Chapter 1491: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 49)

"Kada." The sound of a Coke being opened.

On a stone bench by the basketball court, Luo Qing Chen gave her a Coke, "Take a sip of it first and then slowly tell me!"

Since it was the weekend, there were fewer people on campus.

The sunshine sparkled through the leaves and sprinkled on the stone table. There were lovers walking by, laughing as they talked.

She closed her eyes and felt the warm breeze, feeling very comfortable.

"Wa!" The person beside her took the Coke and took a sip before breaking out in tears. Luo Qing Chen, who had been relaxing, was scared.

"Don't cry!" Luo Qing Chen looked at her with a serious look and said in the old strong voice of the previous host, "Speak!"

Mo Ran stopped crying and only bit her lips, not daring to cry.

She slowly said, "Xiao Qing, you have to help me!"

Actually the matter wasn't too complicated. The vocal music club had two performances, so naturally the voice acting club also had two performances.

Actually, it was Lulu's show, who were the girls with heavy makeup that had insulted them the other day.

For the other show, He Yu Yan said, "Since I agreed to give you a show, I won't go back on this. However, if you show up on stage and cause problems for our club's reputation, you'll have to pay a compensation of twenty thousand."

This 'unequal treatment' was for one reason, it was to make Mo Ran give up on performing.

He Yun Yan wanted to be an honest and trustworthy person, so he couldn't take away the performance he promised Mo Ran because he couldn't chase Luo Qing Chen (He said that if she helped, he would let her be the female lead of the voice acting club).

On the other side, he made these 'difficult' conditions to make Mo Ran take a step back!

This kind of move, it really was something he could think of.

"Any opportunity has risks." Luo Qing Chen's right hand tapped on the table out of habit, "Could it be that there aren't any other members other than those fellows?"

"The rest are all bystanders!" Mo Ran gave a sniff and said in an annoyed voice, "Even if they don't have roles, they don't want to offend people!"

Luo Qing Chen slightly knitted her brows, that was right!

Everyone in the clubs protected themselves, not to mention on campus.

“What do you think I should do!” Mo Ran saw that Luo Qing Chen didn’t speak and said in an aggrieved voice, “How about I give up and leave the club!”

“Un.” Luo Qing Chen’s eyes lit up as she looked at her with an approving gaze, “I feel that this idea isn’t bad.”

“Ah?” Mo Ran directly stood up and pointed at Luo Qing Chen with her right hand, “Xiao Qing, you really want to see the evil people win?”

“Puchi.” Seeing her angry look, Luo Qing Chen decided not to tease her. She pulled her down to sit by the sleeve before asking in a serious voice, “Do you want to voice act?”

“Un.”

“So your unwillingness is a bit for your dream.”

“.....” Luo Qing Chen’s lips twitched before she said, “You really are sincere.”

“Ah! If someone asks, I might say that I have dreams.....” Mo Ran made two ‘ah ah’ sounds, “If you ask me, why do I need to work so hard at lying!”

Although this logic was strange, her words did make sense. After all, even if she talked about her dreams, she wouldn’t believe it.

Chapter 1492: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 50)

“Then you only have one way!”

“What?”

“Ask for help!” Luo Qing Chen said, “The best way is to have someone with acting skills. I heard that your voice acting club isn’t just voice acting, there’s also stage acting for ancient and modern era scripts.”

After all, things like voices were limited. In this large scale school celebration, it was impossible for the stage to be empty and have people just listen to voices.

This wasn’t suitable.

“Wa, I thought of someone suitable.” After a while, Mo Ran’s face was like the clear skies after the rain.

Luo Qing Chen felt an uneasy feeling come over her.

She said without any hesitation, “The person that you think is suited doesn’t have time!”

“Why?” Mo Ran took her left hand and said, “Aiyo, Xiao Qing, I only have you! You have to give me some time!”

“Because I’m also performing!”

“Ah? You’re also performing, but there’s no new members that are performing!”

“Ke, ke.” She cleared her throat and said with a faint smile, “The fan of the school hunk, it’s because I have school hunk Wen.”

“Ah, ah, ah.” Mo Ran said with a lonely look, “Too much, showing off your love!”

Did she have it? She still wasn’t the school hunk’s girlfriend yet!

That school hunk, was he not planning on confessing to her?

“I’ll think about this since if I decide to perform on stage, it will definitely be a ‘face slapping’ performance.” Luo Qing Chen looked at her phone, “It’s getting late, I have to go practice my performance.”

