Chapter 1401: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 27)

He was also the person who had killed Zhao Jin Xuan in another world. She hadn't figured out how to repay this, but now he had come to her.

"Luo Qing Chen, you've been reborn from a little punk to a proper girl!" Zhao Jin Xuan licked his rough lips, clearly showing interest in Luo Qing Chen who had changed how she dressed.

He liked this kind of youthful girl the most, it would definitely feel good!

Luo Qing Chen heard this and a trace of arrogance appeared in her eyes as her lips curled, "You used an idiom quite well."

"Yo, yo, yo, what idiom is that? Tell your big brother Jin Xuan" Zhao Jin Xuan swallowed his saliva as he looked at her, "I will have my brothers be softer later!"

"Reborn!"

As soon as her voice fell, Luo Qing Chen's right hand went behind her and the Nine Section Moon Whip appeared in her hand.

It was a dark alley and it was pouring, so Zhao Jin Xuan didn't notice that she had a weapon in her hand.

He had a cruel smile as he said to the brother beside him, "Nue Zi, how about you go first today?"

"Really, boss?" Nue Zi gave an excited nod before looking at Luo Qing Chen while almost drooling, "Although this place is a bit dirty, you can be assured, big brother will 'treat you well'!"

"Nonsense!" Luo Qing Chen narrowed her cold eyes and revealed a cold smile, "Come together!"

"Yo, yo, yo, you really are a punk girl! Take a look at how spicy she is!" Zhao Jin Xuan curled his lips as he said in a rough voice, "I'm afraid we can't satisfy you! Brothers, together!"

"Humph!" She just gave a cold snort as her eyes had a trace of killing intent in them.

If it wasn't for the law in modern society, she guaranteed that she would have left these men who insulted a girl's innocence all dead without a complete corpse.

But if she was in modern society, she could make their bodies lack something.

"Shua, shua, shua." In the blink of an eye, the Nine Section Moon Whip had caught a certain organ of a man.

She used a bit of force and pulled with her right hand, there was a heart rending scream.

Hearing this scream, it was quite satisfying!

At the same time, An Yu Sheng standing at the entrance of the convenience store never thought that one that came back was Luo Qing Chen who had bought the medicine, but rather his classmate Liang Bing Bing.

“School hunk An, are you waiting for someone?” She was using a pink lace umbrella and was dressed like a young miss, with a faint trace of perfume on her.

An Yu Sheng knit his brows and didn't reply. He took out his phone and planned on calling Luo Qing Chen.

Without knowing why, he was feeling a bit uneasy.

Liang Bing Bing who was being ignored was a bit angry. Seeing An Yu Sheng take out her phone, she stomped her foot and said, “Don't call Luo Qing Chen, she's already in the gentle embrace of my big brother.”

She was a school flower, how could she lose to a dirty girl!

Even if she had no way to prove her previous identity, that didn't mean she could become An Yu Sheng's girlfriend so easily!

If she wasn't clean, An Yu Sheng definitely wouldn't like her!

“What did you say?” An Yu Sheng narrowed his cold eyes and a chill came from him, almost freezing everything around him.

“I.....” Liang Bing Bing held her head up, “My words are what they mean.....Ah!”

Before she finished, An Yu Sheng had tightly grabbed her shoulder with his right hand and dragged her into the middle of the busy street.

This was a road with little traffic, so most of the cars drove very fast.

Liang Bing Bing's face was pale as her lips trembled, “You.....What are you doing?”

“Speak.....Where is she?” In the middle of the road, the youth had a cruel look as he stared at her, “If you don't speak, we can die together.”

Chapter 1402: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 28)

Liang Bing Bing's face was pale as the cars whizzed past them.

She was standing on the edge of life and death and An Yu Sheng's eyes in front of her were blood red, being filled with killing intent.

It was like he might really die with her at any second.

“You.....You.....” Liang Bing Bing was panting as tears began falling down right after.

