Chapter 1431: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 57)

The two hosts talked to each other on stage, making the show very grand.

“Welcome all the business leaders and various celebrities to the engagement ceremony between mister An Yu Sheng and miss Liang Bing Bing.”

“Next, let’s invite our most handsome bride and most beautiful groom to the stage.”

Liang Bing Bing had a proud look in her moon white wedding dress, walking towards the dazzling stage with her head held high.

She was a princess, she was the only school flower, she was the most perfect goddess in the mind of her fans.

Everything should have belonged to her.

But that little punk girl Luo Qing Chen had stolen her spotlight!

But now everything had already fallen apart. She was wearing her wedding dress and standing beside An Yu Sheng like Snow White.

The pearls on the wedding dress shined bright and the large diamond on her fingers dazzled the girls under the stage.

“Ah Sheng.” She had a proud smile as she said in a soft voice beside An Yu Sheng, “Although you went overboard that day, I know that you’ve been misled.”

An Yu Sheng didn’t reply, his bright eyes kept looking for a figure in the crowd.

Suddenly, he was a bit worried.

This place wasn’t a place that anyone could come into. Even if Luo Qing Chen had some money, she wouldn’t be able to come in.

He shouldn’t have let her come and steal the groom. He was a bit regretful, afraid that she couldn’t come.

But he had already made his decision.

Even if Luo Qing Chen didn’t come, he would go find her.

After all, in his blank life, the only remaining memories were.....of her.

“Ah Sheng, what are you looking for?” Liang Bing Bing unhappily bit her lip as she said, “You won’t think that that little punk girl Luo Qing Chen would come, right?”

“So what?” An Yu Sheng’s voice was very soft, but it was also a bit cold.

“He, he.” Liang Bing Bing gave two cold laughs, “Stop dreaming! What kind of person is she, how could she be qualified to come here? Do you know what kind of people are here today? That little punk girl, she isn’t even qualified to hold their shoes!”

At this time, there was a raging fire burning deep in her heart.

They were standing on stage as a new couple today.

But her fiancé was thinking of another woman!

As expected, these cheap girls really were hateful. They were like annoying flies that kept buzzing around.

“Next, we’ll enter the ceremony of the vows.”

“What is the most important thing the new bride wants to say to her fiancé?”

“Yo, yo, yo!”

“Woah!”

“Pa, pa, pa, pa, pa.”

There were cheers from the audience which made it very lively.

But they never would have known that there was a girl in a black wedding dress at the entrance that had a perfect smile on her face.

“That....” Liang Bing Bing shyly swayed back to back before saying with a smile, “That I like you the most!”

Her voice falling onto An Yu Sheng’s ears couldn’t help making him knit his brows.

“It seems like our new bride is very shy!”

“Now let’s ask our groom to be, what is the most important thing he wants to say to his bride?”

Silence, silence, silence.

A very awkward silence.

Other than An Yu Sheng, everyone present felt awkward.

The host saw this and quickly said, “It seems like our new groom is even more shy!”

As soon as his voice fell, An Yu Sheng took the microphone, “I don’t love her and won’t marry her.”

Chapter 1432: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 58)

“Si!” Everyone took a cold breath at that moment.

The clapping and cheering had turned into whispers.

“Aiyo, this An Yang’s son is so direct! He’s not giving old Liang any face!”

“Isn’t it so? This is a political marriage, it’s about to go bad.”

“Look at old Liang’s face, look how black it’s turning!”

“But I don’t think that this can be blamed on An Yang’s son, I heard that old Liang’s daughter is so prideful, who can take it?”

.....

Although everyone was whispering, no one was as agitated as Liang Bing Bing.

After all, she was considered half the lead today.

“You.....What do you mean?” Liang Bing Bing gritted her teeth. Although she was very angry, she wasn’t acting tough with An Yu Sheng.

No matter what, she would marry him and become the most dazzling princess.

“Peng.” The doors to the hall were suddenly opened.

Luo Qing Chen came in with a black lace wedding dress and high heels inlaid with diamonds. She walked through the hall towards the stage step by step.

The youth narrowed his eyes and felt all his blood boiling at this moment.

That beautiful girl who belonged to him walked over with her back to the light. The delicate lace of her dress lined her long legs, perfectly outlining her exquisite curves.

She had turned and revealed a faint smile towards him.

That smile could be described as a beautiful scene.

