Chapter 1571: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 55)

At this time, there was a girl in a red wedding dress sitting in the Mirror Moon Hall. Her long hair was pinned in a lotus bun and there was a dual sided luan golden hairpin inserted in her hair.

With a bit of lipstick and delicate makeup.

“Miss Yue really is beautiful, it’s unknown how many times better than the one in the cold palace!” A maid praised her with a smile while helping her put on her wedding dress.

But then.

“Pa.” There was a crisp slap that fell across the face of the maid.

Yue Cai Zhi’s eyes were open wide and she looked fierce as she looked at her with a dark look, “Don’t compare this one to someone who’s already on the path to the Yellow Springs, this one will soon become the lord of the harem. The only who can stand by the emperor’s side forever!”

The maid instantly kneeled down and muttered in a trembling voice, “This servant was wrong, miss.....Empress, please forgive me!”

The other maids all looked at each pale faces.

Miss Yue had been polite and humble when she first entered the palace, she was always good to her servants.

Now that her position had changed, her dark and terrifying nature was revealed.

“Da, da, da.” There were slightly rushed footsteps that slowly sounded.

Wen De who was the most trusted person by Lin Nan Yi came in. Yue Cai Zhi slightly knitted her brows as she thought: The empress conferring ceremony is about to start, what is Wen De doing here?”

“Greetings miss Yue.” Wen De had a trace of colour in his eyes. It was like he came back to his senses as he said with a smile, “This should change! Wen De greets.....the empress.”

“Does minister need something, the empress conferring ceremony hasn’t started yet!” Yue Cai Zhi revealed a faint smile. Although she didn’t say it, there was a proud look on her face.

The maid who was slapped earlier was still kneeling while covering her face, naturally her heart was filled with disdain towards Yue Cai Zhi who wasn’t the empress yet.

She wanted other people to call her empress, but in front of the great minister, she was acting like this.

“Yes.....” Wen De gave a slight bow, “The royal family has a tradition. Before being conferred, the empress must enter the ancestor’s shrine to worship the ancient emperor. The emperor wanted this old servant to come pick you up.”

“Alright, this.....I’ll follow the minister.” She almost said ‘this one’, but with Wen De’s position in the palace, she quickly changed this.

“Quickly get up and bring my coat over.” Yue Cai Zhi slightly leaned over and helped up the maid on the ground before saying in a low voice, “Next time your mistake won’t be forgiven.”

“Yes.....This servant knows her mistake.....”

The maid on the ground was trembling. Faced with this uncertain master who could change faces so easily, she as the servant would have to worry that she would be in danger at any time.

But so what? Who could resist the one in the emperor’s heart.

Yue Cai Zhi put on her cloak and said with a smile, “Minister, please!”

It was freezing outside and she couldn’t let her noble body catch a cold.

After leaving out the back door of the Mirror Moon Palace, they headed to the ancestral hall in the southernmost part of the royal palace. The lights on the way were very lively, it should be for her conferring ceremony.

Her lips curled as she couldn’t help feeling a bit emotional when she saw this scene.

Finally, it was finally the time when she received everything she wanted.

She was only a person who silently stood behind Lin Nan Yi before, watching him from a distance.

Now she was the one standing firmly by his side.

Only her, only her, only her.

There was only her, Yue Cai Zhi who was qualified to stand by Lin Nan Yi’s side, no one else!

Chapter 1572: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 56)

Half an hour later, in a dim prison.

In the innermost cell, a girl had her head covered, her mouth sealed, and her hands tied behind her as she laid against the cold wall.

There was a faint scent of wine in the air and there were fragments of a shattered wine cup on the ground.

Imperial tutor Yue changed to an imperial tutor uniform and there were two of his loyal followers behind him as they slowly came in.

He lifted a jug of wine with a dark look on his face as he gave a slow, but sinister laugh.

“Capture princess, ah, captured princess. The emperor still wants to let you go, but how could this old minister let you live!” Imperial tutor Yue’s cold voice rang out before he said with a smile, “Don’t blame this old man, the scourge from the Glazed Glass Country like you should die. It’s a pity that the emperor didn’t hesitate to destroy all the small countries for you.”

The woman who had been unconscious suddenly woke up when she heard this familiar voice.

But her hands were tied and her body had been poisoned, so she didn't have any strength at all.

"Wu.....Wu....." Her mouth was tied up and she could only moan in this weak voice.

