Chapter 1581: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 65)

"Si." There was another cold wind.

All the candles placed in the 'Tian' character was suddenly extinguished.

Lin Dong Xue immediately charged over to Luo Qing Chen's side and looked at her with a face covered in fear, "It can't be that there really are ghosts, right!"

Since he was young, Lin Dong Xue didn't fear anything, only fearing ghosts.

"The saying goes: Don't do bad things normally and you won't be afraid of ghosts." Luo Qing Chen looked at Lin Dong Xue beside her, "You normally don't do bad things, so what is there to be afraid of!"

"I seem.....to have really done quite a bit....." He softly pulled at her sleeve as he vigilantly looked around, "But why aren't you afraid at all?"

Normally speaking, any woman would be so scared that she would cry out at this moment!

Why, why was Luo Qing Chen this calm.....

She was so calm that it didn't seem like she was from this world.

"What is there to be afraid of?" She gave a chuckle and lit the candles on the ground again. It was like she could see Xiao Tian's figure in the candles, shimmering away.

Her lips curled and she muttered, "If there are ghosts at this time, it's a blessing for me."

If there were, this was a world where she could use divine artifacts and she could use spiritual energy to save people, reversing time and space.

Then Xiao Tian wouldn't die.

Then she could still do business seven days a week with a smile on her face.

Lin Dong Xue heard this and quickly let go of her. He looked at her in the moonlight with a look of terror before asing, "I always feel that your skin is so white that it's a bit scary.....Moreover, you're so thin yet you can beat ten men.....It can't be that....."

Luo Qing Chen turned around and the light of the candle fell onto her face.

When she saw Lin Dong Xue's pale face, she almost broke out in laughter.

She then said, "Un, it seems like I've been seen through!"

After a while Lin Dong Xue couldn't help swallowing a mouthful of saliva. He had an awkward smile as he moved towards the door, not forgetting to wave his hand to her, "Your highness, I shouldn't have done anything wrong to you, right!"

"You didn't?" Luo Qing Chen slowly picked up a candle from the ground as her lips curled into a faint smile. She walked towards Lin Dong Xue as she said, "I remember that I was locked in the Hidden Book Pavilion by a certain king, almost being....."

"Misunderstanding! Misunderstand! That definitely is a misunderstanding....." Lin Dong Xue shook his head before saying, "That was definitely Xiao Yi framing me!"

Xiao Yi:.....

"Really?"

"Really! Remember in front of the Mirror Moon Hall when I bravely stood by your side against all those enemies, facing blades, swords, and....."

"Thank you." She cut him off and pursed her lips into a smile, "Thank you, Lin Dong Xue for being by my side when I was most powerless."

A sincere thanks to this king.

Even if he had poisoned her and helped others hurt her.

He was still a good person in the end.

"No need." He looked up with clear eyes and said, "Being able to help Luo Qing Chen at that time, I feel very happy."

As soon as his voice fell, he didn't forget to add, "So are you really....."

She looked behind him in a daze before her lips curled slightly, "Guess....."

"Ah?"

"Look behind you if you can't guess."

Chapter 1582: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (Part 66)

At that moment, Lin Dong Xue felt like he had just fallen into hell.

The front was light and the back was darkness.

What he feared the most in this life were ghosts, his hair would stand on end when he heard about them.

Not to mention this was a moment of sacrifice.

"I.....Can I.....not turn around?" He looked at Luo Qing Chen and seriously asked this.

"It should be no." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and pretended to be calm as she said, "After all, he should be a bit angry."

Ling Dong Xue swallowed his saliva and touched the back of his head as he thought: If I knew this would happen, I would let Xiao Yi be even more fierce.

He planned to run in Luo Qing Chen's direction without another word, but there was a hand that grabbed him from behind.

Lin Nan Yi's cold voice slowly rang out, "What? What do you want to run to the empress for?"

As soon as this voice fell, Lin Dong Xue who had a look of fear was like a deflated balloon as he let out a sigh of relief.

"I say, big brother.....In this atmosphere, it really is scary....." Lin Dong Xue said this and didn't forget to add, "Greetings royal brother."

