Chapter 1461: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 19)

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: All of you go away, god Clear Dust is mine! Welcome

Thinking of Clear Dust: Hello everyone.

In order not to be too cold, Luo Qing Chen deliberately added an emote.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: God Clear Dust, I'll help you change your name!

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Oh! It's done!

[VA]Thinking of Clear Dust: Thank you!

As expected, the prefix of each group was different. She suddenly felt like she had entered another family.

[VA]Half Warm Cup: Welcome.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: I say, god Warm Cup, can you not treat people differently! When I pinged you in the group, you never answered!

[Makeup]Choosing the Past: Accurately speaking, in the three years since I've joined the group, this is god Warm Cup's first time talking.....

.....

The entire group was silent for three seconds and a strange awkward feeling spread through it.

[President]Falling White Robe: @Choosing the Past, there are many makeup artists that joined our group.....

[Makeup]Choosing the Past: I was wrong! I don't want god Clear Dust's signature anymore!

[VA]Half Warm Cup: You want something even I don't have?

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Ha, ha! I've suddenly found that there are signs of spring that's coming to the eternal iceberg of our group!

[VA]Half Warm Cup: The people are here, "Reincarnation Endowment" can begin.

[President]Falling White Robe: God Warm Cup, you aren't giving others a chance? Other people also want the role of Nian Yi.

[VA]Half Warm Cup: You can try for Nian Yi's uncle.

[President]Falling White Robe: !! Won't! Be! A! Eunuch!

.....

Luo Qing Chen felt that Drunken Bliss was different than she imagined, she always thought that it was a strict group.

After all, there were only gods and nothing else.

Even the artist that president Falling White Robe had replaced had become a famous designer!

But they.....why did they feel like they were blindly worshipping stars!

Was it because Half Warm Cup had dominated Drunken Bliss for so long?

“Ke, ke.”

[Your friend Flourishing Song has invited you to the group “Reincarnation Endowment”]

[Li Xi]Splendid: Welcome to the debut of the female lead!

[Zhu Xue]Cloud Falling Clear Sky: This Little Cloud Falling will be playing the supporting male lead Zhu Xue.

[Qing Jun]Half Warm Cup: Everyone is here, we can begin.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: You can all record your separate lines first. If you have any special needs, you can contact each other yourselves! Good night!

.....

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Once again confessing to god Clear Dust!

Since it was late, everyone could only sort out their lines tomorrow and they all logged off.

Luo Qing Chen looked at Weibo and most of King’s Landing wished her the best.

Of course, there were quite a few that came out to say that because she couldn’t get the role of the female lead Feng Wu in “Sword Dance Clear Song”, she had a conflict with King’s Landing.

Luo Qing Chen was too lazy to care about them. The next morning, the official account of King’s Landing released the choices of “Sword Dance Clear Song”.

Feng Wu’s role naturally fell to Fang Qian Meng and the male lead was dubbed by the ‘scumbag’ He Yu Yan.

That morning, King’s Landing also reached the hot search. There were those looking forward to it and those that criticized it. The ones that looked forward to it were the fans accumulated from Fang Qian Meng’s broadcasts and the ones criticizing it were the diehard fans of the novel “Sword Dance Clear Song”.

Chapter 1462: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 20)

It was noon when she went on Weibo, she and Mo Ran were having lunch in the cafeteria.

Fang Qian Meng was angered by the criticism of the web and sent a post in response.

Cute Little Fairy V: Those dark fans and the water army, don't think I don't know who you are! Being pushed aside by strength and sending an water army in has no use.

Fang Qian Meng didn't ping her since it wasn't that she had no brains. Now that she was the female lead of "Sword Dance Clear Song", she didn't want to cast shade on herself.

But by acting righteously, it was natural to find darkness.

Half an hour after this was sent, she was sprayed by a bunch of fans.

Thinking of Sword Dances: Pl beg you, do you not know what kind of role your voice is suited for? 9999 Likes.