She said in a trembling voice, “I don't know.....I don't know.....Let me go! Please.....Let me go!”

If she didn't see this An Yu Sheng, she never would have believed it.

That gentle and elegant school hunk could be this terrifying.

"It seems like you really don't want to live." An Yu Sheng's right hand was still firmly holding her shoulder.

"Hong long!" With a large boom of thunder, the large drops of rain fell onto his face. His face that had been pale looked very strange right now.

There was a large truck that was filled with steel pipes not far away heading towards them.

"No.....No.....Save me! Save me!" Liang Bing Bing was incoherent from her fear. She desperately begged the boy who she had once loved the most, begging him to let her go.

The lights of the truck were right in front of them and there was a loud horn that sounded. The ground was slippery from the rain.

An Yu Sheng had a dark glow in his eyes as his lips curled into a cold smile.

"Ah!" There was a scream of fear, but he felt it was sweet when he heard it.

It was like this person's last cry in this world.

Since this person kept reaching her hand in the dark towards the girl he cared about the most, why should he let her live?

The people who loved her shouldn't exist in this world.

The people who wanted to hurt her should all die in this world.

The only person she should care about in this world was him.

"An Yu Sheng." There was a cry that made his right hand stop.

The large truck filled with iron bars passed by Liang Bing Bing.

An Yu Sheng slowly turned to see Luo Qing Chen at the entrance of the convenience store and his dark eyes gradually cleared.

He released his right hand and flew right in her direction.

Without An Yu Sheng's support, Liang Bing Bing's legs turned soft and she dropped to the ground.

In the center of the busy street, she wanted to leave, but she didn't have any strength at all.

"Qing Chen." At the door of the convenience store, An Yu Sheng softly called Luo Qing Chen's name and took her in his embrace.

His hot breath fell onto her ears as his hands tightly held her, seemingly using up all his strength.

"It's fine, it's fine." Luo Qing Chen's heart was beating fast in her chest.

Her fingers were trembling slightly as her heart was filled with fear.

Because she had seen An Yu Sheng wanting to die with Liang Bing Bing. That gentle face had a look that was determined to die.

"It's good that you're fine....." His voice was very soft as his head sunk down in her embrace.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 70%.]

“An Yu Sheng.....” She sat down while hugging her. She touched his burning forehead with her right hand and seeing his face that was as pale as paper, she felt uncomfortable.

In the rain, the youth silently fell into her embrace.

She seemed to understand his personality at that moment, that terrifying degree of obsessiveness.

Chapter 1403: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 29)

“Di, da, di, da, di, da.” The clock on the wall clearly rang through the corridor.

There was the scent of alcohol in the air as she closed her eyes with an unspeakable feeling in her heart.

“Who is the family?” When the nurse’s voice sounded, she finally came back to her senses and stood up with a bit of worry.

“I am.”

The patient’s condition isn’t good, the flu is very serious and the high fever won’t break. The nurse handed her the bill and repeatedly told her, “Although it isn’t life threatening, we have to observe him closely.”

“Alright.” Luo Qing Chen’s eyes trembled slightly as she said, “Can I go in now?”

“You can.”

In a single room, An Yu Sheng was lying in bed with his eyes closed.

The machine on the side was attached to his finger, showing his heartbeat.

Luo Qing Chen came to the side of his bed and her eyes couldn’t help turning red. She felt that even though she did nothing, she unknowingly had hurt him.

After a while, the door was opened. Xia Qing Rou came in in a panic and when she saw An Yu Sheng’s face, her tears couldn’t help falling.

Luo Qing Chen didn’t disturb her and sat on the side without saying a thing.

She didn’t know how long passed before Xia Qing Rou finally stopped crying, turning to Luo Qing Chen, “Classmate Luo, can we talk?”

Luo Qing Chen gave a nod, not rejecting her.

Xia Qing Rou really was the rare good supporting female lead that she had seen in all the worlds she had been to.

Moreover, the aura and education she had, it all surpassed her understanding of the words ‘supporting female lead’.

