moment and her right hand clenched.

Luo Qing Chen gave a cold laugh before pursing her lips, “You said you were a noble, so where is your pride now?”

Why run at this time, why act cold at this time, only scolding back was the right way!

“Alright! So what if you’re the princess of the royal family! These people, these people are lowly commoners!” Mi Zhi pointed her finger at the people of F Class before it finally landed on Su Xiao Xiao.

She already lost to Luo Qing Chen, but there were plenty of people she didn’t lose to!

“Then I’m really sorry to say this to you!” Luo Qing Chen revealed a faint smile, “As long as I’m here, every single person is more of a noble than you.”

As soon as her voice fell, Bai Na's legs collapsed underneath her.

She knew that with Luo Qing Chen's words, they wouldn't be anything once they went back to France.....

"You.....You....." Mi Zhi had plenty of words stuck in her throat that she couldn't say. She wanted to say it, she wanted to say it very much, but she couldn't say it!"

She couldn't compare to the status, power, and wealth of the other side.

This feeling was like being tortured in hell for her.

The end of this was that the school was officially renamed to the Capital Royal Academy and all students with good grades could apply.

There was no separation between commoners and nobles since even France's princess was in the commoner class, what was there to separate?

The French noble academy also adopted the same rules. The two schools made plenty of contributions towards this in their countries.

It provided outstanding students the chance to study abroad, letting these students broaden their horizons.

These words were quite broad.

But Luo Qing Chen was very satisfied with this result.

Just that a certain young master of the Li Family wasn't that happy.

On a certain beach, the four of them laid on the sand watching the setting sun.

"Young miss Luo Qing Chen really hid it well, the princess of the royal family....."

"Mister Li Si Nai, can you stop with this kind of ridicule!" Luo Qing Chen looked at him with an aggrieved look, "Our relationship was bad when we first met anyway, you wouldn't have believed me even if I told you!"

"That's right!" Nan Luo Ze said, "But speaking of this, I'm very curious, how are you planning on dealing with Bai Na?"

"Them?" Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug, "Even if I don't do anything, they'll die on their own."

Wasn't it boring finishing it at once, torturing them bit by bit was more interesting!

"Xiao Xiao, you have been with Qing Chen for this long, you really didn't notice it?"

"I....." Si Xiao Xiao lowered her head in embarrassment, "I never thought that Qing Chen's identity would be this noble."

Suddenly, she felt like she couldn't enter this group anymore.

At this time, her cell phone rang.

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 1063: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 87)

Nan Luo Ze had bought her this cell phone and she paid him back in monthly installments.

Although Nan Luo Ze had firmly refused, she still insisted on giving it.

The two held on for a while and finally the money was being pushed back and forth, creating a special kind of hypocrisy.

Luo Qing Chen was too lazy to care, so she treated it as a little joke for their love.

But she knew in her heart that if Su Xiao Xiao couldn't cross this hurdle, she could never be with Nan Luo Ze.

And this sudden incident had increased this idea.

The death call came from the hospital. Her only relative, who was her grandmother, suddenly had a heart attack and was in the hospital for her final moments.

When they reached the hospital, the doctor shook his head regretfully and said, "I'm truly sorry, if she had taken her pills, there wouldn't have been organ failure from lack of oxygen. She still has a bit of consciousness, please quickly go in!"

Su Xiao Xiao collapsed the moment she went in and she cried with all her strength.

At that moment, all the light in her heart had disappeared and there was only darkness left in her world.

Luo Qing Chen standing outside questioned the doctor.

"You said that she was sent to the hospital for a sudden heart attack, right?" Luo Qing Chen knit her brows with a bit of doubt in her eyes.

Su Xiao Xiao's grandmother suffering from a heart condition was something she knew. All the students in the class knew since she was Su Xiao Xiao's only relative, so they saw her at every teacher's conference.

There was one time when her grandmother had suddenly had a heart attack at the conference, but there was no danger since she had her medicine.

In this family, her grandmother was Su Xiao Xiao's only relative, it was impossible for her not to have her heart medicine.....

"Yes!" The doctor regretfully shook his head, "How could she not have her medicine with this condition! This medicine can save lives!"

"There wasn't the medicine in her bag?"