Why Think of the Past: You always broadcast yourself, it really isn't suited for Feng Wu. 8858 Likes.

Little Meng Meng's Protector: All of you go away, I'll protect you Meng Meng! She sounds good in any role! 2020 Likes.

Peach's Big Sister: It's because our god Qing Chen isn't willing to take the role, so there is no choice left.

.....

Luo Qing Chen scrolled down and saw that most posts were insulting her which calmed her down!

She wasn't a saint, so what if she secretly laughed at someone?

"Why are you so happy?" Mo Ran saw her secretly smiling and couldn't help asking, "Could it be that you're in love!"

"Go away." Luo Qing Chen rolled her eyes, "I have a broadcast tonight, are you going to watch!"

Although her broadcast wouldn't reveal her face, she intended to communicate with everyone using her own voice, so the fans of "Reincarnation Endowment" could feel at ease with her taking this role.

"Broadcast! Do you have a camera?" Mo Ran was cautious as she asked with a sly look.

"No." Luo Qing Chen coldly rejected her.

"....." Mo Ran shook her head, "Then I'm not going. You're not turning on your camera, I've already heard enough of your voice."

"You're not tired of seeing me?"

"....." Mo Ran gave a laugh as she scratched her head and said, "Actually.....I am."

"If I remember correctly, you've signed up for the voice acting club, right!" Luo Qing Chen tapped her finger on the table, "If a noob likes you joins, are you certain there's no problem?"

Mo Ran's expression quickly changed and quickly acted like a little sister as she said, "Great god, are you willing to teach me a few tricks?"

"That depends on your performance." Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug, looking like a boss.

Mo Ran immediately put the contents of her bowl in her bowl, "My Qing Qing, I finally entered a club that's related to animation, I don't want to be kicked out! I heard that the president is very fierce!"

"That president is acting!" Luo Qing Chen bit the chicken leg, "He definitely can't even rank on the web!"

It wasn't unreasonable, how could there be a voice acting god at this random high school?

"Ya, school hunk Wen." When Luo Qing Chen was about to bite her second chicken leg when Wen Yan Chen came in.

Without knowing why, it was the first time where she only had 30% affection, but the other side didn't know who she was.

"So handsome, so handsome!" Mo Ran quickly took out her phone to throw to Luo Qing Chen, "I'll go pretend to buy some water and when I pass senior Wen, help me take a photo!"

"....." Luo Qing Chen was about to refuse, but Mo Ran's phone was already in her hand.

Chapter 1463: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 21)

Just taking a picture of someone else on a phone in public would always feel strange.

This was the truest voice in Luo Qing Chen's heart, but since Mo Ran was already acting like she was coming back, she had no choice.

She held a chicken leg in her left hand and raised the phone in her right, waiting for Mo Ran to pass by.

But when she was about to press the button, the youth in the white dress shirt slowly looked up and turned to look in her direction.

Seeing this on the screen, Luo Qing Chen was frozen in place and felt a bit choked up.

There were many people taking pictures of him, but he had to look in her direction and he looked over with such a deep gaze.

Her heart skipped a beat, as she pressed the button a few times and quickly put away the phone.

Wen Yan Chen also looked away when she put down the phone.

He knew this girl, it was the one that he had met at the breakfast shop that day.

Her voice.....was very special.

It made people feel like it was incomparably familiar.

The surrounding people all began whispering and she could clearly hear the ones around her.

"Ah, ah, ah! I just got school hunk An when he was staring right at my lens!"

"He was clearly looking at me, alright! The eyes in your picture are looking in the wrong place!"

"Che, yours isn't right either!"

.....

Mo Ran who went 'passing by' quickly charged back to her side and asked, "Did you get it?"

"Un." Luo Qing Chen swallowed her chicken leg as she gave her back the phone.

"Damn!" Mo Ran looked at Luo Qing Chen in a daze, "Why do I feel that senior Wen is looking right in the camera!"