"The corpse that disappeared from the prison, you took it away, right?" Lin Nan Yi's eyes were calm, but there was a depth to them.

No one understood his little brother better than him.

There were times when he seemed indifferent that he was just hiding his emotions under the surface.

He narrowed his eyes and after a while, he said, "Un, I took it away."

After the empress conferring ceremony, he was the first one to go into the prison.

In the innermost cell, there was the scent of wine that filled the air. There was a woman with her head covered and her limbs tied who was lying there.

Her soul was gone and she was in despair.

He slowly took off the hood and what caught his eyes was that pale face and those eyes that didn't close.

Pitiful, truly pitiful.

His eyes turned red, they turned red for Yue Cai Zhi.

Once upon a time, they were childhood friends. When the teacher had them read a poem about love, he couldn't help looking at Yue Cai Zhi beside him.

She had big eyes at that time and while she didn't show her love, she did look good.

When she saw stray dogs, she would feed them. When she saw boys bullying ugly girls in school, she would always come forth to stop them.

It should be this Yue Cai Zhi who he had been fascinated with for all those years.

But people.....changed in the end.

Seeing something that one loved excessively not belonging to them, a hatred would fill one's heart.

From hatred to jealousy, changing one's heart.

He took her corpse away and went to a place with no one around. There was a clear mountain stream and flowers blooming all around.

This was the last thing he could do for her.

“Reporting to the emperor, general Meng Hun has reported that the other side is not satisfied with the deal for one city and is planning on attacking again.” Wen De cupped his hands and said, “The general is already on the way, asking for an advisor from the emperor.”

Lin Nan Yi’s deep brows had a sparkle as his lips curled slightly, “There are many talented people in the court, this one has already thought of someone.”

“Emperor, please, this old servant will go tell them.”

“You.”

“.....”

“Ke, ke.” Lin Nan Yi cleared his throat, “I wonder who said that day that the laws said they should be taken away and given an execution. This one remembers it clearly.”

“.....” Wen De helplessly looked at Lin Nan Yi.

He felt aggrieved, but he couldn’t say anything.

As expected, the reason for his cold sweat was because the emperor was a foolish ruler!

Chapter 1583: Foolish ruler in the way: How many times do you want to be assassinated? (End)

In the end, Wen De was sent to the frontlines as a military advisor for general Meng Hun.

Of course, Lin Nan Yi didn’t feel assured and sent two more people to go with him.

When everything was settled, Lin Nan Yi asked Luo Qing Chen a question.

“Do you like living in the palace or living as a commoner?”

Luo Qing Chen who had been eating pastries didn’t react right away and only after a while did she ask, “Does the emperor want to go on a tour?”

Lin Nan Yi was surprised before saying with a smile, “You’re willing to go with this one?”

“Willing, willing, I’ll go where you go!” She smiled at him with a sweet smile, which was like a gust of wind that hit his heart.

There was silence in the air and the beautiful scene was frozen.

She was only thinking one thing: When will you give this treasure her final 20% affection!

But when the corner of her lips felt stiff, the system still didn’t give her a notification.

“Alright, we’ll go to the sea in seven days!” Lin Nan Yi looked at her with different emotions in his eyes.

There were things he should let go and he had a chance to let them go now!

One day, in the Supreme Harmony Hall.

Lin Dong Xue was helping him pick a bunch of girls entering the palace as he said, "Big brother has this many harem girls, I don't even have any wives or concubines. In the silent night, I feel lonely!"

"Is your life that miserable?" Lin Nan Yi looked at him and asked this.

"Of course it is!" Lin Dong Xue said with a gloomy look, "The throne was supposed to be mine, but big brother lived. Qing Chen was also about to become mine and now she's become the empress!"

"....."

The temperature in the Supreme Harmony Hall suddenly dropped.

Lin Dong Xue gave a shiver, "Of course, these aren't what I'm really thinking....."

"This one will give it all to you."

Postscript:

Seven days later, Lin Dong Xue took the throne and the dynasty became the "Chen" dynasty.

All the ministers knew why, but not a single person objected.

At this time, Luo Qing Chen and Lin Nan Yi were on the sea. The gentle sea breeze fell over their cheeks, bringing a faint warmth with it.

