Chapter 1761: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 10)

After sending the three of them off, Du Jiu Sheng returned to his study feeling a bit emotional.

He couldn't help thinking of Luo Qing Chen, with a strange sense of familiarity lingering in his mind.

He had been an envoy of hell for six hundred years, he was indifferent to the parting of life and death already.

But when he saw that family of three, he actually felt sorry for them.

It was probably because.....no matter what wrong things they did, they were still considered good people.

The next morning, Luo Qing Chen woke up early and went to the store to buy some daily necessities. After all, this house was too far away from the rented apartment and it was too troublesome to bring things over from home.

She actually bumped into Jin Rong Feng and Liu Qi Duo.

It really was fate. It had to be said, when she saw Jin Rong Feng, she was actually a bit nervous.

As long as she thought of the previous host's memories, her hands would be covered in a cold sweat.

Whether it was her eyes or the previous host's eyes, Jin Rong Feng was a maniac. But she couldn't understand why he didn't kill Liu Qi Duo and killed the previous host instead?

What happened six hundred years ago? Why did a person have such memories?

There were too many mysteries to solve, but she could feel that she was in danger.

Because Jin Rong Feng had seen her. He was wearing a large red coat with golden thread embroidery on them. His eyes were very deep and when he saw Luo Qing Chen, there was a dark glow in them.

Liu Qi Duo saw that he was looking in one direction for a long time and also looked over.

"Ai, isn't this Qing Chen? It really is a coincidence!" Liu Qi Duo took Jin Rong Feng by the arm and twisting her waist, she came over with a smile.

Luo Qing Chen didn't show any emotions and just slowly put her hands in her pocket to hide her nervousness.

She didn't have any special abilities, so if the other side was someone with special abilities, she wouldn't be his match.

Jin Rong Feng's lips curled into a deep smile as he looked at Luo Qing Chen, "This beauty is....."

"Rong Feng.....I will be jealous if you look at other girls like this!" Liu Qi Duo's expression wasn't good, but she still forced out a smile and dug into his chest, "Although she is my friend, you can only look at me!"

Luo Qing Chen looked back at Liu Qi Duo. Whether it was her expression or action, she was a little white flower who cared about money, she was completely different from how she acted before the previous host died in her memories.

“She is your friend, so naturally she is also my friend.” Jin Rong Feng had a smile on his lips the entire time. After he said this, he slowly reached out his hand, “Hello, I am Jin Rong Feng.”

Seeing the other side reach their hand out, Luo Qing Chen felt a special tremble in her heart. Her sixth sense told her: Don’t take it, don’t take it, don’t take it.

Liu Qi Duo saw that Luo Qing Chen didn’t care at all and that unhappy look was like a flower blooming. She looked at her with a bright smile, “Qing Chen, I was just kidding. My boyfriend is your friend, I wanted to find some time to introduce you!”

This step was very good. To avoid awkwardness, she could make the man feel that she was a woman that didn’t mind.

Liu Qi Duo felt that she was quite smart for doing this.

When Luo Qing Chen felt that this situation was awkward and she had no choice but to reach her hand out, there was a familiar voice that came from behind her which had an endless coldness to it.

Chapter 1762: Hell envoy’s exclusive love appraiser (Part 11)

“What are you doing here?” Du Jiu Sheng softly pulled her to make her stand behind him as he looked at Jin Rong Feng with a deep gaze.

When Jin Rong Feng saw Du Jiu Sheng, his right hand came back like it had been shocked and the smile on his face disappeared.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows. Her first reaction was.....he knew Du Jiu Sheng.

“I.....I came to buy a few things and to temporarily move to the River Sea Apartments.....”

“Un.” Du Jiu Sheng took his right hand out of his pocket and his slender fingers gently took her wrist, “There’s nothing you need here, I’ll bring you somewhere else.”

She was a smart person, so naturally she understood what Du Jiu Sheng meant.

This place, the person in front of them didn’t have kind intentions.

