Chapter 171: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 46)

Ye Ying Ge narrowed her eyes. Seeing Bai Yan Nian's angry expression and how certain his voice was, he was a bit believable.

But if what he said was true, it wasn't a bad thing.

«Heavenly Sword» was a game where other than having skills, having money is also a must for a great god.

If Bai Yan Nian was invited to this anniversary celebration for experts, it meant that he must have spent quite a bit of money on this game.

Then again, it meant that his father at home had quite a bit, being able to let him splurge like this!

“Che, so what?” Ye Ying Ge deliberately raised her brow and said with pursed lips, “My contracted will definitely be stronger than you. For a noob like you, he could destroy you with one hand!”

“Ha! Ha! Ha! I never thought it, I never thought it, old sister, you also play the game?” Bai Yan Nian suddenly realized why he would see Ye Ying Ge at this celebration, so she also played «Heavenly Sword».

After his cold laughter, he said, “I really don't know who has the dog eyes to take you as their contracted, he must have blown up the entire Milky Way in his last life!”

“You!” Ye Ying Ge's face had already turned green in anger from his words. She angrily stomped her foot and her voice screeched a bit as she shouted, “I'm still better than you, you don't even have a contracted! Isn't it embarrassing! What a joke!”

“I don't have a contracted?” Bai Yan Nian gave two snorts before saying, “My contracted is the server's number one beauty, can an old lady like you compare to her?”

“This old lady is also the number one beauty in my server, how can't I compare!” Ye Ying Ge patted her chest as she revealed a look of utmost confidence.

She was confident in her own looks, otherwise there wouldn't be middle aged people and young people who liked her. Even the great gods in the game pampered her.

This kind of charm, could Luo Qing Chen compare?

“Don't make me vomit!” Bai Yan Nian shook his head with a smile of disbelief as he said, “You can be considered the number one beauty in a server? What kind of damn server are you in! There aren't that many people, so you're self proclaimed?”

“Pei, this old lady doesn't need to be self proclaimed. Wait until this old lady's contracted Young Master comes, just wait to kneel!”

After saying this, she headed towards the banquet stage with her ten centimeter tall heels.

Bai Yan Nian knit his brows. His mind was still filled with what that old lady had just said a few seconds ago.

Contracted, Young Master?

Damn! Which shameless person is also called Young Master, it really lost face for him!

He gave two angry snorts before taking the cell phone from his pocket to call the number Reed Song gave him last night.

After a while, a slightly angry female voice sounded, "Hey, who are you?"

"I am Young Master, are you Reed——" Bai Yan Nian slightly knit his brows. This voice was very different from what he heard on YY. But why was it that in a different situation, he felt it was a bit familiar.

"Ying, ying, ying, dear, I was just bullied by a bastard! You have to get revenge for me later!" Ye Ying Ge didn't recognize the other side's voice for a while and continued to act pitiful.

But Bai Yan Nian could recognize it.

His heart was like a river of ice cold water pouring down, hitting all his internal organs and making his breathing become faster without stopping.

He walked in the direction of the banquet stage as every single hair on his body trembled. Even his fingers couldn't stop shaking.

Until he saw Ye Ying Ge sitting in a corner of the banquet hall talking on her phone.

He was frozen in place and it was like there was lightning over him that could explode at any moment!

Seeing Ye Ying Ge acting pitifully into her phone, he felt his stomach churn and he directly threw up.

Chapter 172: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 47)

Ye Ying Ge sitting in her chair noticed Bai Yan Nian's actions not far away and heard the waves of barfing sounds, but why did it seem like it was coming from her phone?

Suddenly, there was a very disgusting and unbelievable thought that appeared in her mind.

No, no, no, impossible. She told herself this as she tentatively got up and moved in Bai Yan Nian's direction.

Before she even walked halfway, she heard Bai Yan Nian roar out, "Don't you come over here."

Like this, Ye Ying Ge was certain.

She felt her mind explode and instantly turn blank!

Young.....Demonic Year Young Master was Bai Yan Nian. How could the big thigh be this brat in front of her!

After a few seconds, she took a deep breath. She decided to completely ignore Bai Yan Nian and walked towards the front of the banquet hall.

