Chapter 1641: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 55)

Luo Qing Chen suddenly felt like she was being teased and this certain major's teasing was that successful!

No matter how good people were in this world, they would always have flaws, but to hug you using that flaw was that special.

"Thank you, Shi Yi Bei." Luo Qing Chen said with a faint smile, "I feel that you are more dazzling than when you were major Shi."

"Really?" Shi Yi Bei lovingly patted her head, "I hope that in your eyes, I will always be dazzling."

He wanted to be the most dazzling person in her eyes, always being the only one to attract her attention in a crowd.

Luo Qing Chen gave him a warm smile as she gave a serious nod.

This was the love she wanted the most, blooming splendidly in winter.

Smiling with each other, a quiet life.

The next morning, Luo Qing Chen got up early. Because of the military accomplishments of the Silver Soul Squad in the White Cliff United Nations, their entire squad was given five days off.

Shi Yi Bei said that this was his first long vacation.

He also said that this was his first date.

Since the movie theater was banned by Luo Qing Chen, this time our major Shi changed the location.

Amusement park!

In order to cater to Shi Yi Bei's first day, Luo Qing Chen changed into a lotus pink sweater which had white bunny ears in front. She had a moon white dress, a pair of black leather shoes, and slight curls in her hair which made her look young and cute. She looked just like a high school student.

But in reality, what she was wearing was the new set from Milan this year. Her entire outfit cost fifty thousand and that didn't include her backpack and jewelry.

A silver gray Maserati and Shi Yi Bei stood there with his hands in his pocket.

He was wearing a casual uniform and if you didn't look closely, you would think that they were wearing couples outfits.

It was really hard to imagine that this person who was dressed like a rich second generation was a man who defended the country, running in front of bullets without fear to protect children, and had even been shot eight times.

It seems like Shi Ze really loved this son of his, or how could he let him become a soldier?

Luo Qing Chen waved her hand at him with a face covered in happiness.

“Major Shi’s car really is expensive.” Luo Qing Chen sat in the passenger seat and seeing the decorations of the car, she teased him with a smile.

“I’m used to driving a jeep or a tank, I’m really not used to driving this kind of car.” Shi Yi Bei couldn’t help looking in her direction.

This feeling really was wonderful.

This was the first time in his life that he couldn’t help thinking that if he wasn’t a soldier, if he had a permanent vacation, he could always be by her side.

“What are you thinking that you’re this lost in thought?” Luo Qing Chen looked at him and said, “If you keep looking at me, I’ll feel embarrassed.”

Love in the beginning was like an obsession, you would be excited by every action the other side made.

“You look good!” He narrowed his eyes and revealed a gentle smile, “It looks good no matter how you look at it.”

She suddenly felt that Shi Yi Bei was a man who could wildly throw sweet words at her, but his words were always serious.

Actually, if she could be with Shi Yi Bei like this in this life, it should be a very beautiful thing.

Chapter 1642: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 56)

Since it was the weekend, there were more people in the amusement park. Luo Qing Chen recently didn’t like exciting outdoor places, like ships or roller coasters.

After experiencing all those things, she could be considered ‘elderly’, so her heart wasn’t that good!

Shi Yi Bei as a soldier had very limited experience with amusement parks. In his eyes, amusement parks were just places where you could play arcade games and such.

“As long as I look in your eyes, I know that this is major Shi’s first time here.” Luo Qing Chen looked up and said, “Our major Shi must have been quite.....good before.”

“What did you say?” He looked over with a sparkle in those beautiful eyes, giving off a unique domineering feeling.

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said, “The adjectives I used weren’t the best, but.....”

“You just said ‘our’.” His deep eyes had an absolute loving look as he stared at her with a touch of excitement filling his heart.

When she said ‘our’, it was even more exciting than winning on the battlefield.

Luo Qing Chen heard this and a blush came over her face. She awkwardly touched her ear and said, “Did I? Did I? Did I?”

While saying this, she took a step back while asking with a happy look.

“Could it be that I heard wrong?” There was a smile in his eyes and his right hand took her hand, not letting her fall behind.

