Chapter 1751: Side story: Moved with one look, falling with two (Part 3)

But I couldn't save her in the end. There was the scent of blood in the air and my mind went completely blank, collapsing like I was a corpse.

Other than despair, there was only despair.

But at that moment, there was a familiar voice that came from behind.

That tone, the intonation, and the way she paused, it was all so familiar.

When I heard her choked up voice trembling as it called my name, I couldn't move like I was trapped by a ghost and she pulled me into a tight hug.

She was Luo Qing Chen? Or Qing Jiu? Or the person that I loved in the beginning?

I didn't know, but I was hopeful, hopeful of her answer.

No one knew how my heart trembled when I heard her so-called answer.

It was like falling into a bottomless abyss and knowing that you'll never come out, but then there was a ray of light that fell on your face.

That was the feeling that I had.

I hesitated and lingered, but I used my feelings to solve all problems. The person I loved the most had been the same the entire time and this is the answer she told me.

I believed it, I didn't doubt a single word.

On the crowded platform, after coming back to my senses, I tightly held her using all the strength in my life.

I knew that I couldn't let her go, couldn't let her walk away, and couldn't let her get into more danger.

I was that greedy that I wanted to be by her side forever, for all eternity.

Everything fell to the ground and we finally had our wedding. Flowers, balloons, wedding dress, and diamond ring, not a single one missing. Once again on the eve of the wedding, my mood was completely different from before.

Later I knew that the human face was nothing more than skin and the most important thing was the soul inside.

If the soul was different, my heart would desperately resist.

At the wedding, I saw her faint smile and strangely felt satisfied. I felt that I was very greedy that if I marry her, she would belong to me in this life, but I also wanted the next life.

In the pure white wedding dress, other than making the vow that I said out loud, I also silently made a vow.

It was that——

I hoped that Mo Ze Chen could meet Luo Qing Chen through all his lives. It didn't matter if she liked me or not, it's enough just to meet her.

Because I knew that I would definitely like her.

This life was so difficult and I could fall in love with her at first sight. No matter what status she had, as long as the soul was Luo Qing Chen's, I would love her.

She was my silly girl, a lifetime of love and trust.

If one had to mention the happiest days, it should be in university. No one knew us there, no one knew that we were a couple and we didn't have a Jiang Yi Liang by our side.

I was even secretly happy that no one could stop me from being dazzling. I didn't want to be dazzling to be popular, I just wanted her attention.

Seeing her occasional jealous, proud, and angry appearance, I felt like my heart would start blossoming.

I liked standing by her side, silently watching as she walked out in front of everyone. She would take my hand and announce to everyone, "We already have a registered license!"

At that time, I would take her waist with a wave of love and said, "Dad said that we need to go home for dinner tonight!"

This was how my life was surrounded in happiness, with her, with her, with her.....

With the most affectionate confession and keeping the warmest promise.

Even without anything, I will be waiting for you.

[Ding, congratulations on bringing a soul fragment into the Lead God Space. 29/100]

Chapter 1752: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 1)

When she opened her eyes, she was back in the Chaos Space.

The ending of the last world was very satisfying, Mo Ze Chen had guarded her through the years.

Although she was unwilling when leaving, she felt very happy.

Without knowing it, twenty nine worlds had passed.

She was actually very nervous.

[Because both the host and the male lead died naturally and peacefully, there is no need to see the scene before death.]

"Alright." Luo Qing Chen nodded. She also felt that there was no need.

[The following is a summary of the previous mission. Host, please properly look over it.]

“So.....” Luo Qing Chen paused before saying, “It's a special world?”

[Yes.]

“There are still no special abilities?”

[Yes.]

“No system?”

[Yes.]

Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes as she became more nervous.

After that, the image in the bronze mirror changed.

[Mission Grade: A]

[Experience gained: 500. Forever skills gained: Teleportation.]

