Chapter 1501: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 59)

“Alright, do it then.” He Yu Yan coldly looked at her, “But don’t say that I didn’t warn you, also don’t forget to mention that it isn’t related to the club. You only have ten minutes, then you have to scam off the stage! Understood?”

“Got it!”

Mo Ran angrily turned to leave, but He Yu Yan called out, “Right, the club won’t provide the first grade equipment or costumes, they are reserved for the first group. Don’t blame me for bullying new members, if you want equipment, you can look for some old ones from the warehouse.”

“Ding ling.” When the phone rang, Mo Ran’s tears were about to come out.

But she couldn’t yell at He Yu Yan for this ten minute performance, so she picked up with an aggrieved look on her face.

“Ran Ran, come to room three on the first floor of the vocal music building.”

The entire room was filled with equipment and costumes, these were prepared by Wen Yan Chen

He naturally had guessed that He Yu Yan wouldn’t give them any equipment.

“Wow, I was almost angered to death by the problem of equipment! There’s even more here than at the club.” Mo Ran wiped her tears away. She stopped in front of an aqua blue dress with scattered flowers and clouds, taking it in her hand, “So beautiful!”

“Xi Li likes blue, so that’s yours.”

“Un.” Wen Yan Chen said with a nod, “Three minutes after going on stage, we’ll enter the recording room. The stage will be filled with cherry blossoms, I’ve already arranged it all.”

“That is very good, at least the audience won’t see a black stage when we’re not on it.”

“This is the final script.” Wen Yan Chen took out three sheets of A4 paper for them, “As long as there is noise under the stage, we will stop.”

“This script is too long!” Mo Ran shook her head, “No, no, president He Yu Yan said that we only have ten minutes.”

“I say how much time we have.” Wen Yan Chen had a dark look in his deep eyes.

“Ah?”

“But if the audience isn’t willing to watch, they’ll watch the performance of us four.” Wen Yan Chen narrowed his eyes to say, “If they make any noise, it means that they don’t want to watch. I’ll finish and then we’ll read our final lines.”

Luo Qing Chen silently listened to Wen Yan Chen’s instructions. She didn’t know why he was so decisive about him making the decisions.

But he looked really good when he was serious.....He looked really good no matter how you looked at it.

That night at seven thirty.

They put their equipment and costumes in the storage room, it only took a single box.

Although there was plenty of sound outside, if the equipment was well prepared, it could cancel a bit of sound.

Mo Ran was a bit nervous. After drinking two cups of milk tea, she said she needed to use the washroom.....

Luo Qing Chen found Su Zhi from backstage, it seemed like the vocal music club were the first ones up.

"I'm also in the second group, ha, ha! After all, the first group is an ensemble of instruments, the opening can never be a solo violin!" Su Zhi said with a happy smile, "I really have to thank you and senior Wen Yan Chen this time. I told my parents and although they were a bit angry, they still came."

"Then you have to work hard. Music has no borders, as long as you love it, your music will have passion!"

"Un, definitely!" Su Zhi said in a soft voice, "I heard that you also have a performance, can you tell me what it is?"

"You'll know when the time comes!"

Chapter 1502: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 60)

Actually she was a bit nervous. As the original voice actor of "Reincarnation Endowment", she should know what to do.

But when Wen Yan Chen said that they would stop if the crowd made any noise.

This made her feel that they weren't just recording, but rather this was a competition.

"Ai, why can you.....have this much time?"

This was a school celebration, it should be strict.

"Our family is the sponsor for the school's newest batch of labs and equipment." Wen Yan Chen didn't hide it, he revealed everything.

"But what if the audience is very silent?"

"Since they enjoyed "Reincarnation Endowment", falling deep into the script, why would we bother them?" He saw that she was a bit nervous, so he patted her head, "Relax, you are god Clear Dust from Drunken Bliss!"

"....." Luo Qing Chen's lips twitched in response, "Thank you, god Warm Cup!"

The school celebration started at eight.

After the 'collective ensemble' of the vocal music club, it was time for Su Zhi's violin solo.