Spring seemed like it was finally here. When everything recovered and a new round of life came.

"Where are we going here? I feel like the road is unfamiliar while also being familiar....."

He looked up with a faint smile on his lips. He raised his right hand and patted her head, "We're going to the Glazed Glass Country."

Just these short words made her heart tremble and a strange feeling filled her heart.

"We're.....not going back?"

"We're not."

"The throne.....you don't want it?"

"I don't."

"Lin Nan Yi....."

"Un, I'm here."

She reached her hands out to gently hold him and rubbed her face against his robe as she said, "This all feels like it's unbelievable....."

"Is that so?" Lin Nan Yi's lips curled into a smile, "So our Qing Chen doesn't have anything to say?"

"Un." She stepped on her tiptoes and placed a kiss on his cheek, "Thank you Lin Nan Yi, I'll give you a kiss!"

Thank you for always being there, never leaving!

“Really.....timid.” Lin Nan Yi gave a chuckle before his right hand touched her cheek and came down with a kiss.

Luo Qing Chen was stunned. She never thought that the cold Lin Nan Yi would be.....would be.....this bold?

A faint kiss with blushed cheeks and finally the long awaited system notification.

[Ding, affection has increased by twenty. Mission completion rate is now 100%.]

Chapter 1584: Side story: Unstable land, only you having a full board means losing (1)

What I am after is the passion between people, no bias at all, which was just you. ——Lin Nan Yi

Born as the son of the emperor, there were many things that one is helpless about.

Before becoming the emperor, I was a hostage.

Used as a gift to maintain a good relationship between the heavenly dynasty and the Glazed Glass Country.

The days in the Glazed Glass Country weren't easy, but I missed them very much afterwards.

I missed the time when I had no power, no influence, and was helpless.

I could only wait for everything in the heavenly dynasty.

But for her.....I could only escape.

I was born with a stubborn personality, which probably came from my mother. My destiny was mainly because of her stubbornness.

Because the person she loved was not my royal father, but my royal father insisted on loving her.

Loved her so much that to not let her die with the one she loved, he sent me to the Glazed Glass Country.

I would always remember what my royal father said to my mother the day I left.

‘If you dare commit suicide, your son will never come back.’

I saw my mother's tears and her sad and bitter smile.

I knew at that time that in the world of love, if you didn't get someone's heart, you would never have it.

Even if my royal father had my mother's body, he would never have her soul.

Therefore, the moment I met her, I knew that there would be no future between us.

Because I couldn't completely have her and it was impossible for her to belong to me alone.

Since I couldn't be the only one, since there was no way to be together, there was no way to lower my head and succumb.

It was probably because she was too controlling and I was too stubborn at that time.

In the days in the Glazed Glass Country, what I felt were only the strange skips of my heart from time to time.

There was only one other emotion: Being tortured by her, being tortured by her, being tortured by her.

I thought that I would hate her.

But when I left the Glazed Glass Country, I knew that I couldn't feel hatred at all.

I didn't even dare turn around, afraid of seeing her unwilling look.

She liked me, I knew that.

What I didn't know was whether that love belonged to me alone.

When I came back to the heavenly dynasty, I kneeled in front of my royal father. Other than me, there were other princes.

But my father's trembling hand only held me alone.

He gave the throne to me. At that time, I saw that face that was filled with sadness and eyes filled with tears, there was a strange uncomfortable feeling in my heart.

He loved my mother, so whether my mother loved him or not, he only wanted to give the throne.....to me.

The days after taking the throne weren't as relaxed as I thought. Killing brothers, remonstrating ministers, and all sorts of unexpected things came up.

The me at that time had an unchanging face, having a panic that no one knew about.

It was a good thing that I made it through it all.

The three forces restrained each other and the court became stable.

But at this time, I received some information: The small countries by the Glazed Glass Country were planning to attack it together.

Even after not meeting for all those years, the memories were still deep in my heart.

When this matter came to my ears, I couldn't just sit still.

I personally destroyed those small countries and finally destroyed the Glazed Glass Country.