Luo Qing Chen stopped and looked up slightly to kiss his cheek, “You didn’t hear wrong, you are our family’s major Shi.”

“This is the most honoured title in my life.” He narrowed his eyes and softly patted her head, “I will treat this as your vow to me.”

“No!” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and shook her head, “Things like vows need to be said at a wedding.”

He looked into her eyes and only after a while did he say in a heavy voice, “Alright.”

Shi Yi Bei’s face seemed calm at this moment, but his heart couldn’t help feeling turbulent.

This was Luo Qing Chen’s first time mentioning a wedding to him. He was always worried that he had been too domineering on the day of the proposal, but now he felt that the proposal was just right!

Three seconds later, he didn’t forget to add, “It’s all good as long as you say yes!”

“Of course.” Luo Qing Chen said with a faint smile, “Shi Yi Bei, you have to remember, I brought your life back from death.”

Shi Yi Bei heard this and was a bit surprised. Then he looked at her with a serious look, “Be assured, it isn’t a bullet that will kill me.”

“What is it?” Seeing his serious expression, Luo Qing Chen didn’t forget to act cute, “A cannon?”

“It’s you.”

What love story was the most enticing?

When you were being teased without knowing it and still feeling the warm blood filling your heart.

It really was good having Shi Yi Bei, Luo Qing Chen never thought of something.

What would a world be like without Shi Yi Bei.

She only knew that walking around the amusement park together, no matter what she did, he would always be beside her with a gentle smile.

He held her coat and took pictures of her. When the fountain accidentally sprayed her face, she couldn’t help laughing as he took out a tissue to carefully wipe her face.

The most beautiful thing in the world was him laughing while you played.

Living a warm life.

Chapter 1643: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 57)

Two thirds of Shi Yi Bei’s vacation time was spent with her.

The other one third was mainly when he was in bed.

Sometimes he wondered if he would feel bored living these kinds of days.

But when he thought of this, he couldn't help shaking his head with a smile on his face.

Because he knew that no matter what, the current Shi Yi Bei wasn't willing to leave Luo Qing Chen for even a second.

But.....the thing he experienced the most was saying goodbye to loved ones and family members.

"I'm returning to the army tomorrow." He looked into her eyes and seriously said, "Be good. Wear a scarf when you go out, don't just care about the temperature and not the wind. I know you are powerful, but don't go to dangerous places or do dangerous things."

"Puchi." Luo Qing Chen couldn't help laughing, "The thoughts of an old man."

Whenever Shi Yi Bei talked to her seriously, she felt that he was a family elder and she was a little girl who should be protected!

"Isn't it because my fiancée was too dazzling with both her shooting and medical skills in White Cliff that I'm worried?" Although Shi Yi Bei was worrying, his eyes looking at her were still gentle.

This dazzling Luo Qing Chen was what he loved.

"Relax! It's a big city, there's no need for me to do anything here." Luo Qing Chen gave a nod, "Besides, I have to start preparing for my concert tour."

After all, this was the original work of the previous host. There were many fans looking forward to this, so she should do this for her.

The concert was supposed to be held in October of next year, but Luo Qing Chen suddenly wanted to bring it forward.

Because.....she wanted to get married.

"That's right." Shi Yi Bei gently pulled her by the hand and brought her into his embrace, "This time I'm going on a special operation and won't be in the country, so the communication won't be good....."

After he said this, Luo Qing Chen was a bit disappointed.

This meant that Luo Qing Chen wouldn't be able to contact him.

Although as a soldier, these things were normal, it was hard not to feel disappointed as the fiancée of a soldier.

"So.....How long will you be gone!" Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said in a heavy voice, "You haven't done the three things you promised."

Wedding, honeymoon, and concert tour.

"Relax." Shi Yi Bei brought his hands in and gave her a tight hug as he said in a gentle voice, "Our Silver Soul Troop is helping out with something, so we'll be back in around a week."

“Really?” Luo Qing Chen’s disappointed look suddenly disappeared as she looked at him, “Does one week mean being back in seven days?”

Although this question was very basic, Shi Yi Bei felt that she was very cute.

He suddenly came beside her ear and softly placed a kiss, “Right! It’s seven days!”