Everyone’s eyes shifted to her, all letting out gasps of surprise.

That beauty was just that dazzling.

“Da, da.” She slowly raised her right hand and gave a snap, causing the robot at the door to follow her.

The moment the robot appeared, someone in the crowd recognized it and shouted in surprise, “Isn’t that Gentleman V?”

Gentleman V, it was one of the names for this robot.

But Luo Qing Chen preferred to call it Little V!

“Master, what are your orders?” When Little V’s voice rang out, it attracted everyone’s attention.

Gentleman V was considered priceless on the market, someone that could buy it was definitely very rich!

“My crown is a bit crooked, help me fix it.”

“Alright, master!”

The youth on stage had an even wider smile as sparkles suddenly filled his eyes.

He slowly raised his hand and said to her, “Come.”

However, Liang Bing Bing standing beside him was trembling from rage. She shouted right at Luo Qing Chen as soon as An Yu Sheng's voice fell, "Do you know what you're doing, can someone as lowly as you come in here? Security, drag her out for me now, this is my engagement ceremony!"

Luo Qing Chen had a ghost of a smile the entire time, with a bit of pride in her eyes.

"Miss Liang, I think that you're mistaken!" She had a domineering tone in her voice as she looked at Liang Bing Bing, "The one to leave is you."

No one knew that an hour ago, she had used the name Mister L to buy 10% of the shares in the Imperial San Paolo Hotel an hour ago.

This meant that this was her territory!

"This young miss, don't say such unpleasant words." Liang Zhi Wei whose face couldn't turn any darker stood up and looked at Luo Qing Chen with a serious look, "After all, you're not qualified!"

"Whether I'm qualified or not, you can't decide." She looked up with her clear eyes and her lips curved even wider.

Chapter 1433: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 59)

"What a joke, a cheap person like you, you really are dressed like a ghost." Liang Bing Bing pointed at her and angrily said, "Do you know who you're talking to, don't you know how to respect your elders?"

"That depends on if the elder is worth respecting." She gave a snap to Little V.

"Year 3050, the Liang Group didn't hesitate to move against people who refused to sell their homes, leading to the unfortunate deaths of the other side."

"Year 3052, the Liang Group illegally purchased real estate in the north of the city without obtaining a permit....."

"Year 3054, the Liang Group called for donations which was a total of four hundred and eighty thousand....."

.....

Little V's honest mechanical voice made Liang Zhi Wei's face turn completely red.

Those were the unknown secrets of the Liang Group over the past few years!

"Year 3057."

"Shut your mouth for me!" Liang Zhi Wei pointed at Little V and angrily roared, "A trash machine is causing damage to the reputation of my Liang Group, I will make you disappear from the world!"

His eyes fell onto Luo Qing Chen and he continued, "Other than this, this young miss, just wait for the summons from court from the Liang Group!"

"If you want to kill my robot, you have to have the skills!" Luo Qing Chen lips curled slightly as she gave another snap.

"As a national treasure robot, master purchased me for one hundred and ninety million and insured me for one billion." Little V's mechanical voice sounded so good right now, not forgetting to add, "Uncle, you have to think this through!"

One hundred!

Ninety million!

They thought that the girl in front of them would be chased out by security, but after hearing the price of one hundred and ninety million, people didn't think the same.

"A broken robot for one hundred and ninety million, aiyo! Luo Qing Chen, have you gone crazy with money?" Liang Bing Bing never thought that a girl who used to work in Zhao Jin Xuan's bar would have a hundred and ninety million.

"For something like money, I definitely have more than you."

"Ha, ha!" Liang Bing Bing gave a clap as she looked very ugly laughing in her wedding dress.

After she was done laughing, she looked at Luo Qing Chen in disdain and said, "Are you worthy of talking about money?"

"Bing Bing." Liang Zhi Wei used his eyes to stop her from talking.

After all, Liang Zhi Wei had his reputation, it really was too embarrassing if he called her an 'inferior person' like someone else had.

"Miss Luo, no matter what the reason is for you being here today, please leave immediately." Liang Zhi Wei crossed his hand and said, "Otherwise, I will call the police."

"She is here for me!"

Luo Qing Chen gave him a gesture to not say anything and leave everything to her!

But seeing these people bullying her, he wasn't willing.

"Xiao Sheng!" An Yang angrily said, "Aren't you embarrassing enough?"

