Chapter 1801: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 50)

Jin Rong Feng and Hong Yue's deal went smoothly and Luo Qing Chen and Du Jiu Sheng's wedding also went very smoothly.

The bridal room was a heaven of pink, which he had spent an entire day personally building.

Because she called herself his disciple, that meant that she was still a child.

He would always remember the sparkle in her eyes when she said this, with a bit of coquettishness in her voice.

It was almost as if it was her first time.....acting like this.

"How about it....." Du Jiu Sheng had her in his arms in a princess carry. His eyes were filled with love as he placed a soft kiss on her forehead, "Do you like it?"

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a faint smile, "Un, I'll give you eleven points! You won't be too proud with an extra point!"

He softly patted her head and waved his hand, as the room suddenly lit up.

Then he revealed a slightly annoyed look as he asked, "Why aren't you surprised that your husband is this powerful?"

Actually, he already wanted to ask this question. It was fine for a hell envoy, but he could change the weather with a wave of his hand.

He could do all the things that normal people couldn't do.

Spiritual illusions, teleporting, and everything else. But the strange thing was.....his wife had never been surprised by this at all.

It was as if everything was normal in her eyes, like she had once possessed these abilities.

"Surprised....." Luo Qing Chen curled her lips into a faint smile and said, "Why would I be surprised!"

What was there to be surprised about, she could also summon wind and rain before. The skills that she had were teleportation, mind control, space and time freeze.....

"It seems like our family's wife has seen many great worlds!" Du Jiu Sheng gave a chuckle as he placed her gently on the bed.

There was a faint floral fragrance in the air and thousands of petals danced outside, falling one by one.

She trembled slightly as a blush appeared on her face, spreading all the way to her ears.

"I.....Of course I've seen many great worlds....." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and looked outside,

"Look.....Over there, over there.....So many flower petals! Super beautiful.....Wu....."

Before she could finish, Du Jiu Sheng had already fallen down on her. With a gentle lingering coldness, it wrapped up around her.

She could feel her heart beating fast as her blood began to boil.

This was Du Jiu Sheng, who had protected her twice and lost his life twice.

"Are you afraid?" He gently placed a kiss on her forehead as he looked at her with deep affection.

At that moment, she could feel all his love and it seemed to come from his life, using it to deeply love her.

"Of course not!" She looked up into his deep eyes, "I am powerful, you.....you should be afraid."

What was she saying?!

When she said this, there was an inexplicable regret in her heart!

Could she casually say this? This reserved young girl?

"Un." Du Jiu Sheng revealed a faint smile when he heard this and he had a look of understanding, "This is good!"

He was afraid.....that she couldn't take it.....

After all, in his eyes, she really was like a babe.

"You.....I.....I'm not afraid.....But I'm nervous!"

He gently patted her head, "Don't be nervous, just leave it all to me."

Chapter 1802: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 51)

The emptiness filled as the insects chirped in the night.

It was the best moment in this life, from the youthful times entering the halls of happiness.

Even if she knew that there was a mountain that they couldn't cross in front of them, she could still indulge in this night.

Hong Yue came back to the library three days later. Du Jiu Sheng went to A City to pick up over thirty spirits who died in an avalanche and wasn't in S City.

Luo Qing Chen didn't know that Hong Yue came since a hell envoy had many ways not to be detected by a human.

But she could see that the danger was coming, only the picture that she saw was very vague.

Moreover, she didn't know why she could hear the sound of a baby crying. It came from very far away, but it was very clear.

"Sister in law, what is it? Your face doesn't look good!" Lan Fan raised his right hand and waved it in front of her.

Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes and wiped the sweat from her forehead, "I saw another image."

"What?" Lan Fan was surprised before saying, "I'll call big brother and let him come back."

"Let me think." She took a deep breath as a sparkle appeared in her eyes, "If he leaves his post without authorization, he should be seriously punished!"

She couldn't help thinking of what he looked like last time, he must have been punished.

Lan Fan gave a sigh, "Actually, I'm not that clear on this either, but the rules are very strict. Big brother is not someone who talks about this, so I don't know about the specific details."

"Wait for him to come back." Luo Qing Chen slightly knitted her brows, "I won't leave over the next few days, it should be fine."

"Un, I won't go out either!" Lan Fan revealed a sunny smile, "Relax! While big brother and Ye Mu aren't here, I will protect sister in law!"