"Is that so?" Luo Qing Chen's lips twitched. She pointed at the people behind as she said with a faint smile, "They are saying the same thing."

There weren't many classes in the afternoon, they ended by four.

Mo Ran was going to the voice acting club and she wanted her to go with her.

Luo Qing Chen saw that it was still early, so she went with her.

She never thought that she would verify again that the circle of this world was so small.

There were quite a few in the club and there was a professional voice recording room that surprised her.

After all, it would take quite a bit of money to build this kind of room.

The previous host's dubbing room had cost over fifty thousand.

It seems like this club was considered professional.

"Hello!" The person who received Mo Ran was a girl with blonde dyed hair, who looked very sweet and neat.

"Hello, I am Mo Ran."

"Oh, the one who signed up for animation!"

"Un, un."

"Come with me."

The blonde haired girl brought them to a large conference room, "They already started! Our president is very strict, people not in our club will have to wait here."

"Alright." Luo Qing Chen gave a nod as she thought: This president really is weird!

The soundproofing of the conference room wasn't good, Luo Qing Chen could hear an angry roar the moment Mo Ran went in, "What time is it? Do you know how to be on time?"

Luo Qing Chen's impression of this president was immediately bad!

When Mo Ran looking depressed, she didn't change her thoughts.

"What's your situation?" Luo Qing Chen asked Mo Ran in a low voice.

Before she could reply, there was a tall girl who was curling her hair that replied.

“You dare to come to the voice acting club without knowing your own abilities, is this a joke?”

Chapter 1464: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 22)

Hearing this sharp taunting voice, Luo Qing Chen really wanted to stand up and send a slap out!

How could there be this kind of people in life? They haven't even known someone for a few minutes and they can say such ugly words!

“Lulu, what are you talking to her for?” The girl standing beside her said in a proud voice, “This is someone who comes from the 2D world, normal people like us won't understand her. She doesn't even know what a 'dry voice' is, my god.....”

“You think you're a great god just because you had a few roles?” Luo Qing Chen gave a cold snort before saying with a shrug, “The club is just for people who are interested, do you think that this is the dividing line for the industry?”

Whether it was her sense of superiority as 'god Clear Dust' or the fact that she couldn't keep listening to the two of Luo Qing Chen's words were said with a sharp tone.

“You.....”

“This classmate, you're wrong.” A good looking boy in the school uniform came out of the room and said, “Our club might actually have some professionals.”

This person had a sense of superiority in the first half of his sentence, but the moment he saw Luo Qing Chen, his tone clearly softened.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and felt a sense of familiarity. She kept searching in her mind for the source of this voice and finally she locked onto it.

He Yu Yan!

No Words!

WTF! They were actually all classmates!?

It was no wonder this club seemed professional since this was the number one brother of King's Landing, it was different.

“Xiao Qing, I'm the one who isn't professional!” Mo Ran pulled at her hand and said, “Forget it, I'll just choose another club!”

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows. If this was before, she would have smashed this club and seriously taught Mo Ran how to voice act, letting them all look at her with admiration.

But now it seemed like she didn't want Mo Ran and He Yu Yan to interact.

After all, the less contact she had with this scumbag, the less detours she would have to take!

But she never thought that He Yu Yan would speak first.

“Actually, it’s a bit more difficult to dub animated characters and our club is missing people……” He Yu Yan looked over Luo Qing Chen before he revealed a faint smile, “This classmate, since you like animation, you can give it a try.”

Without knowing why, he was very fond of girls like this. The large eyes, the snow white skin, and the little face.

The freshmen this year really were good, this girl could definitely be chosen as the school flower.

How could not act first for ‘freshmen’.

In front of He Yu Yan’s 360 degree change, the two girls standing behind sticking out their tongues clearly looked unhappy.

But he was the president, so they couldn’t say anything.

“I think there’s no need.”