"No one can stop the things I want." An Yu Sheng revealed a smile. His beautiful eyes had been on Luo Qing Chen the entire time.

He felt that she looked very good, he would never tire of looking at her.

"You....." Although An Yang wasn't that satisfied with Liang Bing Bing, the An Family did rely on the Liang Family.

It seemed like it would all be over.

“Humph!” Liang Zhi Wei gave a cold snort and looked at An Yang with a very displeased look, “Your son really seems like he doesn’t want this, but that doesn’t mean that you two can bully my daughter so easily.”

As soon as his voice fell, he said to the assistant behind him, “Call the police.”

“Mister Liang, you have to think this through.....” Luo Qing Chen gently touched the few strands of curled red hair decorated with the black crown before looking up and saying, “This is my territory.”

Chapter 1434: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 60)

Liang Zhi Wei knit his brows and he raised his hand to stop his assistant before asking with a serious look, “What do you mean?”

“Dad, don’t talk so much with this little punk girl!” Liang Bing Bing saw that Liang Zhi Wei hesitated and immediately came forward to angrily say, “This Luo Qing Chen used to work in a bar! She’s incredibly poor, I bet even these black clothes were picked up from the trash! Just get the police to take her away, this kind of shameless person!”

“You’re saying this to someone who owns a share of the Imperial San Paolo Hotel, don’t you find this funny?” Luo Qing Chen walked towards An Yu Sheng.

When she stood on stage, her right hand was taken by An Yu Sheng.

The gentle touch with a bit of domineering, it was like he was holding a treasure.

“Shareholder? Ha, ha, ha!” Liang Bing Bing broke out in laughter again and she laughed so wildly. Her face twisted a bit as she roared, “You really are dreaming, you are a shareholder? Ha, ha, ha!”

Liang Zhi Wei who had always been in the business circle had the expression on his face sink. It was very likely that the girl Luo Qing Chen in front of him was telling the truth.

Because there were security guards all over the hall, but not a single one came forward to stop her.

At this time, one of the people in the business circle tapped on his keyboard a few times before crying out in surprise, “An hour ago, 10% of the shares of the Imperial San Paolo Hotel was sold.”

“Damn!”

“Is this true!”

“This girl seems to be no more than eighteen, can she really buy shares of the Imperial San Paolo Hotel!”

“God! Could it be that she is a hidden master!”

.....

As soon as the last voice fell, that person pushed up his glasses and said, “You’re right!”

“What do you mean, say it clearly!” After being too agitated, Liang Bing Bing directly exploded!

A girl in a white wedding dress was saying this in front of everyone, it really was hard to watch.

“Humph~Such a bad temper!” That person gave a snort before saying, “The person who bought the 10% share is no one else other than the mysterious person who bought the golden triangle, Mister L!”

When the words Mister L were said, everyone’s expression changed.

Liang Zhi Wei and An Yang looked at Luo Qing Chen in disbelief.

Luo Qing Chen gave a sigh as she said, “Correct.”

“Si!” There was another cold breath.

After all, not a single person present would have thought that the Mister L who controlled the golden triangle was a girl who was only eighteen years old!

Having this much money and power, only an incredibly talented person can achieve this at this age!

“How is this possible.....How is this possible.....” Liang Bing Bing’s eyes opened wide and her lips kept trembling.

She couldn’t be more familiar with Luo Qing Chen. A girl who had stayed in front of the school gate for just two thousand dollars.

How could she be Mister L?

Impossible!

They must be mistaken! It was possible for anyone to be Mister L, it just wasn’t possible for Luo Qing Chen!

“You’re lying!” Liang Bing Bing screamed out, throwing the red wine in her hand in Luo Qing Chen’s direction as she angrily said, “I want to tear your ugly face apart.”

“Ping ling ping lang.”

An Yu Sheng reached out his hand to stop it, but a piece of glass accidentally scratched Luo Qing Chen’s neck.

It cut it and a bit of blood came out.

An Yu Sheng’s body trembled and his deep eyes started glowing.

[Ding, affection has been restored by 100%.]

Chapter 1435: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 61)

Actually, when Luo Qing Chen heard the prompt of the system, she felt a bit strange.

At that moment, she suddenly noticed something.

Even if everything went back to the beginning, even if he didn’t recognize her, he couldn’t see her getting hurt at all.

