Chapter 1651: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 65)

Waiting.....was like a long journey.

Waiting without end was like waiting for the end of life, other than days passing, it was suffering.

She didn't like waiting, but she had to accept it.

After taking sleeping pills and doing stupid things, she would strangely wake up each time and go to the hospital, wrapping up her wounds.

Since Shi Yi Bei's matter was revealed, she had even more fans than before.

It was probably because since this matter, she never posted on Weibo or used Shi Yi Bei's death to get more fame.

When a person was truly miserable, they didn't have the heart to do anything.

She liked being alone the most, being in a dark corner and thinking of the past.

Spring and autumn passed, the blossoms bloomed.

A year later, she was holding her first concert. The concert tickets were all taken by the fans and even scalpers couldn't help being shocked by how fast the fans moved.

During this year, she didn't participate in any event and only Xiao Jiu, who was her agent, stayed with her.

After Shi Ze learned of this, he didn't give more work to Xiao Jiu and gave her a position that no one could match in Prosper.

Luo Qing Chen felt grateful for this father. In her eyes, Shi Ze was different from the other people in the business world.

He allowed Shi Yi Bei to be a soldier and allowed Shi Yi Bei to choose the woman he would love.

Such an open minded person was someone who others couldn't help admire.

"The concert tour will start tomorrow, the first stop will be A City and the final stop will also be A City." Xiao Jiu looked over the itinerary and said, "Let's do it slowly, there's no rush!"

Hearing Xiao Jiu say this, she couldn't help feeling pain in her chest, but she still slowly looked up with a smile, "Alright!"

"Your smile really is ugly." Xiao Jiu thoughtfully touched her cheek, "There are still many people in this world who love Luo Qing Chen, you should let go."

She pursed her lips and shook her head after a while, "I don't want to."

One year, an entire year. From spring to summer to fall to winter before another spring and summer.

There was no news about the people far away and as more time passed, the less hope there was.

But she couldn't forget, it was meaningless to stay here if she did.

Xiao Jiu gave a sigh and helplessly shook her head.

There were some people who were born stubborn.

The concert was held as normal and the fans came in the same clothing, which had the green glow to them.

The banners, the lights, the batons, all of them were green.

They knew that she loved green the most.

"Long time no see, everyone, this concert has been delayed for a long time." Luo Qing Chen sat in front of the piano with a faint sparkle in her eyes, "I think that every song for me now is a parting song."

"Qing Chen, don't cry!" The fans called out her name, looking like they felt her sadness with her.

In this troubled world, giving her a bit of warmth.

"Got it, let's.....sing!"

He came to listen to my concert.

I had my first date at the age of seventeen.

The boy lined up all night for her.

Using half a year of savings to buy a single ticket.

.....

Countless batons swayed to the music, this was the only night she had been moved this year.

That youth had once said that he would definitely come to her concert.

But now he had broken this promise for an entire year.....

Chapter 1652: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 66)

She didn't know how many times he broke his promise, but she kept waiting, waiting until the twelfth concert was finished.

She wanted to end everything here.....

This was the first time she felt the pain and despair of the previous host, it turned out ending her life was a decision she couldn't avoid.

At the same time, in the capital of Istan.

"Captain, we will be getting out of the restricted area after passing that snowy mountain." Yu Xing Fan who had a broken arm looked at Shi Yi Bei with a pale face, "We can finally.....finally get out."

“Un, one year.” Shi Yi Bei slowly looked up with a sadness that no one could understand in his eyes.

Over the past year, they had been trapped in the snowy mountain by the capital Istan and couldn't contact the outside world. There were militants that surrounded the foot of the mountain and they couldn't return the same way.

In the end, the path at the bottom of the mountain was blown up by the militants which caused an avalanche.

The entire path of the mountain range changed and the original path was already covered in snow, so they had to find another way around.

In order to survive, the entire Silver Soul Squad had decided to climb around the mountains.

Due to their shortage of food and water, they could only gather resources and slowly move forward.

Just a single misstep would mean that everyone would be buried in this snow.