“Alright.” Luo Qing Chen looked into his deep eyes before turning around with him.

Liu Qi Duo stomped her foot with a displeased look, “What is she doing! So rude, does she think that she’s that amazing because she looks good!”

When she was about to complain to Jin Rong Feng, his dark eyes had a red glow of hatred in them.

“You.....What’s wrong with you?” Liu Qi Duo took a step back in fear and hesitantly said, “Don’t be angry, I’m not actually that close with that person, we just work in the same office!”

She suddenly felt that Luo Qing Chen came to cause trouble, she didn't even give her face in front of this rich second generation!

Liu Qi Duo thought that Luo Qing Chen was jealous of her task, so she had been rude on purpose!

"Nothing." Jin Rong Feng looked back and that hatred in his eyes gradually disappeared. His lips curled into a playful smile as he asked, "Since she's your friend, you should have her contact information, right?"

Liu Qi Duo heard this and her expression changed. She proudly looked at him as she said, "How can you ask your girlfriend for the contact information of other girls? You're not afraid I'll be jealous?"

Liu Qi Duo's heart was filled with rage at this moment! Her body was countless times better than that Luo Qing Chen and even her appearance wasn't that bad. She had taken two whole days of eating, playing, and sleeping with this rich young master to get him!

In the end, she couldn't compare to Luo Qing Chen he just met?

She wasn't convinced, alright?

But even if her heart was angry, she couldn't show it! He was a rich second generation, she wasn't just a love appraiser, she also wanted to marry into a rich family.

"One million, I want all the contact information of that person just now." Jin Rong Feng narrowed his eyes and came closer to whisper in her ear, "I know what occupation you have, the more complete the information, the better."

"You....."

"If you're not willing, I can find someone else!"

"I can!" Liu Qi Duo gritted her teeth. Although she had an unwilling look, she still caved in front of money.

She cleared her throat and said, "In three days, I will give you all her information."

"Good. Let's not have dinner tonight, I'll bring you out on my yacht tomorrow afternoon." He raised his hand and his slender fingers brushed across Liu Qi Duo's lips as his lips curled into a smile that people sunk into.

In Liu Qi Duo's eyes, this rich second generation Jin Rong Feng had fallen in love with Luo Qing Chen at first sight.

But only Jin Rong Feng knew that girl was just like the person from six hundred years ago.....She looked exactly the same.

What he couldn't get six hundred years ago, if he couldn't get it six hundred years later, he would definitely destroy it with his own hands!

At the same time, Du Jiu Sheng went to the first floor holding Luo Qing Chen's wrist. It had been a sunny day without any clouds, but it suddenly started raining.

Luo Qing Chen followed behind him and never said a thing.

She felt that being held by him was very familiar and warm.

Although this world's Du Jiu Sheng was a bit cold.....

"That.....Where are we going?" Luo Qing Chen had a bit of a sparkle in her eyes.

"Back to the library." Du Jiu Sheng slightly knitted his brows, "Return the apartment you rented."

"Ah?"

"We provide staff dorms." Du Jiu Sheng turned to her, "You can choose from there."

That person just now definitely wasn't a human. If he wasn't wrong, it should be an undead possessing a person's body.

It wasn't a normal spirit, but rather a resentful spirit, one that had wandered in the world for hundreds of years.

Because his eyes were red.

"I'll live outside." Luo Qing Chen awkwardly said when she saw his cold look, "It's nearby, so it's convenient."

"Up to you." His reply was very casual without any waves.

Actually, she was a bit disappointed when he said this.

She had thought that he was still the Du Jiu Sheng who pampered and protected her.

But in reality, they weren't that close.

It should be because Du Jiu Sheng was this indifferent that every word made her unable to move forward.

If she had the system, she really wanted to know what her affection was right now.....

"Then am I going to the library now?" Luo Qing Chen changed the topic and looked at Du Jiu Sheng beside her.

His face didn't look that good. The rain that was falling down had turned to snow.

He turned to look at her, "You don't need to come tonight."