"I love my daughter, so I have to pave her way to becoming the master of the harem and no one can threaten her." Imperial tutor Yue said this while using his eyes to signal for the two behind him to make their move.

"Wu, wu, wu!" The girl seemed like she could understand every word of this voice and she struggled to move forward, but she was fiercely held by those two guards.

"Ze, ze, ze.....Still want to attack this old minister, you won't have the chance this time!" Imperial tutor Yue crossed his hands and looked at her like the absolute winner, "Your mother and little brother have probably been released by Lin Nan Yi. It's fine, there's no need to kill useless people."

As soon as his voice fell, the two guards took off the tape covering her mouth and she wildly opened it, but she couldn't make a single sound.

"No need to struggle, enjoy your last meal." Imperial tutor Yue revealed a smile before waving his hand, "Ah, the hood is fine, don't take it off. Her eyes are so sharp, this old minister might.....have nightmares tonight! Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha....."

"Yes, imperial tutor."

The wine mixed with poison was poured into her mouth.

The girl desperately struggled while the imperial tutor laughed.

The poison worked in her body, taking her life bit by bit.

Until she fell down without any strength at all. Only then was imperial tutor Yue assured in coming forward and saying with a cold laugh, "Good, good, good, very good. Everything is perfect."

"It's done, let's go! Wen De should be coming soon."

"Yes."

Before leaving, imperial tutor Yue didn't forget to kick the dead girl on the ground.

At that moment, his heart was filled with joy. After all these years, his daughter's wish was finally fulfilled.

This captured princess should have died long ago. If it wasn't for Lin Nan Yi protecting her, with his influence in the court, it would have been too easy to kill this captured princess.

But what stopped him was the terrifying and obsessed Lin Nan Yi.

It was a good thing that everything fell into place and the scales of victory had belonged to them.

The moonlight tonight really was beautiful and the palace was lively. He would.....never forget such an exciting night.

Chapter 1573: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 57)

Outside the Supreme Harmony Hall, snow filled the sky.

Lin Dong Xue had been sitting in the snow for three hours before finally having the chance to see Lin Nan Yi.

When he walked into the Supreme Harmony Hall, not only did he see Lin Nan Yi, he also saw great general Meng Hun.

“This subordinate greets the Pacifying West King.”

“General Meng.....” Lin Dong Xue was a bit surprised to see him.

“Ke, ke.....” Lin Nan Yi sitting up top cleared his throat to say, “You’ve been waiting outside for three hours, it really makes this one worry.”

He never thought that someone else would like her in the world since she was so cruel and unreasonable, so willful and proud.

He never would have thought that his little brother who said that he would only love Yue Cai Zhi would do all this for the girl that Yue Cai Zhi hated.

“Big brother.....Qing Chen isn’t the kind of girl you think she is, she.....”

“What kind of girl she is, this one knows better than you.” He looked up with his sharp eyes and slowly stood up. He came to Lin Dong Xue’s side to pat his shoulder before saying with a bitter smile, “That day, this one really envied you.”

That day, in the dark night filled with snow, when she killed all with her Phoenix Dance Sword just to take Yue Cai Zhi’s life.

But her enemy was no one else but him. He was the emperor who ruled the world who had stopped her.

At that time, his little brother Lin Dong Xue had stood against the world with her.

No one knew how much he wanted to throw away everything to stand at her side.

But he couldn’t, he couldn’t let her die. Definitely.....not!

“Big brother.....”

“Pacifying West King does not need to worry, the war has already ended and this subordinate’s wife and children are in a safe place.” Meng Hun cupped his hands and kneeled to say, “Imperial tutor Yue’s collusion with the other side has been documented, this subordinate rushed back after the war was over!”

Lin Dong Xue was stunned as he understood everything at that moment.

From beginning to end, Lin Nan Yi was waiting and stalling. He and Meng Hun were already prepared and everything was under his control.

“Since it’s like this, why did big brother put her.....in prison?”

Lin Dong Xue couldn't forget how she laid against the way with tears in her eyes, with a look of absolute despair. She softly said with a smile: It would be good if there was a pot of wine.

"Because this one didn't think that she would kill her way into the Mirror Moon Hall for Xiao Tian." Lin Nan Yi gave a sigh and revealed a faint smile with a bit of love, "It really.....makes one worry."

Lin Dong Xue felt an indescribable feeling in his heart when he saw Lin Nan Yi like this.