“What? Is major Shi thinking of her again?” Su Cheng Yin had a smile in her eyes as wrinkles had already appeared on her face in her early twenties.

This year, she wanted to give up many times. Especially in the nights with the low temperature, she just wanted to drift off to sleep, but her body was covered in pain when she woke up.

It was hard to imagine what they ate and the places they lived weren't places that people could survive.

But that.....had experienced it all.

For Shi Yi Bei, he only had a single thought the entire time.

Live, live, live.

He could only see her again if he lived, that figure that had appeared in his short dreams every day.

“Un.” He turned to her with a gentle smile, “I don't know if she will like how I look now. I don't know if she still.....remembers me.”

“I feel that she will.” Su Cheng Yin patted his shoulder, “Although I've never liked her, I will always remember how she looked at you when your life was on the edge after taking those eight shows.”

It was because she saw this Luo Qing Chen that she felt that she couldn't compete against the love between these two.

That fortune teller was right, Shi Yi Bei would meet the person he would love the most.

Actually, she wanted to admit that on the first day they came to the White Cliff base, Shi Yi Bei already looked at her differently.

Those eyes that wanted to get close and that faint smile, she had never seen this from him before.

“Really?” Shi Yi Bei's eyes were a bit red as mist appeared in them, “I just feel.....that I've wronged her.”

He could imagine how she looked when she received the letter. He didn't give her the happiness she deserved and filled her with despair.

There was a time when he felt that if he didn't meet her, he wouldn't have fallen in love and wouldn't have confessed.

She would have loved someone else and lived a happy life.

And wouldn't experience.....this kind of grief.

"You can't say that." Su Cheng Yin seriously shook her head, "For her.....you desperately kept on living."

Chapter 1653: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 67)

On the bright stage, she quietly sang every song which had mesmerized everyone present.

The fans cheered out her name and comforted her a bit.

After the concert was over, she once again appeared in the hot search after a year. There was no gossip, no scandal.

She had quietly sang those twenty songs and used her voice to move her fans.

This was an unparalleled feast for the ears.

At midnight, she sent a post to commemorate the most important person in her life.

Luo Qing Chen V: Time has passed and a year of loss, I even envy the position you have in my heart.

In less than a minute, her post had been raided by all her fans and Weibo was sent into chaos.

Glazed Glass Who's Been Around the World: Qing Chen, cheer up, we'll always be here. 1038 Likes.

Little Sprout: I don't know what it is, but when I hear you sing, I always think of my own stories. 856 Likes.

Xiao Qing Qing's Miao Miao: It's because of everything you've gone through that I admire your strength. 722 Likes.

White Fireworks: Please have a happy life, even if it's for us! 600 Likes.

.....

Most of the ones that replied right away were true fans that had been with her the entire time.

They knew the pain in her heart, so they could understand the meaning of her words.

Tonight was the death anniversary of Shi Yi Bei.

He had disappeared for an entire year from her life. In the first few days and weeks, she still had hope that he would suddenly appear by her side to take her in his arms.

After three hundred and sixty five days, she no longer had hope.

When hope became illusions, there were only sad thoughts left.

“Di, di.”

There was a message from QQ, it was a message from her agent Xiao Jiu.

Wine Intoxicates the Heart: I have some shocking news, do you want to hear it???

Xiao Jiu was someone with a very special habit, she liked to add more punctuations after her sentences.

Only Hating Being Rushed: What is it?

She changed to this name afterwards. These words represented her feelings.

Wine Intoxicates the Heart: Jiang Si Zhe has been caught! I heard that he was finally exposed for being with a fan! And the fan was quite young!

Only Hating Being Rushed: Un, quite good. I'm going to sleep, I need to prepare for another concert tour tomorrow.

Xiao Jiu on the other side was surprised before giving a sigh. Every time she wanted to say something to cheer her up, it never worked.

She wrote 'good night' in the chat, but the other side's profile had gone dark.

Turning off her computer, Luo Qing Chen laid in bed and took two sleeping pills before praying to dream about the youth in the military uniform!

She really did dream of his sacrifice that night.

In the white snow, one heavy step after the other.

She couldn't see his eyes, but she could feel how tired he was.