In an empty hallway, Xia Qing Rou leaned back against the wall as she slowly said, "Actually when I first saw you, I guessed that big brother Yu Sheng would definitely like you. Although he never admitted it back then."

As soon as her voice fell, she gave a bitter laugh and looked at her with tears in her eyes, "You're very lucky, I envy you very much."

Luo Qing Chen took two hot coffees from the vending machine at the end of the hallway and gave one to her before asking, "Why did you think this?"

Xia Qing Rou took the coffee and said with a smile, "Because after big brother An left, this was the first time I saw big brother Yu Sheng recover his own look. When he saw you, there was a dim light in his eyes."

"Big brother An?" Luo Qing Chen knit her brows. She always felt that she would enter An Yu Sheng's world through Xia Qing Rou.

This world could have people with personality disorders, so there must have been a strong stimulus in the past which allowed them to display this personality in front of others, which was different from their own personality.

But Luo Qing Chen never knew why An Yu Sheng would have this personality disorder described by the system when he grew up in this superior family.

"Big brother An is big brother Yu Sheng's real brother." Xia Qing Rou took a sip of the coffee before saying with a sigh, "Although he is no longer in this world."

Over the next half hour, Luo Qing Chen heard Xia Qing Rou speak with sighs as she told her An Yu Sheng's past.

It turned out that he wasn't a gentle and kind youth when he was young.

He was a rather naughty child at that time.

Skipping class, playing in arcades, and fighting, he did almost everything. The youth that was truly elegant and gentle was his big brother An Liang Sheng.

An Yu Sheng's big brother was the one who loved him the most because his parents had always questioned why they gave birth to him, so they had given up on him since he was young, never caring about him.

Chapter 1404: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 30)

But An Liang Sheng was different, no one could match the love he felt for his little brother.

When An Yu Sheng fought with people, An Liang Sheng had come forward without fear and was stabbed for him, without any hopes of being saved.

"I vaguely remember what uncle and auntie said the most was.....why wasn't the one who died you?" Xia Qing Rou wiped the tears from her face and said, "After that, big brother Yu Sheng changed. He became the same as big brother Liang Sheng, he even became better than him, but I knew that he was hiding himself.”

After hearing Xia Qing Rou’s story, Luo Qing Chen was silent for a long time before slowly saying, “He is basically acting as An Liang Sheng.”

“Yes.” Xia Qing Rou nodded before curling her lips in a bitter smile, “Classmate Luo, what I have to say next is related to you two.”

“Us?”

“I know that it has already become necessary for him to love you.” Xia Qing Rou knit her brows as she said, “As long as there is something in this world that big brother Yu Sheng wants or wants to do, as long as it’s possible for humans, there is nothing he can’t get.”

“So?”

“Do you like him?” Xia Qing Rou clearly felt awkward, but she still asked this.

“I do.” Luo Qing Chen nodded, not making any excuses as she directly answered her question.

“If big brother’s love makes you afraid.....would you still love him?” Xia Qing Rou knit her brows. She looked at An Yu Sheng’s face through the window and spoke with complicated emotions in her words.

“Afraid?” Luo Qing Chen could understand what Xia Qing Rou meant since she already guessed most of An Yu Sheng’s personality.

She continued, “Are you trying to say that his fever was caused by himself?”

“You know?”

“As expected.....”

Xia Qing Rou looked at him in surprise since she always thought that Luo Qing Chen was a rough girl, but she would be afraid of this kind of terrifying love.

Luo Qing Chen looked at her surprised look and unknowingly touched her face with a smile of appreciation, “If it was you, would you be afraid?”

“I won’t.....I would only.....”

“Worry about his safety and not wanting to let him be hurt.” Luo Qing Chen didn’t wait for Xia Qing Rou to finish as she cut her off. She didn’t forget to add, “I feel that the only person that he loved and was loved by is gone, so he’s too insecure.”

She had a complete understanding of why the system had said that to her in the beginning.