Night gradually came and there was a black bead on the table by her bed, but she didn't notice it at all.

She had a very strange dream. There was a young boy who was around five to six years old, with familiar eyes that were as deep as the sea.

He gently took her hand and said with a serious look, "I will protect you, forever."

"Peng!" There was a loud sound that interrupted her dream. She felt her body lose all strength and it was even hard to breathe.

There was a strong blue glow that came from the Evil Breaking Jade around her and the entire library started trembling.

Lan Fan quickly charged up the stairs and shouted, "Sister in law Qing Chen! Sister in law Qing Chen!"

Luo Qing Chen laid there in the bed, wanting to say something, but not having the energy to do so. It was like all the energy in her body was drained and she was suffocating.

She wanted to breathe, but she felt the oxygen wouldn't enter her body.

Why? Just what was this?

If Jin Rong Feng approached the library, she could instantly sense it. Not to mention that it was impossible for him to enter this room with the Evil Breaking Jade.

"Peng!" The door was suddenly slammed open.

Lan Fan looked at Luo Qing Chen with her pale face and weak breathing and charged forward to say with gritted teeth, "Can you still walk?"

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and her clear eyes were a bit bloodshot, as she used all her strength to shake her head.

This was her first time not knowing how she would die. Her head just felt very heavy and it was very hard to breathe.

There was the sound of glass shattering as the Evil Breaking Jade around her were smashed and the entire library fell into darkness.

Chapter 1803: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 52)

Jin Rong Feng's voice rang in her ears with the evil charming tone, shaking her soul.

She seemed to remember everything that had happened six hundred years ago.

The previous host was the beloved princess of the emperor and Du Jiu Sheng was the youth that everyone admired.

The previous host liked him, Jin Rong Feng liked him, even Hong Yue liked him.....

But there were different kinds of liking. Only the previous host was justified, Jin Rong Feng and Hong Yue's liking were wrong.

But Hong Yue still liked him and used every method to talk to him.

It was a pity that no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't surpass the previous host.

Could it be because of her status? She wouldn't accept it! The jealous heart drove her to take revenge on the previous host, turning her into a villain and trying to cause her death.

Therefore she devised a plan to kill Liu Qi Duo and the fifty eight members of the Jin Family.

Six hundred years ago, on the final day Jin Rong Feng was in jail, because the previous host was sick, she asked Hong Yue to beg the emperor on her behalf to take back the order to execute the Jin Family.

But even her getting sick was part of Hong Yue's plan.

As her mind was filled with chaos and she found it harder and harder to breathe, when she thought that she was about to die, her stomach suddenly jumped up and the weak feeling slowly dissipated from her body.

She suddenly opened her eyes and clutched her chest as she began panting.

"How is this possible? How is this.....possible!" Jin Rong Feng looked at Luo Qing Chen who was about to die suddenly come back to life in disbelief.

There wasn't Du Jiu Sheng's aura around, so how did she awaken?!

There was a "peng" sound by the bed as that black bead rolled down and all the dark energy disappeared.

"Impossible, impossible!" Jin Rong Feng screamed out like a madman as his entire body seemed like it was about to explode.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as the strength in her body slowly recovered. She felt a warm feeling in her stomach that kept giving her strength.

Up to this point, she had never felt this feeling before.....

“What do you want to do?” Lan Fan stood in front of her and warily looked at him, “How did you get in here!”

The library had been built for many years now and he had never seen an evil spirit come in this place without being led by a hell envoy.

Not to mention a hundred year old spirit.....

“I naturally had the help of an expert!” Jin Rong Feng made himself calm down as he looked at Luo Qing Chen with a smile, “You can either follow me obediently or.....don’t blame me for sending this kid to the underworld.”

“Help of an expert?” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as they revealed a smile of disdain, “Hong Yue, right?”

Only Hong Yue who was also a hell envoy coming into the library would escape Du Jiu Sheng’s notice. She could smoothly come into her room and place that unknown object.

It seemed like the light of the sin would never disappear.

Even after six hundred years.....

“You’re quite smart.” Jin Rong Feng had a cold smile. His eyes were already purple red and since his deadline was coming, he had already started losing human form.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows as she reached under the bed for the handle of the sword she bought from the market. She narrowed her cold eyes and said, “But you are stupid.”