“Humph, goodbye!”

When she came back to the piano room, Wen Yan Chen was already practicing with Su Zhi.

Luo Qing Chen listened to it and felt it sounded quite good.

After the song, Su Zhi put down the violin in her hand and excitedly ran over, “Ha, ha! I suddenly feel so excited!”

“You should have been on stage many times, what are you excited about?!”

Luo Qing Chen was a bit confused, since someone from a family with musical background like Su Zhi should have been on stage many times.

“But this is my first time playing the violin on stage!”

This stunned Wen Yan Chen who was sitting in front of the piano.

He didn’t hold back, Su Zhi’s violin skills were quite outstanding. It could be said that no one in the club could match her.

She was this good at the violin, it was impossible that she never performed on stage.

“You all look so surprised!” She scratched her head and said with a laugh, “It’s because my parents love folk music, so they think that I’m admiring foreigners by playing the violin.”

“So you don’t like folk music?”

“No, no, no, I like folk music.” She said with a laugh, “I know many folk music instruments, the pipa, the guzheng, the erhu, and the yangqin, I know them all. I also like playing the violin because I like playing it.”

Su Zhi mentioned many different folk music instruments, she couldn’t help feeling that this girl really was talented in music!

“It’s not wrong to like it, as long as you’re good enough, you can get their approval.” Wen Yan Chen’s cold voice slowly rang out, giving his affirmation to Su Zhi’s dream.

“Hee, hee! Thank you senior.” Su Zhi happily said, “I don’t want them to praise me, but I don’t want to always sneak around to practice violin. It’s so tiring hiding the music scores!”

Chapter 1493: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 51)

Luo Qing Chen didn’t have any bias for western music or folk music, she just liked one genre more.

Although it was said that her piano skills were the best out of all instruments, she definitely liked folk music more.

The race was the world, western music was just something to enjoy.

When she went home that night, she went onto Weibo out of habit.

The popularity of “Reincarnation Endowment” was still high and even small voice acting groups started working with this script as a form of exchange, not for commercial gain.

But even like this, there were still criticisms from people online!

A classic was called a classic because there was no one that could surpass them.

Luo Qing Chen looked at the discussions and found that the netizens were quite explosive!

Popular Da Shun V: Aiyo, I beg those smaller clubs not to be too enthusiastic, is “Reincarnation Endowment” something you can work with?

Big Sister Peach’s Spring: I don’t want to say much, there is no Nian Yi after Clear Dust! Come again after you finish learning how to voice act in that ancient tone, alright? The tone of modern people really is very strange!

A Small Flower: I just want to ask, can I report it? @Drunken Bliss Official Account

There Are Endings to Dreams: I just heard three versions of “Reincarnation Endowment” and now I want to listen to the Drunken Bliss version to wash out my ears!

.....

Luo Qing Chen couldn’t say anything about these discussions because she understood that those small clubs wanted to become famous with famous works.

But the netizens weren’t wrong either. They didn’t ask them to surpass it, but just don’t defile their ears.

“Di, di, di.”

A certain person’s QQ sound rang out.

Half Warm Cup: What happened to your classmate this afternoon?

Seeing this question, Luo Qing Chen couldn’t help feeling a bit doubtful. Whether it was Half Warm Cup or Wen Yan Chen, he wasn’t someone who gossiped unless.....

Thinking of Clear Dust: Did you hear something?

Half Warm Cup: Un, I have a classmate in the voice acting club.

For the next half hour, Luo Qing Chen told him everything about Mo Ran's problem.

Actually, this wasn't related to Mo Ran's position in the voice acting club in the future, it was all about fighting back.

Mo Ran couldn't take this lying down, it might anger her to death!

Half Warm Cup: Un, foreign help is a method. Although the school doesn't stipulate that clubs can't borrow people, the borrowed people have to come from the school.

Thinking of Clear Dust: I know. Actually, the best choice is me, but our club is also performing.

If she helped Mo Ran, she could just choose any script that she had done before as a main character.

But at the same school celebration, there was a conflict.

Adding in the fact that the preparations were rather rushed and each club had to work overtime, there was no extra time at all.

The status of the other side's QQ showed that he was typing, but he didn't send anything for a long time.

Until ten minutes later.

Half Warm Cup: We can not go to the music club.

Thinking of Clear Dust: ???