“Really?”

When Luo Qing Chen was about to refuse, Mo Ran’s words had hit her face.

But she could understand after thinking about it since Mo Ran not being able to enter the animation club was partly because of her……

“Yes.” He Yu Yan’s tone became very good. After responding, he didn’t forget to ask Luo Qing Chen, “I feel that your voice is also very good, are you interested in coming to our club?”

“No.” She refused him without giving him any face before adding, “I’m tone deaf.”

Chapter 1465: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 23)

On the way home, Luo Qing Chen looked very upset.

She had just left King’s Landing, but Mo Ran had called back He Yu Yan. She really was angry when she thought of this.

“Xiao Qing, why do you seem unhappy!” Mo Ran could naturally see that something was off and said in a depressed voice, “How about I don’t go.”

“No.” Luo Qing Chen looked at her, “You go!”

“Aiyo, you scared me.” Mo Ran was scared by her sudden enthusiasm, looking at her in a daze.

Luo Qing Chen thought for a bit before saying, “This He Yu Yan……he is your president, but he used to be in the same group as me.”

“What?”

Over the next hour, Luo Qing Chen told her about all the grievances she had with He Yu Yan.

Mo Ran was stunned before raising her hand: She would enter the enemy base to get information and steal their skills!

Although Luo Qing Chen felt that this was useless, she didn't deny that Mo Ran could still learn something from Mo Ran.

Although if she led Mo Ran, she would definitely become outstanding!

It was close to seven when she came home. Since her parents were on vacation, she ordered some takeout to ease her hunger.

After ordering a family bucket, she opened up Grapefruit TV and entered room 10039.

There was still ten minutes before the broadcast, but she already had close to a million fame.

When it was less than ten seconds before the start, it had swelled to five million fame.

Fame wasn't equal to the number of people, it also included the number of gifts and people who followed her.

Luo Qing Chen scrolled down and looked at the number of people.

She was completely stunned!

One hundred and twenty thousand people and that number kept growing!

It had to be said, she really did have plenty of fans! She might be able to earn several tens of thousands a month if she really became a streamer!

[The host's mind is filled with money!]

When she had this thought, the system suddenly decided to show its presence!

Who cares!

Luo Qing Chen stopped playing around and turned on the microphone of the broadcast.

"Hello everyone, I am Thinking of Clear Dust."

She used the strong female voice that she hadn't used in a long time to greet everyone.

To be honest, it sounded quite good.

There was nothing to say about the previous host's voice. It was a voice that was low and domineering, it covered people in goosebumps.

Since this was Luo Qing Chen's first broadcast, the gifts exploded on the screen.

Her room was pushed to the front page by Grapefruit TV and had a 'hot' tag on it.

All sorts of confessions and gifts really were dazzling, it really made people happy.

Big Sister Peach's Spring (Lv 1): I super, super love god Clear Dust!

Tomorrow Will Be Better (Lv 3): Front row confession to god Clear Dust! So exciting!

[Tomorrow Will Be Better has sent 10 Grapefruits!]

Not Caring About Wang Lun's Love (Lv 10): This was specially bought for god Clear Dust! God, please notice me!

[Not Caring About Wang Lun's Love has sent 520 Grapefruits!]

[Not Caring About Wang Lun's Love has sent 1 Rocket!]

Listen To The Sea (Lv 1): God's voice is so good! I really love this kind of cool voice!

Peach Falling in Dreams (Lv 6): It seems like a certain someone is also broadcasting today! Ha, ha, I just went to check the popularity rating and I'm not even a tenth of god Clear Dust!

[Peach Falling in Dreams has sent a Truck!]

Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat and said in the same voice, "One, I have something to tell everyone in today's broadcast and two, I want to see all the fans that support me! Ha, ha!"

Chapter 1466: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 24)

Pan Jin Lian's Gentleman (Lv 4): The two laughs were cool!