She had to stay elegant, she absolutely had to! She definitely couldn't ruin her own plan from that fall from Bai Yan Nian.

After all, the ones who came to the anniversary celebration were all experts from the various servers, they were all rich people. She felt that she was as pretty as a flower, she definitely had a chance.

Sitting in a spot, her lips couldn't help curling into a sinister smile. She suddenly felt that Bai Yan Nian was a fool. The entire company knew that he liked Luo Qing Chen, but he didn't know Luo Qing Chen's ingame name was Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust.

He even helped her bully her, it really was funny thinking about it now.

But this truth would never be revealed since at this moment, the so called Eastern Painted Brocade Dust was currently racing down the highway.

At the same time, Luo Qing Chen on the other side spent an entire half an hour before she broke out of her binding.

This group of idiots, using only a bow tie to tie her up, don't they know it can be opened just by pulling on it? If it wasn't for her hands being restrained by the sack, she would have opened it in just a few seconds, alright?

At this time, she had to complain to her system!

When she was in danger like this, the system actually acted dead without saying a word!

System, system, come out! Speak, why didn't you save me from this danger!

[The host wasn't harmed at all!] Is there a problem! There are no broken bones and you don't even have the smallest injury!

That idiot kidnapped me, his methods are so rough and stupid!

[Reporting to the host, the kidnapper is Ye Ying Ge's older cousin Ye Wei.]

Damn! Trash! Where am I now?

[You are currently rushing down the highway!]

Pu—This Ye Ying Ge's methods truly are rough! But, I am more concerned on why did she want to kidnap me? You wouldn't be telling me that this is revenge for me making her lose her job, right!

[That is one of the reasons. The other reason is that she accidentally saw your computer screen, finding out that you were Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust.]

Damn! That old woman really is shameless, even peeping on me! Does she really think I'm a fool who knows nothing about this world!

[Perhaps so.....]

With the system in hand, I have the whole world, alright?

[.....]

System, did you forget to remind me of something?

[The host's spatial storage has the item from the last world: The teleporting canvas shoes.]

Ai, you really do have a conscience! I want to take out the teleporting canvas shoes!

[Ding, the teleporting canvas shoes has been taken out of the spatial storage.]

Without knowing why, there was a trace of excitement in her heart.

She calmly put on the pure white canvas shoes and her lips curled into a faint smile. She closed her eyes to think of where she wanted to go and disappeared from the back of the truck.

Chapter 173: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 48)

"Good! Next, let us give a warm welcome to the V Group's CEO, director Mu Qian Liu." After the passionate voice of the host fell, there was a warm round of applause.

Mu Qian Liu's brows were tightly knit and he didn't have any thoughts of going onto the stage. He just felt like his heart was stuck in his throat and his mind was filled with fear.

"Director Mu——" The beautiful secretary anxiously called out to him.

His cold eyes narrowed and he walked onto the stage.

"Hello everyone, I'm very glad that everyone could come to the «Heavenly Sword» anniversary celebration. For «Heavenly Sword» to reach its state today, we can't forget all your contributions." His elegant voice came out of the microphone and there were shrill screams that came from under the stage.

Among them, there was naturally Ye Ying Ge who had unknowingly sat in the front row.

Her heart was sparkling and she looked at Mu Qian Liu with a fanatic look on her face, as she secretly made a decision in her heart.

Although director Mu had chased her out of the office, it couldn't put out the fire burning in her heart. He just didn't understand her, that was why he was so cold to her.

In that instant, she was fantasizing about the story of an overbearing school president and a strong female lead!

That's right! She was the female lead!

Being chased out of the office, being tricked by that brat, being bullied by evil women. When she had nothing, she met the overbearing school president of her life!

When Ye Ying Ge was deeply lost in her fantasies, the host's voice sounded again.

"Director Mu, I've heard a bit of news. I've heard that you also like you play «Heavenly Sword», right?"

"Yes."

"Good, then I'll change my introduction!" The host pumped up the crowd as he said with a smile, "Next let us welcome the number one player on the «Like Summer Flowers»'s rankings, Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud!"

"Pa, pa, pa, pa, pa——" After some intense applause, the crowd exploded!