She almost jumped out of her chair at this. It wasn't because of 'not going', but rather it was because of 'us'.

If Wen Yan Chen sent 'you don't have to go', she could understand.

After all, even if he was on the stage alone, there would be many cheers from the fans.

But! What did he mean by we?

Could it be that he was going to help Mo Ran with her?

Chapter 1494: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 52)

Half Warm Cup: I feel that Su Zhi lacks a chance to prove herself, a violin solo would be a good chance.

After all, if there was another musical instrument, especially the piano which was dominant, the excellent playing of the violin would become an accompaniment and would be suppressed by the piano.

However, if it was a solo, the violin's sound would be displayed to its full potential.

If Su Zhi could play alone on stage, that would indeed be an opportunity for her.

But.....Not to mention if Su Zhi could play on stage alone, if there wasn't Wen Yan Chen's accompaniment on the piano, the popularity of the performance would drop greatly.

Would the vocal music club agree to it?

Thinking of Clear Dust: Did you discuss it with them?

Half Warm Cup: There's no need to discuss, I make the final call.

Wen Yan Chen's certain tone confirmed one thing for her, the 'patron' of the vocal music club had to be Wen Yan Chen!

Luo Qing Chen thought about and thought about it, still feeling a bit conflicted.

Her fingers ran across the keyboard, typing and deleting, deleting and typing.

Finally, she decided to ask him!

Thinking of Clear Dust: The problem is.....will you perform?

Luo Qing Chen would never know that Wen Yan Chen in front of the computer would be even more conflicted and nervous compared to her.

Because this was the biggest thing in his life!

He was very nervous doing something as big as this for the first time!

Luo Qing Chen saw the other side was the same as her from earlier.

'The other side is typing.....'

The interesting thing was that he was typing for fifteen minutes!

Thinking of Clear Dust: Are you done thinking?

When she sent this, the youth who had been typing for fifteen minutes instantly replied.

Half Warm Cup: I'll go wherever you go.

There was a blush that covered her face and slowly spread to her ears.

She could hear the sound of her heart beating and the corners of her lips slowly rising.

After ten seconds, he didn't forget to add——

Half Warm Cup: After all, you're already my wife!

This time it was her turn to be 'typing', what should she say to seem shy, cute, and subtle?

Thinking and then thinking again.

She decided to stop being shy and reserved, directly writing something in her own style on the screen.

Thinking of Clear Dust: Un! You're very correct!

Seeing the concise words on the screen, the youth's eyes shone like the stars as his lips curled into the biggest curve in his life.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion is now 100%.]

Sunday morning.

Since next week was the school celebration, time was very tight.

Wen Yan Chen announced that he and Luo Qing Chen's program would become a violin solo, which attracted a lot of questions.

"Are you certain? She's going to play a violin solo?" Jian Yuan respected Wen Yan Chen very much, but as the president, he had to ask for the benefits of the club.

"Have you heard her play before?"

"Senior Wen, this isn't a problem of hearing it before. She is a new member and the violin is a hard instrument to master, one can't be an expert without practicing for over a decade." Chen Na's voice slowly rang out. Although she was speaking against it, her tone was quite good.

Just like a senior giving a bit of teaching.....doubtful!

"I've been playing violin for twelve years." Su Zhi looked at Chen Na with a displeased look, "I won't lose against your piano."

Su Zhi's words stunned everyone present, it was filled with power.

Chen Na gritted her teeth as she glared at Su Zhi, like she was saying: Father is trying to give you face on account of school hunk Wen and you actually don't want it.

Chapter 1495: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 53)

"What are you looking at?" Su Zhi directly took her violin and put it on her neck, "If you want to compete, pick a song."

"Si!" Everyone took a cold breath as they fell silent.

Only Luo Qing Chen revealed a faint smile.

For Su Zhi, this was the opportunity that her sister and the school hunk gave her, naturally she couldn't lose face for them.

Chen Na gave a cold snort. Seeing that the other side acted like this, she said with a bit of anger, "Don't blame senior for not giving you a chance if you lose."

She walked over to a piano placed in the meeting room and sat down, choosing the song "Ruling the World" that she was most familiar with.

Su Zhi gave a cold snort and picked up the song at the same time.

There were many kinds of fighting and speed was one of the most common types. In a situation where the pitch and melody didn't change, whoever could use speed to cut off the opponent's performance was the one who won.