But when the host said the two words 'Su Zhi', the crowd already became restless.

Because they thought that the performance this year would be Wen Yan Chen's solo piano act.

The school hunk had become a strange person and all kinds of thoughts came out.

"Why, I don't like the violin at all!"

"You said it was the school hunk, why is it someone else!"

"I won't listen, I won't listen, I'm going back to the dorm to sleep!"

.....

Luo Qing Chen standing backstage couldn't help knitting her brows. She had thought that this might happen, but she never thought that everyone would be this intense.

She didn't know if the impulsive Su Zhi would be able to stay calm.

Chen Na standing not far away curled her lips as she said, "Really embarrassing, this is clearly harming the reputation of our vocal music club!"

"Saying the grapes are sour without being able to eat them." Luo Qing Chen immediately said back with a bad tone!

They shouldn't provoke her when she was anxious, she had even more ways to confuse people.

As expected, Chen Na who could only sing harmony in the performance had an ugly look on her face. When she wanted to reply, she never thought that Wen Yan Chen would speak up faster than her.

"Relax, musicians aren't bothered by the outside world." Wen Yan Chen narrowed his eyes to look at her, "She is different from us voice actors."

As expected, when the long arc of the violin rang out, the crowd under the stage gradually turned silent.

Su Zhi repertoire was a combination of ancient and modern music, combining folk and western music.

She knew what it meant if she did this, she wanted to prove herself to her parents.

She really.....had thought this through.

After a minute, there were only small whispers from the crowd as most of them had become immersed in the sound of her violin.

The melody came forward like waves.

After the song finished, applause erupted from the crowd.

Su Zhi on stage put down her violin and slowly opened her eyes. She blinked once before tears came out.

She pursed her lips a bit, trying her best to control her emotions.

“Truly an exciting violin solo, even I, as the host, want to go to her concert.” The host came forward and gently gave her a tissue before saying, “Let’s talk about how you feel first!”

Su Zhi took the tissue and wiped her tears before taking a deep breath, “I want to thank my parents for training me in many folk music instruments. It isn’t that I’m infatuated with foreigners, but I just want to learn the violin because I like it.”

Chapter 1503: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 61)

Once again, the applause erupted.

The people who had mocked her before were now desperately clapping for her.

What was wrong about liking something, what was wrong with working hard for something you liked?

Although it was a pity that they couldn’t hear school hunk Wen’s piano solo, they felt that it was worth it after hearing Su Zhi’s violin solo.

There were some things that were destined in the dark. After losing a feast, there would be another feast!

After Su Zhi came off stage, her parents came backstage to give her a tight hug as their eyes turned red.

They suddenly felt like they had wronged their child, they shouldn’t have stopped her from doing what she liked.

As the elders, they didn’t support their child, but their child was this outstanding.

They felt proud of Su Zhi.

Luo Qing Chen’s lips curled when she saw this. She said to Wen Yan Chen beside her, “You were right, a music family is a music family.”

“Di, di, di.” Their phones sounded at the same time, it was from the Drunken Bliss group.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: When are you guys getting on stage! I know a photographer in A City and he says that he’s already there. We’ll be broadcasting this on Weibo later, you guys shouldn’t have a problem, right! @Half Warm Cup, @Thinking of Clear Dust.

[VA]Half Warm Cup:

[VA]Thinking of Clear Dust:

The two had a tacit understanding in their words, indicating that the vice president had really ‘done her best’ to prove their innocence!

[Makeup]Choosing the Past: So excited, so excited! Sitting in the front row confessing to god Clear Dust!
(* ^ - ^ *)

[VA]Half Warm Cup: No need.

[President]Falling White Robe: Ha, ha! Warm Cup, let's talk about it since you're not on stage yet! What kind of relationship is between you and Thinking of Clear Dust?

[VA]Cloud Falling Clear Sky: Could it be that the rumours are true?

[Production]Butterfly Dance: Could it be that video.....No, no, no, impossible! Sorry, I'll mute myself! 😊

[VA]Half Warm Cup: What rumour?