“Good!” Luo Qing Chen said with a smile, “A week isn’t long, I can accept this kind of long distance relationship!”

Actually, she hated long distance relationships the most, these three words gave people a sad feeling.

“When I come back, I will take a month off.”

“A month? Is something happening with Prosper?” Luo Qing Chen said in a daze, “Or is it.....your personal matter!”

One month.....There wasn’t anything major happening with Prosper in the next month!

Not to mention that even if there was, Shi Yi Bei wasn’t required to be there.

“It is a personal affair.” Shi Yi Bei said with a smile, “But it’s our personal affair.”

Chapter 1644: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 58)

Luo Qing Chen wasn’t a fool, when Shi Yi Bei said the word our, she could understand what he meant by that.

But she still shyly acted like she didn’t understand.

“Ah? What does that mean!”

Shi Bei saw her hard to hide smile and the blush that spread to her ear, knowing that she understood what he meant.

But even if he knew that she asked this on purpose, he wasn’t willing to expose her.

For Shi Yi Bei, pampering a person was like this. Liking to see her play and liking to see her smile even more.

“Our wedding, our honeymoon, and then I have to see my wife’s concert.”

His voice was very gentle, but it was very soothing when it entered her ears.

She suddenly looked up at him with a brilliant smile, “Deal.”

Partings were always sad, even if it was a short parting.

Since the departure time was early, Shi Yi Bei told Luo Qing Chen not to go to the airport to send him off. Not to mention that the entire Silver Soul Troop would be heading off together. He was a soldier and she was an artist.

If she went to send him off, it wouldn’t do Shi Yi Bei any good.

So Luo Qing Chen promised him not to go. Shi Yi Bei had patted her head and praised her for being good, saying that he would definitely bring her any souvenir she wanted.

But in reality, Luo Qing Chen still went.

She just didn't reveal herself.....

She wore a black jacket and had a scarf around her neck, with large sunglasses that made people unable to recognize her.

She was in the VIP lounge of the airport, looking in Shi Yi Bei's direction with an unwilling look.

He had already taken off his civilian clothes and changed back to his uniform.

Yu Xing Fan and Su Cheng Yin were standing at his sides.

If someone asked her before if she was jealous of Su Cheng Yin, she definitely would have said no.

After all, the one the most excellent major loved was her and not Su Cheng Yin.

But at this moment, she suddenly felt a bit jealous.

The Silver Soul Troop was like a class in her eyes. They were a whole and they worked hard for the same goals. They could be together all day, doing all kinds of things to protect the country.

Life and death was by your side, they could be considered comrades in arms!

Luo Qing Chen gave a soft sigh and pulled down the sunglasses as she watched them pass through the gate.

Shi Yi Bei in front of the gate was surprised as he looked around searching for something.

What he was looking at wasn't a door, but rather the second floor.

Luo Qing Chen could feel that he had seen her, so she quickly took a step back so he couldn't find her.

In the end, he was doing this for the country, but partings easily affected one's emotions.

Since she couldn't say goodbye, then they wouldn't meet.

Shi Yi Bei looked back with a bit of disappointment as he gave a helpless laugh.

Su Cheng Yin beside him heard this and said with a joking smile, "Major Shi should be looking at the door if you want to find someone, why are you looking at the second floor....."

"It's nothing." Shi Yi Bei shook his head, "It was just a feeling."

This feeling was very strange, like she was by his side.

In this crowded airport, in this loud space, he could feel her aura present.

Actually, he was the most disappointed when he had her not come.....

After all, in his eyes, in his heart.

Shi Yi Bei loved Luo Qing Chen, several million times more than she loved him.

So the sadness was also magnified by several hundred times.

Chapter 1645: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 59)

The first day Shi Yi Bei went to a foreign country for a rescue operation.

Luo Qing Chen went to Prosper like normal, but now she had jumped from the big sister of Prosper to the future owner's wife.

No matter which director or agent, they all took care of her.

Those activities for the company were all rejected for her and she only represented the luxury brands.

After the trip to the White Cliff United Nations, Xiao Jiu had gone from a third class agent to a first class agent.