“He, he, he, he.....” He coldly laughed a few times before saying, “You want to escape with a broken sword and you’re saying I’m stupid, it can’t be the you turned into a fool from fright, right!”

“Who killed Liu Qi Duo six hundred years ago, who was the black hand that fell over the fifty eight people of your Jin Family, you’re the one who’s the fool!” Luo Qing Chen’s right hand tightly held the sword. Even if it wasn’t the Phoenix Dance Sword, she still felt a bit safer holding it.

Chapter 1804: Hell envoy’s exclusive love appraiser (Part 53)

“What do you mean?” Jin Rong Feng heard this and he narrowed his dark red and purple eyes, staring at her with a fierce look, “It’s too late to be afraid of death now.”

“Un humph?” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her cold eyes and revealed an ice cold smile, “Could it be that Hong Yue is unfamiliar to you?”

“Hong Yue?” Jin Rong Feng narrowed his eyes and looked a bit confused.

When he saw this hell envoy, he felt that she was a bit familiar, but it was just being a bit familiar.

After all, he had seen too many people in six hundred years. If he really had seen her before, it wouldn’t be strange.

But why did Luo Qing Chen bring up this person?

"She was the main protagonist six hundred years ago." Luo Qing Chen looked at Hong Yue who slowly approached the room with cold eyes.

As expected, even if time passed, the darkness in her heart would never fade.

"You're slandering people." Hong Yue came over step by step before firmly standing beside Jin Rong Feng, "Why haven't you killed her yet, he'll be here soon."

"You're right." Jin Rong Feng's eyes turned cold as he looked at Luo Qing Chen, "It's a pity that no matter what you say, I don't believe a single word!"

As soon as his voice fell, there was a black energy that flew out in her direction.

Luo Qing Chen pushed Lan Fan aside and wanted to raise the sword to block it, but this power was even stronger than when she faced Jin Rong Feng last time.

There was a sweet taste in her mouth as she spat out blood.

"You want to block me with a broken sword, aren't you overestimating yourself?" He gave a cold laugh. He gathered all his power to attack Luo Qing Chen as he muttered, "Die!"

"Xiu, xiu, xiu." There was a blue glow that appeared in front of her and Luo Qing Chen could feel the blue light on her right hand becoming stronger.

But what was the most dazzling was Du Jiu Sheng in front of her and the water blue glowing Netherworld Sword in his hand.

"Jiu Sheng, you....." Hong Yue looked at that sword in disbelief as she was frozen in place.

This was the Netherworld Sword, the divine sword of the underworld. Even Ming Si had never touched this sword before, but now it was in Du Jiu Sheng's hand.

"The heavens and earth, the ghost and spirits, Netherworld Curse." Du Jiu Sheng narrowed his eyes as all warmth disappeared from his eyes.

He looked at Jin Rong Feng like this as he softly said, "I vow to fall into the underworld forever....."

"Jiu Sheng, don't!"

"Du Jiu Sheng!"

Hong Yue and Luo Qing Chen spoke at the same time, but they couldn't move at all even if they wanted to.

The powerful blue light was like a barrier that protected Luo Qing Chen and the Netherworld Sword in his hand stabbed out at Jin Rong Feng.

The blue light penetrated his chest and spread bit by bit.

He was filled with pain, but his smile was that bright. The memories of the past flooded his eyes and there was the smell of blood and rot that mixed in the air.

“Actually.....If I knew that you would exchange your life for mine, I might have.....given up.....” His voice was filled with self ridicule as he tightly grasped Du Jiu Sheng’s Netherworld Sword, “You.....Why do you like her this much?”

This time, Du Jiu Sheng wasn’t silent as his eyes calmly looked at Jin Rong Feng, “Because she isn’t the Luo Qing Chen from six hundred years ago, she is the person I am waiting for.”

Chapter 1805: Hell envoy’s exclusive love appraiser (Part 54)

When all lives come to an end, when all stories suddenly stop.

He saw a man desperately crying out and a woman with eyes that had completely collapsed.

It seemed like nothing had changed.

Du Jiu Sheng used the Netherworld Sword to personally take care of Jin Rong Feng, then he was rushed back into the underworld by Ming Si.

Before leaving, he only had a single hour left which he used to talk to Luo Qing Chen alone.

This was a farewell that didn’t seem very sad, but sadness had seeped into the bones.

Luo Qing Chen looked into his eyes like this and could feel that Du Jiu Sheng would be leaving soon, leaving forever.....