"Damn! So director Mu was Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud! I saw him in a cross server battle before, aren't his skills too sharp!" An expert under the stage heard this name and spoke up in an excited voice.

"God, god, god! My male god!"

"What are you excited about, you aren't in the «Like Summer Flowers» server!"

"He is the only DPS who had ever cut me down in the cross server Nation Battles. It has to be known, I am the number one sandbag Nurse in the «Bamboo Rhyme Breeze» server!"

.....

All the experts began talking, happily chatting with each other.

There were two people who were completely silent, which was Bai Yan Nian and Ye Ying Ge.

Bai Yan Nian's expression was a bit better. Although today was the most hateful and shameful day in his life, he could only tightly grit his teeth and not let himself make a single sound.

After all, Mu Qian Liu was not a normal person. If he cared about the things in the past, it would be like an egg smashing into a rock, seeking his own death.

It was like being slapped continuously by someone and his face couldn't help burning. Even his teeth were so tight that they were close to breaking.

But what could he do? He could only take the mouthful of blood he wanted to spit out and swallow it down.

But Ye Ying Ge was different. When the host said the words Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud, she felt like her heart was about to stop. Her face instantly turned white and it looked like it had no blood at all, as her lips kept trembling.

"No, impossible. How, how is this possible?" She bit her lip as she looked at Mu Qian Liu on stage while shaking her head and muttering to herself, "How is this possible, how is this possible?"

"There is nothing impossible in this world." A certain person casually sat down beside her. There was a white cap on her face and a faint smile on her lips.

It had to be said, the most dazzling thing was the beautiful canvas shoes on her feet.

Chapter 174: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 49)

"You, you, you, you, impo, impossible. You.....Shouldn't you be.....on.....the high....." Ye Ying Ge clearly had suffered a large shock, to the point that her lips were even turning purple.

What had she just seen? How could Luo Qing Chen be here, wasn't she taken by her cousin? How, how was this possible! No, she didn't believe it!

"On the highway?" Luo Qing Chen slightly narrowed her eyes as a strong glow flashed in her clear eyes and her lips revealed a faint smile, "Could it be that you don't know that there is a special ability called teleportation in this world?"

Was there a problem! She was telling the truth! Teleportation was an amazing skill, she hoped that these shoes would always have this ability!

[Host, please stop dreaming, alright? The teleporting canvas shoes can only be used once in this plane, not it is just a normal pair of shoes.]

He, he, he! I really have to thank the system, I haven't been able to buy shoes lately, but you sent me a beautiful pair of white shoes!!

Aiya, so angry! Being bullied by the system again!

[.....] The system was actually being bullied again!

But Luo Qing Chen could tell that the person in front of her was even angrier than her!

Her eyes popped out and the word 'teleportation' seemed like it came from outer space, as her brain stopped working.

In terms of medicine, this was one's mind on the verge of collapsing. In terms of spiritual science, she had seen a ghost!

She wanted to run, but her feet seemed like it was made of lead as she couldn't move at all.

Luo Qing Chen saw her helpless appearance, looking like her mind was about to break, but she didn't feel any pity for her at all.

Everyone was responsible for their own actions, there was no impregnable wall in this world.

People didn't know about it until they encountered it themselves!

There were words that said: No Zuo No Die, Why You Try?

[TL Note: Chinese slang for you won't die if you don't do something.]

Seeking death yourself and blaming this treasure?!

On the other side, the eyes of Mu Qian Liu on stage lit up. It was like he had sensed something as he looked around the banquet hall.

Searching for the figure he wanted to see, searching for clearness in this muddled world.

The host saw this and immediately brought the atmosphere back as he excitedly announced, “A great god who can be in the same server as this great god, next we want to welcome the second ranked player in the «Like Summer Flowers»’s server, Eastern Painted Brocade Dust!”

Mu Qian Liu heard this and tightly knit his brows. When those four words hit his ears, he felt his heart fill with excitement and unsettlement.

After that, he looked back. He already couldn’t control the thoughts in his mind anymore.

He couldn’t stay here, he wanted to find her. Even if he had to seal the entire Huai Hai Highway, he would bring her back without being harmed at all!

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 70%.]

The system’s voice rang in her mind and her lips curled slightly as she whispered, “Beautiful.”