The youth with a personality disorder, whether it was before he lost his memories or after, the protection and pampering he had for her was still there.

Luo Qing Chen wanted to say something, but An Yu Sheng's beautiful eyes turned a bit dark.

He narrowed his eyes as he looked at the wound on her neck and his cool fingers came to her waist.

He leaned in and closed his eyes!

In front of everyone.

He directly kissed her neck!

The youth in the white tuxedo was like a vampire in the night, sucking the blood of the vicious queen.

Sinking together, falling together!

When her shocked brain came back, she suddenly thought.

An! Yu! Sheng! Kissed! Her! In! Front! Of! Everyone!

There was a terrifying silence around them. There was the strong scent of red wine with the touch of blood on his tongue.

He really wasn't willing to let her go, not willing to let go for a single second.

All the gentleness slowly faded and the An Yu Sheng who only loved Luo Qing Chen was back!

After a few seconds, he unwillingly looked at her. His slender fingers pushed the fine strands of hair on her cheek behind her ear and softly said, "You won't bleed like this."

Luo Qing Chen was surprised. The queen's aura that suppressed countless people had been suppressed by the youth beside her.

He frowned and smiled, with the aura of a terrifying and obsessed king as he protected her.

"Ah!" Three seconds later, Liang Bing Bing let out a wild scream.

It was like she had gone crazy as she threw her veil, her earrings, and all her jewelry on the ground, smashing them to pieces.

Mrs Liang saw this and quickly came forward to hug her daughter. She comforted her while not forgetting to say to Luo Qing Chen, "So what if you're Mister L, you will pay the price for bullying my daughter!"

If it was anywhere else, Mrs Liang's words would cause Liang Zhi Wei to scold her by saying she should be a benevolent person.

But at this moment, Liang Zhi Wei clearly stood by his wife and daughter. He angrily reprimanded Luo Qing Chen, "You temptress, as long as my Liang Group is here, I will definitely make you pay for your actions today!"

When he saw his daughter being bullied by this person who had suddenly appeared, Liang Zhi Wei as a father couldn't take it.

In his eyes, the little princess of his family should be loved and protected.

She could only bully others, no one could bully her.

“Un.” Luo Qing Chen dragged out her tone before her lips curled, looking at Liang Zhi Wei with slightly sparkling eyes, “Then you might have to say goodbye to your Liang Group today.”

Those people watching the excitement all began whispering when they heard Luo Qing Chen’s words.

“I suddenly feel a bit bad! This girl who is confirmed to be Mister L, the credibility of her words is quite good!”

“Yes! I heard that the Liang Group wasn’t doing well and there was a large gap in the stocks!”

“Ze, ze, this girl really might slap the waves into the sand!”

“Who knows.....She has such achievements at this age, if she says she is number one in business, no one would dare say they are second.”

“.....”

Chapter 1436: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 62)

“What a joke, what a joke this is!” Liang Zhi Wei couldn’t maintain a stable image and roared out at Luo Qing Chen, “Based on what can you say these words! I am the chairman of the Liang Group, what about you? What can you depend on!”

In the business circle of A City, there were naturally people stronger than him, but that didn’t mean he wasn’t strong!

The gap between the strong was small and even if he couldn’t compare to Mister L, that didn’t mean he had no status in this circle!

“Based on what?” Luo Qing Chen looked at Liang Zhi Wei with great power, “Based on the fact that I own 40% of the shares of the Liang Group, do you think that’s enough?”

“What did you say?” Liang Zhi Wei’s eyes popped out, looking at her in disbelief.

Everyone looked at Luo Qing Chen in shock.

What did she mean? Could it be that she acquired enough shares to control the Liang Group?

An Yu Sheng standing not far away narrowed his eyes. This was his first time looking right at Luo Qing Cheng who was only eighteen years old.

But he didn’t doubt what she was saying at this moment.

“Look at your expression, I should explain to you.” Luo Qing Chen gave a snap to Little V.

A mechanical voice rang through the banquet hall.

“The master controls a total of twelve overseas accounts which own a total of 40.25% of the Liang Group’s shares.” Little V paused at the right time before continuing, “Therefore, master currently controls the highest power in the Liang Group!”

Everyone was stunned and then they all began talking.

“God! Mister L has already acquired over 40% of the shares of the Liang Group, how did she do this!”

“You can’t call them Mister L, she’s clearly a little girl!”