“Do you blame me?” There was a faint blue glow on his right hand as he softly touched her cheek.

Luo Qing Chen wanted to say something, but tears burst out.....

She couldn’t protect herself, she felt extremely helpless in each world.

She shook her head and wanted to say something, but he kissed her.

Just a touch that was a bit cold.....

“Don’t blame me, alright?” Du Jiu Sheng looked into her clear eyes and revealed a loving smile, “This was the best way to protect you and our child.”

Luo Qing Chen’s eyes popped out as they filled with surprise. She suddenly remembered that dream, when she was about to die, there was a cold and childish voice.

So it was.....her child.

“But.....where will you go?” Luo Qing Chen looked into his eyes as tears continued to fall from hers.

“To a very far away place, but I can still protect you.” He didn’t want to see her cry at all. Every time she cried, there would be a strange image in his mind.

That sad and heartbreaking image.....

“I don’t need you to protect me!” She desperately shook her head, “I just want you to live, no matter where, just live.....just live.....just live.....”

"Fool!" He gave a chuckle and softly kissed her eyes before saying in a loving voice, "Don't worry about me, aren't I still in front of you?"

"You don't understand, you don't understand....." Luo Qing Chen looked at him and said in a choked up voice, "You don't understand what has happened between us, you don't understand that you left me like this before....."

How could he understand that he had died every time, leaving her alone!

How could he understand that the one left behind will always hurt the most!

Because she had two loves and two misses.....

"I know....."

Seeing her cry like this, his eyes couldn't help turning red. Those tears that he never thought that he would have were falling down.

Crystal clear with his eternal love.....

"I'm not talking about six hundred years ago!"

"I know." Du Jiu Sheng gently took her in his embrace and softly patted her back, "Did you forget? I am a hell envoy."

As soon as his voice fell, he waved his right hand and a light blue glow surrounded it, causing the Qing character on it to light up.

He slowly put his right hand into her right hand and said with a gentle smile, "I've always wanted to know what has happened between us before."

He wanted to know more than anyone about those memories that belonged to them.....

"You....." Luo Qing Chen's heart skipped a beat and her empty mind was flooded with memories.

Two worlds, the equally exceptional and equally loving Du Jiu Sheng.....who had died twice for her!

Chapter 1806: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 55)

All the memories flashed in her mind bit by bit, with a bit of sweetness and deep sadness.

Life passed by in vain, continuing to grow.

Wishing for a perfect time with trees in full bloom.

The brilliant days, but the splendor was gone.

Whether it was the past life or this life.

This was probably mine and her final ending.....

The scene changed and he was the big brother and she was the little sister.

But he was still Du Jiu Sheng and she was still Luo Qing Chen.

The cause of the past decides the future.

In the first cycle of time, you gave your life for me.

In the second cycle of time, I am still waiting for you to come back.

He said that it was enough to kiss her in the morning and die in the evening.

And now it was already their third life.

There was finally a time where he didn't die in her embrace.

But this kind of difference was even more painful.

"So from before to now, I loved you this much....." Du Jiu Sheng softly patted her head, "But I still feel that current Du Jiu Sheng loves Luo Qing Chen more."

From the first day he became a hell envoy, he never thought that he would love anyone.

He was a cold person without a lover, without friends, without any memories.

Even his own name was told to him by Ming Si.

He felt that nothing in this world had anything to do with him and he always felt that he would exist in boredom for over a thousand years.

Until Luo Qing Chen appeared and changed everything for him.

There was a strange feeling of wanting to stay by her side, passing every month, every day with her.

He pursed his lips and revealed a faint smile, "Because I can't let my past selves steal the spotlight!"

"Du Jiu Sheng....." She looked at him and her voice choked up so much that she couldn't speak in full sentences. The tears covered her lashes as she looked at him, "You will live, right? You will live properly, right?"

No matter where, it was fine as long as he was alive. It didn't matter if he wasn't by her side or if he protected her, it didn't even matter.....if he forgot about her.

As long as he could live, that was fine.

"Un." He gave a slight nod and said in a pampering voice, "I won't let you worry. I will live on no matter how difficult it is."

As soon as his voice fell, he looked at the clock on the wall before softly patting her head, "I need to leave."

"Then....." Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and wiped the tear from her face, "Then hug Qing Chen! I will wait for you with the child, whether it is this life or the next."