An Yu Sheng was that kind of person.

That night, they talked in the hallway. They talked about An Yu Sheng’s past, the small things in life, but the most important thing was.....how to cure him.

At the same time, Zhao Jin Xuan and his 'brothers' also went to the hospital. Liang Bing Bing was completely terrified, she could only gradually sleep after getting a numbing shot.

The next morning, there was the sound of her arguing with Zhao Jin Xuan in the hospital room.

"Didn't you stop Luo Qing Chen? Why did you come to the hospital?!"

"Aiyo, young miss, father almost lost his treasure, don't you know that? You're still yelling at me!"

"Why can't I yell at you, you can't even deal with a single Luo Qing Chen and you're not embarrassed to call yourself big brother!"

"Damn! Big brother is telling you, even a hundred Liang Bing Bing couldn't beat a single Luo Qing Chen last night!"

Chapter 1405: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 31)

When Zhao Jin Xuan's voice fell, his brothers who had been beaten to varying degrees all nodded.

Liang Bing Bing put her hands at her hip as her eyes filled with rage!

After what happened last night, she was already no longer interested in An Yu Sheng!

That maniac wanted to die with her!?

"My good little sister, where did this Luo Qing Chen come from! She beat us like cutting vegetables! Let me tell you, if this was ancient times, your big brother would already be in the Yellow Springs, alright?" Zhao Jin Xuan saw that she didn't speak, so he didn't forget to add a few words.

However, Liang Bing Bing acted like she didn't hear this. She took a deep breath before a vicious look flashed in her eyes as she muttered, "I don't know where this Luo Qing Chen came from, but An Yu Sheng.....I know how to make it so he's better off dead."

Since the Liang and An Family were big families, she also knew a few things about the An Family.

An Yu Sheng's favourite thing, if she stole it, it would definitely be very interesting.

Thinking about this, she picked up her phone to dial Su Nian's number.

"Bing Bing, what is it?"

"Your next girlfriend is in the hospital, aren't you going to see her?" She had seen Luo Qing Chen coming down from upstairs. This hospital was close to the convenience store from yesterday, so An Yu Sheng should also be here.

"Qing Chen?" Su Nian's voice was clearly a bit nervous before he said, "Send me the address."

At the same time, An Yu Sheng had just woken up. He narrowed his eyes and looked around, only calming down when he saw Luo Qing Chen.

"Big brother, you're ignoring me!" Xia Qing Rou came in with a smile as she brought in breakfast.

Actually, in her heart, she was happy as long as An Yu Sheng was happy.

“How could I?” An Yu Sheng said in a gentle voice before sitting up, “How long was I asleep?”

“All night.” Luo Qing Chen put a pillow behind him before taking his temperature with an ear thermometer.

38.2°C, he still had a bit of a fever.

“Ding ling.” There was a ring from her cell phone that interrupted the words she wanted to say.

Although there was no display name, it was a number that she was a bit familiar with.

She hung up and looked at An Yu Sheng sitting in bed as she seriously said, “Your fever isn’t gone yet, drink more water and remember to take your medicine.”

Luo Qing Chen could naturally feel her phone ringing again and there was a dim glow in An Yu Sheng’s eyes.

With 70% affection, he cared about everything about her.

This strong sense of possessiveness and desire to restrain would be pressure for any girl.

But.....she didn’t feel anything.

Therefore, there was no need for Xia Qing Rou’s worry.

“Ding dong.” Her pocket vibrated as a text from Su Nian came.

Luo Qing Chen wanted to ignore it, but after reading it, she found that she shouldn’t ignore it.

(Tell me which room you’re in or I will use a megaphone to call your name. ——Su Nian)

Seeing the word megaphone, Luo Qing Chen couldn’t help knitting her brows.

She put her phone back in her pocket before looking at Xia Qing Rou, “I’m going out for a bit, do you want something to drink?”