Because I couldn't leave her alone, leaving behind a Glazed Glass Country, so I sent my troops.

Even as the emperor, I couldn't do what I wanted.

But.....

I can take the country captive.

I can protect her relatives.

I could bring her back to Long Peace.

Chapter 1585: Side story: Unstable land, only you having a full board means losing (2)

When we met again, the soldiers surrounded the city.

She recognized me immediately and I could feel the hatred in those clear eyes.

Endless hatred.

She hated me and I knew since I destroyed her country, so she was supposed to be queen.

But now she could only become a prisoner.

But at least she will not fall into the hands of the other countries. At least I can use my own method and power to protect her.

When I brought her to the palace, I gave her a title.

In the harem, no one dared to bully her. Everyone bowed when they greeted her and had to call her: Princess.

But even like this, it didn't change her intention of killing me.

I knew that there was endless hatred in her heart, but I never thought that she wanted to kill me.

Every time I escaped death at her hands, I would say to myself: I can move her, she will understand. If there is a day that she is willing to belong to me, we will love each other.

It was a pity that I couldn't wait until she changed her heart and she used herself as bait to kill me.

The funny thing was that even though I knew that this was her plan, I still couldn't help falling for it.

Because I couldn't kill her.

So I could only wait for her to kill me.

People always said that when god closed a door, he would open a window for you.

But my window seemed to also be her.

She personally gave me the antidote and came back to the palace.

I always felt that she had changed, but I couldn't tell what had changed.

This her was completely different from the her in my memories.

At that moment, when I looked into her eyes, I knew that I should make some preparations.

Preparing to take her as my bride.

She wasn't as stubborn as before and would blush when she saw me. It seemed that I wanted to keep her by my side even more than I thought.

And I was working hard for this ending.

I knew that Yue Cai Zhi wanted to deal with her. Not only Yue Cai Zhi, most people in the palace wanted to deal with her.

She was smarter than before, learning many things. She even learned how to pull in people's hearts.

Among them was my little brother, Lin Dong Xue.

When I was poisoned, I was planning on passing the throne to my little brother.

But when I escaped from death, I completely changed that idea when I saw them laughing together.

I became jealous and suspicious.

I didn't know why my little brother who always liked Yue Cai Zhi would suddenly treat her well and I didn't know what had happened between them.

This feeling made me feel strangely scared.

I was not worried that the Supreme Harmony Hall was too far from the cold palace, I was worried.....that she would love someone else.

It was a good thing that I always liked to plan before the next move and looking at my plan, I was able to get through this terrifying thought.

But I never thought that before the plan could succeed, she would charge into the Mirror Moon Hall alone.

That was the darkest day in my life and I felt like all the gods were asleep, so not a single beam of light fell on me.

Because I.....was standing on the other side.

Because I.....had blocked her sword for another woman.

Because I.....had sent her to prison.

I looked at the despair in her eyes and listened to my helpless heart beating. I didn't dare look at her or say a single word to her.

Chapter 1586: Side story: Unstable land, only you having a full board means losing (3)

It was a good thing that sleeping gods would wake up and they could still hear my prayers.

Before the conferring ceremony, I received some good news.

Great general Meng Hun had finally gotten the letters. I knew that no matter what the contents were in those letters, imperial tutor Yue's family couldn't wash it clean.

Everything had gone smoothly, so I had Wen De take her from the prison.

I did one thing without her consent, which was to take her as my wife and take her as the empress.

Actually, I was more worried than any other time during that.

But I always thought that as the people said: When uncooked rice became cooked rice, everything was easier to handle.

Following this belief, I wanted her to stand openly by my side, I wanted her to become the empress that everyone respected.

Although I didn't know if she was willing or not.

What I thought about the most was if she wasn't willing, would she divorce me.

So in order to not become the first emperor to be divorced by his empress, I thought of a final retreat.

If I had nothing, she wouldn't bear to leave me.

But at the ceremony, I knew that she wouldn't leave me.

Because when I took off her bindings, she didn't give me a hug, but she tightly held my hand.

This was the most calm I had been while playing this game of chess.

I took off her veil and watched as she brightly stood by my side. I watched all the ministers looking shocked and all the bad people not daring to do a thing.