Female lead: Luo Qing Chen

Male lead: Du Jiu Sheng

Supporting female lead: Liu Qi Duo

Supporting male lead: Jin Rong Feng

Mission content: [Return to three months before the female lead died and obtain the love of the male lead.]

[Currently importing memories, please accept them, host!]

After accepting the memories of the previous host, Luo Qing Chen thought that this really was a special world.

There wasn't even the three words Du Jiu Sheng in the memories.

The previous host had a very special job, a love appraiser. In this fast paced society, although the previous host had a special job, there were many rich people that came asking for her help.

The previous host was a part of the 'Insight' studio. Although it was only a small office, there were over a hundred people, so there was a lot of competition.

Of course, where there was competition, there were opportunities.

The previous host and the supporting female lead Liu Qi Duo had the opportunity to become the best love appraiser.

The boss had given them two tasks to choose from, one was the young master of the richest family in S City, Jin Rong Feng, and the second was the mysterious curator of the Forgotten River Library.

With this stark contrast, both the previous host and the supporting female lead chose the rich young master Jin Rong Feng.

It was said that he was 'that', so his little brother had offered a high price to hire a love appraiser to see if his big brother liked men or women.

The previous host never would have thought that this special job would cost her her life.

The previous host in performing her job had successfully attracted the attention of Jin Rong Feng, becoming his girlfriend.

The previous host found that Jin Rong Feng was a very twisted person in the process of dating him.

He was so twisted that he directly installed a bug into her phone. He was polite on the surface, but he was a twisted demon in his heart.

But to become the best love appraiser at 'Insight', the previous host couldn't give up halfway and carefully stayed with Jin Rong Feng.

Until the supporting female lead Liu Qi Duo had prepared everything, coming to a banquet to win Jin Rong Feng's heart.

After the previous host learned of this, although she was a bit unwilling in her heart, remembering Jin Rong Feng's twisted and terrifying ways, she decided to give up this task.

But she didn't know.....Jin Rong Feng wouldn't let her off.

Chapter 1753: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 2)

When Jin Rong Feng was together with Liu Qi Duo, he still sent texts to the previous host, saying that he missed her.

At that time, the previous host had another job and had gotten together with a young singer.

Jin Rong Feng kept sending messages and the previous host ignored them until one quiet evening.....

After all, they had been together for over two months and the previous host was a nostalgic person, so she agreed to meet with Jin Ring Feng.

She never thought.....

It was the day before the Ghost Festival, half past eleven at night. The sky was filled with sleet and the weather was very bad.

Jin Rong Feng wanted to meet the previous host in his villa outside the city, which was very remote. The previous host had to look for a long time before finding it.

Without knowing that it was a murderous disaster for her.

What was even more unbelievable was that it wasn't just one person who wanted to kill the previous owner, it was also the supporting female lead Liu Qi Duo.

The memory in her mind was very terrifying. It was a confined space that looked to be over a thousand square meters, but every five meters apart, there was a transparent box with a woman inside.

Some had their eyes closed and some had their eyes open, but one thing was certain, they were all dead.

Liu Qi Duo was in a dark red dress and Jin Rong Feng was standing by her. They were like a perfect match, with that kind of dark smile on their faces.

The previous host had died in a strange way, she had spoken to Jin Rong Feng and Liu Qi Duo before dying.

"Six hundred years, we've finally met again. I was saying why you looked so familiar when I saw you, so you were....."

"So what, if he doesn't remember anything, no one will come and save you."

The person who said the first sentence was Jin Rong Feng and the person who said the second sentence was Liu Qi Duo.

The previous host died miserable in the end. Her eyes were dug out, her wrists were slit, and she slowly died in that transparent coffin.

It was unknown if she died from blood loss or being frozen. In short, the previous host died like this.

Jin Rong Feng and Liu Qi Duo's crazy laughter could be heard as she gradually lost consciousness.

After she finished sorting out her memories, Luo Qing Chen felt the cold sweat on her back and her breathing was a bit fast.