Once upon a time, he thought if he had met Luo Qing Chen first, he wouldn't have loved Yue Cai Zhi that long. If his big brother had met Yue Cai Zhi first, he wouldn't have loved Luo Qing Chen that long.

But he realized that he was wrong.

Lin Nan Yi who was the cold emperor would always have his lips curl when there was a certain name that was mentioned, he finally understood.....

Whether Lin Nan Yi had met Yue Cai Zhi or a harem girl first.

He would only love one person.

"But.....She's alone in jail, I'm worried....."

Who was imperial tutor Yue? His methods weren't normal.

"No need to worry, from the moment she came back to the palace, this one had thought of everything." Lin Nan Yi narrowed his deep eyes, "Even if she makes one worry, even if this one dies.....this one.....can still think of a way."

Chapter 1574: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 58)

"Big brother....."

"Actually this one wants to stand by her side and go against the entire world more than you....."

But if he did this, it would hurt her. He would rather be the bad person.

Mirror Moon Hall.

The maids all came around and the festive sounds of gongs and drums filled her ears.

So noisy, what was this place? Shouldn't she be in jail?

No, shouldn't she have failed the mission and returned to the Chaos Space?

What was this situation? She remembered that she had finished the wine.....

There was a faint scent of makeup in the air and there was something on the top of her head. There was soft ribbon tying her hands and there was a long gauze covering her face, even her mouth was blocked.

She slightly knitted her brows. When she was about to stand up, two maids came over.

“Ah, the empress was here! You really.....scared these maids?”

“Quick, quick, quick, the empress conferring ceremony is about to begin, help the empress into the sedan.” There was the voice of a minister that came from outside.

This minister was the one who delivered the new brides.

Empress? Empress conferring ceremony?

Luo Qing Chen was stunned, but before she could react, she was already put in the sedan.

The maids beside her kept talking and her blank mind slowly came back to her senses.

In the jail, she must have been knocked out.....

This definitely wasn't a temporary plan. Wen De's appearance, the changing of the guards, everything had been accurately calculated.

Also, what Wen De said when he gave her the wine, listening to it now.....it was indeed a bit.....strange!

'Miss Luo, the emperor can't keep you here.'

'The emperor asks your highness to forgive him, he didn't tell you before deciding this matter.'

.....

She kept thinking of what Wen De had said to her again and again. This means that since she broke into the Mirror Moon Hall alone, Lin Nan Yi was planning on switching her and Yue Cai Zhi?

So the person in jail now was Yue Cai Zhi?

The festive sounds of gongs and drums filled her ears. The maid standing beside her seriously helped her out of the sedan.

“These ministers welcome the empress, long live the empress.”

The voices of the officials of the court suddenly rang out and she couldn't help thinking that this was a grand scene.

Even if she couldn't see anything, she could still feel how solemn it was.

“Empress, please remember your right foot first and then left. Every time you take a step up the jade stairs, you must remember to think of the people of the court and the citizens!” The minister on the side came forward and said this word for word.

It had to be said that she was suddenly nervous at this moment.

The snow under her feet was a bit deep and the red cloak on her was made of minx fur, it was not Yue Cai Zhi's.

The previous host had seen this cloak in the Supreme Harmony Hall and had wanted it from him, but he didn't give it.

He said that this cloak was to be given to the one he loved the most.....

It wasn't Yue Cai Zhi or the previous host.

It was her.....

She took a deep breath and closed her eyes. When those pearl inlaid shoes stepped on the snow, it didn't feel cold at all.

With each jade step, she silently thought 'for the people of the court and the citizens'.....

May the emperor have a good life and stay by her side.

Although she didn't know what terrifying method Lin Nan Yi used to make the ministers accept her taking the phoenix crown.

She knew that no one could understand the hardships of this process.....

Chapter 1575: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 59)

Once upon a time, she had been standing in front of Mirror Moon Hall with her Phoenix Dance Sword, how she hoped that he would stand with her.

But he stood on the other side and kept giving her more affection, but he had also locked her up.

At that moment, she didn't understand why she met this kind of Lin Nan Yi.

Now she understood.....

She wasn't afraid of death, but he was afraid of her dying.....

"The empress conferring ceremony will now officially begin." Wen De's voice sounded in her ear.

In an instant, there was a hot palm that grabbed her wrist and gently moved her to the side.

She felt her nose becoming stuffed as tears almost came out.

"The mother of the world, the master of the harem, selflessness and forgiveness....."

