Chapter 121: Abstinent Beast God's pampered little princess (End)

"Ha, ha!" Her lips curled and she said with a spring breeze like smile, "Really cute!"

"But I feel Qing Qing is cuter." Ling Xiu raised her hand and stepped onto his sword, flying off into the sky with her.

Mo Bai made out of the lotus root followed them with all his might until they landed in a paradise.

This was an abandoned flower filled paradise with an empty crystal palace in the center. Countless flowers surrounded it, it was incredibly beautiful.

"So beautiful!" Luo Qing Chen's eyes lit up as she looked at him and asked, "How did you find it?"

"This is a gift my mother gave us." He took her hand and said, "We'll live here from now on, alright?"

When Ling Xiu talked about his mother, she suddenly thought Xi Ru You. She was the first person she saw after coming to this world.

She looked over at his peerless face and went on her tiptoes, using incredible speed to land a kiss on the side of his lips before saying, "Alright!"

Who would have known that when her voice fell, he would feel it wasn't enough. He gently pulled her in by her waist with his right hand and his cool lips went down.

The night breeze blew across them, the western reeds danced, the beautiful flowers bloomed, and time passed by them.

They agreed to be together, walking down this path forever.

In this world, Luo Qing Chen was the one to leave first. After living for an entire ten thousand years, even if she was from the Heaven Race, she still needed to return to the void.

That day, the sun shined bright. Both he and her could tell that today was her time to go.

"Qing Qing." Ling Xiu softly said, calling the young girl leaning against him.

She had skin like jade and eyes like stars. With a faint smile, her beauty was unmatched. It was like the countless years hadn't left a single mark on her face.

It was not that Luo Qing Chen was special, rather the Heaven Race's people would never grow old.

"Un." Luo Qing Chen nodded. Her lips had a faint smile as she said, "Ten thousand years have passed so quickly, it seemed like it passed in the blink of an eye."

Without knowing why, she was feeling unwilling. This was just a place for her to complete a mission, but it became the place she was most tied down to.

She knew what her mission was and also know why the people she met all felt so similar.

The system thought she didn't know, but she actually did.

The male lead that fell in love with her in each world had a black mark on the back of their ear. That mark that was like the mark of a death god served the same purpose as the red lotus that was very faint on her face.

“What to do?” His voice choked up a bit as he held her tightly and said, “I’m not willing to let you go, not willing at all. What do I do?”

She could feel his cool tears falling onto the back of her hand, but she didn’t look up at him.

Because she was afraid. As long as she took an extra glance at him, she would break down in tears from this meeting.

She couldn’t cry! She knew that if she showed him her crying, he wouldn’t be willing and would feel even worse.....

“You have to live well. I’ll be waiting for you to find me, alright?” She closed her eyes and a feeling of drowsiness came over her. The warm wind blew beside her ear and everything became silent.

“Silly.” He tightly held her and whispered in her ear, “Did you forget about my Unbreakable Soul?”

The mysterious aura of the ancient forbidden technique appeared. The pale blue light sparkling in his meridians began to weaken.

Instantly, his spiritual energy slowly began to scatter, leaving this world with her.

This was his destiny, not hating life and death, only hating that time passed too quickly.

Chapter 122: Sir Ling Xiu’s side story (Part 1)

Endless joy in life and no regret in death. Are you willing to save me in the next life? ——Ling Xiu

When I was born, my father and mother were no longer by my side. My father was locked in the Heaven Race’s prison and my mother wandered in an immortal mountain, thinking of ways to save father.

Since I was young, I lived with Ling Shuan and big sister Ling Yao. Big sister was very gentle. Perhaps it was because our mother was not by our side, so she was very protective of me and Ling Shuang, always treating us very well.

Big sister told me that there were more men than women among the Beast Race of this world. Therefore, if I see a female after heading out, I should take the chance and make her my other half.

But I found out after growing up that big sister’s words weren’t right.

As long as I went out, there would be females confessing to me. No matter where I went, I was the center of attention.

Just this angered Ling Shuang to death.

But he was the big brother that loved me, until.....

The Sacrificial Spiritual Sword's seal broke and big sister sacrificed herself to the Sacrificial Spiritual Sword.

Everything happened too quickly, so fast that I couldn't even react before big sister no longer existed.

I hated myself and I knew Ling Shuang also hated me.