“This time old Liang really might be in trouble with this little girl.”

“The business world is like this, there are wins and losses.....”

“.....”

“Impossible!” Liang Zhi Wei shook his head and said in an agitated voice, “Definitely impossible!”

“Whether it is possible or not, you can’t decide!” Luo Qing Chen raised her hand with a sparkle in her eyes.

She waved at Little V and on the LCD screen on Little V’s chest had the ‘sales agreement’ that she had drafted on it.

When Liang Zhi Wei saw the shareholding book on the screen, his angry look gradually filled with fear.

“Dad, this is impossible!” Liang Bing Bing slumped like a doll and sat there crying, “I don’t believe, I don’t believe.....She must be lying, she must be lying.”

“Lying to yourself is what you do best in this life.”

Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug and looked at Little V, “Confirm the sale!”

“Press the button to confirm the sale and the Liang Group will be placed up for transaction. All property will be placed on hold and all stocks under your name will be stopped.....”

Little V’s words shocked Liang Zhi Wei, but he still wasn’t willing to admit it.

But the phone vibrating like crazy in his pocket was telling him.....

His Liang Group.....was over.....

He had lost to an eighteen year old girl, a punk girl as his daughter had described her!

She looked at the helpless Liang Zhi Wei dressed in her beautiful black dress with the look of an absolute winner as her lips curled slightly.

An Yu Sheng tilted his head and whispered in her ear, “My girl, you are so dazzling that I’m a bit afraid.”

“Afraid of what?”

“Afraid.....of you being stolen.”

Chapter 1437: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 63)

The winner didn't need to explain. Luo Qing Chen became the most dazzling person at the Imperial San Paolo Hotel that night.

As for Liang Zhi Wei's family, they were called.....clown Liangs.

The plan of several months finally reached its climax that day. The people who had insulted her for standing at the school entrance could never reach this height.

The next morning, all the major newspapers reported on the bankruptcy of the Liang Group,

There wasn't any coal sent in the snow, there were only people who threw down stones.

This industry was this cold, everyone would trample on a person when he falls.

After Luo Qing Chen learned of this news, the sun shined down on her and the snow gradually began to melt.

The return of spring was about to come. After the Liang Group fell, An Yu Sheng's father naturally wanted to win over Luo Qing Chen.

But because he neglected her too much before, now that he wanted to find her, he couldn't put down his old face.

So at dinner several days later.

An Yang gave a piece of braised pork to An Yu Sheng as he said, "Ah Sheng, eat a bit more, you've lost weight after being ill."

An Yu Sheng nodded with a smile, "Thanks dad."

As for his memories, he still didn't have any complete memories other than Luo Qing Chen.

The rest of the people didn't exist in his memories, but fragments did come up from time to time.

But most of those fragments were very fuzzy.

But right now, drinking the warm fish soup and eating the braised pork that his father gave him, he felt the warmth of family.

Un, quite good.

But An Yang's next words were like a bucket of cold water on An Yu Sheng.

"If you're too thin, what if miss Luo doesn't like you anymore?" "....."

It was like ten thousand horses trampled his heart and crushed it to pieces!

"Dad, you....."

"Eat more, eat more!" An Yang didn't feel embarrassed at all. He still had the same smile on his face as he brought more dishes to An Yu Sheng's bowl, "This miss Luo is a good girl, you have to take care of her more!"

An Yu Sheng strangely smiled as his lips curled into a smile.

These words were true, but hearing it from An Yang, he felt that it seemed.....fake!

A month later, Luo Qing Chen and An Yu Sheng's wedding was set.

They didn't get married in the country, nor did they invite many guests.

It was a wedding held on a small island, in a church with a few close friends and relatives.

Putting those people in the industry aside, she wanted this to be a pure wedding.

"You look really good wearing this." She was wearing a white wedding dress which fell onto the green grass. She took his hand as she revealed a sweet smile.

"Then do you think I look better in a black or white wedding dress?"

An Yu Sheng thought for a bit before saying with a smile, "You look good wearing anything, but I like seeing you wear white!"

"Why?"

"You have a strong aura when you wear black, like nothing in this world can bother you and you don't need any protection." He softly patted her hand as he continued, "I want to protect you, for the rest of my life."

There were times that the most sincere vows didn't come when they were exchanging rings.

There were certain moments in ordinary life where he said heartwarming words.