"Why? Is there someone else on duty?" She felt that Du Jiu Sheng knew something, but he didn't tell her.

"Yue Hong will come tonight, you can start work tomorrow."

As soon as his voice fell, he walked into the heavy snow without looking back until he disappeared at the end of the road.

She suddenly felt that she was very far from him.

When she came back to the high end apartment, although it was only a two bed and one living room, it wasn't cheap.

After all, this was a hotel style high end apartment, so even if she didn't buy anything, it was all here.

"Kou, kou, kou." As soon as she finished tidying up her bedroom, there was a knock on the door.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and felt a bit unsettled.

She suddenly missed the system very much. As expected, she was always more careful in a special world no matter what she did.

Not only did she carry her own life, she also carried Du Jiu Sheng's life.

Looking out the peephole, she saw a woman holding the hand of a little girl.

Luo Qing Chen opened the door with a sigh of relief before saying, "You are....."

"Hello, I live next door." The auntie gave her the basket of cherries in her hands before saying with a smile, "I saw you moving in, so I came to say hello."

"Hello, big sister." The little girl also greeted her.

Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle and patted her head. When she was about to praise her, her expression changed and she couldn't help taking a step back.

"Ah!" She called out, as the scene of the little girl dying in a car accident appeared in front of her.

It had been too fast and she didn't see it clearly.

If this was true, it meant that her ability to predict death and danger had improved.

Because she knew that the previous host didn't have this ability.

This little girl would die and she would die soon.

Chapter 1764: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 13)

But should she intervene?

She felt that everything in this world was strange.

Her ability, Du Jiu Sheng's identity, Jin Rong Feng and Liu Qi Duo.....

Although there were many things that she couldn't think through, she was certain that this definitely wasn't a normal world.

"Auntie, our family believes in Feng Shui." She looked at the little girl and said, "The children of the house shouldn't go out over the next two days."

The auntie was clearly a bit awkward hearing this, but since she came to greet her, even if she didn't understand what Luo Qing Chen meant, she just smiled and ended the conversation.

But Luo Qing Chen didn't sleep that night.

At the same time, at the Forgotten River Library.

Du Jiu Sheng went through all the undead who didn't enter the underworld in the last thousand years.

There were only three in S City.

Two men and one woman.

They all came from the same period, the Shang Dynasty from six hundred years ago.

It was a vengeful spirit that was close to a thousand years, the aura that it had was different from other spirits.

"Kou, kou, kou." There was another knock that came from Hong Yue.

Du Jiu Sheng ignored it and Hong Yue walked in seeing that no one answered.

"How long have you been in the study....." Hong Yue pursed her lips and sat in the chair in front of him, "You're not eating?"

"Our city has three spirits who never left, did you know about this?" Du Jiu sheng went straight to the point and skipped the pleasantries to ask Hong Yue this.

Hong Yue was surprised, but after thinking about it, she said, "There seemed to be three on the list from last year, but even Ming Si couldn't find them, so how could we normal envoys find them?"

Ming Si was the judge of hell and the manager of all the hell envoys.

"I met one of the vengeful spirits today." Du Jiu Sheng knitted his brows, "We can feel the aura of the dead on him and he wanted to shake hands with the living."

"Shake hands?" Hong Yue asked in a confused voice, "What can a spirit do by shaking hands with a human?"

"A normal spirit can't do this, but if a vengeful spirit shakes hands with a human, if that human was related to him in a past life, he can see it."

"This powerful!" Hong Yue had a look of disbelief, "This is even more powerful than granny Meng!"

Du Jiu Sheng didn't reply, but he had to admit that the other side had an ability that he didn't know about.

At that moment, Luo Qing Chen's figure strangely appeared in his hand.

And he was strangely a bit worried.....

He didn't like this feeling. He had no past or present life, he could never have a lover.

As an envoy of hell, Ming Si had told him before——

Hell envoys will experience a love tribulation every six hundred years.

If you passed it, you would be a hell envoy for six hundred years without worry.