After that, she stood up and took off the white cap. She waved her hand as she said, “Here!”

Mu Qian Liu on stage trembled and looked at the girl walking over with squinted eyes.

She had a white shirt and a pair of denim overalls, matched with a pair of clean white shoes. Her eyes sparkled and her faint smile gave off a mesmerizing feel.

Chapter 175: Game god’s explosive agreement (Part 50)

Luo Qing Chen felt her heart beating faster the closer she came to the stage. Looking at his handsome face and those deep as the night eyes, her face was instantly filled with a blush.

Some people would be smitten with a single look.

She stood in a daze for a bit as her lashes slightly trembled. Her lips formed into a sweet smile as she looked under the stage and said, “Hello everyone, I am Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust.”

For a while, there was no sound at all from under the stage.

After three seconds, the crowd exploded. The ones who had seen Luo Qing Chen’s skills on the cross server Nation Battles all called out in shock.

There were some people who couldn’t help discussing it.

“Eastern.....Eastern.....Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust is actually.....actually a girl. My god, this is unbelievable!”

“That Flowing Light that decimated our party in the cross server battle?”

“This is definitely the most powerful girl I’ve ever seen in a game!”

.....

“Hong long——” There was a giant sound and the noisy banquet hall suddenly fell silent.

Looking closely, someone had fainted.

That person was no one other than Demonic Year Young Master, Bai Yan Nian!

He felt his heart and his mind had already taken several continuous blows and fainting was the most comfortable thing to do.

But the instant his eyes turned black, he couldn't help shouting in his heart, "God, why are you like this to me!"

The host beside Luo Qing Chen took two steps forward, wanting to see what had happened.

Mu Qian Liu saw this and very naturally took Luo Qing Chen's hand before saying in a gentle voice, "We're leaving!"

"Ah?"

Before she could react, he had already grabbed her small and slender hand and was pulling her out of the banquet hall.

When they came to the door of the banquet hall, Luo Qing Chen suddenly thought of something!

"Damn, I forgot to pick up Qing Mo!"

With Luo Qing Chen's reminder, Mu Qian Liu seemed to remember that he forgot Cold Moon.

She quickly took the phone out of her bag and found that there were a bunch of missed calls!

"Qing....."

"Luo Qing Chen!"

She could clearly tell the instant she picked up the phone that Ye Qing Mo was quickly walking on the other side of the call.

"Ying, ying, ying, Qing Mo! I was kidnapped!" Luo Qing Chen quickly reported what happened, but she made sure to tell her that she was fine. Everything she said came from the bottom of her heart!

"What? Really!" Ye Qing Mo only half believed it, but thinking about how many years she knew this girl, she knew she wouldn't joke about something like this.

"Un, it can't be anymore true!" Luo Qing Chen sniffed twice before saying, "Where are you!"

"I was hit by a car!"

"What???"

They went to Mu Qian Liu's Maserati race car and went to the scene of the accident.

It was a good thing it wasn't far and a certain person's car was quite fast.

As soon as they got off, they saw Ye Qing Mo in front of a BMW sedan, crying and wailing. There was even a group of people gathered around them!

She pushed her way in and when she reached the 'center of the incident', she quickly pulled Ye Qing Mo up and said, "What happened!"

"That person hit me with his car!"

"Miss, aren't you being a little too obvious as a swindler?"

A gentle and beautiful voice rang out that was a bit familiar to Luo Qing Chen. She seemed to have heard it somewhere?

She looked up slightly and what filled her eyes was a white face and delicate appearance. The red lips belonging to the very elegant man was in a faint curve, forming an arc of an almost non-existent smile. There was a silver bracelet on his delicate wrist and there was clear ring that came with a breeze

Chapter 176: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 51)

"Cold Moon." Mu Qian Liu behind her recognized him and his lips slightly parted to call his name.

When this name drifted out on the wind, it made the two girls in front of the BMW stunned.

"Cold Moon Heaven Glow?" Ye Qing Mo pursed her lips as she looked at this person with a stunned appearance.

"You are?" Cold Moon Heaven Light narrowed his eyes to look at this girl before asking this.