Actually, I saw her red eyes that were filled with complicated emotions.

I know that there were many things that touched her and the biggest was Xiao Tian's death.

This was something that neither her or I could do anything about....

In my eyes, she had never been weak. I didn't know why had such powerful martial arts, but failing to let her personally kill Yue Cai Zhi was what she must have hated the most.

As for me, I didn't want her to kill people.

Retribution in this world has cause and effect. Good people went to heaven and bad people went to hell.

Then if she killed someone, she would go to hell!

I wasn't willing to let her go, so I'll be the bad person.

When everything settled, we sailed to the Glazed Glass Country. I said many things to her, it was the day I spoke the most in my life.

She said that she came to this world on someone else's behalf.

She asked if I liked her in the Glazed Glass Country or the her from afterwards.

I said that what I had now was called love and the one I had now was her.

That night, when the sky was covered in clouds with thunder booming. The giant waves hit our ship and we fell into the bottomless sea.

She was very sad when she hugged me and when disaster struck, I found that I couldn't do a thing.

At that moment, the Glazed Glass Country was out of reach while also being in hand.

It was like a mirage at the end of the sea. I wanted to reach out, but I could never grab it.

At that moment, when I tightly held her in my embrace, I thought of that day at the Mirror Moon Hall when she stood in front of me with her sword.

That scene had appeared frequently in my dreams.....

At the end of my life, I was suddenly feeling regret. I regretted that I couldn't hold her and die with her.

If I knew that there would be this day, if I knew that I couldn't be with her.

I should have.....given up the game, taken her hand, and eloped without ever turning back.

[Ding, congratulations on bringing a soul fragment into the Lead God Space. 27/100]

Chapter 1587: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 1)

Closing eyes, opening them.

Closing eyes, opening them again.

The Chaos Space explained everything.

The Glazed Glass Country suddenly became a very far place, a country they couldn't see in the far waves.

The waves filled the sky and blocked all the light.

[Does the host want to see what happened before you died? Yes/No.]

"Un, show me."

The bronze mirror gradually cleared and there were waves that kept rolling in.

She saw her fast breathing and the helpless and pained look of the person beside her.

There was regret and fear.

"I regret my previous decision, if we died in the palace, at least you would have been by my side." His eyes trembled as a layer of mist filled them.

"Lin Nan Yi....."

"It seems like there isn't a world where I can be with you....." He tightly held her in the cabin filled with seawater with hot tears falling drop by drop.

Falling on her hair, falling on her ears, falling on her palms.....

The most ruthless waves. In the moment the thunder roared out, she knew just how fragile life was.

“Un.....” She softly said as the ice cold seawater swallowed her mind.

She suddenly felt a few doubts. Was this ending good or not?

It was good that he was sincere, putting down everything to be together. It was bad because it was too short.

But in the end.....she still had it.....

“So, in the next life.....will we meet again?”

These were the last words he said to her. She didn’t hear it clearly at that time.

But she heard it clearly now standing in front of the bronze mirror.

Her eyes still turned red, but there was no heart rending sadness.

Because she had it, she felt happy, even if the time was very short.

But at least it was silent.

“We will meet again because I will find you.” Luo Qing Chen waved her hand and the bronze mirror dimmed.

It lit up again after a few seconds.

[Can the host guarantee you won’t be wiped out in the twenty eighth mission?]

“.....Goodbye!”

[Currently importing memories, please accept them, host!]

Chapter 1588: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 2)

The previous host was a star singer with a natural singing voice. Each concert she held was sold out with tens of thousands of fans.

In the complicated entertainment industry, just selling out concerts wasn’t enough to stabilize one’s popularity.

One needs to participate in various variety shows for exposure. Of course, donations were also a good thing.

In the memory of the previous host, not only was there not the male lead, there wasn’t even the supporting female lead.

The supporting male lead was.....a scumbag!

In order to gain more exposure, the previous host's agent company gave her two choices.

One was to participate in a true love variety show and the other was to participate in the military in the name of the people.

For this choice, 99% of the people would choose the former and the previous host was one of them.

Going on the show and getting a ship to generate popularity was a very normal thing.