If you couldn't.....the consequences would last forever.

This was the love tribulation that every hell envoy went through and most people passed it.

After all, comparing eternal love and short term love, very few people chose the former.

Du Jiu Sheng had also thought that he was the same.

Therefore, even if he had predicted that his love tribulation would appear, he never panicked.

But when he saw Luo Qing Chen, he could clearly feel himself.....panicking.

He couldn't stop himself from looking at her, walking in front of her, handing the black folder to her.

Everything was not in the scope of his plan.....

But his reasoning told him that he couldn't.....

As a hell envoy, he was very clear that if this love tribulation wasn't cut, they would both be in danger.

After all, there were a few predecessors that had chosen love and had left behind a painful lesson.

So he couldn't fall in love with her.....

Chapter 1765: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 14)

At half past five in the morning, Luo Qing Chen sat back down in front of her desk and began connecting the whole thing with the rough memories of the previous host.

Although there were some points that were only her guesses, she felt that it wasn't that different from the truth.

Luo Qing Chen felt that at this time, there should have been a very beautiful BGM to this.

According to the information on the web, Jin Rong Feng's personality was greatly different in the first seventeen years so following the normal pattern of the world——

One, he was an outsider or two, he was a spirit.

If she didn't have the memories of the previous host, Luo Qing Chen was more inclined towards the former, but now she was more inclined towards the latter.

The previous host and Jin Rong Feng must have known each other six hundred years ago and the one that they both knew was Liu Qi Duo.

It seems like Jin Rong Feng didn't reincarnate after dying six hundred years ago, he attached himself to a human body and lived in this world until now.

But she didn't know what happened between them six hundred years ago.

She just knew that the previous ghost died terribly, so it must have been a deep grievance.

She slept until the afternoon and what woke her wasn't the alarm, but rather her phone ringing.

It was an unknown number calling. She knitted her brows as she picked up.

"Hello."

"Hello, are you miss Luo Qing Chen?"

There was a voice with a faint evil charm. She could tell right away that the other side was Jin Rong Feng.

"Do you need something?" Her right hand gently touched her ear. Her expression was serious, but she pretended to speak in a calm voice.

"I know what industry you and Liu Qi Duo are in." Jin Rong Feng leaned back on the golden sofa and took a sip of his red wine. His lips that were stained red slightly curled as he said, "But I seem to like you better."

Jin Rong Feng's confession was very direct which made her heart tremble when she heard it.

Jin Rong Feng also had this attitude towards the previous host, but it was unknown how he got together with Liu Qi Duo after.

In her memories, Jin Rong Feng liked to kiss the back of her hand. Her heart trembled when she thought about it now.

"Ke, ke." Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat, "Mister Jin, since you know about our industry, you should know that you are not my client."

Luo Qing Chen's voice was very distant and Jin Rong Feng could hear this, but he didn't plan on giving up.

"Although it is like this, if I were with you, wouldn't that prove you're better than Liu Qi Duo?" Jin Rong Feng narrowed his eyes to look at Luo Qing Chen's information in his hand, "I've heard that you were fighting over the best love appraiser position, I can let you complete your task tomorrow."

Jin Rong Feng's voice wasn't soft or heavy, but each word was emphasizing something with a tempting tone.

"That really is funny, did mister Jin fall in love with me at first sight?" Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as a cold taunting tone filled her voice.

Since she couldn't avoid him, she wanted to see what this Jin Rong Feng wanted to do.

"If I said yes?"

"I'm sorry, I'm not willing." Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug and said with a faint smile, "As a professional love appraiser, the most important thing is to know when the task begins and ends."

"Interesting." His eyes relaxed as he revealed a faint smile, "Then how about we treat it as me treating this beauty to a meal?"

She could feel that Jin Rong Feng was eager to meet her and the memories from before her death flashed in her mind.

He wanted to kill her that much? Just what happened six hundred years ago?

"I'm busy recently, I don't have the time." Luo Qing Chen wanted to hang up, but his voice came from the other side again.