That day, the sky was red and purple. After a reverberating sound, the entire Endless Temple fell into a deathly silence.

The person I saw at that time was someone who looked exactly the same as big sister.

She silently looked at me, using big sister's voice to ask me if I wanted to leave with her.

Actually, I knew in the depths of my heart that this person was not big sister, but in that moment, my heart and my eyes were blinded.

I thought that even staying by the side of this person who looked the same as big sister was fine.

Only when Ling Shuang attacked Phoenix Feather City did I finally awaken. In the end, it was my fault.

Xi Ying was not Ling Yao and I could tell from Ling Shuang's eyes that he hated Xi Ying.

For him to hate a person like this, it must be related to big sister. My guess is that when the Sacrificial Spiritual Sword's seal was broken, perhaps it was related to the Witch Race or even Xi Ying.

My heart was suddenly filled with guilt. Actually, with my spiritual power, I could block Ling Shuang's Divine Law Bead, but in that moment, I was a bit disgusted.

I didn't know what was right and what was wrong. Perhaps if I died, I could meet big sister and find out the truth.....

No matter how much care or love there was, the only thing left would be someone crying at a grave.

The first time I saw her was in the ice mountain's Profound Ice Grave. It was a pity that I didn't have a heart at that time and didn't remember anything, appearing in front of her just like a fool.

Her blade was fast and she was covered in blood, but her eyes were still clear in that moment. Without knowing why, the her of that moment seemed like she was glowing.

There was only one thing in my mind. I wanted to protect her, I definitely wouldn't let her be hurt.

I blocked all the attacks for her, falling into her embrace covered in wounds. Without knowing why, I was very attached to that feeling. With the faint aura coming from her, I forgot the pain all over my body.

Actually, I knew that she had the Nether Flame, the thing that could kill me. But I closed my eyes, unwilling to leave her side.

I suddenly felt very foolish, like the fool she called me.

But she destroyed the Nether Flame in the end and patted my head as she said beside my ear, "My name is Luo Qing Chen. I have no family, no lover, no one to protect me like you. If we can make it out of this alive, how about you marry me?"

My heart trembled and my lips curved slightly as I gave a slight nod. I didn't know if she could see it, but I really wanted to marry her.

I didn't know if she would dislike me. I was a fool without a heart.....

Chapter 123: Sir Ling Xiu's side story (Part 2)

When we met again, I no longer remembered her.

The past disappeared like smoke. I stood outside the Star Palace, looking at the bright moon in the sky and I revealed a helpless smile.

Life, it could actually be this boring.

Mo Bai sent me my favourite peach blossom soup. The taste wasn't bad, but after finishing it.....

It was a bit hot.

I knew that there was something wrong with the peach blossom soup, but I didn't know why I didn't realize it.

In the next instant, she shook her head as she appeared in front of me. She had no spiritual energy at all, not hiding at all as she stuck her head into the room.

I felt my heart skip a beat and my heart that was warm instantly became boiling.

Who was this person? She was wearing a white robe and had passed through the God Punishing Sword Array without any injuries, standing in front of me with a harmless appearance.

The worst thing was that my heart kept beating fast without a care.

All of my reason disappeared and I finally understood what big sister meant back when we were kids, where she told me about the trembling and desire one felt when meeting their loved one.

The terrifying drug made me kiss her and tightly hold her in my embrace.

This was my first time hugging a girl. This feeling of squeezing together, I was actually unwilling to let go.

She said that she came to the Star Palace to take me as a master because of my high abilities and she said that she had passed through the God Punishing Sword Array because of her willpower.....

God?! Does she think I'm a fool? Using this kind of lie that couldn't even fool a three year old, how could she say it with such a straight face?

The most terrifying thing was that I wasn't mad at all, rather I felt she was a bit cute.

The day the maids were being assigned, I who had never participated in these sacrificial ceremonies actually secretly ran over to watch.

When I saw Xi Ying use her spiritual energy to change the palace she was assigned to, there was a trace of heart that suddenly filled my heart. I didn't even think, as spiritual energy left the tip of my finger and headed to the plaque.

There was a bit of satisfaction in my heart, I would see her again.....

Only, she really was someone who loved trouble and chaos.

But after she came to the Star Palace, it seemed to be filled with life. Even Mo Bai who didn't like talking to maids came to especially like her.