In the memory of the previous host, although normally Liu Qi Duo liked to compete with her, she was still a normal person. Those terrifying eyes weren't like her at all.....

Although she accepted these memories, her mind was filled with doubts and the memories were messy. In the end, Jin Rong Feng and Liu Qi Duo had said too many things that had confused her a bit.

After ten minutes of sorting things out, she came to the following conclusions: One, the previous host had met Jin Rong Feng and Liu Qi Duo six hundred years ago and there was a grievance between them. Two, when they said 'he doesn't remember anything', they should be talking about the one who saved the previous host six hundred years ago.

She felt that there was something strangely familiar with that story, but she couldn't remember.

It was troublesome that she couldn't ask the system, but she was certain that she wasn't safe.

It really was worth being an A rank mission, upgrading at this time gave her a big challenge.

But the only thing that she could be thankful for was.....

She could still meet Du Jiu Sheng here. She felt that she lost him twice, so she didn't want a perfect ending, she just wanted a peaceful life.

Time went back three months when the previous host and Liu Qi Duo hadn't made a choice yet. Based on the current situation, as long as Jin Rong Feng wasn't chosen, she should be temporarily safe.

Then she could only take it one step at a time, at least she would talk after finding Du Jiu Sheng.

It was a good thing that she still clearly remembered what he looked like.

Chapter 1754: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 3)

The next morning, Luo Qing Chen got up on time and went to work at 'Insight'.

Although it was a private company, it had a large structure and was very conspicuous in the business circle of S City.

The previous host didn't have many friends in the company, there was only Xia Qian who she was a bit close to who was also quite a good love appraiser.

But she had a more playful personality, so she often trapped herself after appraising the degree of love.

No, she told Luo Qing Chen about the handsome guy she did an appraisal for this morning.

"Qing, do you know! The client said that he liked kids and my appraisal was that he definitely didn't!"

Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle and pressed the button for the seventh floor, "You made your appraisal in just one night?"

“Right!” Xia Qian confidently said, “You can’t rely on those rumours. Right, I heard the boss say that he wanted to give you and Liu Qi Duo the ultimate assignment, why aren’t you nervous at all?”

“Today?” Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows as she began going through her memories.

The system hadn’t been too bad to her, at least it placed her before the most dangerous moment in this world.

“You forgot!” Xia Qian hooked her arm and said, “You have to work hard, I’ll support you!”

“Un.” Luo Qing Chen nodded as her brows unknowingly knitted.

At half past noon, the big boss called her and Liu Qi Duo. This was her first time seeing Liu Qi Duo, with a round face, heavy makeup, a pair of five centimeter tall heels, long hair, and a powerful aura.

Her gaze stayed on her for three seconds before moving away.

Although this Liu Qi Duo’s eyes were filled with pride and arrogance, it was different from the gaze she saw before dying.

She didn’t know why, she just felt very uneasy because of it.

“Qing Chen, Qi Duo, I think you should know why I’ve called you here today.” Big sister Fang put two blue folders in front of them, “The company’s best love appraiser this year, the final battle is between the two of you.”

“Big sister Fang, it’s all Qing going easy on me that I was lucky enough to get here today.” Liu Qi Duo’s words were very humble, but her tone was anything but humble.

On the contrary, there was an arrogant feel to it.

Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug with a smile, “Qi Duo, don’t be humble, it’s all luck that we were able to get here.”

Her words were not a direct attack on Liu Qi Duo, but a smart person could hear the meaning in her words, which was a form of iron.

Big sister Fang saw that something was off, so she quickly said with a smile, “This is an S rank commission, so the information on the client is kept a secret. There are two people that you can choose from. You can choose the same person or different people.”

Liu Qi Duo heard this and immediately took the left folder before Luo Qing Chen could do anything. She shook her head with a look of disdain before putting it back down.

Then she took the right folder.

Luo Qing Chen, who wasn’t far away, could see her expression change as her black eyes lit up.