Mu Qian Liu came forward and reached out his hand in a polite manner while saying, "I am Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud."

"Ah, you are Thousand Snow?" After that, he shook Luo Qing Chen as he said, "Good! You have good eyesight!"

"She is?" Cold Moon Heaven Glow looked at Luo Qing Chen and said, "Your girlfriend?"

"Ke, ke——" Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat and reached out her hand as she said with a polite smile, "Hello, I am Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust."

"Ah?"

The air froze for three seconds before Cold Moon Heaven Glow came back to his senses. He shook his head with a smile and said, "Eastern Painted is actually a girl, no wonder Thousand Snow decided to establish a contract back then. He didn't care about the crowd on the «Like Summer Flowers» server at all."

"Of course I don't care." Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud said with a faint smile, "We should find a place to sit and talk!"

"Alright." Cold Moon nodded, but he didn't forget to ask, "Then she is....."

"Humph!" Ye Qing Mo took Luo Qing Chen's hand to walk away, while also turning to make a face and say, "Trash Void Jade!"

“Pu——” Luo Qing Chen couldn’t help laughing before saying, “Your set Nurse is about to leave!”

She never thought Ye Qing Mo and Cold Moon would meet in this situation, she really didn’t know if it was a mess or a blessing.

But there seemed to be a bit of fate.

After eating a meal, Luo Qing Chen felt her supporting quest was going far away.....

This was because Ye Qing Mo and Cold Moon were simply enemies! There was no peace during the meal, complaining about each other the entire time, not caring about everyone looking at them at all.

Luo Qing Chen’s heart was very stuffed, alright?

“Great god, do you think that there is hope for Qing Mo and Cold Moon?” Luo Qing Chen was sitting shotgun in the Maserati as she kept thinking about her side mission.

“Perhaps there is a bit.” Mu Qian Liu pursed his lips into a smile as he said, “Cold Moon has never had a contract in this game and has never had a set Nurse before.

“So Great God Cold Moon is rather infatuated?” Luo Qing Chen looked over with a sweet smile and said, “How about compared to the great god?”

“Un, he’s still a bit lacking.” His brows slightly quivered as he said, “Asking all these questions, I should be the one asking.”

“Does the great god still have questions that confuse you?”

“When you introduced yourself on stage, didn’t you see the shock in my eyes? You already knew who I am, right?”

“Right!”

“How did you know?”

“Mind connection!” Luo Qing Chen nodded, speaking in a serious voice.

After that, Mu Qian Liu’s eyes filled with comfort and he revealed a dazzling smile.

“What are you smiling at?”

“Alright!” Mu Qian Liu cleared his throat as he parked the car by the road. He took off his seat belt before looking at Luo Qing Chen beside him, slowly letting out an elegant and gentle voice, “Then tell me, why did you suddenly appear here when you were supposed to be on the Huai Hai Highway?”

To humans, this was simply an impossible thing.

Luo Qing Chen saw that he was approaching and felt her heart beating like a little deer running, as a blush instantly filled her white face. She took a deep breath and hesitantly said, “Because I can teleport!”

Was there a problem! She was telling the truth! Why didn’t they believe her, look to the heavens then?!

“Then do you know what I want to do?” His strangely beautiful face slowly approached her and his lips curled into a beautiful smile.

“I....I don’t.” She moved back in a shy manner, as she deliberately pursed her lips while saying, “What do you want to do? I will run!”

“Gedeng—”

There was the sound of the car doors locking. Mu Qian Liu’s eyes filled with a pampering gaze as he softly dropped a kiss on her forehead. He said in a gentle voice, “I think that unless you can teleport, you won’t be able to escape, my madame contracted.”

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 80%.]

This kiss, it was a bit soft and a bit sweet.

Chapter 177: Game god’s explosive agreement (Part 52)

There wasn’t that much change in her and the great god’s life after that, they still went to work from nine to five.

Mu Qian Liu didn’t stop her from working since she was his girlfriend. Rather he told her that she could do whatever she wanted, she just couldn’t exhaust herself too much.

But her workload had become much lighter and she didn’t need to always work overtime.

But, their days in the game had completely changed.