"Of course not, otherwise we could have saved her....."

Luo Qing Chen fell silent.

Su Xiao Xiao's crying became louder inside the room and Luo Qing Chen could hear the despair in them.

The endless despair hit her.

So in the next three days, Su Xiao Xiao never said a word. Nan Luo Ze just followed her the whole time, helping her with everything.

In these three days, Luo Qing Chen suddenly felt Nan Luo Ze had grown up.

Until Su Xiao Xiao suddenly stopped holding her grandmother's ashes.

"Can you stop following me?" She turned with a calm look in her eyes.

Nan Luo Ze firmly shook his head, "I'm not assured."

"I don't need you....." Her eyes misted over when she looked up, but her tears didn't fall.

Her pain had reached a point where she couldn't even cry when she wanted to.

"But I need you!" Seeing this Su Xiao Xiao, Nan Luo Ze's heart suffocated from the pain.

He wanted to take everything for her, he wanted to hug her, he wanted to give her all his warmth.

He couldn't restrain his impulses and wanted to charge forward, but Su Xiao Xiao's words made him freeze, unable to move.

"Scram!" She bit her lip as a strange look flashed in her eyes, "Why don't you understand that I don't like you! Scram as far as possible!"

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 1064: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 88)

Her tone was very heavy, it was different from the normal Su Xiao Xiao.

Nan Luo Ze almost couldn't believe that these words came from Su Xiao Xiao's mouth.

"Do you really think this?" His voice trembled a bit as he couldn't believe that this kind of girl would speak to him like this.

It must be because she was very hurt that she said this.

He could understand her weakness and anxiety.....

"You're thinking too much." Su Xiao Xiao's eyes and tone were both calm, there was no feeling at all as she looked at Nan Luo Ze and said, "Even if grandmother was still here, have you seen me respond to your so-called affection? Have you seen me being jealous of other girls? Have you seen me showing you any goodwill? Have you seen me ever having the impulse to be with you?"

"Alright, don't say anymore." Nan Luo Ze slowly took a step back. He bit his lips as his eyes filled with despair.

This was his first time feeling despair. This despair was like ten thousand needles piercing his heart.

"Then I won't say anything." She took a deep breath and took a deep look at him before turning, "Don't follow me anymore."

Nan Luo Ze was surprised. It was like his feet were tied with chains and when he wanted to follow her again, Su Xiao Xiao had disappeared.

At the same time, Luo Qing Chen had spent three days to investigate the truth of why Su Xiao Xiao's grandmother didn't have her pills through various contacts.

The results were as she had guessed. Her grandmother had met someone before dying and the pills in her bag had been taken by that person.

That person was no one else but their common enemy, Mi Zhi.

This time her grandmother had died from her relationship.

"This crime of murder, does she think she can run away?" Luo Qing Chen gritted her teeth and said to the royal followers behind her in fluent French, "I'll leave the rest to you. Remember, I want her life for this life."

[System notification: The host's second branch mission is about to fail.]

What?

She shouted out the moment the system's words rang in her mind.

A girl with depression had suddenly lost the only relative she had in this world.

The only solution was suicide.

She quickly called Su Xiao Xiao to receive no answer, so she called Li Si Nai.

Fifteen minutes later, they gathered in the yard of the school.

Today was Sunday and there was no one here. Nan Luo Ze felt that Su Xiao Xiao should be here, but he never thought it would be empty.

"What do we do, I'm very worried about her. What if something happened to her?" Nan Luo Ze's voice was filled with panic, it was completely different from his lazy voice from before.

"Don't worry, we can find her." Li Si Nai had mobilized all the power of the Li Family in A City just to find a trace of Su Xiao Xiao.

"No, we're running out of time." Luo Qing Chen looked up at the tallest building on campus, "Let's go to the roof."

When she entered the elevator, she called her system to exchange for something.

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for Thousand Mile Eyes (Only usable in this world).]

[System notification: The Thousand Mile Eye uses the inner eye. When using it, please close your eyes and concentrate with all your mind.]

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 1065: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 89)

Nan Luo Ze never understood why Luo Qing Chen wanted to come to the roof.

But he was very confused at this moment, he didn't know what to do and what he should do.