Sometimes when I inadvertently saw her smiling and chatting with Mo Bai, there was an indescribable feeling in my heart.

Not to mention her so called destined husband, Su Ye.

I couldn't control the anger inside me, as well as that faint heartache. I hated her talking to another man, smiling at another man. Not to mention Su Ye even hugged her.

He actually hugged her!?

I was so angry that I directly changed the pattern of the God Punishing Sword Array, deliberately pushing her to Su Ye.

Actually, I just wanted her to care about me, smile at me. Telling me that there was nothing between her and Mo Bai.

Perhaps she could even say to me that she only loved me.....

Or perhaps after a night, I would miss her very much and personally go pick her up.

But I never thought that she would charge into the God Punishing Sword Array without any hesitation.

I went to her side as fast as possible, but she was already covered in blood, falling into my embrace being covered in wounds.

Seeing her pale face and the blood that was almost dry, I felt my heart fill with a pain like it was being twisted.

In that moment, I knew that I loved the person in my embrace. She controlled all of my thoughts.

I was unwilling to move even a half a step away from her. Unwilling to see her being injured or feeling sad.

I thought that I would always be by her side in this life.

All the way until death, all the way into the afterlife.

Chapter 124: Sir Ling Xiu's side story (Part 3)

But I violated my own promise in the end, the promise that I would protect her for her entire life.

They used the chance when I headed to the Endless Temple to cast the forbidden Blood Curse Technique in the Star Palace!

Xi Ying, she actually did something like this! She could actually become this ruthless!

Only the heavens knew how much pain was in my heart when I saw her in her snow white robes, being completely submerged in water.

The feeling of anger, coldness, regret, fear, and despair filled my body. I would never forget it in my entire life.

I knew that I couldn't remain here, I couldn't let her be in any danger. Even if I died, I could never let her die.

So I made my decision. When I went to the Endless Temple to retrieve the Tranquil Breath Grass, I would also cast the ancient forbidden technique, Unbreakable Soul.

Luckily I had a Beast God's body, letting me use this kind of forbidden technique.

That way I would never leave before her. This way, no matter what happens in life, she would never leave me alone.

This way, in the years that I was alive, I could always be by her side. Watching over her, pampering her, protecting her.

Without knowing why, the heavens loved playing jokes on my.

A hundred years ago, big sister sacrificed her soul to seal the Sacrificial Spiritual Sword and a hundred years later, she stole my position and did the same thing.

I didn't blame her, but I wanted to know.....

Why didn't I die!

There was the ancient forbidden technique, there was the Unbreakable Soul, we should have died together!

Why did it lie to me, why did I have to bear this alone, why was it this cruel!

This world already had no meaning to me at all, I hated this world, completely hating it.

I drank large amounts of wine each day and for a moment, it could numb my mind and stop the pain I kept feeling.

But that in the end was only an instant. Day and night, my mind was occupied by her figure, being surrounded by her smile.

I really didn't want to live.....

But when I was about to give up, Liu Guang told me the crown prince was asking for help.

Xi Ying figure suddenly appeared in my mind. Big sister's grudge with her hadn't been resolved yet, how could I let her die.....

No, I don't want to live. I want to kill all the Witch Race and sacrifice them to the dead.

After that, I would go with them.

But I never expected that after the heavens were so cruel to me, they actually finally looked out for me.

I stood at the foot of the sacrificial platform and looked at her in her pink immortal dress, while being surrounded by faint pink light. My heart skipped a beat, filling with excitement like finding a lost treasure.

I didn't even dare speak. I was afraid that if I spoke, I would wake up like a dream.

But it was a good thing the dream stayed and she remained.

Only, she was a bit angry as she looked at me. I knew why she was angry, she must think that I wanted to save Xi Ying.

However, I didn't want to save her, I just didn't want her to bring big sister's face to hell.

Moreover, I didn't want to dirty her hands.

I never thought that she was the Heaven Race's little princess, falling to the mortal world was just one of her life's trials.

She was passing her trial and I gave all my love to her.

I suddenly felt gratitude towards Ling Shuang, thank you for helping me set this engagement.

Thank you for letting me openly marry her, marrying the Heaven Race's little princess that I dreamed about day and night.

No, she was just my Luo Qing Chen.

Everything scattered so easily, it truly was said. Only one thing to say, wait for me in the next life.