Wen De read the ceremonial words of the empress conferring ceremony while Lin Nan Yi standing beside her slowly said, "Sorry, this one didn't discuss this matter with you and made a decision."

His voice was very soft and it was a bit choked up for an unknown reason.

No one knew how much he had endured and no one knew how much effort he had put in to let her stand beside him.

But none of this could compare.....to the days when she came back to the palace, when he couldn't keep her in the Supreme Harmony Hall with him.....

The most terrifying thing was those cold and lonely nights, with the tide of longing.

Luo Qing Chen had strange tears that suddenly filled her eyes.

At this time.....it seemed like she couldn't cry.....

But when Lin Nan Yi said this, she really couldn't take it.....She blinked and tears came down.

“Actually.....this one also thought of what to do after failing. Wen De already prepared an escape route and we would go back to the Northern Wilderness where this one would rebuild the Glazed Glass Country.....”

Lin Nan Yi, don't say this.

She shook her head and she kept saying these words in her heart.

Don't say it, don't say it, don't say it.....

She had never met this kind of male lead before, he thought of everything that no one would have thought of. There was a pair of deep eyes that had thought of every single possibility.

But there was one prerequisite which was that Luo Qing Chen couldn't be hurt.

So after fighting and being locked up, she wasn't hurt at all.

“Right, this one did something despicable. This one sent someone to rescue great general Meng Hun's wife and child to bring him to this one's side.....This scheming Lin Nan Yi, will you look down on him.....”

As soon as his voice fell, his right hand slowly unfastened the ribbon that bound her hand and then tightly took it. He whispered in her ear, “But what to do, you're about to marry this kind of Lin Nan Yi.....”

Luo Qing Chen could feel that Lin Nan Yi was a bit choked up when he said these words.

He was the emperor, he had done this to protect her and to openly marry her.

He had sold out his country, sold out his citizens.

This required.....great courage!

After a while, Wen De finished reading the ceremonial words and proceeded to the final wedding ceremony.

“Bow to the heavens.”

When Lin Nan Yi bowed, Luo Qing Chen was still standing.

Everyone looked at each other in a daze, not knowing what to do.

When Lin Nan Yi gave a laugh filled with sorrow and bitterness, when he prepared to stand up, she bowed down beside him.

Chapter 1576: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 60)

He was surprised, but then his burning palms were taken by her hand.

She gently wrote a few words on his palm through the sleeve: Feet are frozen.

At that moment, the cold and aloof emperor suddenly revealed a smile. He looked that good when he smiled, making people fall for him.

The ceremony was over.

He carefully picked her up and his heart was filled with excitement.

When the music played again, great general Meng Hun came in with a sealed letter in his hand.

Everyone was surprised as they revealed confused looks.

Only Lin Nan Yi on the high platform couldn't help revealing a faint smile.

"This subordinate Meng Hun greets the emperor."

"No need for courtesy." Lin Nan Yi raised a brow, "What does general Meng need?"

Imperial tutor Yue who was sitting closest to the platform had his expression change, as his wide smile from before became a bit stiff.

When he watched his daughter walking up the jade stairs step by step, there was a joy that filled his heart.

With his power in court, his daughter should be qualified to enjoy all this honour. The love of the emperor and the crown of empress belonged to her.

Even if this power, most of it came from secret meetings with.....other countries.

"This subordinate has obtained some information." Meng Hun paused before he looked at imperial tutor Yue and said, "Information on a traitor."

"Si!" Everyone took a cold breath.

All kinds of whispers instantly rang out.

"Didn't general Meng just conquer another country?"

"No, no, no, I heard that they weren't conquered, but rather we gave them a city."

"Why?"

"Someone in court kidnapped general Meng's wife and son.....It seems like general Meng is looking at imperial tutor Yue?"

"It can't be.....Today is imperial tutor Yue's daughter's wedding day....."

"Oh? There's such a big matter?" Lin Nan Yi knitted his brows and acted nervous as he asked, "Who is it? General Meng, just say it!"

"It's the lord imperial tutor sitting in the high position." It was like Meng Hun had realized something and changed his tone, "It should be the lord royal father in law!"

"What are you saying?" Imperial tutor Yue angrily said, "You.....You are slandering me!"

He did have some letters with the other country, but most of them were only minor benefits. How could Meng Hun put this unreasonable charge on his head?

“Imperial tutor Yue, I have in my hands letters between you and the king of the other country. Although they are all written in their language, based on the dates, you must have been in contact for a long time.”