He seemed to be very tired.....like he wanted to escape.

The dream was very long, so long that she slept an entire day without opening her eyes.

When she woke up, it was already the morning of the day after.

“Ah!” She looked at her phone and her hands couldn't help shaking.

She was probably too tired recently, so tired that she slept for twenty four hours.

After being certain that an entire day had passed, she shook her head and revealed a self-deprecating smile, 'It's good not to go either, I still don't believe that you left me. I won't believe it without seeing a corpse.’’

In this life.....she would never believe.

Chapter 1654: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 68)

The concert tour went very smoothly and each venue was packed. Even if it was a normal concert, there were people who were addicted to her singing, the singing that seemed like it was telling a story.

Time passed quickly and she finished eleven concerts in less than three months. She turned to A City tonight and planned on holding her final concert.

She was sitting backstage going over the songs she was going to sing while Xiao Jiu was choosing her final costumes.

"I won't wear black tonight." Luo Qing Chen's eyes paused on a moon white dress before she said, "I'll wear white."

Xiao Jiu was surprised for a bit before saying, "It's really good that you can think this way."

It had been a year since Shi Yi Bei was gone and Luo Qing Chen had always worn black or dark clothing no matter which stage she was on.

She knew why she did this, but she couldn't stop her.

If she hadn't met Luo Qing Chen, she never would have believed there was this kind of obsession in the world.

Can't escape and can't let go.

"Is that so?" Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle, "I just don't plan on staying here."

Returning to the Chaos Space and meeting that person again was the most important thing, she shouldn't waste time here.

Since the mission was complete, she should leave.

But she felt that she owed him a concert, one final concert.

"Where are you going?" Xiao Jiu was surprised before quickly asking in a panic.

"Travel the world?" Luo Qing Chen thought about it before saying, "Let's not talk about this now, the song 'She's here to listen to my concert' that was supposed to be first, I want to put it last."

"Un, alright, I'll go set it up." Xiao Jiu nodded and came out of the dressing room.

Luo Qing Chen sat in front of the mirror looking at herself, feeling like she felt unfamiliar.

It had been a long time since she seriously looked in the mirror.

As soon as the concert started, the fans cheered her name in such a powerful voice.

If one was to talk about the most unwilling people in the world, it was her fans.

"Alright, I'll give everyone one final song and it's name is called——"

"She's here to listen to my concert!" All the fans shouted out along with this as the accompaniment slowly rang out.

My singing makes her heart drunk, my singing makes her heart break.

She works hard not to make herself look tired.

The years are listening to our songs without regret.

Singing and clapping while in tears.

Singing until I cry.....

Her right hand brushed across her cheek and she found that she was already crying.

It turned out that true singing touching people was like this, using a story to touch their hearts.

The glow sticks were waving, giving her a final curtain call.

At the same time, back stage.

There was a girl in the green military uniform who came in with her hair pulled back in a neat ponytail.

She raised her hand and patted Xiao Jiu on the shoulder, “Can you help me with something?”

“Ah!”

Xiao Jiu slowly looked up and called out in surprise when she saw the girl.

The two security guards quickly came forward and wanted to take this girl away, but she skillfully gripped them and made them fall down on the ground.

“You.....”

“What? It can’t be that you don’t recognize me, right!” The girl scratched her hair and said, “You’re hurting my young girl’s heart, it seems like I’ve really become much older.”

“No.....You.....” Xiao Jiu was so excited that she couldn’t speak properly as tears came out.

“Then I’ll introduce myself again!” The girl said with a faint smile, “I’m Su Cheng Yin.”

Chapter 1655: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 69)

Xiao Jiu quickly shook her head as she said in a choked up voice, “What favour, tell me.”

“Add a round of flower delivery! There’s someone who can’t wait.....to send her flowers.” Su Cheng Yin looked up with a smile in her eyes.

At this time, Luo Qing Chen who was standing on stage didn’t know what was happening. The stage lights that should have been on had suddenly dimmed.

There were whispers from the crowd as Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows. She closed the piano and talked to the backstage crew with another mic, “What is it?”