Chapter 125: Little theater side story

In the dark Chaos Space, there was an extra faint blue light that lingered there.

System notification: It's very afraid alright!?

Ling Xiu just casually stood there and released super powerful spiritual energy, making the system stand there patting its little chest as it asked its most favourite ten questions!

[System: A special report with the magnificent Beast God filled with love who has just arrived on stage, the system is very excited! Everyone use your empty voices to welcome the most handsome, elegant, cold, and infatuating «Abstinent Beast God» world's male lead, sir Ling Xiu!]

Hu, hu, hu, hu—A cold breeze blew through the Chaos Space, ending the system's introduction!

["Hello, sir Ling Xiu."]

"Un, hello."

["First question: When you saw her in the Profound Ice Grave, did you think she was a bad person?"]

"I was still a fool back then, how could I know!"

[Fools also have their own thoughts!]

"Eh—Back then, I felt that as long as I protected her, she would be mine."

System's voice over: I hate being fed dog food directly like this.

["Second question: Why did you change the assigned palace on her plaque at the sacrifice ceremony? (Please give me a bit less dog food)"]

"My girl, I'll protect her myself. Why would I give her to other people?"

Truly so! So overbearing!

["Third question: Who is the person you hated the most in this world?"]

"Is there even a need to ask?"

[.....No need, the system knows it's Xi Ying.]

No, it's Su Ye! So even though I knew the Marrow Cleansing Pill would have a double effect on him, but I didn't say anything! He should be even taller than Mo Bai right now!

This system is scared, is there anyone who can help this system ask the questions?

.....A deathly silence!

["Fourth question: What did you feel the first time you kissed her?"]

"Desperately trying to control the feeling inside that wanted her! I thought about it after, if I didn't use my spiritual energy to control myself after taking off her belt, she wouldn't have been in so much pain!"

[You mean that you want to do ¥###..... ¥### with her?]

"I think you don't want to be a system anymore, right? You want to be shattered to pieces, right?"

[Sorry, this system is still a baby, sir Ling Xiu will definitely choose to forgive it!]

So terrifying, quickly apologize!

["Fifth question: Many people think that your emotions for Ling Yao is very deep, is there any difference between Ling Yao and her?"]

"Familial love and love. These are different kinds of emotions, they can't be compared."

["Sixth question: When was your most vulnerable time?"]

“When she sacrificed herself to the Sacrificial Spiritual Sword. When the Exquisite Ring pushed my away, my world turned blank.”

[“Seventh question: Do you like the mortal her or the princess her?”]

“Mortal! Because I could always protect her. She didn’t need my protection anymore after she became the princess, my heart was filled with discomfort!”

[“Eighth question: What do you think is the most domineering thing you’ve ever done?”]

“Connecting to her with the Unbreakable Soul. I vaguely remember the look she had back then, that kind of feeling! Actually, I enjoyed it very much! After all, I died together with her, it was the happiest thing in my life.”

This! System! Hates! Eating! Dog! Food!

[“Ninth question: You lived together for ten thousand years, scattering dog food and not arguing at all. Didn’t you feel bored?”]

The system felt a cold aura, but it still had to ask this question!

“I just want to know, why wasn’t it a hundred thousand years or an eternity?”

System, three seconds!

[“Tenth question: Ke, ke, say something to her!”]

“Don’t be afraid, I’m here. Life after life, the cycle will never end.”

Ai, thank you for feeding everyone who hadn’t had enough.

[I now solemnly announced that the interview of the «Abstinent Beast God» world’s male lead, sir Ling Xiu is over.]

[Ding, congratulations on bringing a soul fragment into the Lead God Space. 3/100]

Chapter 126: Game god’s explosive agreement (Part 1)

[Host, welcome back.]

Luo Qing Chen was not very happy as the memories of the past kept flowing through her mind. Her heart was empty and she felt a bit of discomfort.

[Host, are you not happy?]

“Un.” Luo Qing Chen nodded as she spoke in an empty voice.

Her heart really wasn’t willing! She suddenly wanted to know who she was and what her identity was! Why did she have to experience such memorable love!

Those people, why did they all have the same mark? Why did they make it so hard for her to forget?

[Host, you’ll still meet.] The system rarely saw its host this depressed.

Luo Qing Chen immediately felt that the system had a bit of personality.....no, systemality!