Xia Qing Rou could understand her meaning immediately, so she said with a nod, “I want a cup of lemon juice. There’s no need to get anything for big brother, he can only drink plain water like this.”

Luo Qing Chen nodded. When she prepared to leave, An Yu Sheng’s cold fingers tightly grabbed her right hand. His voice was a bit cold as he looked up at her, “Do you have to go?”

Chapter 1406: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 32)

He didn’t want her to go, not one bit. He had some doubt over who had sent her the text, so why should she go, why?

The panic in his heart was like a needle stabbing it, this feeling was very suffocating and unbearable for him.

“Ding dong.”

There were more texts that came, shaking her pocket again and again.

Luo Qing Chen lowered her head, moving closer to An Yu Sheng.

He was surprised as she kissed him.

Although it was just a slight touch, An Yu Sheng's face couldn't help revealing a faint blush.

"Ke, ke....." Xia Qing Rou cleared her throat and said, "You're in public, please don't do this!"

"I'll be back right away." Luo Qing Chen looked at his dark as ink eyes as she said with a serious look.

An Yu Sheng was stunned as he nodded in a daze.

Actually, his heart was filled with a bit of nervousness at that moment.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 80%.]

After leaving the room, she ran all the way to the lobby. Su Nian's text was like a countdown for her and as the name suggested, if she didn't give her room number to him, he might really call out her name!

"Qing Chen!"

"Shut up!" Luo Qing Chen had her hands at her waist as she said while panting, "What do you want?"

She found it a bit hard to understand this Su Nian, why did he keep following her for! Her main mission was already hard enough to finish and she didn't have any progress with her side mission, how could she have time to talk to him!

"Yi, you're not sick!" Su Nian was surprised seeing how healthy Luo Qing Chen was and scratched his head, "Bing Bing called to tell me that you were in the hospital, so I rushed over!"

His expression was very relaxed like coming here wasn't that big of a deal.

"Who?"

"Liang Bing Bing!" Su Nian gave a shrug, "Did you two make up?"

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes when she heard this and a slightly unsettled look appeared. She rushed back to the room and didn't forget to add, "Who would make up, it's either she dies or I die in this world!"

When she ran to the stairs, she hit a warm and firm chest.

She touched her head and said 'sorry' while moving past them.

But she didn't expect a gentle voice to enter her ears as she fell into a warm embrace without any warning.

"What are you panicking for?" An Yu Sheng's voice was a bit soft, clearly showing that he was still very weak.

Luo Qing Chen looked at the needle in his arm and her heart skipped a beat.

“You.....Why did you come down?” She looked up at him and what entered her eyes was his face that was as pale as paper.

“Un.....Ke, ke.....” He shook his head and pursed his lips that didn’t have any blood before looking at her, “I didn’t feel assured that you.....”

Actually, An Yu Sheng enjoyed the feeling of this moment very much. He enjoyed having Luo Qing Chen’s worried look on him, enjoying this feeling of being between consciousness and unconsciousness.

The person he liked wouldn’t give a single person to anyone else. Whether it was Su Nian or someone else, there was no one in this world who could take Luo Qing Chen from his side.

Unless.....He no longer had the strength to hold her.

Unless.....He was dead.

This kind of terrifying and powerful love, a method that only belonged to An Yu Sheng surrounded Luo Qing Chen layer by layer.

Chapter 1407: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 33)

Xia Qing Rou was very worried as she pushed the wheelchair, aimlessly looking for An Yu Sheng.

She had already been very careful, but when she went out to the corridor to get a pot of water, An Yu Sheng had pulled out his IV drip and disappeared from her line of sight.

“Qing Rou, over here!” Luo Qing Chen saw Xia Qing Rou not far away and quickly waved her hand at her.

After all, An Yu Sheng who was holding her was currently putting all his weight on her.

His breathing was very soft and it had a unique scent as it fell onto her ears.

When they came back to the room, An Yu Sheng had already lost consciousness. There was a lot of blood on his right arm because of the needle, but Luo Qing Chen didn’t notice it. When she noticed it, she felt the colour of blood was shocking.