Since «Sword World»’s commander, Flashy Wind Reliant Sword sold his account, «Sword World» began to decline. Whether it was in Territory Battles or Nation Battles, they weren’t as strong as before. However, it was hard for a bug to die and «Sword World» was still much stronger than smaller guilds.

Until a certain moonless night. Bai Yan Nian went to the horn channel to break it off with Ye Ying Ge and also said everything that was ugly to listen to. But Ye Ying Ge since that day, she had never logged on again.

It’s said that she had lost her mind because of all the hits she had suffered and now suffered from serious mental illnesses. Currently she was being treated in the Public Security Hospital.

Why was it the Public Security Hospital! That was because she was suspected of kidnapping!

Although she failed.

After Bai Yan Nian abused Ye Ying Ge by himself, he went to the horn channel to sell his account.

The once famous «Sword World» had officially disbanded.

The «Like Summer Flowers»’ ruling guild was now «Drunken Dream Land»!

A ruling guild meant combining servers. So three months after «Drunken Dream Land» took over the «Like Summer Flowers» server, they officially combined that server with the «Bamboo Rhyme Breeze» server.

No, it was the first Nation Battle after the servers had combined this afternoon.

But she had no choice since she had to work overtime!

Luo Qing Chen sat in her spot and thought about it. She stood up after she made a decision and began walking towards the exclusive twentieth floor office of Mu Qian Liu.

Without knowing why, she felt that there were especially few people at the office today. Looking around, she didn't see a single person within a five meter area!

Aiya, why does it feel so gloomy?

“Ding dong——”

The elevator reached the floor and Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath as she walked to the waiting area of Mu Qian Liu's office.

Opening the door, she saw that his beautiful secretary wasn't there.

“Ding——” She pressed the bell to the office.

After that, a beautiful and warm voice came out, “Come in.”

“Hu——” The instant she heard that person's voice, she felt her mind fill with lewd thoughts and everything else had disappeared.

“That, director Mu——” In the office, Luo Qing Chen was a subordinate, so she had to be polite.

“Un humph?” He looked down at her and a faint smile appeared on his lips as he asked with a raised brow, “You want to take time off?”

“Ah?” Luo Qing Chen was in a daze before her lips pulled back into a smile and she said, “Director Mu is so smart, no wonder you are a great god!”

“Have you thought of an excuse?” Mu Qian Liu looked up and could see through her thoughts with a single glance.

Although she had been seen through, he didn't say anything. He wanted to see her shy and cute appearance some more.

“I want to participate in the first cross server battle between the «Like Summer Flowers» and «Bamboo Rhyme Breeze» combined server! Great god, please permit it! I will definitely kill in all directions and bring honour to «Drunken Dream Land».” Luo Qing Chen seriously nodded her head, telling the truth.

“Do you know what day it is today?” His madame contracted didn't know what day it was, so he could only use another method to remind her.

“The day the servers combine!” Luo Qing Chen innocently blinked, not feeling like there was anything wrong with what she said.

“Oh! Also.” Mu Qian Liu narrowed his eyes. He was stunned by her head filled only with the game for three seconds before he revealed a gentle and elegant smile on his face and said, “If miss Luo comes to take time off in the future, everything will be rejected unless.....”

Luo Qing Chen never thought that Mu Qian Liu would actually decisively reject her and only after a while did she react. Could the great god be a bit more precise?

“What other than?” She charged right at him.

You have to be more direct as a person! Be straight or be dead!

“Marriage leave.” His lips curled and watched as she fell into his trap.

No, his embrace!

Chapter 178: Game god’s explosive agreement (Part 53)

She never thought that she would be proposed to in this situation. She had thought of many different situations when she had time, but she never thought it would be when she was asking for time off.

Could it be that she had used this too much, so she accidentally fell into his trap?

As expected, you shouldn’t guess the heart of a black bellied great god, you won’t be able to guess right.

That afternoon, the moment he said the word “marriage leave”, the window of the twentieth floor office was filled with balloons and flower petals.

As well as the sounds of cheering and congratulations. It seemed like everyone had known about this and she was the only person in the dark.

It was no wonder she felt it was so strange today!

He slowly stood up and walked over to her, taking out a diamond ring from his pocket, moving in an elegant manner.