“Sorry, there’s a problem with the lighting. It should be fine soon.”

Xiao Jiu gave an ok gesture to the pit crew and used a mic to talk to everyone, “Welcome everyone to Qing Chen’s concert. Our final event is a flower delivery from a veteran fan.”

“What is going on?” Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows as she talked to the backstage crew, “Didn’t I say to cancel these events?”

The pit crew girl backstage had a helpless look on her face. She wanted to say something, but Su Cheng Yin beside her took the mic.

She directly said, “What cancel, you’re this popular, can’t you let a veteran fan give you flowers?”

Luo Qing Chen on stage suddenly trembled when she heard this.

This was a voice that she hadn’t heard in a long time, it brought out a memory from the White Cliff base a year ago.

There was a female medical officer that didn’t like her, clashing with her with every word.

“You.....”

“Deng, deng, deng.”

Before she could say anything, the lights on stage suddenly disappeared. There was another beam of light that fell on a youth standing not far away in civilian clothes, with a bunch of dandelions in his eyes. There was a sparkle in his eyes that shined like the stars in the night.

Her head was completely empty just like a year ago at the airport.

Shi Yi Bei came towards her step by step with the dandelions in hand.

Everyone looked at that young man and one of the fans recognized Shi Yi Bei as they called out, “It’s him! It’s the one that I’ve been waiting for. He was the one that was on the cover of the magazine a year ago, the incredibly handsome man!”

It was this person’s voice that was too loud that woke her up from her daze.

When she looked up again, her eyes were red.

At this time, Shi Yi Bei was already right by her, under the stage

Other than the two beams of light, there was only darkness. He walked through the darkness and reached his hand out to her as he looked at her with eyes filled with love, “Sorry.....I came late.”

Luo Qing Chen raised her white skirt with both hands and ran towards him.

The background music slowly rang out: My singing makes her heart drunk, my singing makes her heart break. She works hard not to make herself look tired. The years are listening to our songs without regret. Singing and clapping while in tears. Singing until I cry.....

Shi Yi Bei tightly caught Luo Qing Chen who jumped off the stage and held her in a firm embrace.

It was because there was this warm and gentle hug calling to him that he was able to live for so long in that hard environment.

He couldn’t die, he absolutely couldn’t die.....

There was this girl waiting for him in this world, waiting for his hug, waiting to reunite.

Some people were destined to meet, like the dandelion's meaning in the flower language: Waiting to reunite.

Chapter 1656: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 70)

"Woah!"

"Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah!"

There were cheers from the audience and most of the fans in the front row shed tears.

The person they loved so much on stage, they knew how much pain she had been in for the past year.

She would sing "She's here to listen to my concert" at every concert because she hoped that one day, a certain youth would appear at her concert.

As long as he could appear, all that waiting would be worth it.

"Shi Yi Bei." She did her best to control her breathing, but her tears couldn't help falling down as she kept calling out his name in his embrace.

"Shi Yi Bei, Shi Yi Bei, Shi Yi Bei....."

"Un, I'm here....." He gently patted her head, feeling the trembling from his embrace as a painful feeling filled his heart.

It was a good thing he persisted, it was a good thing he came back, it was a good thing.....he didn't die.

"Tell me, is this a dream.....is this a dream.....is this a dream....." Even knowing that over a hundred thousand people were watching her, even knowing that it was being broadcasted online, she ignored everything and cried in his arms like a child.

People who haven't experienced life and death would have casually said: What a joke.

But those that did knew that fame, money, and concerts.

Didn't mean a thing in front of a life.....

"This isn't a dream." He tightly held her and gently said by her ear, "I'm back, even if it was difficult, I'm back. Moreover, I'm here for your final concert."

When he was trapped on the snowy mountain, when he was buried in five meters of snow, the only thing on his mind was that if he died, he would break his promise to her.

He couldn't do what he promised her. He would be like a liar who suddenly entered her life and then cruelly disappeared.

She closed her eyes and nodded, using all the strength in her life.

"Why aren't you saying anything?" After a while, Shi Yi Bei saw that she had stopped moving and asked this in a soft voice.