While they were having afternoon tea, Luo Qing Chen ordered a cappuccino before turning to her agent Xiao Jiu in front of her.

Since coming back, Xiao Jiu only took her on as a client and all her other clients had been transferred to other agents.

So her work could be considered quite relaxed.

"Do you want to hear some gossip?" Xiao Jiu interrupted Luo Qing Chen who was preparing a song with big eyes that kept sparkling.

"Is it about Qiao Na?" Luo Qing Chen casually looked up, being able to tell what Xiao Jiu wanted to say from her eyes.

"How did you know?" Xiao Jiu laughed before continuing, "After that Qiao Na left our company, there were many indecent things that were exposed about her."

Luo Qing Chen looked at her with a thoughtful gaze before casually saying, "And then?"

Qiao Na was someone who couldn't resist relying on people with status, so naturally there were many hidden things.

"Why aren't you excited at all!" Xiao Jiu pouted her lips feeling that she had provided useless information.

Luo Qing Chen looked at her, "If you want to compare with someone like her, I don't mind."

"Then.....Do you want to hear about Jiang Si Zhe?" Xiao Jiu tentatively asked, not daring to speak too loudly.

Although the fans had suspected things between them, most of it was only suspicion.

But the people in the industry knew that Luo Qing Chen had been with Jiang Si Zhe before and had been together for a while.

Although Xiao Jiu was only a lowly agent, she had heard a few rumours.

“Do you think that I want to hear about all the scum in the world?” Luo Qing Chen said with a helpless laugh, “That Jiang Si Zhe, women are just a springboard for his career!”

“Damn!” Xiao Jiu was taken aback before breaking out in swearing. She looked at her with a look of admiration, “Handsome, handsome, handsome! Too handsome! But I still feel that young master Shi is more handsome than Jiang Si Zhe!”

She never thought that Luo Qing Chen would directly talk about Jiang Si Zhe like this. She thought that she would give him some face since they used to date.

Books said that women were the most vicious beings in the world.

Facts proved this!

“You really only care about face.” Luo Qing Chen looked up a bit as she said, “The concert is already initialized and we’ll finish the tour in a month, I don’t want to rest in all twelve places.”

“A month?!” Xiao Jiu looked at her in disbelief, “This is so daring, why are you working so hard!”

This was her first time seeing a star want to finish twelve concerts in one month, this was simply a fatal work ethic!

“Because I have something more important to do!” When she said this, she couldn’t help thinking of a handsome voice that rang in her ears.

Thinking of her wedding, her honeymoon, she was filled with motivation!

“What is so important!”

“Wedding!”

Chapter 1646: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 60)

Seven days passed very quickly. It wasn’t that long, but it wasn’t that short.

Due to the private nature of his mission, they didn’t have any contact in those seven days.

But she carefully dressed up according to the time they set before.

At three minutes past eight in the morning, she stayed in bed for over three minutes before finally she unwillingly left it.

The closet was arranged by how deep the colour of the clothing was. She took a lavender sweater and matched it with a white fur coat.

She also had a long purple scarf and a pair of boots.

She felt that she should be dazzling as she picked up her major Shi. What she wore to the amusement park last time was a bit too childish.

After she put on her makeup, she looked at the dazzling diamond ring on her right ring finger and couldn't help revealing a faint smile.

If this was the ancient times, she would feel like her husband was a general.

Killing enemies and coming back triumphantly.

But Shi Yi Bei seemed to have the same identity right now.

In her eyes, he was even more handsome than a general!

At ten, she looked at her fully charged cell phone and put on a small silver bag before entering her BMW, driving off towards the airport.

She arrived at the airport on time at eleven past eleven.

She went to the VIP lounge on the second floor and watched where he had left.

She ordered a cup of iced coffee and even if it was winter, she didn't feel cold at all.

Although she was just waiting, she was filled with hope. She looked at her phone, waiting for it to ring.

At half past noon, she was a bit hungry. She went to the McDonalds in the airport to buy a meal for two.

She knew that she couldn't finish it alone, but she thought that he should be hungry if he got off the plane at noon.

She bought a meal for two just in case.

At eighteen minutes past three, her mood wasn't as good as in the morning. Her makeup was running a bit and the milk tea in her hand was already cold.