[The following is a summary of the previous mission. Host, please properly look over it.] The system's voice sounded again and Luo Qing Chen felt she was overthinking it! Humph, cold blooded system who doesn't give people time at all to calm their mind!

Name: Luo Qing Chen

World: «Abstinent Beast God's pampered little princess»

Experience: 800/10000

Exchange points: 2900

Mission completion rate: 100%

Reward: Teleporting canvas shoes (One use)

This mission was still quite good. There was no messy side branch and she perfectly completed the mission!

The bronze mirror changed image again.

[The host can rest for ten minutes and then the fourth mission will begin. The mission's status is as follows.]

Experience: 800/10000

Appearance: 80/100

Strength: 60/100

Charm: 70/100

[PS: Other than experience, all the basic values are only for this mission and are not related to other missions.]

“The system has become more human lately! It can even give ten minutes of rest?!”

[The host doesn't want it?]

“No! I want to prove your so called meeting them again. No matter how that person changes their name or appearance, it all doesn't matter.”

[The host is really confident!]

“After all, I can recognize him with one glance.” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a smile. That black and ancient mark, it was already deeply imprinted in her heart.

Suddenly, there was a bit of expectation of meeting again and some feeling of missing them that appeared in her heart.

The bronze mirror changed images again.

[Mission Grade: B]

[Experience gained: 500. Exchange points gained: 2000 Reward item: Space and time freeze (One use).]

Female lead: Luo Qing Chen (Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust)

Supporting male lead: Bai Jin Nian (Demonic Year Young Master)

Supporting female lead: Ye Ying Ge (Western Reed Song/Only Love Young Master)

Bystander: Mu Qian Liu (Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud)

Mission content: [Return to a week before the death of the female lead and obtain the love of the bystander, Mu Qian Liu.]

“What? Bystander? Are you kidding me?!” Luo Qing Chen had a confused look seeing this kind of panel, alright?

[.....]

“Moreover, why is there no male lead in this world?” The system was so arrogant now that it even excluded the male lead!

[Because everyone in this world thinks the female lead is a man, she plays with a male character.]

“No wonder, no wonder the first name for the support female lead is a pair with the female lead! This, it really is a bit interesting!?” Luo Qing Chen gave two soft laughs, showing that she was a bit excited!

After all, she had thought over this before. Cultured people can throw money to tease lolis, martial focused people can bring a male god to their bed.

[The host has accepted the previous host’s memories. Memories are currently being imported now. Host, please secure yourself.]

“Aiya, hey, I’m a bit dizzy.....”

Chapter 127: Game god’s explosive agreement (Part 2)

The original host was the school flower of A High School and the legendary ‘Forest Department’s Goddess’.

Not only did she have a good family background, her grades were also very high.

The previous host majored in graphic design at university and right before graduation, she went to one of S City’s biggest gaming companies, the V Corporation for an internship.

She became an intern graphic designer for the V Corporation’s 3D holographic game «Heavenly Sword» and the original host fell in love with this game, stepping on the path of becoming a god.

Because the original host was quite open, she chose to play a male character in the game. A male god that was dressed in top level equipment that had all been enhanced +16 times that thrilled the hearts of countless girls!

Once her title as a male god was established, all those little girls who wanted to hug a big leg rushed in like a swarm of flies!

The supporting female lead Ye Ying Ge was one of them. She had an unknown ID at first, but once she met the previous host, she changed her ID to: Western Reed Song.

This was because the previous host's in game ID was: Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust

It had to be said, this supporting female lead's name was matched quite well.

No one knew the previous host was a girl, rather a goddess who was on the level of a school flower!

The supporting female lead used the previous host's young girl's heart that didn't know anything about the world, acting weak in front of her. She even participated in a beauty contest and was successfully named the 'number one beauty'.

One day, the supporting female lead and the previous host met on the battlefield and were even placed in the same time. When the battle was over, the supporting female lead directly DMed her. She got close, sent her picture, and said she wanted to date the previous host.

The previous host looked at it and saw that it really was a beauty. She thought that since it was a game, it didn't matter if she experienced a relationship with a girl, so she agreed.

The day they started dating, the previous host sent out five hundred and twenty Heavenly Coins worth of top grade fireworks (equivalent to five hundred and twenty RMB) to become a pair with the supporting female lead. The supporting female lead became someone envied by countless little girls who wanted to hug a big leg.