He fell onto one knee and his lips curled into a smile as he said, “Marry me, alright? All the time off you need in the future will be approved.”

He put the dazzling diamond ring onto her right ring finger and slowly planted a kiss on it before standing up to look into her misted over eyes.

Yes! She was moved. Although it was a trap, she was willing to enter it and be bound by him!”

“Who proposes like this!” Luo Qing Chen gave a sniff and pursed her lips as she looked at Mu Qian Liu.

He revealed a faint smile and raised a hand to wipe the tears off her face as he said, “It’s quite romantic.”

He didn’t know how to propose to her to move her. He had thought for a long time to reach this idea and had made many preparations for today.

Even the «Like Summer Flowers» and «Bamboo Rhyme Breeze» servers combining being on May 20th, it was all planned by him!

[TL Note: 520 in chinese means I love you.]

All for marrying this beauty.

“I’m taking time off right now!” She deliberately pretended to be angry as she put her arms to her waist as she spoke.

“Alright.”

“You’re taking time off with me!”

“Alright.”

“I’ll agree to your proposal if «Like Summer Flowers» wins tonight!”

After that, what she heard wasn’t the same ‘alright’. Mu Qian Liu picked up the phone on his desk and casually punched in a few numbers before saying, “Send a downtime announcement to the «Bamboo Rhyme Breeze» tonight. The cross server Nation Battle will automatically be the «Like Summer Flowers» server’s victory.”

“Puchi.” She couldn’t help laughing. Seeing this dominant but still gentle Mu Qian Liu, she felt warmth and even more warmth. But it had to be said, the great god really did have a black belly!

Luo Qing Chen saw him put down the phone and her lips curled into a sweet smile. Her hands went behind her and she stood on her tiptoes to tap Mu Qian Liu’s lips, leaving in an instant. She lowered her head and said while biting her lip, “I will!”

Her face wasn’t red because she was shy, rather she just felt a bit awkward!

She saw Mu Qian Liu pull her into his embrace with one hand and the other hand pressed down on the wall, instantly raising all the curtains in the office.

Before Luo Qing Chen could react, a hot and overbearing kiss landed on her lips.

Inadvertently, he invaded the sweet taste of her mouth bit by bit. It seemed like he was infatuated with this feeling and each time their tongues touched, there was an intense flame burning in his heart.

Only when she ran out of breaths, her body turned weak, and she felt dizzy from his kiss did he unwillingly leave her lips.

Such a good feeling, this kind of sweet taste.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 90%.]

Hearing the notification from the system, she was very happy. After all, there was only a single step from reaching 100%.

Moreover, she knew that he would definitely give her this last 10% of his affection!

Definitely——

Chapter 179: Game god's explosive agreement (Part 54)

The day of the wedding, «Heavenly Sword» created a special set, the [520 Romantic Confession Limited Wedding Set].

It was released in every server and although it was limited, it would be sold on May 20th, so there was no need to snatch it up.

Of course, Great God Thousand Snow and Great God Eastern Painted's wedding set was different from the ones being bought by other people.

There was a line added to the attributes of their wedding set.

Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud's wedding suit added: Only this thought, Eastern Painted Brocaded Dust.

And Luo Qing Chen's wedding dress had: Only this year, Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud.

Right, this was the day the great god rewrote the game code to add it on himself!

As the CEO of the V Group, he was this capricious!

Of course, the only difference was that Luo Qing Chen had made the wedding dress specially ordered from France and the wedding dress in the game more finely designed, everything else was the same.

"Great god, your wedding trick, you've thought about it a long time!" Luo Qing Chen was wearing a white wedding dress and stood beside him holding a bouquet of flowers. She didn't forget to add a teasing smile as she talked to him.

She really felt the great god was black bellied, he could do everything perfectly.

"Un, a long time." Mu Qian Liu said with a soft laugh, "Moreover, if those that buy the wedding dress set praise your beauty in the horn channel, the GMs will record it and give them a beautiful gift!"

"What? There's even a gift? What is it, I want it too?" Luo Qing Chen's heart felt fuzzy. Great god was so rich and overbearing, maybe he would even send cell phones and tablets! She didn't want to let it go, she was even willing to praise herself!

"Happiness candy."