"Qing Chen." Li Si Nai softly called her and felt a bit of pain in his heart as he looked at her tightly knit brows.

She was clearly a highly noble royal, but the feeling he gave her was different.

"Un." She softly replied and closed her eyes, as everything around her changed.

She could see far places clearly and could also see close places more clearly.

With a soft breeze on her cheek, she felt that Su Xiao Xiao wasn't far from where she was now. She changed her view and her eyes fixed onto an abandoned building not far away.

She saw Su Xiao Xiao's figure right after which made her call out, "Above!"

"Where?" Nan Luo Ze immediately looked in the direction Luo Qing Chen was pointing in and he couldn't see anyone no matter how he looked.

Because it was too far, so far that one could only see it with binoculars.

"The top floor of the abandoned building." Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and said, "Quickly, she's about to jump."

Nan Luo Ze didn't even have time to consider how Luo Qing Chen had seen this, he immediately ran off towards the abandoned building.

Li Si Nai looked in the direction Luo Qing Chen was pointing in before looking at the serious Luo Qing Chen. There was suddenly a sparkle that filled those deep eyes.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 100%.]

Although Luo Qing Chen was very happy after hearing this long awaited system notification.

It wasn't the time to be happy right now.

She needed to save Su Xiao Xiao as quickly as possible. It wasn't related to the mission, it was related to Su Xiao Xiao.

This best friend who had been through everything with her.

The abandoned building had no elevator, it was a very dangerous building. There were uneven steel bars all around, but Nan Luo Ze didn't hesitate at all as he charged towards the top floor.

Luo Qing Chen and Li Si Nai followed close behind, but her heart was always in her throat.

She felt that something bad was going to happen.....

[Host, it's too late!]

When the system's voice sounded, her heart skipped a beat. There was that girl in front of her holding her grandmother's urn as she silently said, "Goodbye."

“Xiao Xiao!” She called out. At that moment, she shouted out from behind the door to the top floor.

Nan Luo Ze trembled and when he was about to open the door, there was a thud sound that hit his ears.

He was like a puppet with its strings cut as he fell to the ground.

He kept shaking his head as he muttered, “No.....Impossible, impossible.”

As soon as his voice fell, he opened the door and rushed to where Su Xiao Xiao had jumped off.

When he looked down, he was frozen in place. His mind was numb and his eyes filled with despair.

System.....I want to reverse time.....

[Host, if you want to return to three minutes ago, the host will leave this world for three years. Reversing time and space is dangerous. Since the system has already used it once, the price has increased. If it fails, world will disappear and all your experience points will be deducted.]

Un, got it.

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping
Chapter 1066: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 90)

She answered very calmly like it was just a decision, not an answer.

[Ding, 1000 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for space and time reverse.]

When she opened her eyes again, she was downstairs at the abandoned building. She could see where Su Xiao Xiao was if she looked up.

She thought that they would be in time to save her, she thought that if Nan Luo Ze could save her, it would be a new start for Su Xiao Xiao.

It was a pity that they didn’t make it in time.

She looked at Li Si Nai and said, “You go up first, I’ll run up the stairs on the side and see if it’s faster.”

Li Si Nai was a bit surprised, but he didn’t think too much as he said, “Alright, be careful.”

When she watched Li Si Nai run up, she quickly ran to a corner to use her special ability.

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for teleportation.]

“Su Xiao Xiao, have you caused enough trouble?” She stood behind Su Xiao Xiao, watching her shoulders tremble.

She didn’t move forward, but she also didn’t turn.

“Qing Chen.....Don’t try to convince me. I already thought it through, no matter how big this world is, there is no place for me. I really am tired, there’s no one like me, no one.....”

Luo Qing Chen just watched her since if she said anything, she might just have the impulse to jump down.

She didn’t refute what she said, she just told her the results of her investigations.

“Mi Zhi killed your grandmother, you’re not planning on avenging her?”

“What?”

In the next three minutes, Luo Qing Chen told Su Xiao Xiao everything that happened as quickly as possible.

Her expression turned from shock to hatred. Luo Qing Chen knew that someone who suffered from depression was someone on the edge of death.

As long as there was hatred, she would have hope in living.

“Peng.” The door was slammed open.