Her phone was still at 90% because she was afraid of it running out of power. She didn't even dare go on Weibo.

At night.....

When night came, most of the people disappeared from the airport.

She was stunned as she looked at her phone, it was already two minutes to midnight.

There were still two minutes before today ended.

But Shi Yu Bei still hadn't appeared yet, he didn't even call her.

Luo Qing Chen was disappointed as she left the airport, not forgetting to mutter, "Liar!"

He said that it would be more than seven days, but now it has passed!

Standing at the entrance of the airport, seeing the snow fall, she felt disappointed and angry.

Until——

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 100%.]

A strange increase in affection and it had finished the mission for her.

Normally speaking, this very likely meant that.....Shi Yi Bei was nearby!

Luo Qing Chen quickly took out her phone and dialed the familiar number, but it was still turned off.

She suddenly started to panic a bit. If he wasn't nearby, why would the affection suddenly increase.....

System? The male lead.....Is the male lead nearby?

[No.] The system's mechanical voice seemed to have a tone of regret.

Actually, her fingers trembled when the system said 'no' and there was a cold sweat that appeared on her back.

It was like proving something.....something she didn't dare prove.....

Chapter 1647: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 61)

Her heart was beating fast, panicking and feeling nervous.

Before there was a conclusive result, she could only tell herself——

It can't be.....It can't be.....

Perhaps he was at her house, waiting to surprise her.

With this thought, she drove home as fast as she could.

There was an empty entrance, without a single person there.

She didn't know why she felt so sad when she arrived home.

Bit by bit, swallowing all of her happiness.

The next day.

She still didn't get up at noon.

It was her phone that woke her up. The moment it rang, she suddenly felt nervous.

She picked up the phone and saw that it wasn't 'major Shi'.

It was from her agent Xiao Jiu. It rang for a long time and she didn't pick up.

There were terrifying images that flashed in her eyes. It was like seeing the future, in the white snow, there was blood all over the ground.

When the phone stopped ringing she felt a sense of fear that it would ring again.

Because she had told Xiao Jiu that if she didn't pick up the first time, not to call her again because she would definitely be busy.

After she was finished, she would call her back.

Of course, unless it was something important.

And this time.....

“Ding ling ding ling.” The phone sounded again.

Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and quickly picked it up.

“Hey, what is it?”

“Qing Chen, there’s someone at the company looking for you. It seems to be about young miss Shi.....”

“I got it, I’m coming over now.” Luo Qing Chen cut her off, not listening to the rest.

On the way, Luo Qing Chen didn’t dare talk to the system at all.

Because she knew that there were some things she didn’t want to hear.

At the company, there was a man in a suit waiting for her who looked to be around forty years old.

His expression was very serious and he was holding a black envelope in his hand.

Luo Qing Chen’s eyes misted over when she saw the envelope and she bit her lips, not daring to make a sound.

She knew that in the army, they would leave a letter before going on any dangerous mission, regardless of their rank.

These letters were usually enclosed in a black envelope.

“Hello miss Luo.” The man respectfully nodded to her, “I am chairman Shi’s assistant, this letter is.....”

“Don’t say it.....” Luo Qing Chen eyes didn’t have any light and she would tremble with each sound made.

“Chairman Shi asked me to hand this to you.” The man put the envelope in her hand, “Because there was only one letter for you.”

Luo Qing Chen tightly held the envelope as crystal like tears fell down.

She felt her heart contract and her mind went blank.

There was only one word left: Panic, panic, panic.....

“Can you tell me.....why?” After a while she bit her lip and said in a sharp voice, “At least tell me.....where.....”

At least.....she wanted to know how dangerous it was that he gave up his promise to her and didn’t come back!

“Last night at twelve past midnight, the Flying Dragon Regiment’s Silver Soul Squad met with militants in the capital of Istan. As a result, the local army suddenly retreated and they were forced to fight. The entire Silver Soul Squad was caught up in an explosion and not a single one survived.”

Chapter 1648: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 62)

The entire Silver Soul Squad, not a single survivor.

It was no wonder it wasn't Yu Xing Fan or Su Cheng Yin who told her.

