Chapter 1621: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 35)

She was a bit surprised by this. As she watched him leave, she didn't come back to her senses.

When she did come back to her senses, Shi Yi Bei was already out of her sight.

There was a scene of blood in front of her that quickly shocked her.

"Ah!" Her eyes trembled as her palms couldn't help being covered in a cold sweat.

"What is it?" Tian Xin looked at her and knitted her brows, "Your face doesn't look good."

Su Cheng Yin on the side gave a shrug and said with a faint smile, "So you're afraid of this kind of thing, I thought that you weren't afraid of anything!"

Luo Qing Chen deeply knitted her brows and didn't reply.

She suddenly thought of what she saw on the airplane.

As expected, her sixth sense had become something that she could see and not just feel. Could it be what she saw was about to happen?

Damn! It was too fast that she didn't see it clearly!

She just felt an unsettled feeling that came from her heart.

Su Cheng Yin saw that she stood there with a nervous look and thought that she wasn't used to seeing these kinds of injuries, so she waved her hand at her, "How about you sit and rest!"

Actually, she didn't want to be friends with her, but in this dangerous situation, lives were more important.

In front of lives, those small thoughts and emotions could be put down for now.

"It's nothing, let's save people!" Luo Qing Chen walked to the other side of the street and pulled out the medicine box in a corner that had no one present.

She looked around. There was a scent of blood in the air and many helpless cries.

Luo Qing Chen checked the injuries of several people and tightly knitted her brows. She looked at Su Cheng Yin who was also a bit helpless, "Ai, aren't there any hospitals nearby? I need to perform surgery."

"Surgery?" Su Cheng Yin looked at her in surprise, "It can't be that you want to give them surgery, right?"

"There's many people who will only survive if they get surgery." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips, "Otherwise, there will be too few people who survive."

For such a strong explosion, not to mention the people in the center who had been blown to pieces, even the people not at the center were missing limbs.

In this situation, they wouldn't live if they didn't get surgery.

"There's a hospital to the left of the intersection ahead, but it was at the center of the explosion and most of the equipment inside were destroyed. There's also no living staff left inside." Su Cheng Yin looked in the direction of the hospital, "Also, there's no power."

"Su Cheng Yin, if my four hundred yard headshot impressed you." She looked up and said, "Have your soldiers bring all the injured to the hospital."

Su Cheng Yin was silent for a bit before finally giving a nod, "Alright."

"Also, try to expand the safe zone as much as possible. When I driving along the small streets, it was a mess."

As soon as her voice fell, she looked at Tian Xin beside her, "Bring your gun, we're going to the hospital first."

"Alright!" Tian Xin nodded. At this time, she listened to almost everything that Luo Qing Chen said.

When she was prepared to leave, Su Cheng Yin called out from behind her.

"Just who are you?"

There was no disdain or sarcasm in her voice this time, it was just filled with a deep curiosity.

"I think that you don't want to know." She gave a slight nod, "Please."

Who she was.....even she didn't know.

But there were certain memories that slowly became more clear.

Chapter 1622: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 36)

Standing downstairs in the hospital, even if there was sunlight, it didn't feel warm at all.

Looking in this direction, there was smoke all over. There was the smell of alcohol in the air and there was a hissing sound from the flickering lights.

It seemed like there was no bottom.

"God!" Tian Xin couldn't help swallowing a mouthful of saliva as she said, "It feels like a hallway to hell."

Although Tian Xin was being a bit exaggerated, Luo Qing Chen didn't feel that she was wrong.

This was a place with spirits gathered and now with more death, in this place that was dark, the yin energy was quite strong.

"Follow me, I can't guarantee that something that goes against science might not happen." Luo Qing Chen put her hands in her uniform and moved forward.

Tian Xin heard this and quickly followed her with her gun.

She was only a bit afraid, but Luo Qing Chen saying this made her feel that this corridor was more like a hallway to hell.

“Si, si, dong!” There were flickering lights and a long light bulb tube suddenly fell down.

“Ah!” Tian Xin called out in surprise.

“Damn!” Luo Qing Chen felt her heart jump to her throat from her scream.

She really reached the end of her patience.

System, exchange for a skill!

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for mind control.]

“Da, da, da, da, da.”

All the lights in front of her began lighting up starting from her position.

The entire hospital was suddenly filled with this dazzling light.