"You're not afraid that I will tell mister Du Jiu Sheng that you only approached him at the request of a client?" Jin Rong Feng's voice stopped being polite and there was a trace of a threat in there.

He knew Du Jiu Sheng's name, he had investigated him.....

"It's a pity that I'm not afraid." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a smile, "Mister Jin should enjoy the taste of being appraised!"

"Luo Qing Chen." His lips curled as a touch of a chill entered his eyes and he said, "Do you not want to know the identity of the person you're appraising?"

Chapter 1766: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 15)

"I don't want to know." Luo Qing Chen immediately replied before saying, "If there's nothing else, I'm hanging up."

As soon as her voice fell, she didn't wait for Jin Rong Feng to speak as she directly hung up.

For an entire afternoon, she investigated what happened six hundred years ago, which was in the Shang Dynasty.

By coincidence, there was someone called Jin Rong Feng. The ancient books describe him as a handsome and talented youth.

There was very little information on this Jin Rong Feng. It was only known that he was number one in school at age fifteen, but his family was cut down for an unknown reason.....

"Ah, wu, wu, wu, wu, how can it be like this, how can it be like this....."

When Luo Qing Chen was thinking, there was a restless voice that came from outside. When she opened the door, she saw the auntie from next door anxiously pressing the call elevator button.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and asked, "Auntie, did something happen?"

"My daughter and granddaughter got into an accident on the highway.....I.....I....." After saying this, it was like she was completely choked up.

With a tremble in her voice, she kept pacing.

Luo Qing Chen couldn't help thinking of the image she saw last night, the scene of the little girl in the pool of blood. In the end, she couldn't save her.

She didn't know what she should say, but at this time, the best thing should be 'don't worry, it'll be fine'.....

But she already knew that the little girl would die, so she really couldn't say anything.

"Ding dong." The elevator door slowly opened.

In the end, Luo Qing Chen said, "Be careful on the way, everything will be....."

Before she could finish, her eyes fell onto the person who came out of the elevator.

He was wearing a dark red coat with bright ruby studs in his ears. He had a bottle of red wine in his hand and an evil charming smile on his lips.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and slowly put her hands into her pocket.

Although she didn't know why, she felt that Jin Rong Feng really wanted to shake her hand in the department store that day.

There must be some reason that he had to shake her hand.

"It seems like your ability from the past hasn't changed." Jin Rong Feng shook the bottle of red wine in his hand as he walked towards her step by step, "Meeting again after such a long time, how about we have a glass? Oh, right, you shouldn't remember who I am!"

Actually, she was very flustered at this moment. It wasn't because of how strong the other side was, rather she didn't know the grudge between them at all.

"I'm sorry." She narrowed her eyes and without a single emotion on her face, she calmly said, "I have to go to work tonight, I'm not free."

Looking at her phone, it was half past seven. It would take exactly half an hour to get to the library.

Although this wasn't an excuse, this was a legitimate reason.

Jin Rong Feng didn't show any intentions of leaving. He went past her to her house and stopped in front of her door, raising his right hand and the closed door suddenly opened.

Without knowing why, she felt that there was a dangerous feeling in the air.

But she had to be calmer than ever because she didn't have any powers, didn't have the system, didn't have anything to resist the person in front of her.

She was like a god that had fallen to the mortal world. How could the powers of a mortal surpass a spirit, not to mention a six hundred year old vengeful spirit.

Chapter 1767: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 16)

Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug and said with a pretend relaxed smile, "Since mister Jin wants to invite me to a drink this much, you have to hurry because I really have to go to work."

As soon as her voice fell, she walked into her home with Jin Rong Feng behind her. His footsteps were very light, so she couldn't tell how far away he was.

When she was standing in front of the mirror, she saw the real Jin Rong Feng.

She didn't know what she was looking at, she just felt a chill from behind her.

The figures in the mirror overlapped, one of them was a ghost that had its head cut off and was covered in blood.