But when fighting against the piano, it was suppression. When the song "Ruling the World" entered the second verse, Shu Zhi's violin was quickly suppressed by Chen Na's piano.

She didn't play quicker, not breaking the speed of her performance.

An absolute duet filled the room until the final verse when she suddenly sped up, throwing Chen Na far behind.

Five seconds later, the rhythm of her piano was interrupted.

Su Zhi had a beautiful finish, leaving a long lasting sound.

"Old witch, I already learned this song when I was eight." Su Zhi coldly looked at her before turning to look at the other seniors of the club, "Sometimes I might be outspoken, but I never meant to offend the seniors of the club. Of course that doesn't include this old witch since all debts have debtors. Everyone knows how she treated us when we joined the club!"

"You....." Chen Na gave a hard hit to the piano cover before angrily leaving the room.

When she left the room, it was filled with applause.

"I want to applaud, but I didn't want to interrupt!"

"Super powerful, I think that you are the best violinist I've ever seen!"

"This year's new members really are good, I feel that you will surprise the audience at the school celebration performance."

.....

"How about it brother Jian Yuan, do you still have doubts?" Wen Yan Chen looked at her with a faint smile on his lips.

"Powerful, powerful!" Jian Yuan gave a thumbs up and said, "You really are good at poaching talents."

After saying this, he didn't forget to look at Luo Qing Chen and asked, "I really want to see classmate Qing Chen play the piano. I want to see what kind of accomplishments the girl who caught your eyes can make."

Wen Yan Chen looked at Jian Yuan with a bit of coldness in his eyes, "President, we're leaving if there's nothing else."

He called him brother Jian Yuan before and now he was calling him president.

This proved that the person in front of him was angry and it proved what kind of position Luo Qing Chen had in his heart.

"Ha, ha!" Jian Yuan said with an awkward smile, "My bad, my bad!"

After walking out of the club, Luo Qing Chen called Mo Ran and told her to gather at the stone bench in the courtyard.

Wen Yan Chen called his other friend in the voice acting club called Mao Qi.

The people in the voice acting club called him Qi Qi, he was a very good voice actor.

Chapter 1496: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 54)

“Mao Qi.....” Luo Qing Chen slightly knitted her brows, “I remember Mo Ran saying last time that his parents are both announcers!”

“Un, one is a DJ and the other is a national level announcer.”

Wen Yan Chen said this as he waved his hand at Mao Qi and said, “Over here.”

Luo Qing Chen was a bit worried. There was suddenly this professional person and if she wasn’t a voice acting god, there would be pressure on her.

For example, Mo Ran who came from the other direction.

“Senior Qi, Qi, Qi, Qi.....” Mo Ran was stunned when she saw him. The skills of this person weren’t worse than the president of the voice acting club He Yu Yan.

“I found someone to help, did you think of what to act?”

“Un.” He said with a nod, “To make Mo Ran shock the audience and make He Yu Yan speechless, what do you think is the most suitable?”

Hearing Wen Yan Chen say this, Luo Qing Chen said with a bit of disbelief, “You want to use “Reincarnation Endowment”?”

My god!

She felt that Wen Yan Chen who gave off a coldness that no one else could match actually had black bellied blood flowing through him.

If they really used “Reincarnation Endowment”, it couldn’t just be described as shocking the audience, alright?

This was simply taking the leads of Drunken Bliss’ “Reincarnation Endowment” into real life!

Because they wouldn’t just be using their voices, they would also be acting on stage.

Also!

Acting!

On!

Stage!

“Reincarnation.....Endowment.....” Mo Ran said these words in a trembling voice.

Because to her, it was a godly script. The people who could voice this were gods in the industry!

To perform a role in the world of gods, that was simply the biggest test in her life.

Of course, Luo Qing Chen wanted her to play Xi Li which had been played by Drunken Bliss' Splendid.

It was a bit difficult.

Xi Li had a big reversal in this script, going from a kind princess to a cruel person.

The deaths of the male and female leads were related to Xi Li.

But she never thought that after Mo Ran read the script she was silent for a bit before saying in a serious voice, "I can act, but you have to help me with the voice acting."

"No problem, we are in the background most of the time, we just have to be on stage in the beginning."

"Yan Chen, you want me to play Zhu Xue, you're overestimating me!" Mao Qi had a look of disbelief as he held the script, "This is 'Reincarnation Endowment'! Do you know how many small clubs have been playing this one?"