“Big sister Fang, I want to accept this task.” Liu Qi Duo picked up the folder and held it in her chest. Then she turned to Luo Qing Chen and said, “Qing can choose the other one, it shouldn’t be that difficult.”

The memories came forward like tides, to another world where because the previous host heard Liu Qi Duo’s words, she didn’t even look at the first folder and chose the second one.

Chapter 1755: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 4)

The atmosphere was very awkward since big sister Fang had said that they could choose the same client.

In the end, Liu Qi Duo had to share the folder on Jin Rong Feng that she was holding.

This should be the starting line of tragedy.

What she should do now was stay away from Jin Rong Feng and choose the first file.

“Un humph.” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her cold eyes to look at her, “This is my first time seeing someone make a choice and then saying the other choice is easier.”

As soon as her voice fell, she didn't bother looking at Liu Qi Duo as she took the first folder and said to big sister Fang, “I'll choose this one.”

“You.....Don't you want to take a look.” Big sister Fang was clearly very surprised by her choice. After all, Luo Qing Chen definitely wasn't someone who accepted tasks easily before, but it seemed different today.

“No need.” She gave a shrug, “I always had the strength to let others choose first.”

“You.....” Liu Qi Duo's expression was clearly a bit unhappy and she wanted to refute it, but she felt like she had suffered a loss.

If she said anything now, it wouldn't be good for her who had gotten off 'cheaply', so she gave a shrug and said, “As you wish, we'll talk with our strengths.”

“Un humph.” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and replied, “Very good.”

Taking the blue folder, Luo Qing Chen returned to her own office. Actually, she had some expectations since she was on the edge right now.

She took a deep breath and opened the file, seeing three words on it: Du Jiu Sheng.

Without knowing why, when she saw those three words, her lips couldn't help revealing a faint smile.

She felt that there was a touch of warmth in this unfamiliar and dangerous world.

“I'm back, Du Jiu Sheng.” She pursed her lips and muttered, “This time, it really is me coming to you.”

She looked down and saw that there wasn't much information on Du Jiu Sheng. There was a photo of him wearing a long black coat and some brief personal information.

Name: Du Jiu Sheng.

Age: 21.

Job: Director of the Forgotten River Library.

Favourite colour: Black.

Appraisal content: Please appraise if he will fall in love with someone.

.....

After reading the information on Du Jiu Sheng, Luo Qing Chen immediately understood why Liu Qi Duo picked Jin Rong Feng without any hesitation.

One was the young master of the richest family in S City and one was the director of a library.

Although you couldn't participate as a love appraiser, if you meet a rich young master, it would be a perfect ending if you did participate.

She vaguely remembered that there were several colleagues of the previous host who had done this and left the love appraiser profession, becoming rich young misses.

Luo Qing Chen carefully put the picture of Du Jiu Sheng into her pocket.

When she went home that night, she spent a lot of time researching 'Jin Ring Feng' and she was even more worried the more she researched.

Jin Rong Feng was the only son of Jin Zun, the richest man in S City. Not only was he not a wastrel, he was a very kind and intelligent person.

He had a double degree when he was seventeen and he created his own charity to help many people who needed it.

But this only continued until he was eighteen.

On the day of his eighteenth birthday, there was a red meteor shower that fell over S City and the place where it was concentrated was over the Jin Family's villa.

Jin Rong Feng changed personalities after that. Not only did he disband his charity, he also dropped out of university.

From that day on, he spent his time drinking and spending time with women.

Chapter 1756: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 5)

There were a lot of reports on him in the outer world since he was considered half a public figure. Some people said that his previous personality, genius and kind hearted was all an act.

Some people said that he had been hit with a spell.....

Luo Qing Chen found some photos of Jin Rong Feng doing charity before he turned eighteen. In that white dress shirt and with that bright smile, he was very different from the evil demon in the memories of the previous host.

This contrast made her believe that rumours, he might really have been.....hit by a spell.