Three days after they started dating, the supporting female lead wanted the previous host's smurf which she stored her Emperor's Ink and other top grade material, saying that she wanted to use it to show off.

The previous host hesitated a bit before lending it to the supporting female lead. After all, this was her first friend in this game, even though she had hidden her gender!

However, the supporting female lead emptied the smurf in less than ten minutes. The previous host was filled with rage, directly using a speaker to call her out.

However, not only did the supporting female lead not admit it, she even called for help from the supporting male lead who was second on the rankings and the guild behind him for help. They directly pushed the original host to the cusp.

They cursed the previous host as scum. An uncle in his forties wanted to be the toad that ate swan meat? He was so ugly and he wanted to date the number one beauty!?

The previous host was filled with regret! She who was third on the entire world's battle rankings, normally she only knew how to fight, grind, or participate in country wars. She always played alone and didn't have any friends.

Once everything became real, she was this alone!

In a fit of rage, the previous host destroyed all her game equipment and at the legendary Billowing Bridge (ingame location), she threw away all the Cloud Coins (ingame currency) she had before returning to the login page and pressing the delete character button!

After all, this was just a game! But there was still black and white in this world. Morality was always viewed from the side of the ones with the greatest moral.

For example, a few keyboard warriors who worshiped the supporting female lead, not only did they keep raising up their goddess, they also kept sending pictures of a lame forty year old uncle on the internet to ridicule the previous host.

The previous host's blood pressure soared with rage and she directly sent her own picture online. But she was helpless since the public had already denounced the previous host. Everything became one sided and almost no one believed the previous host's picture.

The previous host couldn't clear herself and was buried in curses and insults.

The previous host who was in an incomparably bad mood was accidentally hit by a car on her way to the company the next day, dying on the spot.

Ah, it really was a tragedy. Why couldn't she take another look at the incredibly handsome CEO of the V Corporation!?

Chapter 128: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 3)

The story went back a week and the supporting female lead hadn't hooked the female lead yet. She was still the famous «Like Summer Flowers»'s rich tyrant god: Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust!

Luo Qing Chen was sitting in front of a computer and seeing the equipment and stats of the previous host's ingame character, she couldn't help being surprised!

It really was a rich tyrant, a full bag of equipment! The inventory had even been expanded, having a total of sixteen sets of equipment, taking up a total of five pages! Each one had been dyed and they were all made with top grade rare materials!

As expected, a girl was a girl in the end. Even when playing as a male character, it couldn't stop her young girl's heart that wanted to collect clothes.

System, system, did you forget something?

[Exchanging for Flowing Light professional gaming skills in «Heavenly Sword» requires five hundred points. Does the host wish to exchange for it: Yes/No.] The system knew what she was thinking, so it responded in a cold voice.

Damn, system, you.....Isn't this an attached skill? It's like the Exquisite Ring! Are you sure you're not trying to trap me?

[That was because the system felt the host was pitiful, so the Exquisite Ring was lent since you couldn't afford it.]

How could there be a system like you in this world?!

[So the host does not wish to exchange for it?]

Touch your conscience, see if it's still there!? Of course I want it, alright? Could it be that you want me who is third on the rankings to go fight mobs in the Beginner Village?

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for Flowing Light professional gaming skills (Limited to only this word).]

It was only an instant, but Luo Qing Chen felt her fingertips being filled with power.

She felt her right hand skillfully move with the mouse, sending out three different attack skills in three different locations in a single second. She already couldn't wait to play this game.

This game was currently the world's most high end 3D fantasy online game. Whether it was the details of one's face or the magnificent scenery, it was all incomparably realistic.

Sitting straight up, she seriously looked at the face of her character. He really was handsome! He was simply a male god, it was probably the male god in the heart of the previous host!

But all new players would feel dizzy when playing this game. It really was taxing on the mind to play this large scale game.

Luo Qing Chen opened her inventory and switched to the completely dyed [Extreme Frost] set. This was dyed with the highest grade materials, which costs one million Cloud Coins per bottle. When converted to RMB, it was around fifty RMB. The main area of the equipment would require six bottles and the sub area would require four bottles, coming to a total of ten bottles.

She couldn't help giving an emotional sigh. This set of clothes being dyed cost five hundred dollars, this was close to being heaven defying, alright?