Hearing Mao Qi's tone, Luo Qing Chen knew that he didn't know that Wen Yan Chen was Half Warm Cup.

For the original actor, there was no difficulty.

This script was the best choice!

"What if we can pull it off!" He patted Mao Qi's shoulder with a laugh, "We might gain quite a bit."

After all, there were many people taking advantage of "Reincarnation Endowment's" popularity, so there wasn't just a single person for the netizens to attack.

Wen Yan Chen brainwashed Mao Qi with: Even if they curse us, it's just one of many who are cursed.

Being one of them didn't matter!

"I'll invite you to a big seafood buffet if this works, you won't suffer!"

"Senior Qi Qi, is this true?" Thinking of eating, Mo Ran's eyes lit up.

Although she always complained about losing weight!

A foodie had no perseverance when it came to losing weight!

Chapter 1497: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 55)

When she went home that night, Luo Qing Chen planned on sleeping early, but she was disturbed by a ping in the Drunken Bliss group.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: God Clear Dust, did you see the video that was posted on the web?
@Thinking of Clear Dust.

[President]Falling White Robe: This time the person who posted the video even brought in Warm Cup.

[VA]Searching for Clear Shadows: Where?

[Makeup]Choosing the Past: On Weibo, I just saw it, it really is ridiculous!

[President]Falling White Robe: Even if it is, it's still different from last time.

[Makeup]Choosing the Past: What difference is there?

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: This time there are many who believe it.

Seeing these words, Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and quickly opened Weibo.

There was a 'seemingly' secret video and the one who sent it was called Photographer Xiao Zhou V.

He was a professional paparazzi and had some fame in the industry. The things that he got were all quite heavy and this time he got 'Thinking of Clear Dust' and 'Half Warm Cup'.

In a small hotel with dim lights and the video was a bit shaky.

In that five minute video, the girl was wearing a white transparent gauze as she leaned against the man beside her

The man was smoking a cigarette, picking through his money. It was a single hundred bill and the rest were all coins.

At one minute and eighteen seconds, there were voices that came from the room.

"Clear Dust, our "Reincarnation Endowment" was so popular this time, you really should take all the credit!"

Since a few words were hard to hear, Photographer Xiao Zhou added subtitles.

The man's voice sounded a bit like he had a cold, but it was a bit similar to Wen Yan Chen's.

Of course, it was only a bit. After all, after hearing Wen Yan Chen's normal voice, she could tell what it was instantly.

"Aiya! That is because you're great! We used those special methods to take care of that Cute Little Fairy! I want to see if she's still dumb enough to stay in this circle in the future!"

It had to be said, the girl wearing the white gauze really had a voice that was a bit similar to hers, but there was a big difference in the way they spoke.

But normal gossipers only cared about the voice, they didn't care about the tone.

"You're so powerful, you took care of that girl right away! I heard that she can't even stay in the streaming circle. I heard her voice last time, it's not bad, but it's a pity that I've already entered your body, so I'll stand by your side." He took the person beside him and gave her a strong kiss.

When he said this, there was a big gap in his voice and Wen Yan Chen's. His voice was very hoarse, like damage to his throat from smoking for a long time.

Then the two turned and walked through the hall, heading upstairs.

Photographer Xiao Zhou also captured their faces. Although it was a bit blurry, one could still see the general outline of their faces.

The man had a round face, small eyes, a big nose, and big mouth. The girl had face face, very thick legs, and she even jiggled when she walked.

When Photographer Xiao Zhou sent this video, he even added: You think that there are gods and goddesses in the online world? Actually, they are just as what people imagine them to be. @Thinking of Clear Dust, @Half Warm Cup.

[VA]Half Warm Cup: The IP address is the same as last time, it was from the same person.

Chapter 1498: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 56)

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: I'm 80% sure that it's that Cute Little Fairy. Repeating her name again and again to whitewash herself, it's just too obvious.

[VA]Searching for Clear Shadows: Isn't this too much? Otherwise, how about we just expose their IP! That way it can prove that it isn't you!

[VA]Cloud Falling Clear Sky: Right, right, right, just directly expose their IP! Let's see if they dare to act arrogant in the future.

[VA]Half Warm Cup: The wildfires are endless, the spring breeze will bring them back to life.

.....

While the group was discussing how to deal with it, Luo Qing Chen began to read the comments.

There were over three thousand comments and over ten thousand reposts.