“.....” Imperial tutor Yue gritted his teeth, “You insist on slandering people, this old minister has never seen those letters before!”

“Is that so?” Meng Hun said with a cold laugh, “These letters came from the Yue Manor!”

“You.....You dare to search this old minister’s manor!” Imperial tutor Yue immediately kneeled down and cupped his hands to Lin Nan Yi, “Emperor, you must make a decision for this old minister!”

“You kidnapped my wife and child first, so what if I search your manor! If it wasn’t for the emperor’s grace, this one’s wife and child would have already been on the road to the Yellow Springs!” Meng Hun said this while pulling out the sword at his waist to point at him, “Tell me, are you really as innocent and unrelated as you say you are?”

“Imperial tutor Yue.....” Lin Nan Yi looked at him with a thoughtful gaze, asking him in the tone of the ruler of a country, “Is what general Meng said true?”

Chapter 1577: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 61)

“Emperor.....Emperor.....you mustn’t listen to his nonsense!” Imperial tutor Yue suddenly kneeled down, “He has many soldiers and wants to eradicate this old minister’s influence to.....usurp the throne!”

“The words of a villain!” Meng Hun directly put his sword on imperial tutor Yue’s neck and said through gritted teeth, “Only a villain like you can say such rebellious words.”

Imperial tutor Yue’s face turned pale in fright from Meng Huns’ actions, but he knew that he had to be calm at this moment.

He had quite a bit of influence in court and there would be many people who spoke up for him.

Not to mention that his daughter had already married the emperor. The Yue Family was tied with the royal family, so as long as Lin Nan Yi was on his side, a trivial general couldn’t control the court.

“Wen De, bring the letters over for this one.” Lin Nan Yi narrowed his brows before saying to Luo Qing Chen beside him in a low voice, “Just wait a bit, it’ll be alright soon.”

He didn’t want her to spend the ceremony under the veil the entire time. He had planned on taking off the veil and making the ministers bow.

But right now, he had to take care of his biggest problem first.

Luo Qing Chen raised her right hand to take the tape off her mouth and softly said, “Alright.....”

Lin Nan Yi who had been calm suddenly panicked a bit.

How long had it been since she sat by his side and talked softly to him?

Their encounter, their meeting again, and their acquaintance had been spent in constant pain.

But after this pain, when the night was silent, he felt very happy thinking about it.

It was a strange happiness.....that brought a smile to his lips.

“Ke, ke.....” He took the letter and seriously looked at it before knitting his brows, “The letters are mainly written in their language and there were some other letters received. Imperial tutor Yue, did you really collude with them?”

Meng Hun didn’t forget to add, “Reporting to the emperor, the letters received came from this subordinate’s spy in their camp. The timing of the letters match the ones from imperial tutor Yue’s manor perfectly!”

“This old minister.....This old minister is being wronged, emperor!” Imperial tutor Yue had a bit of panic in his eyes as he desperately shook his head, “This old minister only had a few deals with them.....Just exchanging a few products, this old minister really hasn’t committed treason!”

After being an official for all these years, imperial tutor Yue knew that at this moment, even if the letters from his manor didn’t have any information that stated he colluded with the other country.

Just based on this, it was hard for him to clear himself.

This Meng Hun was clearly aiming at him. His wife and child being taken was being pinned on him!

This truly was evil!

But he had a life saving straw which was Lin Nan Yi.

As long as Lin Nan Yi didn’t think he colluded with them, he wouldn’t be charged.

But if Lin Nan Yi did think this.....

No, his daughter Yue Cai Zhi was now his wife, the empress.

If he as the royal father in law was accused of treason, where would the face of the court go!

In order to preserve the face of the country, for the empress, Lin Nan Yi would definitely be on his side and not side with Meng Hun.

“Someone, imperial tutor Yue has colluded with the enemy and there is clear evidence!” Lin Nan Yi looked at him with his deep eyes, “Quickly take him away and lock him in prison!”

Chapter 1578: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 62)

“You all.....don’t touch me.” Imperial tutor Yue’s face was red as he angrily roared out, “Now that the conferring ceremony is over, my daughter is already the empress! I.....I am the royal father in law, you can’t do this to me!”

While he said this, he looked at the ministers at his sides.

Half of these people were his confidants, they were his power.

But not a single person came out at that moment.

Treason, treason.....

This kind of crime was punished by execution of the family whether it was light or heavy and Meng Hun had those detailed letters in hand.