[VA]Cloud Falling Clear Sky: The rumour online that god Clear Dust is your girlfriend!

[VA]Thinking of Clear Dust: You can't rely on these rumours.....

Luo Qing Chen's lips curled as she deliberately sent these words. When she sent them, she didn't forget to look at Wen Yan Chen's face beside her.

As expected, that handsome face had slightly knitted brows.

He quickly typed a line on his phone screen.

[VA]Half Warm Cup: Un, you can't rely on them.

Luo Qing Chen felt the pleasure of hitting herself!

Aiya, so frustrating!

[President]Falling White Robe: Then what is your relationship? [Evil smile].

[VA]Half Warm Cup: Fix the word girlfriend, she is my wife.

[VA]Thinking of Clear Dust:

[VA]Cloud Falling Clear Sky:

[Production]Butterfly Dance:

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Damn! You really dared to take away my god Clear Dust! This is only a few days, doesn't your conscience hurt?

[VA]Half Warm Cup: It does, but I like the way it feels.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Half! Warm! Cup! I will definitely have the photographer make you look very ugly! You will clearly look like an uncle even though you're in university!

[President]Falling White Robe: Done! The video is already on Grapefruit TV.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Let me see.

[President]Falling White Robe: Ah, it's so clear! @Half Warm Cup, just wait to die from the light!

[VA]Half Warm Cup: I'm preparing to go on stage, the group B program.

[VA]Cloud Falling Clear Sky: Good luck, good luck!

[Production]Butterfly Dance: Ganbate!

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Be handsome, don't lose face for our Drunken Bliss!

Chapter 1504: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 62)

Flourishing Song was a very cute person. Even though she spoke to Half Warm Cup like this, when the performance came, she was very excited.

It was the A group's performance before they went on stage. He Yu Yan of King's Landing personally came out, so they were much stronger.

They acted out a script between gods and demons. A god who was punished fell in love with a demon.

He was willing to fall into a demon for her.

There was smoke on the stage and after a short performance, they went to the small room on the side to voice act.

"People are afraid of demons because they think demons will eat them."

"I won't....."

"I have been with you for twenty years, I'm afraid that you'll still be young when I die."

"Click." The entire stage dimmed.

He Yu Yan's voice was very good, but Lulu couldn't keep up.

Luo Qing Chen knew after hearing it that this script was for a strong voice and while Lulu's voice wasn't weak, it couldn't be domineering.

There were many audience members moving around when the story was halfway finished.

After all, there was nothing on stage and it felt awkward listening to the female lead's voice.

Naturally there was no substitution and once the audience felt this, it was like a wave that couldn't be taken back.

He Yu Yan thought of this situation, so he used the same method as Wen Yan Chen, he read the last line ahead of time to end it.

Actually, this method was very common and there were many gods that used this method.

"Pa, pa, pa, pa." There was scattered applause, it could be seen that everyone had already been impatient for it to end.

Lulu was still complaining when she came backstage. She didn't forget to glare at Mo Ran when she passed her, "Let me tell you, an expert like our president could only do this much because the venue wasn't perfect, what about you?"

"Mo Ran, don't forget you only have ten minutes." He Yu Yan's tone was very bad. His anger towards Lulu was vented on Mo Ran, "Don't lose face for our club!"

“Lue.” Mo Ran stuck out her tongue at him, “You can’t make the decision, come and fight me on stage if you have the skills!”

She really had enough! It was fine if she was scolded by him for this performance, but now he was shouting at her before she went on stage!

She didn’t want to take it at this time!

“You.....” He Yu Yan gave a cold snort, “Alright, alright, alright. “Reincarnation Endowment”, he, he, so what if I give you an hour, you’ll be sprayed down by the audience in five minutes, don’t you know?”

“That’s right, what a joke!” Lulu didn’t forget to add fuel to the fire on the side, as she kept muttering, “Why didn’t you let me finish? I was just getting into it, but then you said that it would end!”

He Yu Yan looked at Lulu like she didn’t know how bad she was. He was too angry to speak and turned to leave.

