Chapter 1981: Master, please step up (Part 18)

"It's me, it's me, it's me." Lin Xiao Xiao awkwardly scratched the back of his head as he muttered, "The math teacher is so handsome, what do I do if I want to go gay for him!"

"What?"

"No.....Nothing!" Lin Xiao Xiao immediately said, "Teacher, you can speak!"

"That, teacher Gong....." The beautiful teacher appeared at the door and led a teenager over before saying to him, "Please wait a minute, I'll introduce this new transfer student to them first because I still have a meeting later."

Xu Wei's cheeks were a bit flushed as her heart was beating fast. She had only graduated from university three years ago and although she was several years older than this man in front of her, people liked older women.

If this young genius teacher was willing.....she could also.....

"Teacher Xu....."

"Teacher Xu....."

"Teacher Xu....."

"Oh! Sorry!" Hearing the charming voice call her three times, Xu Wei came back to her senses. She walked to the front of the class and said, "This is the new classmate that just transferred in, everyone welcome him with some applause."

"Pa, pa, pa.....Pa....."

The warm applause stopped when he came in. It was a slightly chubby youth with a round face, small eyes, a sunken nose, and fat lips. His hair was naturally curly which made it look a bit fluffy.

"Hello everyone, I am Gong Zi Yang."

?!

His voice wasn't bad, it was gentle with a bit of smoothness to it. When he spoke, Luo Qing Chen felt it was strangely familiar.

She felt like she had heard this voice somewhere?

[Host, don't you think that this name is very familiar?]

Name?

Three seconds later, Luo Qing Chen's eyes opened wide. She looked over the round person in front again and thought: Sun.....Sun God?

[Yes.]

Damn! Why is he this ugly?

As expected, most of the contracts in game were fantasy! If it wasn't fantasy, how could a game like Heavenly Mandate be called a MMORPG!

But this.....was too ugly, right!

"Pa, pa.....Pa, pa, pa.....Pa, pa, pa, pa....." There was scattered applause, it wasn't as intense as when the new math teacher had come in.

Gong Zi Yang didn't mind at all and he found an empty seat after being told to do so by the teacher.

Luo Qing Chen looked at him and rubbed her eyes before giving a sigh.

It was hard to imagine that the person the previous host cared about looked like this. If she knew, maybe she wouldn't have been that insistent.....

Yi, that's not right! Since Gong Zi Yang was a transfer student, why didn't the previous host meet him?

[Does the host know about something known as the 'butterfly effect' in this world?]

What does that mean?

[Because you humiliated Sun God with the horns last night, he charged quite a bit of money with his father's credit card in a rage to get more equipment. In the end, his father found out and his parents while arguing agreed that he did this because he lived too far away from home that he did this!]

So he transferred schools?

[Yes! Quick transfer to a school near his home through relations!]

So it's like this!

"Then.....let's start class!" Xu Wei waved her hand and said, "Teacher Gong, I'll be leaving first."

"Un, goodbye teacher Xu." The youth gave a polite nod before picking up the chalk to write three words on the blackboard and turning to say to everyone, "My name is Gong Mu Bai, I will be your final math teacher in high school."

Chapter 1982: Master, please step up (Part 19)

Luo Qing Chen felt her head buzz, like there was a meteor that hit the earth.

Gong Mu Bai! Gong Mu Bai! Gong Mu Bai!

This, this, this.....Wasn't this plot.....teacher and student love?

[The host that doesn't have any affection doesn't have teacher and student love at all!]

The previous host's memories didn't have this person, right? [Butterfly effect! The system doesn't want to repeat it again. When the host reached this plane, it changed the plot of this world.]

Oh.

Luo Qing Chen coldly responded to the system before looking at Gong Mu Bai again. A beautiful face, a light blue dress shirt that was rolled up at the wrist. It was beautiful and a bit sexy.

If it was ancient times, he would definitely be a white robed youth whose actions would have an elegance that others wouldn't have.

"Teacher, do you take questions?" A few seconds later, a person with a blush on their face slowly raised their hand as they asked this with a shy smile.

The crowd immediately focused as they waited for Gong Mu Bai's response.

"Alright." His beautiful eyes looked at his students with a sparkle in them, "If you ask a question, I'll ask one too."

The class representative took the initiative to ask, "Teacher, do you have a girlfriend?"

"No." Gong Mu Bai replied immediately before picking up the chalk and writing a question on the board.

If $f(x)dx = (x^3)e^{(3x)} + C$, what is $f(x)$?

The rowdiness in the class suddenly stopped. Even Luo Qing Chen had to admit how amazing Gong Mu Bai's trick of exchanging questions was.

The girl with the blush and the class representative immediately shrunk back. The boys who usually liked to be noisy suddenly became very quiet.

"I've answered my question, it's time for you to answer this question." He put down the chalk as a faint sparkle appeared in his eyes. The sunlight from outside the window fell onto his face, making him look incredibly handsome.