The appearance of this child might be an accident or it might be fate.

But it would become the deepest bond in their lives.

He kissed her forehead and tightly held her as he patted her back, "Good, I'm just a bit unwilling to leave you....."

Du Jiu Sheng never would have known that Luo Qing Chen's tense emotions had collapsed when he said this.

She fell in his embrace and cried.

The sad crying filled the library and the people passing by couldn't help feeling sad.

There was no hesitation in their love, there was never any betrayal.

But they could only choose to part every time because they wanted to protect each other.

She would never forget the day that he left, the snow filled the sky and all the flowers bloomed brightly.

It seemed like the world was sad about their parting and also moved by their love.

[Ding, congratulations to the host on finishing the mission.]

Chapter 1807: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 56)

After Du Jiu Sheng left, she slept for three whole days. There were many scenes that appeared in her dreams. A sea of flames and an ice cold mountain.

It seemed to be the final floor of the underworld and there were ghosts and ghost flames all over.

The youth was covered in blood, but there was an ice cold look in his deep eyes that normal people didn't have.

There were some that said that he was struggling to prove his strength and there were some that said it was for the one he loved.

Only he knew what the obsession in his heart was.

Never dying, an obsession that lasted forever.

Ming Si came to see her once after Du Jiu Sheng left. Luo Qing Chen thought that there was a better turn in Du Jiu Sheng's matter, but she didn't expect that the news Ming Si brought her was that Hong Yue had escaped.

Hong Yue as a hell envoy had been lost in the Ten Thousand Ghost Caves and Ming Si thought that she should be able to find her.

"Ten Thousand Ghost Caves.....What kind of place is that?" Luo Qing Chen slightly knitted her brows in confusion.

After all, this was the twenty-first century and this kind of fantasy sounding name was a bit off.

"This is a place that can't be seen in the human world, but I'm certain that her disappearance is greatly related to Jiu Sheng." Ming Si's eyes had a bit of a sparkle in them as he looked at her and said, "Jiu Sheng used such a price to protect the safety of you mother and child, so we can't let Hong Yue find any loopholes."

"Un humph?" Luo Qing Chen couldn't help giving a laugh before shaking her head and muttering, "Ming Si's words are interesting, what can I protect myself with? Using my bare hands against a hell envoy with powers? If it was you, you can't do it either!"

Actually, Luo Qing Chen had unspeakable grievances in her heart. Du Jiu Sheng had done all this to keep her and the child safe.

If the people of the underworld actually let this hell envoy enter the world and threaten her life....

"Don't worry, we will find her as soon as possible." Ming Si looked at her with dim eyes with a bit of indescribable feeling in his heart.

After all, he had been their witness.

After all, Du Jiu Sheng was his best subordinate.

As the minister of the underworld, there were some things that had to happen that he couldn't change, he could only let them happen.

"I hope so." Luo Qing Chen looked away and tried to control her emotions as she said with sparkling eyes, "Is he.....still alright?"

When she asked this, she felt her heart suddenly skip a beat.

She wanted to hear the answer, but also didn't dare.

She was afraid.....that the answer would make her collapse.

"Relax, it's Du Jiu Sheng." Ming Si gave a chuckle, "Jiu Sheng who has lived a hundred lives, endlessly reincarnating, he has never been afraid of anything."

"That's good." Luo Qing Chen looked up as the tears in her eyes entered her heart.

After a while, she looked at Ming Si and said, "I hope that you can find Hong Yue as soon as possible. I will do all I can to protect myself and the child during this time."

"Alright, I'll do it as soon as possible."

"Thank you." Luo Qing Chen had a faint gleam in her eyes as her right hand touched her stomach, "I still have to go to the hospital, I won't send you off."

"Be careful on the way." Ming Si looked at Ye Mu standing not far away, "As for the princess' guard six hundred years ago, I might have to take him away."

"I won't go." Ye Mu immediately looked right at Ming Si when he heard this, "I want to stay here and protect Qing Chen."

"No." Ming Si shook his head and decisively rejected him.

Chapter 1808: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 57)

"Sir Ming Si, I know that this is hard on you, but....."

"I can not take you away." Ming Si looked at him and said, "But all your sins will be borne by your parents who just passed in a car crash, or perhaps your physical body's parents."

Ye Mu was surprised as he revealed an awkward look. He silently looked at Luo Qing Chen and wanted to say something, but she cut him off.