A spell.....was it related to what happened six hundred years ago?

If he did get hit with a spell, did that mean that this world wasn't a normal world and a world with different kinds of abilities.

With these doubts, she turned off the computer. She felt that there was a bigger story that she and the previous host didn't know about.

She woke up at twelve the next day, she should have been thinking too long last night and found it a bit hard to sleep.

After all, she didn't have anything in this world. She couldn't solve this problem with violence, she could only solve it with her intelligence.

After a quick lunch, she found the Forgotten River Library.

Luo Qing Chen's first impression was that it was very old, with potted plants and ancient styled decorations, but the revolving door in front was very high tech.

This was her first time at this library, the previous host had never been here before. There were many people here and she took a deep breath as she couldn't help feeling nervous.

When she walked through the hall, there was a faint scent of sandalwood in the air. When she was standing in the hall, she was surprised.

The murals of lakes and mountains, whether it was the setting or the items, they all had an ancient feeling to them.

This library called Forgotten River was simply too surprising.

"Hello, can I help you with something?" A man wearing a light pink sweater saw her and said, "Are you buying a book or looking for someone?"

Lan Fan looked over Luo Qing Chen and his lips couldn't help curling into a smile.

Just by accident, he had seen the word 'Insight' on the blue folder in Luo Qing Chen's hand.

She should be the love appraiser that he had hired a few days ago at that club named 'Prosper'.

As expected, it was different spending a lot of money, she really was beautiful.

If such a beautiful girl couldn't move his big brother Sheng, it was certain that his big brother Sheng didn't love women or men! In this world, he would be the only alien!

Luo Qing Chen narrowed his eyes to look over the youth in front of her. He had red lips, white teeth, and looked very delicate. Wearing that pink sweater, he almost looked like a star.

She felt that he cared about her and the feeling was very strong.

"Excuse me, is the curator mister Du Jiu Sheng here?" Luo Qing Chen tentatively asked.

As expected——

"Here, here, here, he's here every day and doesn't ever go out!" Lan Fan looked at her with a smile, "What is the name of this miss?"

“Un, I’m surnamed Luo.” Luo Qing Chen was almost certain that this person in front of her should be the client.

Otherwise, no one would be this active in taking her to see Du Jiu Sheng.

“Miss Luo, please come this way.”

The elevator stopped on the third floor and the surrounding area became much quieter. The murals on the wall were a bit old and if they weren’t fakes, they definitely would be worth a lot.

“You brought an outsider here?”

As soon as they came out of the elevator, there was an absolutely familiar voice that came from the end of the hall.

Luo Qing Chen couldn’t stop her heart from skipping a beat as her eyes turned red and her fingers couldn’t help trembling.....

In her mind, the scenes of him before death, that sadness.....

Chapter 1757: Hell envoy’s exclusive love appraiser (Part 6)

There was a faint chill in the air, it was like being in a land of ice and snow.

The inside was colder than the outside.....

“Big brother, this miss Luo says that she’s here to see you, so I brought her up.” Lan Fan desperately winked at Luo Qing Chen for her to play along.

Luo Qing Chen nodded and then said, “Hello, I saw that there was a wanted ad for a night staff position at the door of your office, so I wanted to ask, are you still hiring?”

Lan Fan saw that Luo Qing Chen reacted quickly and couldn’t help giving a satisfied nod.

She really was worthy of being an excellent love appraiser, it seems like he could finally see if his big brother Sheng could still be as calm and indifferent to this mysterious feeling of love like he was to everything else.

“Kacha.” There was the sound of a door slowly opening that came from the end of the hall.

Luo Qing Chen held her breath as she stared in that direction. There was someone who was like a royal wearing a black coat that came out, with a golden badge that was pinned to his chest.

The shape of this badge was the same as the mark behind his ear.

Luo Qing Chen let out a long breath as she watched Du Jiu Sheng walking towards her.