These comments and reposts were a bit different. The ones with the highest likes were the ones criticizing them and the ones following them were all explaining for them.

Green Grass Scent: He, he! The online circle really is complicated. An ugly man and woman can become gods with their voices, bullying the 'most beautiful voice actor'! 7586 Likes.

Memories of the Fleeting: So ugly, this girl simply taints the Nian Yi in my heart. @Thinking of Clear Dust. 6687 Likes.

-Big Sister Peach's Spring: You're ugly.

-Not Caring About Wang Lun's Love: Your whole family is ugly!

Peach Falling in Dreams: How can they prove that it's my god Clear Dust with just a few words? Weren't there those pictures saying that they were my god Clear Dust? You all turned this quickly? 2525 Likes.

-Green Grass Scent: Isn't this obvious?

-Very Good Very Good: If it wasn't, how could @Photographer Xiao Zhou send this, they have no grudges!

DIY Girl: How could this voice sound like my god Warm Cup, have your ears been run over by a train?
1025 Likes.

.....

In a certain dim room, Fang Qian Meng was fixing her black nail polish as she watched people attack Thinking of Clear Dust on the web. She couldn't help revealing a cold smile.

This time she finally had the trust of the netizens.

It really wasn't easy, she didn't hesitate to sleep with Photographer Xiao Zhou for him to film this.

But the response to this video was good. Drunken Bliss' gods? He, he, just wait to be ruined!

Moreover, even if they used pictures to clarify, she could still slander them.

Unless they shot a video, but she had already achieved her goal.

This time, she, Fang Qian Meng's fame had increased.

For example, she had gained over three thousand fans tonight and there were still people comforting her.

Isn't this the meaning of hype? Wasn't it the same with celebrities, even if they knew it was fake, there were a lot of fans for couplings. Wasn't it all just to increase their own fame?

Luo Qing Chen read through this while Flourishing Song had already posted on the official account.

She thought that it was just an official denial, but she never thought that the actual content would scare her.

Drunken Bliss V: @Photographer Xiao Zhou, there is a video involving our Drunken Bliss' two voice actors @Thinking of Clear Dust and @Half Warm Cup. After our verification, we have determined that this video is a defamatory attack. We will ask our lawyers to send an official letter and take legal actions. As for the uneasy fans, the answer will be announced at A City's High End University's school celebration tomorrow night at eight.

Announced???

[VA]Thinking of Clear Dust: She did this just to hype herself since Grapefruit TV already cancelled their contract with her. Whether it's true or not, with the fame of me and Warm Cup right now, as long as there isn't absolutely damning in there, she would gain fame from this.

Chapter 1499: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 57)

[VA]Half Warm Cup: So we'll give her some.

[VA]Cloud Falling Clear Sky: I'm a bit excited! So god Clear Dust and god Warm Cup go to A City's High End University?

[Makeup]Choosing the Past: I'm also excited, I'm in A City! Can I enter the school?

[VA]Thinking of Clear Dust: You can.....

But Wen Yan Chen was planning on seeing the light! She already said that she would die in the light.....

Because of this matter, Luo Qing Chen felt that she didn't sleep all night. Before going to sleep, she still looked at the official account.

She didn't have a habit of checking Weibo before, but now she felt a bit uncomfortable if she didn't. There was a strange.....Weibo obsession.

Flourishing Song's post on the official account had over ten thousand comments. It seemed like once Drunken Bliss released this, it didn't just make "Reincarnation Endowment" more popular, it even made more people start to doubt this.

Taking a few looks, Luo Qing Chen felt her heart becoming less stuffy.

Big Sister Peach's Spring: High End! Damn, damn, that's a high class school! 9999 Likes.

Milk and Coffee: So god Clear Dust and god Warm Cup go to the same school? 9999 Likes.

Once Upon a Time: Damn! Why do I feel strangely excited! 9999 Likes.

A Small Flower: Not mentioning anything else, I feel like watching someone's face being slapped! I ask everyone to tell her at that time that not anyone can become popular! 9999 Likes!

.....

Of course, Luo Qing Chen never paid attention to this. A certain instigator cared about the movements on the web more.

When she saw the post from Drunken Bliss' official account, she suddenly became unsettled.

High End? University students? High class?

How could that be possible? A City, she remembered that He Yu Yan at this high school in A City and he was the president of the voice acting club.

If there were these two voice actors at this school, he would definitely know.

After being unable to sit still, she used another phone to call He Yu Yan.