Chapter 1438: Sir school hunk with personality disorders (Part 64)

When they came back to A city, 'Mister L' of the business circle became 'Mrs An'.

Everyone expressed their heartfelt blessing to this golden couple, even calling Luo Qing Chen a genius of business!

Although this name wasn't domineering, she liked it very much.

She gave some matters to her lawyer before going abroad and it ended after she came back.

Luo Qing Chen used some 'abnormal' methods to declare bankruptcy for the Liang Group with the shares she owned.

The sale of shares turned into money for the employees underneath since it wasn't her intention to make them lose their jobs.

But if this group still existed, it would be too much of a thorn in her eyes.

Liang Zhi Wei wanted to sue her, but with his capital cut off and without being able to access his funds, in less than a week, he had sold his assets.

At this level, not to mention hiring a lawyer, it would be even hard to survive.

As a last resort, he converted all his real estate into funds and escaped A City.

On a certain train, Liang Bing Bing followed Liang Zhi Wei in dirty clothes and beside them was Mrs Liang who had once been dazzling.

It was a pity that this was a matter of the past.

"I'm sorry, this is a first class car." The female conductor looked over and said in a very calm voice, "If you only have a standing ticket, you can find a place to sit in the second class car."

"Alright, alright." Liang Zhi Wei kept nodding, but his daughter Liang Bing Bing didn't plan on leaving.

"I don't want to go." Her tone was sharp and it sounded harsh.

She just waved her arm, "The carriage over there is dirty and smelly, I won't go!"

She hated it, very much, but there was no use to hate things at this point. She had to admit it even if she didn't recognize this fate.

Hearing what the other side said, the conductor's face fell and said with a serious look, "Our trains have been carefully cleaned whether it is the first class car or the second class car, we respect every passenger. But.....if this miss doesn't have a ticket, please leave the first class car!"

"You....." Liang Bing Bing glared at her and angrily, "You blind people!"

"You are the same." Luo Qing Chen who was sitting in the first class car pushed down her sunglasses and slowly walked past Liang Bing Bing after standing up.

She looked down a bit before looking back up with a beautiful smile on her lips, "Ze, ze, the weather really is good today! I really feel good!"

"Wife." There was a gentle voice that slowly came from the side. An Yu Sheng attracted everyone's gaze in his white dress shirt.

"Slow down." He softly called her and walked up to her to lovingly take her hand, "If I accidentally lose you, bad people might take you away."

As he said this, he didn't forget to look at Liang Bing Bing.

She swept the hair off her back and said, "Those bad people need to be capable of that."

After all, the 'bad people' that they were talking about were like 'mice on the road', not worth mentioning at all.

Liang Bing Bing angrily clenched her fists. When she was about to curse, the conductor on the side quickly said, "Miss, please leave."

"Ai, let's go, let's go!" Liang Zhi Wei forcefully took her hand and quickly disappeared to the end of the cabin.

Luo Qing chen gave a cold snort and proudly looked up before heading to her seat in the first class cabin.

The train moved past the beautiful scenery, just like her life.

There were times when it was good.

The sun was right, it was just warm enough, and the right person was by your side.

Chapter 1439: Side story: As long as this world has you, I can live (Part 1)

I don't know what was just right in this world, I just didn't want to disappoint or be disappointed. I won't retreat when it's time to hug and I definitely won't cry when it's time to laugh. —An Yu Sheng.

I was a rebellious person since I was young. Before my big brother died for me, I hated him a bit.

Or it couldn't be considered a 'bit', I hated him quite a bit.

He was the male lead when he was born and he definitely won the lottery when it came to drawing lots.

As for me.....I grabbed the consolation prize.

It was probably since that day that the fate of me and my big brother had different paths.

He was destined to become a dazzling person and I was destined to accomplish nothing.

There were many love letters for him at school, although there weren't few that were given to me.

But he was different from me. He was the perfect student in the eyes of the teachers and the perfect male god in the eyes of the female students.

As for me, I just looked handsome and a bit rebellious.

I liked hearing the sound of a knife cutting through skin and when it cut through the blood vessels.

No one in this world understood me, they called me rebellious and defiant.

Only my big brother understood me. He knew that I just wanted the attention of my parents.

Even if they didn't always look at me, just a bit.....was enough.

But it was a pity that they never spared a glance for me.

They even allowed me, who was younger than ten to stay out at night, never sending anyone to find me.