Nan Luo Ze saw Su Xiao Xiao standing on the edge and charged towards her without even thinking.

While Su Xiao Xiao was stunned, he grabbed her and didn’t give her a chance to say anything as he brought her to a safe position.

“But.....But how do I take revenge for my grandmother.....” She didn’t want to be weak, she wanted revenge, she only wanted revenge.

But what could she do? She would do it all, as long as she can take revenge for her grandmother.....

“You have me!” She let out a long sigh before saying, “Relax, not a single one of them can run.”

In the next half hour, Luo Qing Chen handed all the data she found to Li Si Nai and Nan Luo Ze.

“You have taken care of everything already, why are you telling us?” Li Si Nai slightly knit his brows as he felt a bit unsettled.

“I need to leave for some time, there’s something very important.” Luo Qing Chen looked at the three of them before her eyes fell onto Li Si Nai, “How about we talk alone?”

“Where are you going?”

“Un.....It’s a very important place.”

“France?”

“Un.....No.”

“Luo Qing Chen!”

“Don’t call my surname!” She gave a long sigh. She suddenly felt a bit panicked facing Li Si Nai.

She told the truth this time because she wanted to give a proper goodbye.

Telling the other side an accurate time so he didn’t wait endlessly.

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 1067: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 91)

“How long?” After a while, Li Si Nai took a deep breath and slowly took her in his embrace. He said beside her ear, “If it’s because of a political issue, I can.....”

"No....." Luo Qing Chen softly patted his shoulder before standing on her tiptoes, "Although it's difficult, I do have to disappear for a bit of time."

She knew that she was selfish for saying this.

But she felt that if she didn't say goodbye, it would also be selfish.

Then she would be brave and believe Li Si Nai would wait for her. She also believed that their love was worth three years of waiting.

One life, three years of separation, it was worth it!

"How long."

"....." She took a deep breath before saying, "Three years."

For a long time, there was silence in the air. Luo Qing Chen could feel Li Si Nai's hands holding her becoming tighter until she found it hard to breathe. Only then did he let go of her slowly, "Got it, it's February 1st of 2085 today, if you're not back by February 1st of 2088, I will find a hundred girlfriends to fight you!"

"One hundred, isn't that too exaggerated!" Hearing his relaxed tone, she couldn't help feeling that the pressure on her wasn't that much.

She knew that Li Si Nai said this out of consideration for her feelings, so she was a bit moved, strangely moved.

Li Si Nai was a proud and overbearing person, she always thought that if she disappeared without a trace for three years, he would chase her to the end.

But she never thought that he would just give her a strong hug and softly say he understood.

"It's not an exaggeration, there are plenty of people who want to be my, Li Si Nai's girlfriend!" His lips curled and he patted her head in a pampering manner, as his eyes filled with unwillingness.

He didn't know why she wanted to leave, but he knew that if she didn't want to talk about it, she had her reason.

Since he was the one who guarded her, he should have absolute confidence in her.

After all, she was his girl, why shouldn't he believe in her.

"So narcissistic!" Luo Qing Chen gave a snort, "But you can be assured, I won't give those hundred girls a chance, you are someone of our royal family!"

"I won't join your family, you should be someone of our Li Family....." Li Si Nai gave a soft laugh, "Can you be my wife when you come back in three years?"

"This!" Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a faint smile as her clear eyes sparkled, "Alright, it's a promise."

Luo Qing Chen never thought that this was a serious promise, but Li Si Nai put it in his heart.

“When are you leaving?” He softly said, like he was looking at her for some sort of assurance.

“Immediately.” Luo Qing Chen looked at her phone before closing her eyes to give a sigh, “Don’t follow me, I can’t beat it.....”

“I won’t follow you!” Li Si Nai let go of her hand and acted calm as he said, “Just don’t forget your promise with me. Also....we’ve already decided on the time, you can’t be late!”

At that moment, he didn’t even have the courage to look at her, not to mention watching her leave.

“Alright.” She slowly turned around and walked out of the private room of the cafe. She turned to Nan Luo Ze, “Take care of Xiao Xiao. If I found out that Xiao Xiao says she was bullied when I get back, you just wait and see!”

“Qing Chen.....”