She looked at An Yu Sheng lying in the bed, watching as he used his almost extreme method to keep her in his safe zone.

He was so afraid of losing that he wouldn’t allow himself to lose her.

“39.3°C.” The doctor took his temperature again and when he talked to them, his expression didn’t look good, “The nurse should have reminded you yesterday that this patient has a strong case of pneumonia, it’s dangerous for him to have a fever like this!”

Xia Qing Rou and Luo Qing Chen on the side kept nodding, “It’s our fault.”

“Ai.” The doctor prescribed two kinds of antibiotics before reminding them again, “Please call the nurse if there are any changes in the vital signs, tell the patient the same thing when he wakes up.”

As soon as his voice fell, the doctor left the room.

Xia Qing Rou and Luo Qing Chen looked at each other before they both gave helpless sighs.

Luo Qing Chen thought that this matter had passed, but she never thought that things wouldn't go as smoothly as she thought.

An Yu Sheng never woke up. Luo Qijing Chen and Xia Qing Rou worked in shifts, so she went home to shower and change clothes first.

Su Nian called her once, but she didn't pick up. Su Nian called her twice, but she didn't pick up.

When a third unfamiliar number called, Luo Qing Chen finally picked up.

"Luo Qing Chen! Su Nian is in father's hands! If you want nothing to happen to him, come to the abandoned building by Baili Street."

Zhao Jin Xuan's voice came from the other side. Every word he said was fierce like he was filled with hatred for Luo Qing Chen.

"Oh." She coldly replied, "What does it matter to me?"

"Don't think that I won't dare. If you don't come, I will....."

"I'm not the police, whether you take a hostage doesn't matter to me."

As soon as her voice fell, she hung up!

Zhao Jin Xuan on the other side was almost angered to death as he threw his phone on the ground.

"Little sister, what did we catch Su Nian for? Luo Qing Chen doesn't care at all!" Zhao Jin Xuan complained. He looked at Su Nian who had been beaten unconscious and said with an unhappy look, "He looks tough, but he doesn't have any skills at all! He actually dares to challenge us!"

Actually, kidnapping Su Nian wasn't Zhao Jin Xuan's plan at all. If it wasn't for the fact that he was cursing Luo Qing Chen outside the hospital and this man jumped him, he wouldn't have done anything to this stranger.

"Since Luo Qing Chen doesn't want to take the toast, we'll give her something to watch." Liang Bing Bing took a small knife from her pocket and came to Su Nian with narrowed eyes, cutting his finger.

She had a fierce look in her eyes as she said through gritted teeth, "Send her a video, I bet she will come."

Chapter 1408: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 34)

It had to be said, when Luo Qing Chen saw the video, she was shaken.

There were no traces of the video being edited. Su Nian had been caught by them and had been injured.

For Su Nian, she could say that she was someone who could completely ignore him.

But she was someone with moral values in the end. There were some things that could be ignored, but some that she had to take responsibility for.

When she came to the affiliated school, Su Nian had invited her to a meal. When he thought that she had been in the hospital, he didn't care about skipping school to come and see her.

Whether it was because of his sincerity or his determination to win, Zhao Jin Xuan had captured Su Nian because of her.

So it stood to reason that she dragged him down.

At five thirty in the afternoon, she called Xia Qing Rou to tell her to take care of An Yu Sheng and that she would switch with her later tonight.

The place where Zhao Jin Xuan was holding Su Nian wasn't far away, it was just a bit remote.

By the time she reached the abandoned building, it was already dark.

There was a strong scent of rust in the air and the cold wind blew past, creating an eerie feeling around her.

Luo Qing Chen directly went to the third floor. When she was planning on opening a certain door, several knives flew at her.

She just gave a cold snort as her clear eyes were covered in coldness.

Luo Qing Chen jumped out and grabbed a rotten steel pipe in an instant, swinging it out in their direction.