Big Sister Peach's Spring (Lv 1): God Clear Dust is so good!

Little Transparency in the World of Porcelain (Lv 1): Actually, I want to know how this voice suits Nian Yi in "Reincarnation Endowment", I feel it's a bit off.

That Summer (Lv 1): It does seem a bit off, but perhaps Nian Yi is very dominating! Anyway, I like god Clear Dust's voice.

Seemingly Pure (Lv 10): I also feel that god Clear Dust has the ability, not like the female lead for "Sword Dance Clear Song". That cutesy voice, I almost vomited out my lunch. ㄟ (???) ㄟ

After another heated discussion, Luo Qing Chen finally used her normal voice to speak.

"Actually, I've always changed my voice since I liked this voice."

When she said this, the entire room exploded.

All kinds of gifts and praise made people submit.

Not Caring About Wang Lun's Love (Lv 10): My god, was that my god Clear Dust?

White Jasmine (Lv 4): Such a clean voice! I've heard that great voice actors could change their voice, it really has been a feast for the years today.

"Un! I just saw what White Jasmine said just now. Actually, all great voice actors can change their voice, it's just a matter of range."

Peach Falling in Dreams (Lv 6): If this is Nian Yi's voice, I can't be more convinced!

That Summer (Lv 1): So expectant! God Clear Dust's Nian Yi!

Scattered Flower Skirt (Lv 12): What I look forward to more is the cooperation between god Clear Dust and god Half Cup, they really are the two myths of online voice acting!

Luo Qing Chen saw Half Warm Cup's name and her lips couldn't help curling slightly.

She always felt a bit of warmth when her name was put together with his name.

At the same time, Fang Qian Meng who was also live on Fridays had a livid look on her face.

But she couldn't show a black face since she was on camera.

After all, at this time, her screen was covered in four words: Thinking of Clear Dust!

Qiu Qiu is Clear Dust's Little Princess (Lv 9): I came to see how bleak you are!

Yo Yo Yo (Lv 1): Ha, ha! So few people, everyone would prefer to listen to god Clear Dust instead of seeing your face! ￣?￣

Fang Qian Meng completely lost her temper after seeing that line.

She took a deep breath and forced out a smile to say to everyone, "Babies, I'm going to get a cup of water!"

She walked out of her bedroom and immediately called He Yu Yan.

"Baby, what is it?" He Yu Yan's voice sounded very good. When he saw that it was Fang Qian Meng's call, he put down the work at hand.

It was a pity that the other side's mood wasn't good.

"What are you doing?" A sharp voice rang in his ear and He Yu Yan knitted his brows.

"I'm recording, what is it?" "Sword Dance Clear Song" was about to begin.

As a professional voice actor, he put all his energy into it other than when he was in class or at his club.

"You're still in the mood to record! Do you know that b*tch Clear Dust is bullying me!" Fang Qian Meng said this as she took a box of cigarettes out of her pocket. She lit up and took a deep puff before saying, "What do you think we should do!"

"What do you want to do?" He Yu Yan was suddenly a bit annoyed by this kind of Fang Qian Meng, this feeling was completely different from when he first saw her.

Chapter 1467: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 25)

He had always liked girls who were small and cute.

For example, when he saw Luo Qing Chen at the club today.

As the saying goes, there was no harm when there was no comparison. When Fang Qian Meng lit the cigarette, he felt the harm of comparison.

"I want you to give me gifts!"

Fang Qian Meng had always been very direct, saying this without any embarrassment.

"Since you called me, it isn't just as simple as a few dollars." He Yu Yan's feelings became even stronger when he heard her say this.

He had always felt that someone like Thinking of Clear Dust who listened to him was boring, but now he suddenly felt that kind of girl was quite good!

"Nonsense! You can even say a few dollars." Fang Qian Meng spat out, "At least ten thousand!"

"Ten thousand?"