“Qing Chen.....There’s.....There’s.....There’s a ghost.....”

“Un, it should be a good ghost.” She headed to the operating room while giving a chuckle before calling on the walkie talkie, “God Luo calling, the hospital’s power supply has been restored, order the patients based on priority. Those that can’t be saved should be given anesthesia, over.”

“God Luo.....” Su Cheng Yi rolled her eyes at this and her lips twitched as she said, “Orange has received this, over.”

Although it was still daytime, the sky was gradually turning dark. In the entire Rock City, only this hospital had power.

Su Cheng Yin stood at the door of the hospital with a look of disbelief. The soldiers behind her had a bunch of injured people who were as old as eighty years old and as young as three years old.

War was the most cruel, it could take everything you had now and destroy it.

Luo Qing Chen stood in front of the operating table with a pregnant mother and she tightly held her stomach as she spoke in broken English.

She was desperately crying as she asked Luo Qing Chen to save her child.

She shook her head and gently touched her stomach as she replied in English, “He’s already dead.”

There were no signs of life in the ultrasound, the child in the woman’s stomach was already dead.

The pregnant woman shook her head and kept crying. Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and gave her anesthesia.

Half an hour later, the stillborn was taken out and the operation was over.

When she was planning to undergo her next surgery, her heart skipped a beat.

Yu Xing Fan's voice came from the walkie talkie, "Is there anyone there, is there anyone there.....Something has happened to the captain!"

Luo Qing Chen's heart suddenly trembled and her fingers couldn't help shaking.

She directly rushed downstairs and what she saw was a Shi Yi Bei covered in blood.

His uniform was covered in blood and his eyes were tightly closed as he laid on the stretcher, without a trace of blood in his face.

"He should have been shot eight times....." Yu Xing Fan kneeled in front of her, "If you really know magic, can you save our captain?"

Chapter 1623: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 37)

"Ah!" Su Cheng Yin who also rushed down called out as her tears came down.

Luo Qing Chen felt her head buzzing as the cold wind blew across her eyes.

There were Shi Yi Bei's words echoing in her ears.

"When I get back, I have something to tell you."

"When I get back, I have something to tell you."

"When I get back, I have something to tell you."

.....

He had lied to her just like this.

"Immediately.....Immediately push him into the operating room." Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and clenched her fists, making herself calm down.

On the way, Su Cheng Yin kept muttering on the side, "How is this possible, how is this possible.....The captain isn't like this.....How could anything happen when he's so powerful....."

"I heard it's because....."

"Lu Bo, right?" Luo Qing Chen cut Yu Xing Fan off with the answer.

"How did you know....." Yu Xing Fan looked at her with eyes filled with disbelief.

He didn't go to the church either, so he had heard about the matter with Lu Bo from another comrade.

Luo Qing Chen had been at the hospital the entire time, how did she know that Lu Bo shot him?

"Let's not talk about this right now." Luo Qing Chen turned to push Shi Yi Bei into the operating room as she said to Yu Xing Fan behind her, "You don't need to go in, go and take care of what you need to take care of."

Yu Xing Fan looked at her with a look of admiration in his firm gaze.

Since coming to this place, everything she did seemed so incredible.

He always felt that those clear eyes could see through everything.

Su Cheng Yin and the two other military doctors were in the operating room as well. After connecting the ventilator, all the life signs all seemed like they were on the verge of death.

“Su Cheng Yin, help me.” Luo Qing Chen looked at her with a few tears in her eyes as she said in a choked up voice, “Please.....”

Su Cheng Yin was surprised before nodding, “Alright.....”

She never thought that at this minute, she wouldn't refute Luo Qing Chen. A popular star was asking to be the main surgeon in front of a military doctor in front of her.

But even if it was ridiculous, she strangely believed that she would be the best!

Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath before saying, “Scalpel.”

“The blood won't stop.”

“Eight bullets, three in the leg, one that reached bone.....Two in the shoulder, one in the back, and one in the chest.” Luo Qing Chen tried her best to control her voice as she said, “But none of these should be fatal.”

She looked at the CT scan and said, “The most important bullet is only three centimeters from the heart.....”

“Luo Qing Chen, you can't.....give.....”

Before Su Cheng Yin could say 'up', Luo Qing Chen cut her off.

“Gauze.”