Because they didn't come back either.....

It was no wonder she received a notification from the system last night.

Because he couldn't come back.....

So he was thinking of her at that moment, so he gave her the last bit of affection.

"Miss Luo, I don't feel assured leaving the old master alone." The man said after seeing that she wasn't speaking, "I'll be going back first."

The man's eyes were a bit red, as they were filled with sadness and regret.

Luo Qing Chen didn't say anything as that black envelope put pressure on her shoulders with every step.

It wasn't that she hadn't experienced farewells before, but it was because she did that she hated them more.

She wished that the world would last forever and there would be no separation from life and death.

She didn't know how she got home, but she was home when the sun set.

There was her phone with a low battery alert in her left hand and the black envelope in her right.

Actually, she knew about it last night.

Something had happened to Shi Yi Bei.....

Because there was a strong sense of worry in her heart, it was so strong that her nose was stuffed and only a single word would be enough to make her cry.

She clearly knew that this was not a good thing.

She didn't wash her face or bathe, she just laid on the couch as tears came from the corner of her eyes.

She tightly held the last thing that he left her in this world, she saw that it was proof.

But she didn't read it, if it was the last thing he left her.....

Her heart was filled with pain and there was a feeling of suffocating.

At that moment, she couldn't help thinking of the three promises he made.

"For the wedding, I want it to be held in a sea of flowers."

"You should take a longer vacation, I won't accept you being called back during the honeymoon."

“I have a concert tour next year in October, you have to come and watch.”

He didn't fulfill even a single promise. She even brought the concert forward, but he couldn't hear it.

She thought that after the concert, she would be able to have a romantic wedding.

But she never thought that she would receive a cold last letter.....

It was as if everything had been determined. Since she went to the White Cliff base, everything had already been written.

Lying on the sofa, she even thought of killing herself as she stared at the white ceiling.

It turned out being numb from despair felt like this. It would make you feel that all the people existing in this world had no meaning.

Especially since the most important person was gone, why should she keep living?

Every time she experienced separation, she would think about who she was and why she had to experience this separation again and again.

She asked this question for a long time, but she never got an answer.

Then she didn't think about it later because at least she experienced it, at least she would have the complete love of the male lead in every world.

That.....was already enough.

Then can she choose to leave after reading this letter?

Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes before suddenly sitting up and opening the letter.

Shi Yi Bei's writing wasn't fancy or beautiful. His words were very clean and each stroke was powerful, having the power that belonged to him.

The letter wasn't long, but if she read a single word, it was already enough to push her to the edge of collapse.

Chapter 1649: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 63)

To my dearest fiancée: I've been in the army for all these years and I've never written a final letter, this is my first time.

My father and I have a tacit understanding, no news coming from the battlefield is good news.

Even if there was news, we can't reveal the details because we are soldiers who protect the peace and justice of the country.

But this time, I finally have someone to write to. But I've found that I'm not willing to let this letter fall into your hands.

But if by some misfortune that this letter does fall into your hands, it means that I was a liar.

I never promised you anything and I also.....never loved you.

Please don't remember this liar who has never loved you because he has already forgotten you.

——Shi Yi Bei.

In his final letter, there was no sense of longing, there was no reluctance.

The black words on the white letter could be described in eight short words: I never loved you, please forget about me.

“Truly a fool.....” With a choked up voice, her hands holding the letter couldn't help trembling.

She didn't know how helpless he was surrounded by militants on a distant snowy mountain.

Clearly he went to help, but the people who needed his help had abandoned him.

If possible, she wanted to be by his side at that moment, holding his hand and telling him that she was there.

Life and death wasn't important, the most important thing was being by his side, being by his side, being by his side.

She didn't know how she fell asleep, but she knew that her dream lasted a long time. Shi Yi Bei in her dream was very gentle, being as dazzling as that day in the meeting room in his civilian clothing.

She wanted to take his hand, but she found that everything in front of her was void, like she was back in the Chaos Space. Everything was empty and she couldn't see a trace of light.

Shi Yi Bei in her dream just kept smiling and patting her head, touching her face.