Luo Qing Chen heard this and was stunned. Only when the priest asked her the question did she finally react.

But there was still a small protest in her heart, the great god was being too stingy.

Mu Qian Liu's heart said that now he needed money to support his family, he couldn't casually throw money away!

Right, but it can be squandered if it had a purpose.

For example, their wedding. From wedding dress to the setup to the restaurant, all of them were luxuriously prepared.

The price of this wedding was over a million dollars, but Great God Thousand Snow didn't feel any heartache at all.

After all, he brought reality into the game and the game into reality.

Truth and lies, there were many things that couldn't be separated. But love was love in the end, he couldn't escape and didn't regret it at all.

This big game was finally over.

From just that one gaze in the beginning, he had already decided he would marry this girl.

She was his contracted in the game and was his wife in real life.

Everything was his. For an eternity, never changing.

But Luo Qing Chen never thought that she would leave first in this life. But they had been together for a life, it wasn't long, just too short.

That morning, the system told her that she would die today.

She also had a hunch since she was most clear on her own body.

That afternoon, she laid in bed with her head of white hair and her eyes as clear as water.

He sat beside her, softly patting her hand as his eyes sparkled with tears.

"Qing Qing, sleep if you're tired." He stroked her head lovingly just like in the past as he spoke in a gentle voice. Only, his hand was now covered in wrinkles.

Although it wasn't as passionate as when they were young, there was still an indescribable warmth to it.

She gave a slight nod before her lips curled and she said, "Contracter great god, play a Light Blade for me to see again!"

Chapter 180 Game god's explosive agreement (End)

He was a bit surprised before giving a nod. He brought a computer that wasn't far away over and turned on the game whose servers had closed for many years now.

In this world, there was only this computer left that could enter this game.

He was a bit clumsy as he logged into the game and when he saw the name Thousand Snow Flowing Cloud, his fingers trembled.

He was wearing a large red elk coat set as he walked by the Beginner Village while killing pheasants. Each time he killed a pheasant, there was a look of joy that appeared on his face.

She leaned against his leg and watched the computer while smiling like a child.

His movements were not smooth and his skills were not sharp. Even when killing the pheasants, he was a bit slow.

But without knowing why, when she was this world, she smiled while her eyes filled with tears.

The memories played in her head like a movie. Their first meeting, the first time he fell out of the sky, their first wipe on the battlefield, their first time saving each other.

Everything was deeply imprinted in her mind, never being forgotten.

“My contracted, I’ve killed so many pheasants!” He looked up with a smile, but his body trembled as his smile froze on his face.

She had already peacefully closed her eyes with a faint smile on her lips. There were a pair of hands softly holding his wrists, making her look like she was asleep.

His old hands trembled as they moved to her neck and he wildly hugged her.

The notebook beside him fell to the ground with a ‘gedeng’ sound and tiny bits of it fell out.

In that instant, he cried. He knew that people would become old and they would separate one day.

But the moment he saw her leave, he still broke out in tears, crying like a weak little child.

He used all his strength to hold her as he continued to tremble. He felt that this life had passed too quickly, so short that there were many things he still wanted to say to her, many things he still wanted to do with her, but she had left a step earlier than him.

Why, why couldn’t they be together forever?

Luo Qing Chen already couldn’t hear clearly and her eyelids became heavier, but before her eyes turned completely dark, the system gave her a final notification.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 100%.]

After being married for so many years, she had never received this 10% and she had been unwilling the entire time.

He clearly loved her, pampered her, spoiled her.

She even felt that he treated her like a little doll that needed to be protected.

But even like this, the system’s notification had never sounded.

One day, she finally couldn’t take it anymore and angrily ran off to ask if he didn’t fully love her.

She never thought that he would actually reply without any hesitation: Yes.

She asked him why.

He said that he told himself that he could never give her all his love because that way he wouldn’t have anymore love to give her. He hoped that for their entire life, every day, every hour, every minute, every second, he would be able to continue giving his love to her.

Never overflowing, never stopping.

Of course, she broke out in tears.

She never thought that she could receive this kind of love. She never thought that there would be a man who would carefully give her love as deep as an ocean to her.

As it turned out, being with a black belly god was actually this good.