"Go back!" Luo Qing Chen shook her head, "You won't be a match for Hong Yue even if you stay."

"But I can't leave you alone....."

"I'm not alone!" Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a faint smile, "I have the child."

She believed that with her power, she would always be able to protect him.

In the end, Luo Qing Chen sent Ye Mu off.

He had stayed in the world for too long and his days of wandering must have been hard.

That knight that protected her for six hundred years, she couldn't rely on him any longer.

Without knowing why, since Du Jiu Sheng and Ye Mu left the library, there were even fewer people who came to the library. There were even times when there wasn't a single person there.

Lan Fan said that these weren't people, but rather spirits.

But when they were in the library, humans like them could also see these spirits.

Luo Qing Chen thought about it and felt that this was quite accurate.

At the same time, in the Ten Thousand Ghost Cave.

Hong Yue had used seven months to swallow the energy of the fierce ghosts, finally turning herself from a hell envoy to a six hundred year old vengeful ghost.

At this time, she was several times stronger than Jin Rong Feng had been.

Of course, she had also met a partner. The most powerful ghost in the Ten Thousand Ghost Cave, the Headless Ghost.

He was different since his head was pinned to his pants, which looked very terrifying.

"I don't understand, in the eyes of us ghosts, you were a high ranking hell envoy, so why did you want to become a ghost?" The Headless Ghost reached out his tongue and wanted to lick Hong Yue, but she moved to the side.

"I urge you not to provoke me, or you won't have a good end." Hong Yue's dark purple eyes looked at him as a thick killing intent came from her.

"Big sister, my big sister, isn't this that you're too beautiful that I can't hold back my desires?" The Headless Ghost cleared his throat, "Don't be angry! Whoever you want to kill, I will go through fire and water for you."

Hong Yue narrowed her eyes, "I want to kill a human."

"Ai, a human?" The Headless Ghost gave two laughs, "Any ghost in the Ten Thousand Ghost Cave can take this human's life, why are you going through all this....."

"What do you know?" Hong Yue gritted her teeth, "There's already a restriction on that library and even before you ghosts from the Ten Thousand Ghost Cave approach, you'll be brought to the underworld by the hell envoys."

She gave a snort as a black energy covered her hand, "As for why I turned from a hell envoy to a ghost, that is because every hell envoy is tracked by the underworld. As long as I am still a hell envoy, Ming Si will know where I am no matter where I go."

Then she wouldn't even have a chance to touch a single hair on Luo Qing Chen's head. If that was the case, she would rather give up this status as a hell envoy.

That girl was actually pregnant with Du Jiu Sheng's child, she wasn't qualified to give birth to this child.

He was so noble and she was so lowly.

She definitely.....had to kill their child and slowly torture Luo Qing Chen to death!

This was her only mission after becoming a ghost!

Chapter 1809: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 58)

The winter snow gradually melted as snow came and the snow over the past few months had finally stopped.

This was the most incredible year for humans because the snow had lasted for six months in S City.

When she opened her window, Luo Qing Chen felt the warm breeze blow across her face.

Without knowing why, there was a feeling of greed.

It was like he was still by her side, it was that warm.

She and Lan Fan had gone from the fantasy world of ghosts to the normal world. There weren't any strange things that happened and each day passed by peacefully.

But she knew in her heart that everything wasn't over yet.

Because Hong Yue still hadn't been found.

Ming Si had never appeared again. He had said that if he appeared again, it meant that Hong Yue was found. If he didn't appear, then she would still have to be vigilant.

Actually, she had always been vigilant.

It wasn't just for her, but also for her most important child.

"Kou, kou, kou."

"Come in." Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and forced her lips to raise. Don't feel bad, she knew that it wasn't good for the baby.

Normally speaking, Lan Fan was the only one who came to see her during this time.

"Sister in law, quickly eat today's seafood porridge." Lan Fan brought a bunch of lilies over and placed them in front of her window, "Sister Lin made some wild black chicken soup today, so you have to drink a few more bowls later! It'll be good for my nephew!"

After saying the second half, he didn't forget to touch Luo Qing Chen's nine month pregnant stomach.

The due date would be in another week and since Du Jiu Sheng wasn't here, Lan Fan took it on himself to take care of Luo Qing Chen.

After all, if it wasn't for him in the beginning, there would be many things that would be different.