"Why are you talking so much!" Fang Qian Meng gave a cold laugh, "Aren't you a rich second generation? Then again, with how long you've been at King's Landing, is ten thousand a lot?"

He had it, but he didn't really want to give it at this moment.

"If I don't, will you break up with me?"

"Right! I'll break up with you!"

Fang Qian Meng's attitude was very firm, not planning to take a single step back.

"Alright." He Yu Yan's lips twitched before he said, "I'll give it to you."

"Room 9800, quickly! Don't let me fans wait!" She quickly hung up the phone after urging him and fixed her hair and makeup. She took a glass of water and went back to her stream room.

Her room had less than seven thousand people left and there were only a few messages being sent.

At this time, He Yu Yan directly entered the broadcast room and gave Fang Qian Meng ten pumpkin carriages, creating a stir in the room.

Pumpkin carriages were the most expensive gifts on Grapefruit TV, each one was worth one thousand dollars. This kind of gift would be displayed on all streams on Grapefruit TV, it was the gift of a rich man!

He Yu Yan didn't hesitate to give her ten, making her suddenly cry out on stream.

"Ah! Who gave me a gift! Ah! It's No Words! Ha, ha, it truly is expensive! We are so close, there's no need to give me gifts."

He Yu Yan sitting in front of the computer had no expressions on his face, but his eyes were filled with disdain.

Seeing Fang Qian Meng change faces so quickly, his mood was very bad at this moment.

How could there be such a fake person in this world, fake people really were disgusting.

At the same time, Luo Qing Chen saw a large banner in her room.

[No Words has sent ten pumpkin carriages to room 9800.]

There were carriages after carriages that flew by, flying ten times before disappearing.

Qiu Qiu is Clear Dust's Little Princess (Lv 9): So angry! I'll give god Clear Dust a horse carriage too!

Not Caring About Wang Lun's Love (Lv 10): Me too, I can't let god Clear Dust be bullied.

Big Sister Peach's Spring (Lv 1): Who can tell me what the price of a pumpkin carriage is?

Scattered Flower Skirt (Lv 12): Not cheap, it's one thousand for one!

Big Sister Peach's Spring (Lv 1): So expensive! I want to give one to god Clear Dust just to anger this scum man and cheap woman to death!

Seeing the fans that wanted to give her gifts, Luo Qing Chen quickly said, "Don't, don't, don't! You mustn't give gifts, you should use that money to buy a few pumpkins to eat! Or.....you can go get some beauty treatments."

[Ding, affection has increased by thirty. Mission completion rate is now 60%.]

When she said this, the system's voice came rang in her mind.

Chapter 1468: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 26)

A sudden 30% increase in affection?

Wen Yan Chen was watching the stream?

Did he know who she was?

Wen Yan Chen sitting in front of the screen had a sparkle in his deep eyes. He suddenly knew why he had a special feeling when he met those two girls before.

Because her voice was the other voice that he had heard from Thinking of Clear Dust's voice acting.

With crisp tapping, there was a cold swiftness to it.

He saw his yz887845 username on the screen and changed it to Half Warm Cup.

With close to three hundred thousand people in the stream, it was impossible to notice him.

He opened up the recharge list and silently filled up his money, buying pumpkin carriages.

[Half Warm Cup has sent one hundred pumpkin carriages to room 10039.]

Luo Qing Chen was surprised, the entire stream was also stunned by this banner.

It felt like time had frozen and her heart kept beating fast.

She kept blinking as she looked at the number on the screen.

100?

100?

Pumpkin carriages?

A hundred.....thousand?

Wen Yan Chen had given her a hundred thousand dollars! He, he, he.....Was he crazy?

“That.....” She felt that she should say something, what she should say the most at this time was thanks.

But she really wanted to curse!

A hundred thousand, it was a hundred thousand! For a student, this wasn't a small amount.

For Wen Yan Chen, the people he cared about would never be bullied.

Actually, there wasn't a need for her to say anything as the stream exploded. Pumpkin carriages flew out one by one, declaring her victory in this 'competition of gifts'.