Shi Yi Bei was on the operating table, she wouldn't give up even if it was the final moment!

“The blood oxygen is falling.”

“One milligram of adrenaline.” Luo Qing Chen took the bullets out one by one, not forgetting to calmly speak to the military doctors beside her.

Actually, it would be a lie if she wasn't worried, but she wasn't qualified to be nervous.

If she was even the slightest bit careless, Shi Yi Bei's life would be lost.

The entire operation lasted ten hours and she pulled back the person who was on the path to the Yellow Springs.

Chapter 1624: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 38)

Standing in the surgery room, she leaned against the wall covered in blood. She closed her eyes and her fingers still couldn't stop shaking.

"Although the period of danger isn't over, it's already a miracle." Su Cheng Yin took off her mask and looked at her, "You really are powerful."

Even if she was still upset, she had to admit it.

Luo Qing Chen was like a god, whether it was her marksmanship or her medical skills.

"Where's Yu Xing Fan?"

"Ah?"

"Bring me to see him."

The snow was getting bigger and it was getting late. The light of the moon fell over her face.

Yu Xing Fan was standing in front of her with a pale face, looking completely different from the day that they met at the base.

"Lu Bo betrayed you all, right?"

Yu Xing Fan gave a heavy nod, "The captain had already saved the children and safely retreated, but they never thought that the retreat route would be an ambush."

"Most of his gunshots seemed avoidable to me." Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and said in a deep voice, "You should understand what I mean."

Normally speaking, for trained soldiers, they should know how important it was to protect themselves in the face of injuries.

But Shi Yi Bei clearly hadn't protected himself at all.

It was clear that he was protecting someone.

"I heard the others say that the captain was injured protecting the children." Yu Xing Fan's eyes turned red as he gritted his teeth, "He only had a breath left and he still held on, he was always strong....."

"Don't say anymore." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and took a deep breath, "Were all the enemies killed?"

Seeing how much blood he had lost, she knew how much that person had struggled to hold on.

It was a good thing he came back, he used his terrifying willpower to fight against death.

Those people who hurt him, how could they not go to hell!"

"Lu Bo and the leader of the terrorists escaped." Yu Xing Fan knitted his brows, "The local soldiers are currently chasing them, they should have received the orders from their superiors."

"Humph!" Luo Qing Chen gave a cold snort, "Even if they didn't receive the orders, they would still go. They won't do anything that puts them in danger, but they would definitely do things that gives them credit."

After being in the safe zone for so long, she didn't see a single local soldier saving anyone.

It was clear just how incompetent they were.

"You two stay here and help me watch major Shi." Luo Qing Chen coldly narrowed her eyes, "Tell me Lu Bo's escape route."

"The local soldiers sent back information five minutes ago, they saw them heading to the west. There was a gunfight, but they still escaped."

"To the west?" Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows. Isn't that where she had come from with the jeep?

Also based on the sign she vaguely remembered, weren't they escaping in the direction of the White Cliff base?

"Yes, they were heading towards the White Cliff Base." Yu Xing Fan said with a sigh, "Don't worry, we definitely won't let that traitor escape."

"I won't let the people who harmed major Shi be happy for even a second." Luo Qing Chen narrowed her cold eyes as a chill came from her.

Yu Xing Fan and Su Cheng Yin were surprised hearing this. Seeing her eyes, they felt a strange chill run over them.

"You two help me watch over him, I'll be back soon." Luo Qing Chen's eyes were dark and there was a unique domineering look in those cold eyes as she said this.

Chapter 1625: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 39)

"She.....What is she doing?"

When Luo Qing Chen disappeared from the corridor, Yu Xing Fan finally came back from his daze to look at Su Cheng Yin beside him.

"I don't know." Su Cheng Yin was rather calm, or rather it was because of all the impossible things happening in the same day.

No matter what happened next, she wouldn't be surprised anymore.

Standing at the entrance to the hospital, she raised her hand and the Phoenix Dance Sword appeared.

"To deal with traitors to the country, it would be too kind to use guns." She narrowed her eyes and used her memories to locate the direction.

[Ding, 500 exchange points has been taken. Successfully exchanged for teleportation.]

Standing at the sign to the west, she didn't forget to talk to the system.

I'm already used to using this skill, when are you planning on making it permanent as well?

[System's response: There is a chance to get a permanent skill with each ten worlds.]