There was a bit of inexplicable regret that filled his heart.

One upon a time, when Thinking of Clear Dust was still in King’s Landing, no one had ever questioned his ability. There was only praise for him on Weibo, no one ever scolded him.

Although he wasn’t happy with this coupling, the enthusiasm ever fell. No matter what role it was, it would always go smoothly as long as Thinking of Clear Dust was there!

But what about now?

Whether it was King’s Landing or the voice acting club, he felt powerless.

He was already doing his best, but it still didn’t work.

He suddenly felt that it was so tiring doing this.....

Or perhaps.....the one most suited for him was always Thinking of Clear Dust.

Chapter 1505: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 63)

Leaning on the sofa, he took out his phone and found Thinking of Clear Dust’s QQ number from a certain group, sending a friend request.

[I’m a bit tired, can we talk?]

At the same time, the voice actor named Thinking of Clear Dust was about to go on stage.

The host excitedly said, “Is everyone still interested in voice acting performances?”

“Che.” There was a sigh from the audience, it was very hard for them to watch another voice acting performance.

“Then let’s welcome the voice acting club’s group B to give their version of the popular “Reincarnation Endowment”!”

As soon as the host's voice fell, before they came onto the stage, the crowd exploded.

"What is this?"

"Aiyo, my god, please don't insult the Nian Yi in my heart, alright!"

"Damn! Right, right! There is no Nian Yi after Clear Dust, there is no Qi Jun after Warm Cup, alright?"

"Can you skip this show, I'm afraid that someone will attack them later."

"Don't do this, alright? The small groups online are already annoying, now it's the voice acting club's group B?"

"Goodbye, I'm leaving first!"

.....

The words from the crowd made Mo Ran's face turn pale in fear, the same with Mao Qi.

Although he had some voice acting experience, with so many people being fans of "Reincarnation Endowment", it really made him feel a bit worried.

"I feel that my breath has stopped!" Mo Ran was wearing the aqua blue dress with a pair of hibiscus soft soled shoes underneath.

"Ah?" Luo Qing Chen was a bit surprised, feeling Mo Ran's words were a bit funny.

Mao Qi also said, "I feel that my heart has been hit."

"....."

Even she was too lazy to reply and just gave a speechless expression in response.

"I say, do you think I will be notified by god Warm Cup's Weibo?" Mao Qi was a bit stunned. It was clear that the audience had a big influence on him.

"You're not playing Qi Jun." Mo Ran replied.

"Don't worry!" When they were about to go on stage, Luo Qing Chen gave him some 'reassurance'. She said with a faint smile, "You have god Warm Cup, just relax and voice act."

"Ke, ke." Wen Yan Chen on the side cleared his throat, "I think it's possible if you voice act too poorly."

"Puchi." Luo Qing Chen had a faint sparkle in her water clear eyes, "Is that true?"

"It's not."

"It's over, it's over."

"I'm also finished."

A minute later, the background music started, but the restless crowd didn't stop.

There was even a fan of 'Half Warm Cup' who directly threw their water bottle on stage and angrily, "Please don't bring shame to my god Warm Cup! Alright! Alright! Alright!"

Their voice was very loud, causing Wen Yan Chen to knit his brows. Wearing that moon white robe, he closed his eyes.

The lights on the stage dimmed after this.

“She got married today?” Qi Jun asked the person who came with a smile.

This was an ice cold voice that was unique in this world.

“Yes.” (The narrator Xiao Dong)

He took the poisoned wine and drank it, “I have no worries in this life!”

Instantly the noisy crowd fell silent.

This silence made even the sound of a leaf falling audible.

Chapter 1506: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 64)

Before everyone could react, Luo Qing Chen wearing a white brocaded robe with two satin ribbons in her hair came in. There was a faint breeze that caused the ribbons to flutter.

“Was he released from prison?” The clear as water voice rang.

“Yes.”

She looked up at the cross beams above and there was a faint smile on her lips as she said, “Knowing that you’re safe, I don’t ask for anything else.”

She closed her eyes as a tear fell down.

“Kacha.” The stage suddenly went dark.