Although the room was dim, she could still see Su Nian's face. His head was down and the finger that had been cut was bleeding bit by bit.

Zhao Jin Xuan standing on the side pulled Liang Bing Bing back a step as he ordered, "Fight to the death, it's on me if you die!"

The little brothers look at each other before charging at Luo Qing Chen with their big knives.

"Overestimating yourselves." She jumped to the left and kicked the person to her left down to knock everyone else down in a clockwise pattern.

This took less than three seconds.

Liang Bing Bing was simply stunned. She never thought that this punk girl would actually be this strong.

Luo Qing Chen clapped her hands before throwing the steel pipe at Zhao Jin Xuan.

With a pitiful cry, Luo Qing Chen's lips curled before she quickly moved towards Su Nian.

"Su Nian." She softly called his name, but there wasn't any reaction.

When she was planning on checking his breathing with her hand, Liang Bing Bing called out to her from behind.

"Don't move.....You.....If you move, I'll shoot." She had a pistol in her hand and was standing five meters away from her.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as she slowly turned. Her hands were in her pockets as she faced Liang Bing Bing.

Her face was a bit pale and although she stuttered, her voice wasn't trembling.

Luo Qing Chen knit her brows. She felt that something was off, but she couldn't tell what.

"Just with you? You want to kill me?" Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug before spreading her hands, "You should just.....shoot!"

Not to mention her abilities, just with Liang Bing Bing's skills as a novice, it wouldn't be easy for her to hit someone from this close range.

Shooting had recoil, it didn't mean that anyone could shoot.

"I won't shoot, but that doesn't mean you can leave." Liang Bing Bing wasn't angry when she heard this. She then revealed a strange smile.

She felt a heavy hit from the back of her head and her vision turned dark.

Chapter 1409: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 35)

There was no outsider who could outcalculate her, only people she trusted could hurt her.

When she opened her eyes, she found herself in a high end hotel suite. There was a faint scent of roses in the air and she was tied to a large bed covered in rose petals.

Her head felt a bit heavy, it was a bit hard to breathe, and her body was a bit warm.

She wasn't a stranger to this kind of medicine. She had felt this similar feeling when she had been on a certain cruise ship.

"Damm!" Luo Qing Chen gritted her teeth as Su Nian appeared in her mind.

There were only two possibilities. One was that Su Nian was working with Liang Bing Bing from the beginning, but this situation was easy to solve since they couldn't hold her.

Two was that there was a large problem with Su Nian's personality.

"Kacha." The door was opened and Su Nian slowly walked in with a bottle of red wine and an evil charming smile.

"Qing Chen, you really look good like this."

There were the stains of red wine on his lips as his deep eyes looked at her.

"Tell me your goal." She bit her lip and tried to calm her breathing as much as possible.

"Goal?" Su Nian raised a brow and his smile became even more sinister.

He gritted his teeth and looked at Luo Qing Chen as he said word for word, "I want him to die."

“Why?” She knit her brows with a bit of concussion, “Don’t tell me it’s because you’re both school hunks.”

“Do you think I care about things like that?” He went forward step by step, slowly drinking all the red wine in the glass in his hand, “Everything he owns is based on my pain.”

As soon as his voice fell, Su Nian took out a stack of pictures from his pocket. They were pictures of him carrying her when she had been unconscious.

His smile became even wider as he looked at her, “I know that An Yu Sheng has a split personality. If he knew that you were with me, what would he become?”

“Su Nian.”

“My surname is not Su, Su is my mother’s surname.”

At the same time, An Yu Sheng in the hospital received an envelope.

He knit his brows as he opened the envelope and then his body froze.

He didn’t even dare breathe at that moment. It felt like his heart was being suffocated and his fingers couldn’t stop trembling.

“Big brother Yu Sheng.” Xia Qing Rou came in and looked at him with a worried expression, “What is it, what is it?”

“Why, why?” He looked up slightly as his bloodshot eyes had a light mist over it, “Why does she not want me, how can she not want me.....”