Her popularity reached the peak and it exploded on the screen.

Big Sister Peach's Spring (Lv 1): God! God! God! God Warm Cup, isn't this.....too handsome!

Scattered Flower Skirt (Lv 12): Amazing, a hundred thousand!

Qiu Qiu is Clear Dust's Little Princess (Lv 9): Ha, ha, I saw a certain someone's face! It was slapped until it was swollen!

Please Call Me Detective (Lv 7): I just went to look, she already 'logged off in shame'.

This phrase in the broadcast circle meant that the host didn't stream according to their schedule or didn't do what they promised to do.

“Thank you for everyone's support, I really am touched that so many people are supporting me.” Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and turned to the mic again.

Everyone sent her gifts, confessed to her, and cheered for her.

“Ke, ke, as for “Reincarnation Endowment's” Nian Yi, I promise that I'll show you a different Thinking of Clear Dust.” After saying this, she paused before continuing, “Finally for god Warm Cup's gift, I'll sing a song for everyone!”

She didn't know if the previous host could sing or not, but as for her.....

When the music started, everyone fell silent. They either read other people's messages or cheered before quietly listening to her song.

She sang a very old song called “Yue People's Song”. When she was singing, her lips couldn't help curling.

Actually, although she wanted to scold Wen Yan Chen for wasting money, she was still strangely happy. It had nothing to do with the money, it was another method of caring.

She couldn't help feeling that she was being protected!

Chapter 1469: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 27)

After the broadcasts, she opened up Weibo and found that two people she followed had pinged her.

She looked confused, the only person she followed should be Half Warm Cup.

After opening it up, she found two problems.

Wind and Rain: I just saw that King's Landing's "Sword Dance Clear Song" changed the casting of Feng Wu to Cute Little Fairy and then Thinking of Clear Dust jumped over to Drunken Bliss. Does god Warm Cup think that Thinking of Clear Dust left King's Landing out of anger because she didn't get the role?
@Half Warm Cup V

Half Warm Cup V replying to Wind and Rain: I kept persuading her for half a month before she joined Drunken Bliss. @Thinking of Clear Dust.

Dear Cutie: So exciting! I just saw god Warm Cup send a hundred thousand in god Clear Dust's broadcast, my young girl's heart exploded! But I've heard that god Clear Dust was related to No Words before, does god Warm Cup know about this? @Half Warm Cup V

Half Warm Cup V replying to Dear Cutie: It was nothing. @Thinking of Clear Dust.

"Puchi." Luo Qing Chen who was lying in bed preparing to go to sleep couldn't help laughing when she saw these two.

This act of not forgetting to ping her when answering questions for her, she really admired it!

At the same time, Fang Qian Meng who 'logged off in shame' burned in rage like she had eaten a hundred thousand in peppers.

The question was, so what if she was angry?

The answer: Of course she would find a punching bag!

She thought about it while calling He Yu Yan, but there was no answer from the other side.

After she called several times, He Yu Yan finally answered.

"Where did you go? Why are you so slow in answering the phone!" Fang Qian Meng's tone was very bad since she still hadn't vented her anger yet!

"What does it matter to you?" He Yu Yan gave a cold snort, completely different from before.

"You....." Fang Qian Meng's anger immediately came up, but she felt it was stuck in her throat.

"What about me?" He Yu Yan's tone was very cold, as he said to Fang Qian Meng without any warmth, "Do you want to say that you'll break up with me?"

"Right, right, right! Break up!" Fang Qian Meng was stuck for a long time before she forced this out.

Whenever she spoke of breaking up, the other side would make up with her, so she felt this move worked!

"I also feel this is a smart move." He Yu Yan gave a cold laugh, "Even if you didn't call me today, I was planning to call you tomorrow. After all, there are many girls who look better than you in this world and there's many girls with better attitudes."