The stage lit up again and there were no more people on stage, there was only a cherry blossom forest.

The five of them were sitting behind the curtain in a row.

Qi Jin: No matter how fierce the flames are, no matter how many bloodstains there are, I will be buried in this manor where you were.

Nian Yi: Life is like an empty dream, a white head of hair is just a blink of an eye.

Li Xi: We were never matched, you were far above and I ran away.....How many years.....

.....

Zhu Xue: You lied saying you also liked me, but you never know that I spent all my courage on these words.

.....

As soon as the voice fell, the song ended.

It was an entire hour and a half that they finished "Reincarnation Endowment". No one said a thing, even when the background music was louder, there was no one that spoke.

After a minute, the scene of cherry blossoms falling on stage gradually disappeared.

Everyone was fully immersed in the love story between Nian Yi and Qi Jun, the painful attachment of Li Xi, and the unrepentant love of Zhu Xue.....

Each word, each sentence, fully brought out the depths of "Reincarnation Endowment".

Mo Ran was crying while biting her lips. She was so stunned that her tears fell as she was completely immersed in the role of Li Xi.

When it ended, she couldn't break free of these emotions.

Mao Qi looked at Wen Yan Chen and Luo Qing Chen beside him in disbelief, looking at them like this for a full moment.

Wen Yan Chen looked at Luo Qing Chen and slowly stood up, "Let's go out."

When the light on the stage lit up again, there was a wild applause from the crowd.

"God, amazing! I'm about to cry!"

"These are the original voices of "Reincarnation Endowment"!"

"I was stunned when school hunk Wen went on stage, I didn't dare say a single word!"

"Me too, me too! I was afraid of ruining the atmosphere with a single word!"

"How could our school have such a powerful voice actor! They truly are amazing!"

"It can't be that they played the original voices, right....."

"Are you an idiot! There were many lines that were different, alright?"

.....

"Everyone is very excited." The host came up to the stage with an excited look and said, "This "Reincarnation Endowment" really brings tears to the eyes, now let's welcome the four main characters on stage!"

Wen Yan Chen took the lead as they went out with Luo Qing Chen behind him, with emotions filling her heart.

Even if she felt a painful feeling in this second interpretation of "Reincarnation Endowment", that kind of love really made one feel emotional.

"School hunk Wen, school hunk Wen, school hunk Wen!"

The fan girls shouted from under the stage as the enthusiasm reached a peak.

The host said with a smile, "Come, now let's have our school hunk introduce everyone!"

"Alright!"

"Then let's go with the introductions." The host handed the mic to Wen Yan Chen.

"Hello everyone, I am Half Warm Cup."

He handed the mic to Luo Qing Chen and she instantly understood his meaning.

"Hello everyone, I am Thinking of Clear Dust."

Chapter 1507: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 65)

The crowd was silent at this moment. Everyone looked at the two of them in disbelief, what did they just introduce themselves as?

Half Warm Cup?

Thinking of Clear Dust?

"Hello everyone, I am——"

"Ah!" When it was the third person, the crowd slowly came back to their senses. They completely overshadowed the last two people who were talking.

The waves of cheers came one after another, completely overwhelming them.

No one would have imagined that the two gods of Drunken Bliss, the male and female leads of "Reincarnation Endowment" would actually appear at the same university!

Mao Qi and Mo Ran standing by them looked at each other with a smile before handing the mic back to the host.

The cheers from the crowd were so powerful that even if the host wanted to say something, he was still overwhelmed.

"What to do, I'm a little excited! No, no, no, I'm very excited!"

"Damn! This baby's so excited that I'm about to cry!"

"I was saying why the voice sounded so familiar.....I'm so excited that I'm trembling!"

"Ah, ah, ah, school hunk Wen and Half Warm Cup are the male gods I admire the most in this world! The most terrifying thing is that they are the same person!"

The person who threw the bottle of mineral water charged up to the stage. He quickly picked it up and drank it all before running off.

"Ah, ha, ha, ha, ha!" There was laughter from the crowd.