He, he.....the thirtieth world. Since I've come, then help me find the position of the traitor so I can go back sooner.

[At the peak of the mountain to the left.]

They've gone up the mountain?

[Yes.]

It seems like they were trying to avoid the local soldiers.....

Luo Qing Chen walked up with the small path on the side. Her footsteps were very silent and there was a terrifying silence around her.

Until——

"I even set the trap and you couldn't kill him, are you not embarrassed to call yourself militants?" There was a disgusting voice that spoke in non fluent English.

The other side responded in fluent English, "Failure is failure, it's impossible to give you the money in advance. There is a little money here....."

"Pei, you want to send off father with just this, do you think I'm a beggar! I was a squadron captain....."

"Kacha." There was the sound of a pistol being loaded as the militant leader Mike put his pistol to Lu Bo's head, "You should know that I can not give you a single cent."

"You....." Lu Bo wanted to say something, but he was nervous since the gun was pointed at his head.

He took the ten thousand dollars from Mike's hand before saying in Chinese, "It really is the bad luck of eight lifetimes....."

"You've already taken the money, so we'll part ways here!" Mike gave a cold snort and picked up the box filled with banknotes before planning to walk down the mountain.

In the middle of the road, there was a young girl who was wearing a green military outfit.

She had the Phoenix Dance Sword in her hand and against the moon, her eyes were incomparably cold.

"Who.....Who.....Stop acting all sneaky and come out for me or father will shoot." Mike was clearly a bit afraid since he had just blown up a city and killed many people not that long ago.

Now in this dark and isolated place, there was someone that appeared which would inevitably make him nervous.

"You want to run after killing all those people, did you ask the gods of this world?" Luo Qing Chen looked up with a dark look like she was the rain that came after. Her eyes were so cold that they could freeze everyone around her.

"You.....Stop acting all mysterious, father is this relaxed after betraying my country, how could I be afraid of you?" Lu Bo who was finished counting the bills gave a cold smile and raised his pistol. He pulled the trigger and shot eight times at Luo Qing Chen.

There was a “si” sound as the bullets stopped in front of her and turned to fly in Mike’s direction.

Chapter 1626: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 40)

“Xiu, xiu, xiu, xiu, xiu.” The eight bullets hit Mike and there was a wail from him.

Mike fell down covered in blood just like this.

His eyes rolled back and blood came out of his mouth. When he died, there was a look of fear in his eyes.

“The eight bullets he shot will be returned to you.” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and said in a tone that had no warmth in it, “You’re not qualified to hurt the person I want to protect. If you hurt him, you have to leave this life.”

As soon as her voice fell, Mike’s head tilted and he stopped breathing.

Before he died, he was still tightly holding the money. It was unknown if he could still use this money after going to the underworld.

At the same time, Lu Bo took two steps back after seeing this. He kneeled down and started begging, “Let me go.....Let me go.....He was the one who blew up the bomb, he killed the people.....He deserves to die. Please spare me, spare me.....”

“Lu Bo, squadron captain of the Flying Dragon Regiment’s Silver Soul Troop, a traitor should be cut to ten thousand pieces for betraying the country.” Luo Qing Chen looked at him with cold eyes, “But I won’t let you die that easily.”

As soon as her voice fell, she flew out with the Phoenix Dance Sword and attacked him.

This divine sword was like a punishment. This person who betrayed the country and the people, he would die, but all that would change would be how he died.

Every slash of her sword cut through Lu Bo with a silent anger and Shi Yi Bei’s face appeared in her mind.

His faint smile, his concentrated look, his serious look, his look on the battlefield.

She could imagine how much it had hurt for him when someone in his troop had betrayed him.

The gun aimed at the enemy was now aimed at him.

For money, they didn’t care who they killed, they didn’t even let off children.

This traitor was even scarier than a devil in hell.

After eighty eight slashes, Lu Bo weakly fell down and he couldn’t say a single thing from the pain.

Although Luo Qing Chen had cut him so many times, none of them cut through bone and he wouldn’t die from them or from the blood loss.

There would be only endless pain, making him wish for death.

“Si, si.” When Luo Qing Chen was thinking about how to bring Lu Bo back, there was a familiar voice from the walkie talkie.

“Luo Qing Chen, come back now.”

So beautiful, gentle, anxious, and a bit cold.

It really sounded good.....