Luo Qing Chen wanted to ask something, but she found that she couldn't make a sound. Her tears silently fell down and he raised a hand to softly wipe it off for her.

The image became more blurry and there was an exhausted voice that rang by her ear.

Wait for me, wait for me to come back.

“Ding ling.” There was the phone ringing again. She knitted her brows and wanted to throw her aside, but then she remembered the final words Shi Yi Bei said in her dream.

It was like her body was hit with adrenaline and she was instantly refreshed.

“Hey.”

“Qing Chen.....Are you.....Are you alright?”

“Sorry, Xiao Jiu.” She bit her lip, “If you're just here to comfort me, I still want to be alone.”

As soon as her voice fell, she was about to hang up.

“Qing Chen, young master Shi’s memorial service.....Are you going?” Xiao Jiu didn’t forget to ask, “No one in the company knows about this, it was that man who came yesterday who told me this, the one who’s chairman Shi’s assistant.”

Luo Qing Chen only heard two words this entire time.

Memorial service, memorial service, memorial service.

“I’ll go.....”

“Un.”

She hung up and took a deep breath before walking into the bathroom.

When the hot water fell over her head, she felt like she had come back from the brink of death a bit.

She took out a black windbreaker, a black hat, black clothes, and a black bag from her closet.

Standing in front of her mirror, her tears almost came out.

The white wedding dress had turned into black mourning clothes.

Chapter 1650: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 64)

Those people who tried comforting always said: Forget, forget! Time will heal all wounds and let you cheer up again.

But only she knew that some people were eternally imprinted in one’s heart.

No matter how many years passed, they would never forget.

The clock in the living room was ticking and her mind kept thinking of what he said.

He wanted to wait for her.....those words!

But he was already dead, what for what? The next life? Or.....the next world?

She didn’t know how long she sat in the living room, but she wasn’t hungry and she didn’t have any strength.

She took out two biscuits and a bottle of mineral water from the fridge.

She just bit right into it, not even tearing off the packaging as she ate everything.

It turned out that filling her stomach so she wouldn’t faint felt like this.

She didn’t close her eyes the entire night and after putting on some light makeup, she went to Shi Yi Bei’s funeral.

Xiao Jiu was already waiting for her at six. She who had always loved to sleep in was actually quite precise this time.

Xiao Jiu said many things along the way, but Luo Qing Chen didn't hear a single thing.

When they arrived, her eyes couldn't help turning red.

This was a place that belonged to the Shi Group, all the people here were either rich or famous.

Shi Ze's assistant came to the door to pick her up and brought her to the coffin.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows, looking a bit confused.

"The place that Bei'er died in is not in our country. I've sent people to search, but they couldn't find the corpse." There was a sad voice that came from behind her, this was her first time meeting Shi Ze.

He seemed to be around forty years old, wearing an exquisite black outfit with a gold badge on his chest.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and couldn't help feeling that the design of the badge was a bit familiar. It seemed to be the same as the black mark on the back of the ear for each male lead.

"So he isn't in here.....He isn't in here.....Right?" Even if the words came to Luo Qing Chen's mouth, she couldn't say it.

She felt like if she didn't admit it, he could still exist in this world.

"Un." Shi Ze gave a heavy nod. He wanted to say something, but he still hesitated.

After a while, he said, "Bei'er already ordered your wedding dress, he planned to bring you to see me after he came back....."

When he said these final words, Shi Ze couldn't help talking. His assistant beside him waved his hand at her and Luo Qing Chen quickly turned around with red eyes.

The only people who cared this much were her and Shi Ze since Shi Yi Bei was just that important for the two of them.

Facing this coffin, she saw that there was a green military uniform inside and it was surrounded by flowers.

It was like the righteousness and power that he represented.

She closed her eyes and felt a trace of hope in her heart. Without a corpse, did that mean that she could still have a trace of hope?

It was like the family members of plane crash victims who didn't believe they were dead. They believed that.....they were still alive.

Perhaps they were on an unknown small island or on some certain warm beach.....

She suddenly remembered her dream and the words Shi Yi Bei said to her in that dream.

She could wait.....She could keep waiting until he came back, she could keep waiting.

As long as.....he could come back.