Only this was a path of no return for the previous host.

The previous host had been dating a cute boy from another agency, but they weren't willing to announce this. After all, once one wasn't single in the entertainment industry, they would lose fans.

A few days ago, the paparazzi took pictures of them eating together, so the companies wanted to use this true love show, letting both the previous host and the supporting male lead participate.

Of course, they were not a coupling.

The previous host's coupling was with another famous movie star, Qiao Na.

The previous host's coupling was the famous movie star's ex-boyfriend.

The company naturally liked this kind of coupling, which not only made the show more popular, they also had a love rectangle.

The fans all came together and the popularity didn't fall.

This was the routine used by the company, but the previous host wasn't happy.

After all, for fake couplings like this, things that were fake might become true!

For example, Jiang Si Zhe and Qiao Na.

After the previous host found out, she went to cause trouble for Qiao Na and righteously told them that she would definitely expose their scandal.

But Jiang Si Zhe and Qiao Na announced this first. They prepared all kinds of articles and water armies that defamed the previous host.

The victim was named as the 'mistress that destroyed the love of others' and 'Qiao Na's white lotus' was what was put in the news.

In the entertainment industry, there was no coal in the snow and some people pushed down the walls.

All of sudden, whether it was the others who went on the show, her company, or the reporters that she knew, they all turned on her.

Standing from up above, they used the sharpest words to put the final nail in the coffin on the previous host.

There were heights that one can never reach and they wouldn't know why.

But once they reach the top, when evil people turn everything upside down, it will become a pressure that others can't take.

Not every person was this strong, at least the previous host wasn't.

When she died, she stood by herself on the highest building in A City with ten thousand handwritten letters written in red ink.

After eighteen years, she jumped and was only mourned by everyone after her death.

Jiang Si Zhe and Qiao Na's fates weren't good in this world. After the previous host died, they became the instigators.

No one would care about the authenticity of the letter written by someone who died.

But everything was too late. Those that committed suicide were burdened by sin and grievances. The previous host had to spend eighteen years in hell before reincarnating.

She bore the sin alone and this sin was what called the host Luo Qing Chen to appear.

Chapter 1589: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 3)

After sorting out the plot, Luo Qing Chen.....was a bit confused.

Who was the male lead? Who was the supporting female lead?

Who am I? Where am I? Where am I going?"

"Aiyo, big sister Qing Chen, what are you hesitating over?" Qiao Na's delicate voice sounded, which was a bit uncomfortable to listen to.

The previous host and Qiao Na were in the same company, although they developed in different directions.

As 'Prosper's' big sister, even if Qiao Na was two months older than her, she still called her big sister!

"What is it Qing Chen? This should be a very easy decision." The agent big sister Gu was drinking tea while looking at her with a smile.

Luo Qing Chen couldn't help feeling that this smile was very indifferent. After all, when everyone was against her, this agent was the first to turn her back on her!

The entertainment business was the place to earn the fastest money, but also where people were the most indifferent.

Luo Qing Chen looked at the two documents on the table. The left was the love show and the right side was the military show.

The system had brought her to the brink again. If she didn't understand this simple arrangement, she could go back to the Chaos Space.

But she wanted to choose the love show, that way she could torment the scumbag man and woman.

[System notification: Host, please choose carefully, or it will go further and further away.....]

Got it! The love show wasn't that special, making yourself look all cute for the camera, she wasn't willing to participate in this kind of love show!

"I want to.....go live in the army!" Luo Qing Chen pointed at the document on the left with a proud look on her face, "I feel that in that muddy place, the army will be more calm."

"....." The tea almost spurted out of big sister Gu's mouth.

Even Qiao Na sitting on the side looked her in disbelief, never thinking she would make this kind of decision.

After all, this was just a formality, who didn't already know?

Reality show and military show, that was heaven and earth, alright?

"Big sister Qing Chen, you.....are you certain? I can't bear to be without you." Qiao Na who had been smiling revealed knitted brows like she was worried!

Luo Qing Chen who had seen many white lotuses could see right through Qiao Na with a single glance. She said to Qiao Na with a smile, "How about you come with me?"