It should be that after six hundred years, the blood around the wound had already clotted and people's stomachs couldn't help churning when they saw it.

But Luo Qing Chen's expression didn't change at all as she turned to look at Jin Rong Feng and said, "Now that you are in here, mister Jin can speak as quickly as possible."

Jin Rong Feng saw how indifferent she was and his lips curled, "Since miss Luo is this forward, how about we go out to the balcony to talk?"

"I can't ask for that." Luo Qing Chen really didn't have time to spare with him, she had pretty much finished investigating what happened six hundred years ago.

The previous host and Jin Rong Feng definitely had a grudge that passed through the years and it was very deep.

"Can you shake hands with me?" Jin Rong Feng slowly put down the bottle of red wine and looked at her with his evil charming eyes, "I want to confirm something. It has been too long and it wouldn't be good to recognize the wrong person."

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows when she heard this and there was a dark glow over her clear eyes.

She didn't want to shake his hand, but she couldn't find another way to make him leave. The previous host's memories couldn't provide her with any more information since the ending had already changed since she came to this world.

She couldn't face him head on, but it wouldn't be good for her to shake his hand.

What to do, what to do, what to do.....

This was the first time she felt that all roads were blocked and there was no way to fight back.

"Isn't miss Luo thinking for too long?" Jin Rong Feng slowly moved towards her step by step with an aggressive look so she couldn't retreat at all.

Luo Qing Chen took two steps back and suddenly looked up, "I'm not considering anything, I just feel that your request is very unreasonable. This treasure.....won't do it!"

She couldn't give up her momentum when losing. Since she couldn't take care of the other side, she couldn't lose in terms of momentum!

"Un humph!" Jin Rong Feng gave a cold laugh, "Interesting."

"Zi, zi, zi, zi." The chandelier on the ceiling flickered while the lights in the living room dimmed.

Luo Qing Chen's first reaction to this was that her first A rank world was about to end in a GG!

She didn't know what punishment she would receive when she went back or if she would be directly turned to ashes. But she felt fortunate to know that at least Du Jiu Sheng could live well in this world.

Jin Rong Feng slightly raised his right hand and a black light pulled her wrist out of her pocket.

The palm that had the black energy reached out towards her hand.....

In an instant, there was a powerful blue glow that appeared in her right hand and instantly Jin Rong Feng was blasted away.

He took several steps back and bumped into the table, as the bottle of red wine fell to the ground.

Luo Qing Chen trembled and her eyes fell onto her right hand where the blue light turned into a single letter: Sheng.

Chapter 1768: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 17)

Jin Rong Feng knitted his brows and his smile disappeared.

At the same time, Du Jiu Sheng who was in the Forgotten River Library going through the list was stunned.

There was a strange feeling that filled his heart, he had never felt this feeling since becoming an envoy of hell.

Hong Yue sitting beside him was surprised. She knitted her brows as she asked in a worried voice, "What is it?"

Du Jiu Sheng's deep eyes had a faint cold glow as he looked at the palm of his right hand where there was a blue and white glow that had a single word: Qing.

So it turned out to be the calamity of the seniors.

Each hell envoy would have a love tribulation, Ming Si had said that this was something that every immortal person of the underworld had to experience.

He had to experience it and pass his own love tribulation.

Everyone asked him, "How can you safely pass your love tribulation?"

He said, "When the person's name appears in your palm, ignore it or it will be hard to pass the love tribulation."

Ming Si's meaning was very simple, the reason why the love tribulation is a love tribulation was because most people couldn't avoid it. The only way to solve it was to completely ignore the love tribulation when it appeared.

An envoy of hell didn't have memories, so putting away certain emotions was the best choice.

Actually, after seeing so many seniors undergo their tribulation, Du Jiu Sheng was very clear that what Ming Si meant was.....letting that person die.

But, he couldn't do that.....

He squeezed his right hand and closed his eyes before turning into a light blue mist and disappearing from the study.