"Got it!" Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle, "It's been hard on you during this time."

"No, no." Lan Fan awkwardly scratched his head, "I feel that I should do it for big brother....."

He and Luo Qing Chen trembled at the same time as a sad look appeared in their eyes.

Luo Qing Chen recovered faster than him and said with a sweet smile, "He would be very happy if he knew."

"Sorry, I shouldn't have mentioned it." Lan Fan stopped smiling and apologized to her with a serious look.

He knew what kind of feelings Luo Qing Chen and Du Jiu Sheng had, he also knew that she seemed happy during this time for their children.

Just that no one knew just what kind of feelings she had deep inside her heart.

"No, you should mention it more." Luo Qing Chen looked down a bit as she revealed a faint smile, "Otherwise I don't know anyone else who is tied to him, at least you and I know that he existed."

"Sister in law Qing Chen....." Lan Fan revealed a cheerful smile, "Big brother really is blessed to meet you."

"No." Luo Qing Chen slowly looked up with a bit of a sparkle in her eyes, "It was my blessing to meet him."

Whether it was the first, the second, or the third Du Jiu Sheng, whether he had his memories or not.

His love for her had never changed, it was always that passionate and persistent.

Even in the end, he put himself in a place that was like hell to exchange for her peace.

Neither she or Du Jiu Sheng knew that the true danger was still slowly coming.

Hong Yue had been waiting, waiting for when she left the library to personally kill her.

And she finally had that opportunity on the day she went into labour.

Chapter 1810: Hell envoy's exclusive love appraiser (Part 59)

In October, the first heavy snowfall in S City began.

The snow was very heavy and the sky was gloomy.

This weather made Luo Qing Chen strangely unsettled and she kept feeling that something was about to happen.

Lan Fan came into the delivery room with her, encouraging her and cheering her on.

She gave a nod and nervously looked at the ceiling.

This was her first time experiencing this. It never happened in all the other worlds and happened in this third special world.

What made her even more curious was that the system had never shown up after telling her that the mission was complete.

She thought that everything would end soon, but she didn't know that the final duel was about to come.

Lying on the bed, the voices of the doctor and nurses kept ringing in her ears.

She knew that it wasn't sincere, she just knew that they kept cheering her on.

In the end, after five hours, she heard the crying of her child.

Her heart that was high in her chest had finally fallen down.

It was snowing very heavily outside, but the warm flowers of spring bloomed the moment that the child arrived.

"Wa, so handsome!"

"Those eyes, that nose! I've been delivering kids for thirty years, but I've never seen such a cute baby!"

"Truly beautiful, but the mother is such a beauty, so this is normal!"

.....

The sounds of chatter filled her ears, they were all praising her child.

Actually, she wanted to say that the father looked even better.

Not only was he the best looking man in the world, she was also the most outstanding man who treated her the best.....

It was a pity that he had gone to a very far away place. If he could see this child being born, then that fact that was like an iceberg that never changed would definitely reveal a faint smile.

Her mind couldn't help thinking of that young man's smile.

That beautiful, that moving.

"Peng, peng!"

When she was immersed in her memories, there was a large sound that came from the corridor of the hospital.

The lamps on the ceiling shook before the entire hospital began to tremble.

"What is it? Did something happen?" The nurse holding the baby was just a bit nervous. After all, this was a newborn, so she was afraid of making a mistake.

Luo Qing Chen could feel her heart beating fast, she could clearly tell that danger was approaching.

She suddenly sat up in the bed and narrowed her eyes as she muttered, "Hong Yue."

"You.....How are you awake?" The doctor who delivered the baby was surprised before quickly saying to the nurse beside him, "Send the mother downstairs first, I think that it should be an earthquake!"

"It isn't an earthquake." Luo Qing Chen knit her brows and clenched her right fist. She looked at the surprised nurse and said, "Give me my child. You should leave, get as far away as possible."

"This.....What are you saying! How can the medical staff just....."

"Quickly leave if you don't want to die." Luo Qing Chen looked at the light blue barrier outside the window, "She is a ghost from the Ten Thousand Ghost Cave and she is coming for me."

It seemed like Hong Yue really went to the Ten Thousand Ghost Cave as Ming Si said and changed from a hell envoy to a ghost.

"Ah, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha!" There was a sharp laughter that rang out through the hospital.

Everyone around her was surrounded by a cloud of black energy before falling to the ground.