I was the shame of the An Family, the descendant they didn't want to recognize.

Until——

Big brother died that they looked at my existence.

Although what they said in the first month was just too hard to hear.

For example.

“Why didn't you die?”

“You should go to hell instead of your big brother!”

“What is the meaning of you living, you should also die!”

“Die, die, at least that way your big brother won’t be alone.”

.....

These weeping words filled my ears every day and no one knew that I felt worse than any of them.

Because An Liang Sheng was the only person in this world who loved me.

The toys I didn’t get, the love I didn’t get.

He used his status as my big brother to fill the void in my life.

I hated everything about him while also loving everything about him.

When he died, it proved that there was no one in this world who loved me.

I didn’t know what it meant to be alive, but.....the words he said to me before he died were branded in my mind.

“Ah Sheng, you have to live.....live.....live.....for me.”

The name ‘Ah Sheng’ was the nickname he liked calling me by.

My parents always called me with my first name,

‘An Yu Sheng’, those were the three words I hated the most.

But even so, even if there was no hope for me living in this world, I still lived.

For big brother, for another An Liang Sheng to live in this world, I did my best to live.

Moreover, I lived quite well.

In just half a year, I went from being rebellious to being good. My studies weren’t from being last to being first in the year.

It had to be said, when it came to studying, I had some talent.

It was like how some people were suited for running, some people were suited for swimming, some people were suited for playing music.

I was suited for studying.

Chapter 1440: Side story: As long as this world has you, I can live (Part 2)

My parents probably saw the shadow of my big brother from me, so their attitude towards me underwent a 360 degree change.

They no longer said bad things to me and even asked me about how I was doing in school.

This feeling was very strange. It didn't feel like not being able to get warmth at all, it was that the warmth came too late.

It was a bit.....fake.

But.....I wanted to accept it.

People who were in darkness for a long time yearned for light. As long as it could penetrate the darkness in my heart, I would desperately want to own it.

Luo Qing Chen was that light.

When I met her, it was already seven years since I had changed into a gentle person, there was a bit of fate.

My first impression of her wasn't good because I always felt that I saw a shadow of my former self on her.

I hated the me of that time because if it wasn't for me being bad, big brother wouldn't have died.

On the other hand, my personality was already obsessive. Once I competed with something, I would go to the end.

For normal people, they wouldn't turn back unless they hit the wall. I was the person who even if my head was bloody from hitting the wall, I would still walk the path of my own blood.

Therefore, I waited for her.

It was the same amount of time as her, thirty days.

When we met again, she had a different feeling, like a butterfly breaking out of a cocoon.

At that moment, I felt that she was the same as me.

At least a person who went from a 'bad child' to a 'good child'.

The method between us was very strange, we made a bet with a 'love test'.

We would see who would fall in love first!

I thought that someone as gentle as me who was actually indifferent was definitely win.

But I never thought that I would lose by so much.

When I saw Su Nian speaking to her at school, I felt very anxious, like there was a flame burning me.

This feeling gradually swallowed all my reasoning and filled me with hostility towards Su Nian.

The funny thing was that his hostility towards me far exceeded my hostility. He had a hate that reached his bones, he hated me and everyone in the An Family.

I didn't know about this hatred at first because all I was thinking about was how to make Luo Qing Chen fall in love with me.

Working hard to get a fever, working hard to make her worry, working hard to make her stay by my side.

I found that I had unknowingly changed. I was no longer the elegant and gentle youth, I was no longer my big brother.

Rather.....I was a bit like myself.

The original personality that was restrained was finally released, giving Su Nian no chance.

But after doing all of this, I never expected.....it would be related to Su Nian's identity.

I never thought that he would work with Liang Bing Bing to hurt her, making me think that she had thrown me away.

In this world, there was nothing that I was afraid of. The only thing I was afraid of was being left behind by her.

In the following days, whenever I had that feeling, my heart couldn't help skipping a beat.

At that time, I was filled with pain that made my heart feel suffocated.

I vaguely remember lying on the operation table only thinking of one thing: Without you, I don't want to live. I don't want to live at all, let me die.....Let me stay away from this pain that is beyond the scope of humans.

And when I felt like my body was about to float away, Xia Qing Rou's voice entered my ears.

She said, "Big brother, big brother, Qing Chen says that she only likes you!"

Only, likes, me!