“Ke, ke.....God Luo calling, god Luo calling. The two escaping enemies were found on Wu Mountain. The leader of the militants has been killed and as for your captain.....” When she said this, Luo Qing Chen stopped to look at Lu Bo who was struggling with the pain on the ground before changing her tone, “As for your traitor, you can bring him back yourselves!”

“Stay there and don’t move, I’ll come find you.” Shi Yi Bei’s face was pale and he was covered in bandages, but he didn’t hesitate to pick up the coat beside him as he planned to personally bring her back.

“Ke, ke, those two people, stop your captain for me.” Luo Qing Chen shouted at the walkie talkie, “It was hard enough for me to bring back his life, we can’t let him send himself to the King of Hell!”

After a while, after a long struggle from the walkie talkie, Shi Yi Bei’s compromising voice said, “Come back quickly.....”

Chapter 1627: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 41)

An hour later, Yu Xing Fan led the troops to Wu Mountain. When he saw Lu Bo, he almost cried out in shock.

There were countless small wounds all over him and his pulse was very weak, but it wasn’t life threatening.

“Sword wounds?” Yu Xing Fan looked at his wounds before turning to Luo Qing Chen, “You.....Where did you get a sword.....”

Luo Qing Chen standing on the side had her hands in her pockets as she gave a shrug, “I’m not telling you.”

On the way back, she sat in the passenger seat in Yu Xing Fan’s car.

The two questions he asked the most were——

“How did you get there so quickly?”

“Are you not a sword god?”

Luo Qing Chen helplessly shook her head, “Aren’t soldiers supposed to believe in science?”

“I believed in science very much before, but now.....I don’t believe it too much.....”

When they came back to the hospital, the entire Silver Soul Squad was lined up and standing at attention facing her.

Yu Xing Fan pushed Lu Bo out the back and said to all the soldiers, "Everyone listen to this order, stand at attention. All soldiers in the Silver Soul Squad will now salute comrade Luo Qing Chen."

"Salute!" There was a powerful voice that came in unison and Luo Qing Chen could see their determined look.

Even if some people were injured, they never moved. In their eyes, she had become a saviour.

Capturing Lu Bo and saving Shi Yi Bei.

"Everyone listen to my orders, you can disband and rest in the tents." There was another familiar voice that had an absolute commanding tone that came from behind her.

"Yes!"

Once all the soldiers left, she saw Shi Yi Bei.

His face was still a bit pale and his wounds were covered in thick bandages, one could even see the bright red blood that came out.

But those deep and dark eyes were clear as water as he looked at her.

In just a few days, they had experienced more than normal people would experience in their entire lives.

Every minute, they were fighting against death.

"You really are the captain of the Silver Soul Squad, the major Shi that everyone respects. You're this heavily wounded and you can recover this...."

Before her voice fell, the other side suddenly came forward and took her in his embrace with his right hand.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 70%.]

This warm hug and the affection increase came as expected.

There wasn't anyone around, everyone had knowingly left them in space that belonged to them alone.

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips, "Go up first, you still need to rest."

Such heavy injuries, it was unknown how he woke up so quickly. She felt like it shouldn't be time for the anesthesia to wear off yet.

But he was by her side, like he didn't care about anything.

"Do you still remember that I have something to tell you?" He still held her tightly without seeming like he would let go at all.

It felt like that for a soldier like him, he would never meet true love.

As a soldier that protected the peace of the country, there was no retreat on this path.

Protecting the country and the people was his only belief.

But this belief had changed in just a few short days.

"I know! Before I heard it, you were covered in blood already....." Luo Qing Chen gave a soft snort, "I said to call me if you were in danger, but you....."

"I like you." Shi Yi Bei cut her off and said with a gentle smile, "It seems very abrupt, but don't hate me."

Chapter 1628: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 42)

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is 80%.]

Luo Qing Chen thought that Shi Yi Bei would confess to her after coming back, but she never thought it would be like this."

"I don't really want to accept." Luo Qing Chen gently nudged his arm, "I'm not willing to accept a boyfriend who won't take me along in a dangerous situation."

If she had been there, Shi Yi Bei might not have been seriously injured.

This wasn't a special world, she was strong enough to protect him.

But he insisted on not bringing her and didn't call her when he was in danger.

Even if Shi Yi Bei was standing in front of her now, as long as she remembered how he was covered in blood with eight gunshot wounds, her heart would tremble.