That person wasn't embarrassed as he turned around and scratched his head as he said, "God Warm Cup, I've liked you for many years, can you go out with me?"

“Pu!”

“.....”

“How shameless are you?”

“I will not give you Warm Cup to you!”

There was another roar, but Wen Yan Chen took the mic from the host to say, “Sorry, I already have a girlfriend.”

He turned to Luo Qing Chen as his lips curled into a beautiful curve, “Official couple, will you all accept this?”

“Woah!”

Everyone repeated the same word with tacit understanding, “Accept! Accept! Accept! Accept! Accept!”

.....

Seeing that “Reincarnation Endowment” was accepted by everyone and seeing Wen Yan Chen announcing their relationship on stage at the school celebration.

She looked up and felt that the sky looked truly beautiful!

When they left the stage, Mo Ran took the mic to add, “Our voice acting club’s president thought that group B’s performance would be bad, so they wanted me to tell everyone that this performance has nothing to do with the voice acting club at all.”

“Che.” There was this clicking from the crowd.

Everyone had the same thought: Can group A’s performance compare to this “Reincarnation Endowment”?”

What a joke, bro?

When they went backstage, they met He Yu Yan and Lulu’s group.

“I.....I need to use the washroom.” Lulu quickly found an excuse to leave, leaving behind He Yu Yan to sit there with an awkward look.

No one knew what kind of mood he was in. When the words ‘Thinking of Clear Dust’ came from the stage, he felt like something was blocking his heart, feeling very uncomfortable.

She was the way he liked his girls. Pure white skin, large eyes that sparkled like the stars, and long black hair.

When they were in King’s Landing, he was her official coupling and they had worked on countless scripts together.

If it wasn’t for Fang Qian Meng, how could she have gone to his rival Half Warm Cup!?

Chapter 1508: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 66)

But he didn't know that as long as there was a Half Warm Cup in this world, no one else could be Thinking of Clear Dust's official coupling.

After all, the cold school hunk had an unknown black bellied side in his heart!

The two looked at each other and He Yu Yan wanted to say something, but Wen Yan Chen didn't give him a chance at all.

When he was about to speak, a certain god said to his girl, "Wife, let's go!"

Luo Qing Chen who was putting away the equipment was surprised before immediately saying, "I want to eat dinner."

"What do you want to eat?"

"Mala hot pot? Barbecue?"

"I know a place where they are next door to each other."

.....

These words that were like words between lovers grated on He Yu Yan's ears.

He felt very suffocated staying backstage for another minute.

But the two 'showing affection' didn't seem to care about He Yu Yan at all, leaving after they tidied up everything.

Wen Yan Chen didn't forget to take her by the waist when they left, carefully helping her off the stage.

On the way back, they didn't eat any Mala hot pot since their phones already started vibrating when they left.

When she got out of the Lambo, Luo Qing Chen waved her hand, "Be careful on your way back."

He revealed a faint smile as he said, "I finally.....know where you live."

She was surprised. When she wanted to say something, Wen Yan Chen narrowed his eyes as he said, "I'll pick you up tomorrow."

It was already eleven when she got home. She logged into QQ and found that every group was at 99+. The most discussed words in each of those groups were——

Thinking of Clear Dust and Half Warm Cup.

She first opened the Drunken Bliss group and the most eye catching messages were from Flourishing Song.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Falling White Robe! Is there a use in withdrawing? Go sleep on the floorboards tonight! ㄟ_ㄟ

"Puchi." Luo Qing Chen sitting in front of the computer saw everyone's chat and couldn't help laughing.

The biggest difference between Drunken Bliss and King's Landing was that this place gave her the feeling of a home.

[VA]Half Warm Cup: That Photographer Xiao Zhou made a post.

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: That person, did he confess?

Luo Qing Chen opened Photographer Xiao Zhou's Weibo which contained a long apology letter. He had also deleted the previous post.

Photographer Xiao Zhou V: I am very sorry about that video, this is my most sincere apology letter. The source of the video was to find a photographer to make that video and the one that found me was someone called Lao Qian. He gave me five thousand and asked me to do this. .....