His expression didn’t change at all as his eyes were ice cold. His face were like they were carved from stone and his deep eyes seemed like they hadn’t changed for thousands of years.

A single look was incomparably profound.

Without knowing why, she could tell that when Du Jiu Sheng's eyes fell onto her, there was a faint sparkle in his eyes.

Lan Fan on the side looked like he was watching a play. He would never know just how nervous Luo Qing Chen was at this moment.

Du Jiu Sheng slightly knitted his eyes and coldly asked, "Do you live nearby?"

"Yes."

"Un." Du Jiu Sheng softly replied before handing the dark folder in his hand to her, "There are the details of the job there, you can take a look and if you think it's alright, call the number at the end."

As soon as his voice fell, he turned to walk back into the room at the end of the hall without even turning back.

Luo Qing Chen slightly knitted her brows, feeling a bit disappointed. Love was never gone, only I remembered it and you forgot.

But Lan Fan beside her was very excited, like he had been injected with steroids. He wanted to call out, but he held it back as his face turned red.

Luo Qing Chen waved the black folder in front of him, "You.....What's wrong?"

Lan Fan quickly pulled her into the elevator and when it reached the second floor, he excitedly looked at her, "Damn! Love appraisers really are different!"

Luo Qing Chen looked at him with a confused look as she asked, "What does that mean?"

"My big brother! My big brother! My big brother! He actually gave you the folder!" Lan Fan gave her a thumbs up, "He didn't even look at you or ask you any questions, he just gave you the folder!"

"Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah, ah!" After saying this, he didn't forget to say a few excited 'ahs'!

Luo Qing Chen heard this and strangely felt a bit happy, but she replied, "Didn't he.....just ask something?"

"Ask what?"

"He asked.....if my house was nearby?"

"Puchi!" Lan Fan gave a chuckle, "There are still many vacant high end apartments near the Forgotten River Library!"

"What?" Luo Qing Chen's eyes opened wide, "You mean that he was planning on providing me with.....staff accommodations?"

God! What did she just answer? She lived nearby?!

She almost earned a large amount.....

Chapter 1758: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 7)

Lan Fan saw her look of regret and crossed his hands as he said with a faint smile, "It's fine, once you read the folder, you can just mention it with big brother. Since he gave you the envelope, he wouldn't reject you."

"You're saying like getting this envelope means I've already passed." Luo Qing Chen shook the folder in her hand which had a very familiar scent.

"Of course!" Lan Fan pointed at the folder in her hand, "Don't look at how big the Forgotten River Library is, there's less than ten people here including me and big brother. Most of them were brought in by my big brother, they all have decent personalities, there's just one person who's rather hateful!"

When Lan Fan said this, he had an unhappy look.

"Of the people brought back, who are you?"

"Me?" Lan Fan gave a shrug, "I am the boss with this library's land and building deed!"

"Ah?" Luo Qing Chen looked him over and said with a look of disbelief, "A rich second generation?"

Lan Fan just said with a smile, "Actually, my grandfather left this place to me and he said that I had to wait for a certain person to come, which was my big brother Sheng!"

Luo Qing Chen gave a nod of understanding, "So it's like this."

"Ding."

Arriving at the restaurant on the second floor, it was time for afternoon tea. Lan Fan was very familiar with this place and ordered many things for her.

"Enjoy the food, I'm certain that you can take care of my big brother!" Lan Fan came in to say in a low voice, "You should know that I am the client!"

Luo Qing Chen was drinking some mango pomelo sago while saying with an awkward smile, "It's very obvious....."

"This doesn't matter! The woman that I just mentioned that I really hated....." Before Lan Fan finished, there was a cold wind that came from the door.

A woman in a black leather jacket with short hair came in.

Her eyes were very cold and she looked away in disdain when she saw Lan Fan.

"It's her, it's her!" Lan Fan nudged Luo Qing Chen's arm and said with a soft snort, "She came to our library three years ago and normally doesn't stay still, she likes to go knock on big brother's door. She also acts that cold and aloof, it's annoying to watch!"