For someone like He Yu Yan, once he had a new goal, he would throw away his old things.

He had met a girl more suitable in real life, so why would he waste his time with an internet celebrity?

"You.....No Words, don't regret this!" Fang Qian Meng angrily bit her lip, feeling like her heart was burning up!

"I'm sorry, I never look back." He gave a soft laugh, "That ten thousand can be considered the money for sleeping with you, there's no need to be polite."

As soon as his voice fell, he hung up.

A large part of why he endured Fang Qian Meng before was because they had met in real life and even slept together.

As a man with a sense of responsibility, he didn't care if she acted up a bit.

But that didn't mean that he would tolerate it forever.

What Fang Qian Meng was doing was testing his limits.

Then again, he already had a better choice, so he didn't need to care.

Chapter 1470: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 28)

The next two days were weekends. The vocal music club that Luo Qing Chen signed up for had an orientation on Saturday.

Therefore, even if it was a day that she could sleep in, she still had to wake up early and go to school.

There weren't many people in the club, but they were very polite. When she came in, there was someone who greeted her.

"Hi, you are a student of the music course, right?" A girl wearing a blue dress recognized her with a single look.

"Un, that's right."

"I'm also in the music course, I saw you last time in class." She reached her hand out with a sweet smile and said, "I'm Su Zhi."

"I'm Luo Qing Chen."

But she never thought that this simple friendship between two girls would attract the dissatisfaction of a certain someone beside them.

"What same course, who doesn't know the main reason why you freshmen come to this club?" Chen Na crossed her hands with a look of disdain.

Luo Qing Chen slightly knit her brows. When she wanted to say something, she never thought that Su Zhi would speak first, “Aiyo, do you really think that everyone is as petty as you!”

Su Zhi was also from a family of music. Her mother sang in the opera while her father was an expert of the suona.

The suona had the sound of the universe, so it was an indispensable instrument for folk music.

Therefore, when Su Zhi said that she was in the club for other reasons, she felt that this was disrespecting the music.”

“What did you say?” Chen Na stood up and pointed at the two of them as she angrily said, “You two get out of here for me right now.”

Since her voice was loud, all the people in the room turned over to look at Chen Na.

The president Jian Yuan knitted his brows and cleared his throat, “Na Na, forget it, they are new members.”

“New members?” Chen Na gave a cold snort, “You mean that you want to keep these new members?”

Chen Na was good at playing music. Not only was she the flower of the western music department, she was a pillar of the vocal music club.

But her temper was very bad. These beautiful new members were like rivals of love for her.

Before Luo Qing Chen and Su Zhi arrived, she had already driven off two new members.

Although the methods were different, she mainly used harsh words.

But this time she was the most angry!

“Na Na!” Jian Yuan said in a deep voice, “If you keep driving them away, the vocal music club will have no female members!”

“Isn’t it enough for the vocal music club to have some powerful members, why do you need people from the folk music department anyway!” Chen Na gave a cold snort. She didn’t listen to Jian Yuan at all and continued to look at Su Zhi and Luo Qing Chen in her arrogant manner, “Why aren’t you scrambling yet!”

“Pei, with an old witch like you, who wants to stay here!” Su Zhi spat on her face and pulled Luo Qing Chen away without another word.

“You.....You.....” Chen Na clearly never thought that Su Zhi would be this forceful, she stomped her foot as she angrily said, “Scram for this old lady right now, the further the better.”

Luo Qing Chen wanted to say a few words, but with Su Zhi’s powerful ‘spit’ attack, she felt that she should leave some face for this old witch.

But when she walked out of the room, she walked past a certain someone coming in.

Because he had lowered his head, she couldn’t see that person’s face, but she felt that he was very tall and a bit familiar.

Her right hand had suddenly been grabbed and Su Zhi holding her left hand couldn't help turning back.

The two looked up and the other person looked down, as their gazes met.

Of course, there were countless other gazes looking at them.