In their eyes, even if imperial tutor Yue jumped in the Yellow River, he couldn't be washed clean. They couldn't put their families in danger with him.

"You.....You all....." Imperial tutor Yue gritted his teeth and glared at them, "You really are a bunch of wolves. This Yue has given you all those benefits and you won't even make a single sound."

"Imperial tutor, ah, imperial tutor, treason isn't a crime that everyone can bear." Lin Nan Yi's cold eyes slightly narrowed as he looked at him, "Even if this one is biased, I can't do anything. Not to mention that.....I'm not biased."

When Lin Nan Yi's voice fell, the few court officials who were deciding whether to stand out gave a sigh of relief.

Good thing, good thing.....

It was a good thing they didn't go out, or their whole families would have lost their lives.

The facts were clear. The emperor didn't trust imperial tutor Yue, so even if he was the royal father in law, he still didn't give him any face.

Thinking about it, it was right. The crime of treason, no ruler would give any leniency.

"You....." Imperial tutor Yue heard this and he trembled. He gritted his teeth as he said, "Emperor, you think that this old minister colluded with the other country and want this old minister to die?"

"The crime of treason cannot be forgiven!" His voice was ice cold as he looked at imperial tutor Yue.

Lin Nan Yi wanted this person to die.

"Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha!" He wildly laughed into the sky before pointing at Lin Nan Yi, "Emperor, ah, emperor, you think that doing this will let the captive princess come back to the palace?"

He could see through it all at this moment!

What letters, what deal, what general's wife and child?

The emperor wanted to destroy his entire Yue Family, letting that girl come back to the palace.

It was a pity that while the mantis stalks the cicada, the oriole was waiting.

The respected emperor was playing chess for the princess of a destroyed country. It was a pity that this game of chess was already destroyed by this Yue!

"Oh? What does imperial tutor Yue want to say? Just say it."

“If this Yue is going to hell, how can I not pull someone with me? Ha, ha, ha, ha!” He gave a crazy laughter before saying in a casual voice, “The emperor doesn’t know this, but the captive princess was poisoned by this old minister in prison! If she wants to leave, did you ask me if I agreed?”

When imperial tutor Yue said this, Luo Qing Chen could feel Lin Nan Yi beside her tremble slightly.

If it wasn’t for him perfectly planning everything since the beginning, perhaps it would have been as imperial tutor Yue said, almost falling short.

It was a good thing he was persistent.

It was a good thing he was careful.

It was a good thing he loved her.

“There’s no need for you to agree to where is she!” Lin Nan Yi narrowed his dark eyes and his lips curled into a faint smile. He removed the veil from the person beside him as he said, “Imperial tutor Yue, do you know who you really poisoned to death in the prison?”

Chapter 1579: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 63)

A dazzling beam of light filled her eyes. The palace was covered in red silk and all the officials were kneeling.

Standing beside her was the honourable emperor that everyone respected!

When the veil came off, everyone fell into silence.

All the ministers took a deep breath and looked at her in disbelief.

Seeing the captive princess that was in jail who had tried to assassinate the emperor again and again.

Among them was one person who was scared by this. His voice was trembling and he couldn’t say a single complete sentence.

“You.....You.....Aren’t you already?”

Luo Qing Chen looked at imperial tutor Yue’s stunned face and could guess some things.

“Un, I should be on the path to the underworld.....” Her lips curled slightly as she revealed a cold smile, “Or be on the bridge of reincarnation, forgetting about this world?”

“No, impossible!” Imperial tutor Yue angrily roared, “Definitely impossible. I personally, I personally.....How is this possible?”

Lin Nan Yi softly took Luo Qing Chen’s hand as he looked at imperial tutor Yue with ice cold eyes, “What? Do you still not know who you poisoned in prison?”

“You.....How did you know?” Imperial tutor Yue heard this and took a step back. His eyes kept getting bigger as he looked at Luo Qing Chen with a face of terror, trembling so much that he couldn’t breathe.

“Don’t you feel that the voice of the person you poisoned to death sounded familiar?”

“Don’t you feel that she wanted to come closer, to let you know who she was?”

“Don’t you feel that she was filled with despair when she died?”

Lin Nan Yi’s words were like needles that stabbed into imperial tutor Yue. The scene from the prison filled his mind.

Every scene, every word, they were like swords that stabbed his heart.

He tasted a bit of sweetness as he spat out a mouthful of blood.