“Big brother, calm down.” Xia Qing Rou frantically put the photos away, but An Yu Sheng was faster than her. He picked up the photos and pressed them against his chest.

His face didn’t have a single drop of blood as his brows knit, with both hands tightly holding his heart.

Why was it so painful that he almost couldn’t breathe?

So loving a person is this painful, painful, painful.....

Xia Qing Rou gently patted his back while desperately calling the nurse.

But he didn’t hear anything. An Liang Sheng appeared in his mind first before it changed to her smile.

“Di, di, di.” There was the sound of the mechanical instrument along with Xia Qing Rou’s heart rending cry.

If he didn’t have her, he didn’t even want to live. But how could she bear to not want him, bear to not love him?

[Ding, affection has increased by twenty. Mission completion rate is now 100%.]

Chapter 1410: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 36)

He didn't know how long he was out, but he knew that Xia Qing Rou kept shouting in his ears.

She seemed to be saying: Big brother, come here, come here, Qing Chen is calling us.

Really? Wasn't she with someone else? Did she still remember him?

"Big brother, big brother, Qing Chen is saying she only likes you!"

The long sounds of the machine instantly returned to normal and the surrounding medical staff let out a sigh of relief.

"Blood oxygen levels are back to normal. Give the patient a balanced saline solution and send him to the ICU."

"No need....." An Yu Sheng who sat up slowly opened his eyes with a bit of a sparkle in them. He turned his attention to Xia Qing Rou and said, "Is she still there? Cell phone.....give it to me."

Xia Qing Rou came back from her great shock and gave the phone to An Yu Sheng.

The moment he took the phone, Luo Qing Chen's trembling voice sounded.

"An Yu Sheng....."

"Un."

"An Yu Sheng....."

"I'm here."

"An Yu Sheng....."

"As long as you call, I'm there."

Luo Qing Chen stood on the roof with red eyes. An extremely unsettled feeling filled her heart the moment the system gave her that notification.

She used all her strength to ignore the blood from her wrist as she broke free of her bindings and threw Su Nian to the ground.

There was a bit of rain in the sky that fell onto her face. It brought a slight chill that extinguished the heat that was coming from inside of her.

"Wait for me to come back." When Luo Qing Chen said this, crystalline tears dripped down.

Perhaps there were many people who felt that An Yu Sheng's heart had a flaw that was very terrifying, even being unable to understand his self abuse.

But she didn't think so. She was sure that Xia Qing Rou was just like her.

She wanted to protect this An Yu Sheng, letting him feel safe, letting him feel not scared of loss, letting him receive the same love that he received.

“Alright.” His cold voice slowly rang out after a while before he asked, “You wouldn’t not want me, right?”

His voice was very soft, but she could hear a bit of pleading in his voice. He wanted the one he loved the most by his side.

Always, always by his side.

“I like An Yu Sheng, the one I love most in this world is An Yu Sheng.” She gave a chuckle that was a bit choked up, but it did sound quite warm.

This was probably what An Yu Sheng’s heart wanted to hear the most.

There was no sound from the other side as the young man just softly breathed. He looked up a bit as he said with a tearful smile, “Thank you, Luo Qing Chen.”

Thank you for saying that the one she loved most in this world was An Yu Sheng.

Thank you for allowing his love, his thoughts, and his care to be reciprocated.

An Yu Sheng didn’t go to the ICU ward and remained in his previous room.

After the call, his mood was much better and the fever that would never leave had receded.

Some people loved people, some people loved power, some people loved beauty.

What he loved was Luo Qing Chen’s love. He yearned for it and to own it.

Half an hour later, the door opened. He looked up in job, but it wasn’t Luo Qing Chen’s face that he saw.

Rather, it was.....Su Nian.

He had reached the hospital before her. What he couldn’t get in this world, he would never let An Yu Sheng have.

Because.....he was his little brother from the same father and a different mother.