"Jiu Sheng....." Hong Yue wanted to say something, but Du Jiu Sheng had already disappeared.

Actually, she knew that his love tribulation was coming. She felt something in her heart, but she couldn't do anything.

She knew that he wouldn't love her.

There was a wild wind and heavy snow outside. The snow fell down and as if going back in time, everything went back to six hundred years ago.

It had also been snowing when they first met. She was wearing a golden embroidered robe with a beautiful ivory fan in her hand, looking so enticing.

But the one that made him panic wasn't her, but rather the youth standing beside her.....

"Six hundred years, he can't protect you." Jin Rong Feng gritted his teeth and raised his right hand as the black smoke went towards her again.

The room suddenly lit up and there was a coldness that filled the air of the room, making one feel a chill!

"Kacha!" The door suddenly opened.

It wasn't the front door, but rather the bedroom. Du Jiu Sheng in his black sweater slowly came out. His eyes were completely cold and there was a light blue glow around his right hand.

Luo Qing Chen was stunned, not being able to react to this. Du Jiu Sheng came out of her bedroom just like this?

Jin Rong Feng narrowed those evil charming eyes and his lips curled, "It seems like many things can't change in the end, but this time God will definitely be on my side."

"A six hundred year old ghost is saying that 'God' will stand on your side, don't you find that funny?" Du Jiu Sheng moved instantly, going from the bedroom to in front of Luo Qing Chen. His eyes had an absolute chill as he looked right at Jin Rong Feng in front of him.

There was a heavy snowfall outside, as if it was following the anger that was in his heart.

Chapter 1769: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 18)

Jin Rong Feng looked at him like that, not taking a step back or daring to take a step forward.

After a few seconds, he gave a self-deprecating laugh as he said, "Du Jiu Sheng, you can't be this partial. Although she is your apprentice, she deserves death."

Luo Qing Chen's heart reached her throat when she heard this as her heart began beating fast.

If Jin Rong Feng wasn't lying, it meant that the previous host was his apprentice six hundred years ago.

Du Jiu Sheng's eyes didn't change at all because of Jin Rong Feng's words, it was still as cold as ever.

It was like in those deep eyes that no one could see the bottoms of, there was a kind of emotion.

Only he knew that his heart couldn't help skipping a beat and it was very strong.

"Envoy of hell calling on this spirit, Jin Rong Feng who died in the year two hundred and twenty five of the Shang Dynasty. Cause of death, being beheaded." Du Jiu Sheng changed the topic and coldly looked at him, "You should return to the underworld."

"It's a pity....." He covered his mouth as his eyes turned into crescents, looking at him with a demonic smile, "You can't take me away."

"As long as the cards of life and death come, I don't need to take you away. There can't be a spirit like you in this world, you will lose your place on the list of the underworld and will never enter reincarnation, staying in this world until your soul scatters." Du Jiu Sheng's voice was very cold, so cold that the room was covered in a layer of frost.

Jin Rong Feng gritted his teeth and said with a sad look, "Why are you protecting her? Didn't you regret it six hundred years ago? Why have you appeared again now?"

Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and her heart couldn't help trembling when she saw Jin Rong Feng's agitated look.

Perhaps what happened six hundred years ago was more complicated than she had imagined.

Du Jiu Sheng didn't show any interest in his words. He just coldly narrowed his eyes as he looked at Jin Rong Feng, "It seems like you want your soul to scatter."

As soon as his voice fell, there was a faint blue glow that appeared over Du Jiu Sheng's Netherworld Ring. After a few seconds, the blue glow became stronger and flew out in Jin Rong Feng's direction.

Jin Rong Feng was surprised as a chill appeared in his eyes. He felt a pain in his heart and abruptly took Du Jiu Sheng's blue glow.

However, his soul didn't scatter and he gave a wild laugh.

Du Jiu Sheng narrowed his eyes as his right hand moved Luo Qing Chen behind him, completely protecting her.

The moment his love tribulation appeared, he didn't even think or hesitate as he ran to Luo Qing Chen.