“Ah, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ah, ha, ha, ha, ha!” There was a hissing laughter that filled the night sky.

He knew that he had been caught in Lin Nan Yi’s ‘plans’.

He knew that he had poisoned his daughter in prison.

At that time, the girl covered in the cloth back was in that kind of despair.....

“This old minister has lost.....You’ve won.....” He held his chest as his face was as pale as paper. Looking at Lin Nan Yi sitting high up, he said with a cold smile, “Someone like you will definitely get what he deserves.”

Lin Nan Yi knitted his brows and didn’t reply.

His eyes fell onto Luo Qing Chen and there was a strong look of determination that filled them as he said, “There’s still you, you must.....Ah!”

After a grunt, imperial tutor Yue froze. He looked down and saw the sword piercing his chest.

The sword had the word ‘Nan’ engraved on it.

Lin Nan Yi put down his scabbard and crossed his hands to look at imperial tutor Yue, “This one can be cursed, this one can go to hell, but she can’t.”

He had created this plot, he betrayed his country, he cut down the imperial tutor.....

He had no complaints even if he went to hell after his head.

But she couldn’t. He wasn’t willing to let anyone curse her, to let anyone hate her.

All the bad people would be given to him.....

He was greedy his entire life, his white bones could be buried anywhere after his death.

But while he was alive, please let her stay by his side.

For a.....

Long time.....

Chapter 1580: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 64)

Imperial tutor Yue had died in this important conferring ceremony, dying under Lin Nan Yi's sword.

Actually, even if Lin Nan Yi didn't kill him, he wouldn't have lived long.

Killing his own daughter, this kind of stigma wouldn't have let him live.....

After imperial tutor Yue died, his power in court began to scatter.

Even if there were a few that stood up against Luo Qing Chen, they couldn't make any changes in this situation.

Just like this.....she strangely became the master of the harem and his empress.

Although it was like this, she didn't live in the Mirror Moon Hall. After all.....she didn't like that place.

"Then just stay in the Fierce Spirit Hall for a few days. This one will build you a new palace beside the Supreme Harmony Hall." Lin Nan Yi looked at her with a faint smile in his deep eyes.

She slightly knitted her brows and said, "It's called the Golden Palace!"

Thinking about it, the Fierce Spirit Hall was something from a long time ago.

Time seemed to pass very quickly and before knowing it, this man had put everything in front of Luo Qing Chen.

"Being able to change the cold palace into such a place in just seven days, it seems like only Luo Qing Chen can do this." He raised his right hand and looked at her with a pampering gaze, "It's been hard on you....."

It was hard not being able to stand by her side in a domineering manner, facing all the grievances she faced with her.

But if he had the choice, if he could do it again, he would still make the same decision.

To protect her, to protect her, to protect her.....

At that moment, in the Supreme Harmony Hall, hearing Lin Nan Yi's words, her eyes turned red and her tears almost came out.

She felt aggrieved, she felt loss, she felt regrets.....

But when she knew that she had these emotions, there was someone more in pain than her and could only silently bear it all.

As long as he thought of Lin Nan Yi, she felt that she was a lucky person.

Eight days later, she held a funeral for Xiao Tian.

Tens of thousands of petals were put in a 'Tian' character in the yard of the Golden Palace.

This was her own special way to commemorate the cutest person.

That day, the Golden Palace wasn't open for business, but many people still came.

The ones that came were all the people who took things from Xiao Tian.

The candle swayed and there was a touch of sadness in the air.

Luo Qing Chen knew that there were many people outside. Although they were normally proud girls of the harem, with many of them being two faced, they came to send her off.

“Kacha.”

The door opened and Lin Dong Xue slowly came in with a candle.

The snow on the ground gradually melted. In his white robe under the moonlight, he was a bit sad.

“She really was a cute girl.” He said in a low voice before slowly putting it down.

“So.....” Luo Qing Chen turned around and said, “Are you here for Xiao Tian or for another spirit?”

As soon as her voice fell, there was a cold breeze that blew out the candle Lin Dong Xue put on the ground.

His breath stopped and he looked at Luo Qing Chen in disbelief, “It can’t be that.....there really is a spirit, right!”

Luo Qing Chen turned around to look at his scared expression and couldn’t help laughing, “Of course there is.”

“!” He looked around before looking at the extinguished candle on the ground. His voice trembled a bit as he said, “Why aren’t you.....afraid.....”