Luo Qing Chen looked over this short haired girl and she seemed to have sensed something as she turned to match her gaze.

She had very thick eyeliner, dark red lipstick, and sharp eyes, which gave people a very uncomfortable feeling.

“What you said.....makes sense.” Luo Qing Chen looked away and raised a brow to ask, “What is her name and what does she do in your library?”

Lan Fan acted like he found someone on his side and gave a soft snort, “I just know that she’s called Hong Yue and she seems to be a normal employee!”

Luo Qing Chen’s right hand tapped on the table out of habit as she watched Hong Yue’s back with a thoughtful gaze, with a bit of sparkle in her eyes.

When she went home that night, she took a shower before looking for an apartment near the Forgotten River Library.

After all, the previous host’s home was just too far and she was really too embarrassed to ask Du Jiu Sheng to provide a residence.

She would find a place here so she was prepared.

After taking care of her accommodations, she picked up the black folder with a strange feeling of expectation.

His handwriting hadn’t changed, each word had power behind it and the letter smelled of ink.

Taking a deep breath, there was a feeling of falling into a memory.

The letter was very simple. The shift was from eight to twelve at night and the work was taking care of the books in the library, with a very high wage.

Luo Qing Chen couldn’t help revealing a doubtful look. It was just four hours of work and the wage was this high.....

Chapter 1759: Hell envoy’s exclusive love appraiser (Part 8)

At the bottom of the letter was Du Jiu Sheng’s phone number. Luo Qing Chen picked up her phone and called it.

At the same time, in the study.

Du Jiu Sheng was standing in front of a floor to ceiling window slightly narrowing his eyes as he looked at Luo Qing Chen’s information in his hands on the sheet of A4 paper.

Twenty years old, love appraiser.

There was a strange sense of loss in his heart, but the endless expectation was very complicated.....

“Kou, kou, kou.” There was a knock on the door. He raised his right hand and there was a faint blue light that appeared on the door that slowly opened it.

“What are you busy with?” Hong Yue came in with a few black signs and looked at him, “There were a series of car accidents by the north bridge tonight, the seven deaths were all recorded.”

“Un.” Du Jiu Sheng softly replied. He picked up the Netherworld Ring from the table as his eyes turned cold.

His phone then rang.

He narrowed his eyes and the light blue glow lingered around the phone, as the unfamiliar number turned into three words.

Luo Qing Chen.

“It seems like you’re busy?” Hong Yue looked over and saw the ‘Luo’ character.

Actually, she was very unhappy. She never thought that the Forgotten River Library had actually accepted.....a person.

It had to be known that of the staff in the library, other than Lan Fan, not a single one was a person.

“Un, you can go first, I’ll come later.” Du Jiu Sheng picked up his phone before disappearing from the room.

Hong Yue knitted her brows, looking very displeased. Why was the cold and aloof Du Jiu Sheng who never cared about ‘normal people’ treating this person so specially?

When the call connected, there was a cold voice that came out. Luo Qing Chen’s heart skipped a beat as she felt a bit nervous.

“That, hello.” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said into the phone, “I am Luo Qing Chen who came to the library this morning for the job, I wonder if mister Du has some impression?”

She felt that when meeting a cold person, it was easy for it to become awkward.

The good thing was that he was Du Jiu Sheng. Although he didn’t have any of his memories, he was still that Du Jiu Sheng.

“Un, have you considered it?” Du Jiu Sheng gently replied, “If you feel that it’s too late, it can be discussed.”

Actually, when he said this, even he couldn’t believe it.

Could it be that it was because the other side was a love appraiser and had some special charm?

“Un, it’s not. I’ve read the job description and I feel that it suits me.....” Luo Qing Chen then said, “I want to ask.....”

“You can come to work tomorrow.” Du Ju Sheng cut her off immediately which stunned her.