But it had to be said, when she put on this set of clothes that was like a light bulb, it really attracted the attention of everyone around her!

[Nearby] I Only Have a Sword: Eastern Painted Great God, is the set you're wearing one of the top three sets for the arena?

[Nearby] Soft Song Under the Moon: I remember first place is the one with the white moonlight effect. Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust's set is the second best!

[Nearby] Sweet Candy Heart Sauce: Right, right, right! Last time we had the arena contest, the winner was Great God Thousand Snow, alright?!

Luo Qing Chen's expression changed slightly. Great God Thousand Snow, was it the Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud mentioned in the task panel?

She immediately opened the ranking list on the lower right corner and as expected, not only was Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud the number one player in the arena, he was also the player with the highest battle power.

His job was a Light Blade who could deal damage and tank, it was a kind of swordsman.

The second place was her. The third place was the so called supporting male lead Demonic Year Young Master, who was a Void Jade (magician).

She wanted to find the supporting female lead's rank, but even after reaching the bottom of the rankings, she still couldn't find a trace of the supporting female lead.

Really, so stupid!

She didn't say anything and maintained the indifference of a god. She clicked on the button for the [Rock Hammer Soldiers] battlefield and entered a queue for this twenty people battle!

She had to practice her skills first. After all, she spent five hundred exchange points for these skills, wouldn't it be wasting a heavenly gift if she didn't use it?

Chapter 129: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 4)

This was a twenty man [Rock Hammer Soldiers] battlefield, which was normally opened on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, and Sunday.

Luo Qing Chen's job was called Flowing Light, a job that switched between light and dark. The light side healed HP while the dark side unleashed damage, it was a very effective job.

This job in «Heavenly Sword» could be considered best for soloing and bad for party play.

After all, it didn't have much CC, so it could be instantly killed by someone's AoE (attack type) attack.

Even if it was like this, the Tyrant Flowing Light could reach the point of instantly killing someone, like with Luo Qing Chen's current set of equipment.

After entering the battlefield, there were thirty seconds given to change teams. The captains were in charge of changing the teams, at least ensuring that each team had a Nurse.

The twenty people battlefield then became four different teams.

[Battlefield] Western Reed Song: Captain, help move me to team two, thank you!

When this name appeared, Luo Qing Chen's eyes twitched. Thinking about what happened to the previous host, it seemed like the battlefield she met the supporting female lead on was this one!

Luo Qing Chen right clicked on Ye Ying Ge's ingame name to see her stats and equipment. Her equipment wasn't bad, but it wasn't very good. Her job was a Nurse!

Really, all girls in games chose to play as healers.

But, there were plenty of good Nurses all around. After all, the Nurses that had the greatest heals on the battlefield were considered Great Nurses!

Only, Ye Ying Ge wasn't one!

[Battlefield] Be Careful, Don't Run: Ying Ge, you have a coupling name with the great god!

[Battlefield] Western Reed Song: It's just a coincidence.

“Pu!” Luo Qing Chen couldn’t help laughing in front of her computer before muttering, “Ze, ze, still pretending!”

She was completely planning on ignoring the supporting female lead. She continued walking the indifferent path of a god and prepared her skills for battle!

The [Rock Hammer Soldiers] battlefield was not a head on clash, but rather a battle of who could take the lighthouse. This was also one of the bright spots of this game, it did not rely on equipment to suppress others, rather there was still a technical component.

After the first lighthouse, Luo Qing Chen rushed into the middle to enter the battlefield. Her technique was close to perfect, but when she encountered a big move from Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud, she was forced to use [Invincible Nirvana].

After Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud’s big move [Thousand Flashy Scattered Blades] was finished, everyone around had fallen to the ground.

Of course, that excluded her!

It was like a spring breeze passed through the bloody battlefield and it seemed like it was instantly frozen!

On the moon white clothes on her, the nirvana around her released a golden light. She just casually stood there on the bloody battlefield. A few scattered strands of hair on her face was blown by the wind, dancing with the silver ribbon, looking very light.

Luo Qing Chen switched to her light form as quickly as possible, filling up her HP!

There was no need to ask why she didn’t have a Nurse healing her because her idiotic Nurse had already died!

The Thousand Snow on the screen narrowed his eyes and a faint smile appeared on his lips. He disappeared and charged at Luo Qing Chen, planning to release a second skill!