It really was.....too shocking.

Shi Yi Bei heard this and his eyes dimmed. He slightly knitted his brows as he looked at her, "Actually I.....knew that you would reject me, how could a star like a soldier!"

Even if he could hear the complaint in her voice, complaining that he didn't bring her along to attack the enemies.

He admitted that she was as powerful as a god.

But even so, as long as it was a dangerous place, it was impossible for him to bring her along.

Men had the right to protect women and he wanted to protect her.....which was justified.

Even if she was a god, he would protect her with his mortal body. There was no reason, he just didn't want ten bullets to hit her.

"So what if you're a soldier?" Luo Qing Chen gave a soft snort, "Protecting the country is something to be proud of! Major Shi, why do you like avoiding the topic this much!"

Was there a problem with her words? A simple translation of her words was: If he was in danger next time, if he brought her along, she would agree!

Wasn't it? Wasn't it? Wasn't it?

“Because I won’t bring you into danger.” Shi Yi Bei’s deep eyes had a faint sparkle as he looked at her, “If my confession success is based on bringing you into danger, I’m willing to let it fail. Although.....it does hurt.....”

He revealed a bitter smile as a trace of gentleness appeared in his disappointed eyes. After he took off the uniform outfit, his face looked even more beautiful.

“You really are angering me to death!” Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows with an unhappy look, “This stubborn major.”

She suddenly felt a strange sense of loss which was quite strong.

“Protecting you is what I want to do the most, it can’t be easily shaken.”

“I always feel that when soldiers talk about love, it feels like it’s a love story.”

“I.....I’m being serious.”

“Serious things are also love stories.” Luo Qing Chen looked at him with a faint smile on her lips, “Moreover, it’s very effective.”

“Really?” He awkwardly revealed a smile before suddenly thinking of something and looking at her, “What did you just say?”

It seemed like he heard her say that it succeeded, so did that mean she agreed?

Shi Yi Bei felt his heart beating with excitement, almost completely forgetting that that he had just been shot.

“Un humph?” Luo Qing Chen raised her right hand and stroked his pale cheek, “Although our major Shi is very stubborn, this stubbornness is attractive. No wonder.....”

“No wonder what?” Shi Yi Bei’s right hand suddenly came up to grab her wrist.

She looked at him with a proud look, “No wonder there are so many love rivals!”

Chapter 1629: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 43)

It was three days later when they returned to the White Cliff base. Due to the intervention of the local soldiers, the affair with the militants came to an end and she didn’t need to care about what happened next.

Xiao Jiu’s group were very excited to see their return, crying while hugging them.

“I knew you went when you and Tian Xin disappeared.” Xiao Jiu let out a long sigh of relief, “It’s a good thing that you’re fine or I won’t know how to explain it to the company.”

She could even imagine what kind of headlines would appear if something happened to Luo Qing Chen.

“Shocking news: Famous singer participated in a reality show to encounter terrorists!”

“Heavy mourning: The songs god Luo sang have become classics.”

“Reality show! It really was real! So real that here life was gone!”

.....

“Ai, you really hurt me.” Luo Qing Chen shook her head in a disappointed manner, “You’re not worried about my life and you’re worried about how to explain it to the company.”

“Qing Chen, you can’t mistake Xiao Jiu, she was the most worried about you.”

“I’m just joking.” Luo Qing Chen looked at Xiao Jiu’s red eyes and how she was almost crying, so she quickly patted her head, “Quickly pack up, we’re preparing to head back.”

Although this matter had come to an end, it increased the casualties and benefits of the countries.

Adding in the fact that so many people died, everything related to entertainment would stop here.

“Si, si, god Bei calling, god Luo please respond.” The red light of the walkie talkie came on and Shi Yi Bei’s voice came out.

The entire Silver Soul Squad had a tacit understanding to not speak since no one dared to speak when the captain was speaking!

“Received, does major Shi need something?”

“I’m waiting in front of the helicopter in the field for you, over.”

Xiao Jiu’s group looked at Luo Qing Chen with looks of gossip as they said, “Ze, ze, ze, could it be that something could happen between a soldier and a big star!?”

“Stop gossiping!” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips with a smile that was hard to hide before heading to the field.

There was snow that filled the sky, but she didn’t feel cold in her military uniform.