"I....." Luo Qing Chen suddenly reacted. This was a concert in front of a hundred thousand of her fans and her face couldn't help being covered in a blush. She whipped off Shi Yi Bei's clothes and said, "I.....That.....Are there a lot of people staring at me!"

"Un....." Shi Yi Bei looked around before his handsome eyes had a faint sparkle in them as he looked at her, "It's not that much.....less than a hundred thousand!"

As soon as his voice fell, she angrily looked up at him, "Shi Yi Bei!"

A hundred thousand! A hundred thousand! A hundred thousand! Luo Qing Chen felt that that number was giant!

The other side leaned over and gently kissed her without any hesitation.

She was stunned as countless flashes appeared around her, almost blinding her.

The blush on her cheeks spread to her ears. In front of a hundred thousand people.....he had actually kissed her like this!

After a long time, he gently let her go. Under the flashes of light, he looked at her and said, "Now it's not just you who feels embarrassed, I feel the same!"

"You....." Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and looked up at him with an extremely embarrassed look, "I.....I'm too embarrassed!"

Chapter 1657: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (Part 71)

When she went home, she looked at the phone in front of her and didn't dare touch it.

At this time, she definitely couldn't go on Weibo, go read the news, or get in touch with the internet!

Because she didn't need to think to know that all the entertainment news would definitely be about her!

She could even think of the headlines!

"Popular singer: Kissing a mysterious man at a concert's encore!"

"Guess who he is? The one Luo Qing Chen was waiting for!"

"Entertainment express: The male lead of She's here to listen to my concert is exposed!"

.....

"God damn!" She angrily said to herself before picking up her phone to call Shi Yi Bei.

When she opened her contacts, she realized that she didn't have his phone number.

Major Shi as a soldier, the first thing he did was naturally report to the army after escaping death!

As a special soldier, the troop was what he loved.

She felt that instead of fighting with beautiful young girls, what she would be competing with would be his squad!

When she was filled with anger, her phone suddenly rang.

It was from an unknown number. Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and picked up.

“Hello, miss Luo.” There’s a package for you downstairs! It’s a pleasant surprise, so please look over it carefully.” There was a gentle voice that rang out with a bit of laughter in it.

“Don’t you dare move! If it’s not a pleasant surprise, I won’t hesitate to return it!” Luo Qing Chen hung up as her lips couldn’t help curling in a faint smile.

That day, she suddenly felt like she went from hell to heaven.

As long as Shi Yi Bei could come back, many trivial things in life became so splendid.

Putting on a coat and going downstairs.

Shi Yi Bei in his green military uniform appeared in her line of sight again.

His skin was darker compared to before, his hair was a bit longer, and his eyes were deeper.

But no matter how he changed, he was still Shi Yi Bei, the most important person to her in this world.

“Where’s my package?” She tilted her head and didn’t see any packages at all.

Shi Yi Bei raised his right hand and patted her head as he said in a somewhat excited voice, “If I said the package was me, would you like it?”

“I’m going home!” Luo Qing Chen gave a soft snort and acted angry as she turned around.

She never thought that he would be one step ahead of her as he grabbed her arm, “I finally came back, how could I let you leave?”

Hearing his gentle words, she suddenly remembered when they first met.

Luo Qing Chen didn’t keep insisting and curled her lips in a cute manner, “Did you go home yet?”

She could still remember how Shi Ze had looked at that funeral.

He was the person who loved Shi Yi Bei the most in this world, but as a man, he buried his fatherly love in his heart.

“I still haven’t yet.” Shi Yi Bei shook his head, “But I’ve had corporal Yu report back.”

For this father and son, no news was the best news.

Since the bad news wasn’t delivered by him, there was no need for him to deliver the good news.

“I feel that you should go see him.” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips, “He should miss you.”

“Alright!” Shi Yi Bei gently took her hand and pulled her along as he said, “I missed you, so I wanted to see you first. I’ll go back right away.”

“You clearly went to the army first.....” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips as a jealous look appeared in her eyes.