“Damn!” Luo Qing Chen on the other side of the computer screamed in shock. In an instant, she began running towards the lighthouse.

The score right now was 70:90. In this game, the side that reached 100 first was the side that won.

Right now her side was at 90 points and as long as they could successfully defend a lighthouse, they could reach 100 before the other side.

There was a five second CD (cooldown time) for a player to take a lighthouse, during which they can’t use any skills. Moreover, as long as an enemy uses a control skill, it could disrupt them!

This was the lighthouse to the far north and it was currently lit up with the red light of Luo Qing Chen’s side.

She stood under the lighthouse with her snow white robes, waiting for that ‘enemy’ to come!

Chapter 130: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 5)

When Luo Qing Chen saw a white figure appear before her, she still panicked a bit before she focused 120% of her mind.

The score in the upper corner was getting closer, which meant that other than their one red point, the other points on the map had all been captured by the enemy.

If she died, this battle would be a loss for their red side.

Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud didn't say anything as he sent out a [Fixed Wind Wave] to trap her in place. She used her quick hand speed to dodge this CC and jumped backwards. Then she pressed the [Void Flow] spell button to swap places with Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud who was closer to the lighthouse than her.

In an instant, Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud used a [Charge] which was followed by a [Second Charge] at her, to take off two thirds of her HP.

Luo Qing Chen was stunned. She instantly swapped to using [Soul Mirror], using the [Soul Ban] to freeze him in place.

Actually, she was very scared right now because all of her CC spells were on cooldown and there was still the [Wild Kill] control spell in Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud's hands.

Although she wasn't familiar with the Light Sword swordsman class, she still learned some essential information from the previous host's memories.

After the [Soul Ban] spell was over, Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud directly used the [Wild Kill] to stun her, quickly following it with the Three Star Unparalleled [Thousand Flashy Scattered Blades] skill. When she felt that she couldn't make it in time to use the [Soul Turning] light from spell to cure herself.

The image instantly froze and two large numbers appeared on the screen, showing 98:100. Her HP was frozen at just ten points.

Luo Qing Chen's quickly typed out a sentence.

[Battlefield] Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust: You let me win.

After that, the summary of the battlefield appeared on the screen.

MVP: Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud

Highest damage: Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud

Most people killed: Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust

Most healing: Sweet Smile

After reading the summary, Luo Qing Chen directly clicked to exit the battlefield.

But what she never thought that after this battle, the world chat would have exploded!

[World] Passage of Time: Did you see that just now? Eastern Painted and Thousand Snow just had a duel in the Rock Hammer battlefield, it was an explosion of handsomeness!

[World] Candy Consort: I was there, I was there! Although I was killed way early on by Great God Thousand Snow's big move! (Aggrieved face (ㄍㄣ ^ ㄣ))

[World] Little Bunny in the Zoo: Can someone tell me which battlefield they are on? Is it ten or twenty people? I want to watch the great gods!

[World] Baker: @Little Bunny in the Zoo, the ten people battlefield is called the [Shadow Hunting Valley], alright? Are you a newbie? If you are a girl, let brother carry you!

[World] Little Bunny in the Zoo: I don't need you! I want to queue for the battlefield! Looking to meet a great god, just asking for one! (Expectant look (?○?○?))

"Ding dong——"

She hadn't finished enjoying these people in the world chat who liked watching from the side when she received a prompt from the system.

[Player Western Reed Song has added you as a friend, do you accept? Yes/No]

She didn't know why, but when she heard this sound, she suddenly thought of her mentally handicapped system!

[.....] The host wanted to insult someone and she didn't forget to bring along the system!

The corners of her lips raised slightly. Speaking of this, although the main task line didn't mention abusing the supporting female lead, but if the supporting female lead is fine, she would feel discomfort.

It was still an online game, she needed to abuse the supporting female lead daily!

Otherwise she would be letting down her title as the Eastern Painted Great God!

[PM] Western Reed Song: Great god, are you there? I just started this game and there are many things I don't understand. I saw that you were very powerful on the battlefield, can you take me on as a disciple?

[PM] Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust: Battlefield.

Her words were concise since she hated this kind of begging little girl!

But she never thought that in this battle, she and Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud would be on the same team while Western Reed Song and Demonic Year Young Master would be on the other team!

Ha, ha, a fun play is about to begin!