He didn't know he did this, but he knew that if this really was a tribulation, he strangely felt.....hopeful.

"I will curse you with the spirit of the fifty eight generations of the Jin Family. You will not die in this life and will fall into desperate reincarnation every life." Jin Rong Feng looked at Luo Qing Chen as he read this curse word for word.

This was a six hundred year old vengeful spirit, he accumulated all these generations of hatred and cursed with fifty eight generations.....

“Damn!” Du Jiu Sheng turned around and took her in his embrace.

The black vengeful energy surrounded them and entered her body. Du Jiu Sheng knitted his brows and the light blue glow surrounded her right palm, but it couldn’t stop this curse.

There were fragments that appeared in front of her eyes, fragments from the ancient times.

A young girl in a snow white robe, chasing after the butterflies with a smile.....

This scene jumped too quickly and there was no chance to see it all before it disappeared into the black vengeful energy.....

Chapter 1770: Hell envoy’s exclusive love appraiser (Part 19)

Luo Qing Chen felt like there was a large stone in her heart and found it a bit hard to breathe.

Jin Rong Feng was already gone and Du Jiu Sheng was standing in front of her, tightly holding her.

How long had it been since he hugged her like this? She didn’t know how many worlds it was that his tears became ice and his heart trembled like this.

“That.....”

Luo Qing Chen wanted to say something and Du Jiu Sheng gently let her go after he heard this.

His eyes fell onto her heart. The black vengeful energy that wasn’t visible to the eye had carried Jin Rong Feng’s curse into her life.

“This place isn’t safe, he will come back.” Du Jiu Sheng looked at her and said, “Pack up your things and follow me.”

His tone was as calm as before and he looked ice cold, not seeming to care or panicking at all. He was like an envoy of hell, using that status to protect humans.

No matter what happened next, he would have to wait and see.

Those indifferent eyes, if it was said that she wasn’t disappointed at all, it would be a lie.

After packing up her things, she entered into Beetle. He really was an envoy of hell that had lived for six hundred years, even his choice of cars was old fashioned.

“We’re going to the staff dormitory?” Luo Qing Chen asked with knitted brows, “That person doesn’t feel like he’s easy to deal with, it might be dangerous for others.”

Luo Qing Chen’s words weren’t because she was a saint, it was because she didn’t have the ability to protect them. Second, Jin Rong Feng wasn’t a person, but rather a powerful spirit, so it was easy for him to kill anyone.

“You don’t need to worry.” Du Jiu Sheng said, “They aren’t people.”

.....

Luo Qing Chen's expression froze and there was a strange awkwardness in the air.

"Not to mention that you won't be living in the staff form." Du Jiu Sheng saw that she didn't speak for a long time, so he didn't forget to add this.

Luo Qing Chen was surprised as she looked over at him, "Then.....where?"

"The third floor of the library, except for the last room, you can choose any other place." Du Jiu Sheng raised his right hand and there was a blue glow that appeared on the wheel, automatically driving it. He turned to her and said, "Of course, that depends on if you agree."

Du Jiu Sheng gave her the feeling of a gentleman, with a bit of unfamiliarity.

He was like an outsider, other than being cold towards Jin Rong Feng, he was indifferent to her.....

But that hug just now, it made her feel the warmth and passion.

What was the meaning of this hug for Du Jiu Sheng? Could it simply be the envoy of hell wanting to protect a human?

After thinking for a few seconds, her lips curled into a faint smile, "I feel that it's better to listen to you! After all, last time I said that I wanted to live outside, something really did happen."

"Un." He softly said before not giving any other response.

Actually, no one knew how confused he was at this moment.

He actually let his love tribulation enter the library, wasn't this clearly telling Ming Si that he made his choice?

But without knowing why, he strangely wanted to be by her side. He could do nothing else, he just wanted to be by her side.....

When they came back to the library, it was already half past eight.....

Lan Fan was already waiting outside for them and ten meters away stood a Hong Yue.