“Bye bye!” Luo Qing Chen touched Su Xiao Xiao’s cheek, “See you!”

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 1068: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 92)

In an alley, she closed her eyes with her back to the light.

Time flowed by and it was the first time she felt that ten seconds was this slow.

An hour ended this quickly, she didn’t even have time to properly say goodbye before she had to leave.

10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1.....

There was a sound in her ear and she could see Li Si Nai with the Thousand Mile Eyes that she exchanged for.

His deep eyes were a bit empty, looking off into the distance, as his fingers couldn’t help trembling.

At that moment, she could feel just how helpless that proud youth was.

She could also feel how important she was to him.

He narrowed his eyes and his lips trembled as he softly muttered three words.

“I love you.....”

She bit her lip and the surroundings started to change. This time she had the Thousand Mile Eyes, so she could see the changes around her when she closed her eyes. The people passing by and the seasons changing.

[Ding, congratulations to the host on successfully reversing time. There were no time and space cracks, your luck is exploding.....]

Thank you!

[No need to be polite, this isn’t the system’s merit!]

.....

Luo Qing Chen raised her cold eyes and patted off the snow on her.

Without knowing it, she had left for three years, but there was such a large snowfall in A City in February.

The snow was a meter deep and it felt like half her calf was covered.

“So cold.....” Luo Qing Chen shivered before heading towards the Capital Royal Academy.

It was noon right now. When she left, Li Si Nai was in his second year of high school, so he should be in the second year of university now.

「(—▽—)」 Still a student!

Without knowing why, the feeling of using the time reversal was different this time. Last time she panicked and was afraid, but this time she was expectant.

Perhaps it was the difference between seven and three years, perhaps this time she already made a promise to Li Si Nai.

The weather was very cold. She took out her phone to find a nearby clothing store, but then she remembered that her phone had already stopped!

After all, this phone belonged to this world and it didn't have its 'youth' frozen like her!

But when she took out her phone, her clear eyes were filled with a bit of surprise.

There were countless texts, most of them came from the communication company.

There was one person who kept paying for this phone number in the past three years.

He didn't call this phone, but he sent a text from time to time.

The texts were very simple, most of them were with strange numbers.

127, 311, 598, 606.....

Luo Qing Chen didn't know what these texts meant, but she couldn't be more familiar with the person who sent them.

But there were three texts that she understood!

They were——

2085.6.12 Happy birthday fool!

2086.6.12 Another year, happy birthday!

2087.6.12 You come back next year! Happy birthday, my girl!

.....

Her eyes turned red right away.

So being told to wait ended like this.

After a long wait, there was never a response.

But that proud youth didn't forget to pay her phone bill and he didn't forget to text her every year on her birthday.

It turned out that the warmth on his heart burned even stronger than his arrogance.....

Dear youth, she was back!

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 1069: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 93)

Before the winter of A City passed, she casually found a store to buy a large red coat before heading towards Li Si Nai's university.

The Capital Royal Academy wasn't far from where she was. Looking at her phone, today was Wednesday, so there should be classes right now.

She saw a stream of students walk out when she went through the entrance.

The men were in suits and the girls were in pink dresses, like they were heading to a banquet.

Luo Qing Chen stopped a girl who looked rather friendly and asked, "Is there a school celebration today? Why is everyone dressed up?"

"Ya, you don't know!" The other side said with a sweet laugh, "Today is a wedding ceremony for our school hunk Li, aren't you going to change clothes?"

"Wedding....." She trembled as she felt her warm blood suddenly turn cold.

What did this wedding mean.....What did it mean.....

"You.....You don't go to our school!" The other side looked over her before saying, "I finally saw the mysterious bride, all the fans are looking forward to this!"

After saying this, the girl who looked pretty good headed towards the church not far away with her boyfriend.

Luo Qing Chen's right hand clenched her phone and her heart kept beating. There was a very strange feeling, it wasn't that she felt bad, she was just a bit nervous.

She followed everyone and walked through the white doors of the church. The guard wasn't properly watching, so she smoothly went past.

There were balloons all over and there was a wedding march playing. The hall was filled with guests, looking very lively.

"Welcome everyone to our young master Li's wedding. We ask our guests to sit down since we will now show a short video." The host was wearing a long pink dress with large waves and there was a smile on her face.