Chapter 1658: Being a popular singer: Hello sir major! (End)

“So, our Qing Chen is jealous of the troop?” Seeing her cute appearance, Shi Yi Bei couldn’t help feeling that he had fallen in love at first sight because of it. It was perhaps that she was so cute that she was so mesmerizing.

At that moment, he couldn’t help falling deeply.

“Humph!” Luo Qing Chen gave a soft snort before immediately revealing a bright smile, “Ha, ha! I tricked you! After all, didn’t you come looking for me first?”

Actually, she knew that in Shi Yi Bei’s life, she was a million times more important than anything or anyone.

“I was told it was your concert as soon as I got off the plane, I wanted to head there right away, but sergeant Su stopped me. She said that you wouldn’t recognize me like that.....” Shi Yi Bei looked at her, “What to do, you look like you’re still eighteen and I look like I’m in my thirties.”

After a year of experiencing what normal people would never experience, whether it was his face or his body, they had all changed.

“Un.” Luo Qing Chen said with a thoughtful nod, “Shouldn’t uncles like lolis? So major Shi, you can just become a lolicon!”

Actually, no matter how Shi Yi Bei changed, she just needed to see his eyes and she would definitely recognize him.

No matter how old he became, she would be able to recognize him with a single look.

“No, I’m a Qing Chen con.” Shi Yi Bei’s deep eyes had a faint sparkle in them, “As long as it’s you, I can’t control my love.”

He gently took her in his arms and said, “I will never leave you in the future. I won’t let you see that dark envelope again, I won’t let you fall into despair.”

He gently said these moving words, almost making her cry.

In the end, god gave her a happy ending. She didn’t take away her important person.

Three months later, they had a romantic wedding in a sea of flowers in Provence.

Other than her friends, the only ones there were soldiers!

It had to be said that his was a very interesting wedding. Even when the wine was ordered, they could hear ‘1, 2, 3, 4’.

The words 'sister in law' had been said again and again. She had suddenly become the sister in law of the military.

At the banquet, Xiao Jiu looked at her with a face covered in tears and didn't forget to say, "Do you want to hear some gossip?"

"Of course, what is it!" Luo Qing Chen took a sip of wine as she listened to Xiao Jiu's gossip.

"That Qiao Na was also arrested." Xiao Jiu said, "It's said that she was found selling illegal things!"

"Damn! Really!" Luo Qing Chen said with an excited look, "That really is something!"

Xiao Jiu on the side saw her appearance and after a while, she slowly said, "I didn't understand how important young master Shi was in your heart before, but now I know."

His return had turned her into a normal person, a normal person with all kinds of emotions.

After the wedding, the the two of them travelled the world. They went to the north pole, of course they didn't forget to go to the White Cliff United Nations.

In the snow, Shi Yi Bei took a camera and captured her most beautiful moment.

He called out to her after he took the final photo and she called back.

"Wife." He called out behind her while holding the camera.

"Un?" He pressed the shutter the moment she turned around.

"Un, truly beautiful!"

That year, in the white snow. In this turbulent world, having just you is enough.

Chapter 1659: Side story: I want to grow old with you once I become careless (Part 1)

I have travelled far and wide, going through hardships just to hold your hand and grow old together. —
—Shi Yi Bei.

I grew up in a household with one parent, my mother was a soldier.

A one in a million soldier that became the youngest major in just three years after entering the army.

It was a military rank that used many lives to exchange for, but my mother did it.

She was besieged and in order to save a child, she became a hostage, finally being tortured to death.

I still remember what her corpse looked like, there wasn't a single piece of her skin intact.

At that moment, I decided that I would become a soldier.

My father didn't stop me. I knew that he would never forget about my mother's death.

He agreed in his heart since he also wanted to kill his enemies, but he couldn't do it at his age.

The day I became a major, I went to visit my mother. The snow fell very hard and there were pink petals floating in the sky.

I didn't know what an omen was then, but I learned afterwards.

The first time I saw her was at the White Cliff base. Actually, I felt a strange sense of excitement, it might have been love at first sight.

Because there were few songs on my phone and they were almost all from her.

My father told me about Prosper sponsoring the medical trials, but I never thought that she would come.

In that down jacket, she was more dazzling than those that 'wanted to show off without caring about the temperature'.