Because the previous number had already been blocked by him.

"Hello."

It was a lazy voice with a touch of magnetism to it.

Hearing this voice, she suddenly felt a bit of regret.

"That, I'm Meng Meng." She lowered her voice with a bit of an aggrieved tone to it.

“Meng Meng? Which Meng Meng?” It was clear that the other side hadn’t reacted to who she was.

After all he had been too busy with the school celebration and he spent most of his time practicing with Lulu, so his brain was a bit slow. “I’m Fang Qian Meng!” She was a bit angry, but she still suppressed her voice.

She would yell at He Yu Yan however she wanted before, but she never thought that she would fall this far for a single piece of news.....

“Oh.” The other side drew out their voice before it became somewhat impatient, “I’m very busy, speak quickly if you need something.”

One wouldn’t bother if they didn’t need something. Fang Qian Meng used another phone number to call him, there must be something.

But she shouldn’t beg him to reconcile. With Fang Qian Meng’s fame in the circle, he wanted to stay as far away as possible.

“I want to ask, are there very famous voice actors in your school’s voice acting club?”

Her question was very tactful, but He Yu Yan immediately understood what she meant.

“You’re asking me about what Drunken Bliss’ post means, right!” He Yu Yan gave a cold snort, “You even believe their lies, King’s Landing has used this move many times. In the end, a random person will come out and the voice will be dub, you even believe this! You really are brain dead!”

Chapter 1500: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 58)

“Ha, ha, ha, ha!” Fang Qian Meng couldn’t help laughing when she heard He Yu Yan say this and the more she laughed, the louder she became.

He Yu Yan on the other side was confused when he heard this laughter, it was his first time hearing someone being this happy to be scolded.

“Mental.” He hung up after saying this word and then added this number to his blocked list.

Fang Qian Meng didn’t feel angry at all because of He Yu Yan’s tone. Drunken Bliss’ methods really were dumb.

Wouldn’t it be your face that went ‘pa, pa, pa’? She would record a follow up video in a few days to stir up the crowd again.

As long as she thought of the netizens attacking ‘Thinking of Clear Dust’, she would even laugh in her dreams.

She was clearly a hikkimori and she was pretending to be a student from a prestigious school? If ‘Thinking of Clear Dust’ really looked good, why didn’t she go to the ‘most beautiful voice actor’ competition last year?

She sent photos and videos slandering her like this, why didn’t she just send a photo back?

Wasn't it for only a single reason?

Because! She! Was! Ugly!

Because she was ugly, she didn't feel confident in sending her picture. It didn't matter if she was like her, she could just send a picture, who told her to be beautiful?

Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha!

The laughter lasted a long time in the dark room, but she didn't know that this laugh wouldn't last long.....

The next night, at five thirty.

Although Mo Ran already talked to He Yu Yan, telling him that she had found help in the school and he didn't need to worry.

She was still refused when she handed him the programming.

"You want to do "Reincarnation Endowment"? Are you kidding me? Do you know what kind of script this is?"

Although he didn't like Drunken Bliss and he hated them even more after Thinking of Clear Dust had jumped over. As a professional voice actor, he had to admit that their "Reincarnation Endowment" was done very well.

It was impossible for people to surpass this level, so if they really did it, he would step down from the voice acting world!

"I know, I know." Mo Ran knitted her brows as she said, "But the president said that you would give me this spot, so you have to do it!"

"So what if I did, you can't do it!" He Yu Yan waved his hand in a very strong manner.

"But the problem is that if you take me down, do you have a better team to replace me with?" Mo Ran looked at him with her head held high, "Whether it's good or bad, I will take responsibility for it. Before the performance, I will tell everyone that this isn't related to the club."

He Yu Yan knitted his brows. It was indeed difficult to find another group to create another show since all the elites of the club were put in a single group and the second group would only have ten minutes.

He looked at the program and when he saw the names Wen Yan Chen and Luo Qing Chen, he suddenly changed his mind!

He had been humiliated in the restaurant that time, he had to take revenge for this anger.

They wanted to do "Reincarnation Endowment"? Let them do it. They think that they are worthy of it? They were looking down on Drunken Bliss too much.

Perhaps this school hunk might fall into the abyss because of this "Reincarnation Endowment"! Since they didn't care, what was he afraid of? Someone took responsibility, someone would be scolded, and he would take revenge.

When he thought of this, he thought that it was quite good!