Could it be that he knew what she was thinking? How.....How was that possible?

Du Jiu Sheng also felt that he answered too quickly. It wasn’t that he knew what Luo Qing Chen was thinking, but there was a strange expectant feeling in his heart that was quite strong.

“You.....” Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle, “It seems like mister Du has the ability of a prophet!”

Although she wanted to ask how he knew what she was thinking, she gave up after thinking about it.

After all, she still had many chances to interact with the Du Jiu Sheng of this world.

“Un.....” Du Jiu Sheng’s brows relaxed as he casually said, “It’s because we always lacked people.....”

Lacked people? Was he teasing her?

Du Jiu Sheng himself felt that these words were a bit laughable, but when he heard her laugh, there was a strange feeling of panic!

It was very.....very strange.

Chapter 1760: Hell envoy’s exclusive love appraiser (Part 9)

“Un, then I’ll report on time tomorrow. I won’t bother your rest.” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips, “Good night.”

“Good night.”

After hanging up, he looked at the screen of the phone for a long time. Only when a faint blue glow came from the Netherworld Ring did he come back to his senses.

He might be busy all night tonight.

His profession was different from others, it was even more unique than a love appraiser, he was an envoy of hell.

Wandering between yin and yang, focused on bringing souls to this library and deciding if they went to heaven or hell.

There were three people who died on his list tonight, it was a family of three that had gone to a mountain resort.

Opening the door to the library, a door that normal people couldn’t open.

There was a normal desk that was surrounded by their past and present lives. There were three cups of tea and three lamps of different colours.

The girl held her parents’ hands and said with those big eyes, “Dad, mom, where is this place? Weren’t we on vacation?”

The man quickly hugged the little girl and looked at Du Jiu Sheng in front of him, “I’m willing to become a beast in the next life, can you not let my daughter suffer?”

Du Jiu Sheng looked at him and gave a slight nod, “You haven’t done anything that would hurt the world in this life, so your daughter doesn’t need to be punished for you.”

“Good, good.” The man gave a heavy nod and couldn’t help crying.

“There’s a cup of tea in front of you.” Du Jiu Sheng pushed the tea to him, “You haven’t done anything great in your life, so although you won’t go to hell, you won’t go to heaven either. Reincarnation is your final destination.”

“Alright.” The man gave a heavy nod as he looked at his wife beside him with an unwilling look.

But his wife had a bit of panic in her eyes as well as drops of sweat on her forehead.

“After you drink this tea, you can see your past and present lives.” Du Jiu Sheng looked at him and continued, “Then you will walk towards the door that you can see.”

“But.....” The man looked at his wife’s tea on the side and asked, “Can I leave together with my wife?”

It can be seen that this man still loved his wife very much. Even after becoming a ghost, he wanted to accompany her on the final path in life.

Du Jiu Sheng looked at the man, “She isn’t walking the same road as you.”

“She’s going to heaven? That’s great.....”

“No, she will go to hell for three hundred years before entering reincarnation.” Du Jiu Sheng looked at the woman and said, “The cup of green tea in front of you, you should know better than me why it’s there.”

“No, you must have made a mistake.” The man desperately shook his head as tears came down, “My wife really is good, you can’t do this to her. If she really is going to hell, I want to go with her.....”

“Ah Shui, don’t say anything.” The woman shook her head as she said while crying, “It was me who wronged you. I’m willing to go to hell, please don’t say anything else.”

“Un.” Du Jiu Sheng didn’t say anything else and turned to look at the little girl sitting in the middle, “Because your daughter died earlier, after entering reincarnation, she will be born into a rich family, so you don’t have to worry.”

“But uncle.....” The little girl said in a sad and timid voice, “Can I not be with my mom and dad?”

Du Jiu Sheng looked at the little girl with a gentle gaze and his lips curled into a faint smile, “Three hundred years later, your family will have a chance to reunite. At that time, you will be able to make up for the regrets in this life!”