"....." That smile on that face suddenly froze.

Qiao Na's lips twitched and her eyes flickered, "Me.....Actually, I really want to go with big sister Qing Chen, but I happened to have twisted my foot last month while shooting and it's been hard for me to walk lately....."

"Oh, so it's like this!" Luo Qing Chen looked down slightly at the ten centimeter red high heels on her feet, "Those shoes are pretty."

"....." Qiao Na tugged at her skirt in embarrassment as she tried to hide her feet.

Luo Qing Chen didn't care as she stood up and said, "Big sister Gu, help me arrange some things! I want to take two days off."

"Un, alright!" Big sister Gu nodded, looking a bit surprised.

Qiao Na came back to her senses and said with a smile, "Big sister Qing Chen, you can be assured, I'll help you watch over big brother Si Zhe. I won't let someone else take this chance to hook up with him."

Luo Qing Chen looked like she suddenly realized something before giving a shrug and saying with an uncaring smile, "Jiang Si Zhe, we're not close."

Chapter 1590: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 4)

As soon as her voice fell, she headed towards the door without looking back.

Qiao Na was stunned there looking at Luo Qing Chen leave with a look of disbelief.

Until big sister Gu called her did she finally react.

“Big sister Gu, don’t you think that big sister Qing Chen.....is a bit different today!”

“Un, very different!”

After leaving Prosper, she put on a coat and sunglasses, heading to a cafe that the previous host frequently went.

Winter was coming and there were less people in the street, but she was a bit depressed.

Qiao Na’s words were like the move in her head, she could still openly say the words ‘take care of big brother Si Zhe’ like that.

It was enough to prove.....that their ‘private love’ would still continue.

The previous host’s mind really was.....too green!

“Ding ling.” There was the ring from her phone and the number was from Jiang Si Zhe.

The previous host had given him the contact name: Loving Si Zhe.

Luo Qing Chen coldly shook her head and directly deleted his contact information from her phone!

All of this was done without any hesitation.

Five seconds later, Jiang Si Zhe called again.

She swiped the screen and picked up.

“Hey, why did you pick up so late?” Jiang Si Zhe’s tone was very bad, like the previous host had owed him five million.

“Was busy.” Luo Qing Chen wanted to hang up, but then she wanted to know what kind of tricks this person would play.

The other side was clearly surprised by her indifferent tone and then he asked, “You’re not participating in the love show?”

Jiang Si Zhe’s tone had a bit of doubt, but also there was joy.

After all, he wanted to meet a mistress, so if she was there, it would be a bit inconvenient.

“You want me to go?” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as she said this in an ice cold voice, “This hasn’t been set yet, it can still change.”

Jiang Si Zhe clearly panicked as he quickly said, “I feel that it’s not bad if you go on the military show. Although you’ll suffer for a bit, it will be good for your image.

Hearing Jiang Si Zhe’s tone, Luo Qing Chen on the other side couldn’t help laughing.

“What are you laughing at?” Jiang Si Zhe was a bit confused as he knitted his brows, “You even dare to laugh at me.”

When they were together before, he was always the one ridiculing her and she took it most of the time.

Although she was a first class singer, this beauty listened to this handsome guy.

“Oh? Why wouldn’t I dare laugh at you?” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a smile, “When it comes to our debut times, you should be calling me senior.”

“You.....” Jiang Si Zhe was stunned before he angrily said, “Luo Qing Chen, what does this mean? Don’t offend me, I’m in a bad mood today. If you offend me, I’ll break up with you!”

When Qiao Na had called him ten minutes ago to complain about how Luo Qing Chen had acted at the company, there was a bit of complaint towards him in her voice.

When being made a punching bag, naturally you needed another punching bag to vent.

Therefore, after hanging up, he didn’t hesitate to open his contacts and call Luo Qing Chen who had always been his punching bag.

But he never thought that she would use such strong words! Also.....it felt like she didn’t care at all.

“This is the first time you and I had a tacit understanding.” Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle, “This suggestion to break up, I think it’s quite good.”

As soon as her voice fell, she pressed the end record button.

And then.....

She didn’t hesitate to.....

Hang up!