She suddenly felt that wearing this uniform had a strange sense of having a mission to it, making her not afraid of life and death.

Luo Qing Chen thought that Shi Yi Bei would give her a private farewell before sending her off, but she never expected such a unique sending off ceremony.

The entire field was filled with pink balloons, white flowers, and bells ringing.

Shi Yi Bei was standing in front of the helicopter without his military uniform, wearing a white sweater as he looked at her with champagne coloured flowers.

Luo Qing Chen felt her heart skip a beat as she was strangely nervous.

This was.....a proposal?

She strode forward and looked up to say, “Major Shi really.....catches people off guard.”

“You are going back, so I wanted to give you a pleasant surprise.” Shi Yi Bei looked at her with sparkling eyes that were as calm as water.

His face still a bit pale since he couldn't recover from that serious injury in just two to three days.

She always felt a strong sense of pity for this kind of Shi Yi Bei.

"Are you sure it's a surprise and not a scare?" Luo Qing Chen had a smile and a naughty look in her eyes.

Shi Yi Bei suddenly raised his right hand and directly pulled her in by the waist.

When Luo Qing Chen reacted, his cool lips were already kissing her.

It really.....caught her off guard!

Chapter 1630: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 44)

"Woah!" There were the cries from the soldiers who were watching secretly.

Shi Yi Bei's kiss was very soft, as if leaving as soon as it touched her lips.

"Everyone listen to these orders." He narrowed his deep eyes and said with absolute power, "Turn around."

There was a uniform sound of feet moving before the field fell into a terrifying silence.

"Un humph." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips as she looked up at Shi Yi Bei. She grabbed the collar of his sweater and brought herself forward, kissing him quite aggressively.

Shi Yi Bei was taken aback by her action and couldn't react for three seconds.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 90%.]

When he came back to his senses, he took charge and seriously kissed her again.

After a while, he said, "Marry me."

This was her first time feeling that the sky above the White Cliff base looked so good.

"For the wedding, I want it in a sea of flowers."

"Alright."

"Your vacation should be longer, I won't let you be called back into service during our honeymoon."

"Alright."

"I have a concert tour in October, you have to come and watch."

"Alright."

He patted her head and put a bright diamond ring on her right ring finger. This was the promise Shi Yi Bei made to Luo Qing Chen.

It was as if he was saying that he would definitely come back. Even after being shot eight times, he still came back.

Sitting on the helicopter looking down on the White Cliff base, seeing Shi Yi Bei, there was a feeling that she couldn't describe.

But she thought of one thing.

It was that....if the previous host chose this place, she wouldn't have been able to meet the major.

"Ai....." Xiao Jiu in the helicopter gave a sigh, "It feels like nothing was shot this time, what a pity!"

"Not important, not important!" Luo Qing Chen's lips curled as she thought of Shi Yi Bei standing in front of the helicopter.

In the snow and against the light, he really was too handsome.

"Ai....." Xiao Jiu gave another sigh, "The 'True Love Show' will be broadcast tonight. If it has very good rating, I will feel very bad!"

"Not important, not important!" Luo Qing Chen waved her hand as she revealed a smile.

"You, you, you....." Xiao Jiu closed her eyes and muttered, "So angry, so angry!"

After ten hours, Luo Qing Chen's group returned to A City.

When they came to the airport and turned on their data, their phones kept ringing.

Various WeChat messages, QQ, Weibo, texts, and missed calls all came.

Her friends and fans were worried about the crisis they encountered in the White Cliff United Nation. Their popularity was one and a half million and they had remained on the top spot on Weibo for a long time.

"Damn, damn!" Xiao Jiu saw this and her depressed look became excited.

She never thought that the military show that didn't have any news in the past few days would be so popular.

The number one searched was: #God Luo, please come back soon#

Luo Qing Chen looked in Xiao Jiu's direction and her eyes locked onto the second most searched topic.

It was talking about Qiao Na and Jiang Si Zhe which said: #The True Love Show really is fake#

Luo Qing Chen found a certain photo taken by a paparazzi, it was Qiao Na going out with Jiang Si Ze at night.

Although it was a bit dim, it was indeed Jiang Si Zhe.

The third most searched topic surprised her a bit, it was: #Jiang Si Zhe signs with Prosper#.

Ze, ze, he was planning on fighting her directly?