I didn't hear anything Su Cheng Yin said beside me, my eyes were just strangely pulled in.

It was a very dramatic love at first sight!

Then came the shooting competition. When I saw her filled with confidence, I felt that she wasn't bragging.

Although the A grade training was an impossible task for normal people, my mind strangely believed that she could do it!

Facts proved that my thoughts weren't wrong.

When everyone was amazed by her, I was filled with admiration towards her.

I had been good with the revolver, but I've never seen such amazing use of it.

I saw a rare frustration on the face of the always arrogant Su Cheng Yin, but she still gave a casual shrug like nothing was wrong.

I suddenly found that my love for her was strangely deep and there were things that kept rising as things developed.

That night, the snow was very deep, but I went to the temporary residence they were staying in. I never thought that I would be photographed by her.

Then, I seemed to have a reason to talk to her.

Roasted sweet potatoes were a good choice.

I thought that she would reject me, but I never thought that she would agree.

I didn't know what kind of person she liked. Was it a cold man or was it someone like me, a soldier that loved to joke around.

But I never thought that the sweet potatoes would turn into a disaster.

There was an attack on Rock City by militants and we were ordered to go.

She actually told me at that time that she wanted to go.....

I knew that she could shoot and knew from her calm eyes that she was different from others.

But I was still very determined not to let her go. I could tell from her slightly knitted brows that she.....hated me.

But even if she hated me, I still didn't change my mind. I never thought that she would still come to Rock City with Tian Xin.

And I still didn't know.....how she did it all!

Chapter 1660: Side story: I want to grow old with you once I become careless (Part 2)

I clearly remembered that when the three words 'Luo Qing Chen' came from the walkie talkie, my heart was beating very fast.

My fingers wouldn't stop trembling as my heart felt like it was about to jump out.

But she came forward without a care with a faint smile on her face.

I could hear the sound of her sniper and her relaxed tone as she faced the enemy.

At that moment, my head was buzzing. It was as if there was nothing important to me.

I just wanted to get to her side as soon as possible and protect her.

This was my first time running like this, I didn't even care about the bullets around me.

When I tightly held her, I truly felt relieved.

It turned out that it only took a single day for her to become this important in my heart.

I even knew that I would rather lose my life than to see her being hurt at all.

Later, I was hurt.

I never thought that her medical skills would be so good as well.

She brought my life back and I could even hear her beautiful voice in my daze.

Although, there was a bit of a tremble to it.....

I knew that I had made her worry, but this worry made me feel strangely happy.

There were times that I thought that if I kept getting hurt, she would always be by my side.

Because the day you leave, I will miss you very much.

I quickly dealt with the matters in the White Cliff United Nations and immediately flew back.

I wanted to directly find you, but I suddenly heard that you were dragged into a senior management meeting at Prosper.

When a beauty needs to be saved, I will naturally appear in a special way.

For example, as the only successor of Prosper.

For example, as the young master Shi they spoke of.

When I saw your surprised appearance, I felt very satisfied.

When those annoying people were being aggressive, there is no need for you to say anything because I can deal with them alone.

I suddenly felt that having power really could let me protect the people beside me.

At least you could stand firmly beside me.

Those random people, I'll take care of them.

Later I learned that the man Jiang Si Zhe who spoke up at the meeting was her ex boyfriend.

He really wasn't a good person. After I learned this, I had a friend invade his computer in an extreme method.

All those photos came out. Since he was a popular star, just a single report in the newspaper was enough to instantly ruin him.

In fact, I didn't let her know that I did this.

After all, I hoped that in her eyes, I would always be the righteous major Shi who didn't use these methods.

But for her, I could be less righteous.

Everything had become insignificant because of one mission.

That was the time in my life when I was filled with the most despair. Surviving became my only belief, but it was so hard to do.

Normal people couldn't imagine how horrifying an avalanche was. Our Silver Soul Troop was stuck in the cave under the thick snow for half a month.

We ate worms from the ground and drank the snow that melted.

But even so, we persisted.

I knew that I wanted to return to her side, I had to return to her side no matter what.