There were many people criticizing him and only a few people who believed that he was a victim.

After all, there were many complicated things in the circle, so everyone should be focusing on that Lao Qian.

As expected, in just an hour, the mighty netizens had found a person in A City called Lao Qian and had exposed all his information.

Although this information came from speculation, people believed that the information in the post should be mainly accurate.

An ID Hidden Behind the Truth: The following is my personal speculation, everyone is free to discuss.

The content was very long, but it was also very clear. According to an IP trace, the target was a mahjong hall. The owner of this place was called Qian Tong Bao and the one thing to know was that his previous girlfriend was Cute Little Fairy.

As the saying goes, the truth would be gradually revealed. The faces of those ugly people were covered in thick makeup, so they couldn't hide it anymore.

In just half an hour after this post was made, Fang Qian Meng was directly hit by the water army and reached the top of the hot search.

Chapter 1510: Cold voice actor: The old enemy is the top queen (Part 68)

Luo Qing Chen on the other end of the computer curled her lips. Good and evil really received what they deserved in the end.

She thought that this incident was over, but she never thought that at four in the morning, Fang Qian Meng would also send a long post.

It was a pity that it was different from the last two.

Even if she tried her best to clean up her Weibo, no one believed her words.

There were even quite a few netizens who dug up her past information. What abortion at fifteen, two timing people in high school, and there was even a boy who had died in an accident for her.

Whether it was true or not, for Fang Qian Meng, at least she could never be washed clean in this circle.

As for how she should make a living, Luo Qing Chen felt that she should wash dishes!

After the school celebration, He Yu Yan resigned from the voice acting club and applied to go abroad.

His family's background was quite good, so he was quickly approved.

Luo Qing Chen felt that she had done quite a bit of retaliation towards He Yu Yan. In the end, the other side didn't do anything that bad to the world, so there was no need to 'completely kill' him.

Therefore she didn't stop him from going abroad since she didn't want to see his face anymore!

But she never thought that He Yu Yan would post on Weibo from the plane.

After all, whether it was “Reincarnation Endowment” or Fang Qian Meng’s matter, he never posted, but this time he pinged her when he posted.

It was very simple, there were only a few words.

No Words V: Leaving King’s Landing and leaving the online world. But there’s something I still want to tell you, I suddenly feel like I like you very much. @Thinking of Clear Dust. [Bitter smile].

After He Yu Yan sent this, the one that everyone pinged the most wasn’t Thinking of Clear Dust, but rather Half Warm Cup.

Listening to the Wind as Rain: @God Warm Cup, someone is stealing your wife! 2586 Likes.

Miss Peach: How did you treat our god Clear Dust before and now you’re feeling regret, don’t you think it’s too late? 1252 Likes.

There were many gossipers in the Drunken Bliss group that were urging each other on after seeing this discussion.

[President]Falling White Robe: Warm Cup, aren’t you planning on saying anything? The other side already confessed!

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Ha, ha, such a strong group. If god Clear Dust thinks that Warm Cup isn’t good, she can be with me. ($\geq \nabla \leq$)/

[President]Falling White Robe: Damn! Flourishing, what do you want me to do?

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: I’ll take you both!

[VA]Cloud Falling Clear Sky: This confession seems a bit domineering!

[Production]Butterfly Dance: How can you do this! Do you want to go to King’s Landing!?

[VA]Cloud Falling Clear Sky: Ah, ah, ah! I don’t want to go to that club that can’t live much longer! (ㄥ ^ ㄥ

[Vice president]Flourishing Song: Be more handsome, don’t lose face for Drunken Bliss!

[Makeup]Choosing the Past: @Half Warm Cup, god Warm Cup, come and say a few things, don’t you have any thoughts about this!?

[VA]Thinking of Clear Dust: That.....

“Di, di, di.”

Luo Qing Chen wanted to speak up for Wen Yan Chen when she saw this since she could feel that pressure from these gossipers!

But before she could send her next message, there was a private chat that appeared.

It came from Half Warm Cup's avatar!