Luo Qing Chen couldn't find a white seat with her name on it, so she could only sit in the last row.

Looking around, she didn't see Li Si Nai. She didn't even see a familiar figure.

The picture on the screen flickered before revealing a cartoon. The first thing that appeared was a plane that flew through the blue sky.

Then the camera changed and entered the airport. There was a dazzling and sunny youth in his white clothes and a black tie, wearing a large pair of sunglasses. There was an unruly handsomeness to him.

There was a girl who was the same age as him walking in front of him, dressed in brand clothes and holding an exclusive edition LV bag.

When Luo Qing Chen saw this, her eyes turned cold and those clear eyes instantly misted over.

This.....was his and her story.....

She suddenly remembered what he said to her before she had left.

"Don't forget your promise with you. Also.....you can't be late!"

So.....was this wedding for her?

Just this idea made her lips curl unknowingly. It was just ten short seconds for her, but it was three long years for Li Si Nai.

How did he feel waiting for this long?

Afraid or.....expectant. He had this kind of obsession, completely believing in her.

The scene changed again and the youth's cool voice sounded, "Welcome everyone to my wedding."

Quick Transmigration Female Lead: Male God, Never Stopping

Chapter 1070: Hello, demonic school hunk (Part 94)

"Young master Li, young master Li, young master Li!" The fans cheered from under the stage. Whether they had a boyfriend or not, Li Si Nai was their male god at this moment, the school hunk of the Capital Royal Academy!

All the envious sounds entered her heart bit by bit.

"I really envy young master Li's girlfriend, young master Li buys her chocolate cake and strawberry yogurt every day."

"I know, I know! Last time I met young master Li at the breakfast shop, he was buying breakfast for his girlfriend."

"Young master Li normally seems cold, but he must be very sweet to his girlfriend!"

"She must be a great beauty!"

"I heard that young master Li was super good to her in high school....."

.....

"Alright, alright, alright, everyone, let's not talk about this." The host said with a faint smile, "There's a few questions we need to ask the groom today, it's your two best friends who will ask for us!"

Li Si Nai gave a chuckle as his eyes sparkled and he said, "Ask! The questions you ask will be returned since you'll be getting married soon too."

"Wa." As soon as his voice fell, the crowd filled with cheers.

"Ha, ha, our young master Li really is handsome!" The host continued, "The first question is from our mister Nan Luo Ze. He wants to ask, were you nervous waiting for three three years?"

Li Si Nai heard this and his shoulders trembled. It was Nan Luo Ze who understood him best in this world, his loneliness and his obsession.

"Of course." Li Si Nai said with a nod, "After all, no one knows whether the bride.....will appear or not."

"Si."

When Li Si Nai said this, everyone took a cold breath. Everyone looked right at Li Si Nai, not understanding what he had just said.

The host looked a bit awkward and quickly changed the topic, "The second question is from miss Su Xiao Xiao. She wants to ask, why did you like that girl back then?"

Li Si Nai thought for a long time about this question and finally revealed a faint smile as he looked at a certain place under the stage. His knit brows relaxed and he gave a chuckle, "Something decided by fate, if I don't like her, how disappointing that would be."

As soon as his voice fell, he took a bunch of white roses and walked in a direction in a determined manner.

Luo Qing Chen was surprised to see that the youth had found her in the crowd. There was a thin layer of mist that appeared over his deep eyes as his fingers trembled. She knew just how excited he was at this moment!

That young man fell to one knee in front of her with those roses. There was a pampering look in his eyes as his left hand tightly held her wrist, "Thank you for keeping your appointment."

It was good as long as she was back, three years of being alone didn't count for anything since it was all worth it. As long as she could appear at the wedding, anything was fine.

"Li Si Nai....." She bit her lip. When she was about to stand, she fell into a warm embrace.

The crowd exploded with cheers.

Nan Luo Ze and Su Xiao Xiao came from both sides, but she couldn't see or hear anything at that moment.

Because her eyes blurred her sight and Li Si Nai's embrace was too warm.

Suddenly, it felt like the whole world was applauding her wedding, cheering for her happiness.

Dear youth, thank you for your gentleness, waiting such a long time.