"No one is going to answer my question?" Gong Mu Bai narrowed his eyes before they stopped in Luo Qing Chen's direction. What....What was he looking at her for? It wasn't her who asked the question.

"Teacher, Qing Chen is our class' math representative, let her answer!" Lin Xiao Xiao who had been holding back suddenly found his courage as he said this.

Because he could understand expressions, seeing Gong Mu Bai looking in the direction of Luo Qing Chen, he directly rocked the boat!

Everyone's eyes immediately turned to Luo Qing Chen and becoming the center of attention made her feel a bit awkward.

"Ke, ke." She cleared her throat before standing up to say, "Hello teacher....."

"Since you are the representative of my class, why don't you answer this question on behalf of your classmates?" Gong Mu Bai narrowed his deep eyes as he revealed a gentle smile that made people unconsciously feel nervous if they took a few looks.

Luo Qing Chen heard this and then turned to the blackboard. It was a difficult problem, but it really wasn't difficult for her at all.

"Alright!" Her lips curled as she revealed a faint smile, confidently coming up to the board.

When she picked up the chalk, she didn't forget to look at Gong Mu Bai out of the corner of her eyes. It was like he was seriously looking at.....the chalk in her right hand.

Watching her write the answer on the blackboard without any hesitation. Un, there was no process written either!

$$(x^2)(e^{(3x)})+3(x^3)(e^{(3x)})$$

Chapter 1983: Master, please step up (Part 20)

It had to be said, Luo Qing Chen's answer had surprised Gong Mu Bai since this wasn't considered an easy question.

But his student had written the answer this quickly, she really was.....a bit smart.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 10%.]

The long awaited notification suddenly came that made her slightly panicked heart calm down a bit.

She did so many 'handsome' things in game yesterday and she couldn't catch the great god's eyes.

Now a single math problem had left an impression on Gong Mu Bai.

It really.....was a pleasant surprise.

"Correct." Gong Mu Bai had a look of praise as he looked at Luo Qing Chen, "Truly worthy of being the math representative!"

Luo Qing Chen heard this and thought: This isn't related to being the math representative at all! It was because she had the natural talent of writing down answers to math problems without even writing down the process!

"Thank you, teacher."

"Pa, pa, pa." There was a round of applause as the classmates were all in disbelief over Luo Qing Chen writing down the answer this quickly.

But in addition to this pleasant surprise of affection, there was also a Guan Zi Yang.

She could only blame herself to answering too quickly that she didn't see Guan Zi Yang's look of 'admiration' at all.

During math class, while everyone was looking at Gong Mu Bai, only Guan Zi Yang was looking at her.

"Ding ling." When the bell rang, all the students who were used to packing up had been completely captured by Gong Mu Bai's magnetic and soothing voice.

"Alright, class will end here today. The class representative will come to the office with me and pick up tonight's homework."

Luo Qing Chen was surprised, but there was also a bit of joy in her heart.

At the same time, she received many jealous looks from her classmates.

“Ah, ah, ah, so jealous of Qing Chen!”

“God! I suddenly want to become the math class representative too!”

“Whether you can even pass this class is still a problem!”

“Can’t I start working hard now?”

.....

Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle. This kind of ordinary school was completely different from the private schools that she had encountered before.

It was more youthful and less competitive.

She liked.....this feeling more!

In the office.

Gong Mu Bai put the A and B versions of the homework in front of her, “With the current aptitude of our students, do you think it’s more suited to use the A or the B version?”

“I feel.....that they were very good!” Luo Qing Chen didn’t spare any effort to praise her classmates since they had clapped for her just now.

“Un.” Gong Mu Bai gave a nod before saying, “Then let’s use both!”

“Ah?”

“Aren’t they very good?”

“He, he, he, he.” Luo Qing Chen gave an awkward laugh before saying, “Yes, yes.”

Why did it feel like she had strangely been tricked!

“Ding ling.” As soon as he picked up the two tests, her phone rang.

Luo Qing Chen was about to pick up, as Gong Mu Bai looked at her and said, “It’s fine, it’s after class.”

“Hey, hey, hey, Qing Chen, Qing Chen! I’m taking off for the afternoon, don’t forget to play in the league tonight! Help me get a spot too!” Cheng Xing Xing’s voice came roaring out of the phone.

“Got it.....” Then her expression changed, “No, wait.....we’re not in the same guild anymore!”

“Damn, I would have forgotten if you didn’t say anything! I’ll leave right now!”

“But with your battle power, Drunken Dream won’t.....” She was surprised when she said the words Drunken Dream. She didn’t even need to turn to feel the burning gaze from behind her.

Chapter 1984: Master, please step up (Part 21)

“What’s wrong with my battle power? I can still work hard! Hey, hey!”

Before Cheng Xing Xing could finish, Luo Qing Chen had already cut the call. She quickly took the two stacks of paper and said, “Then teacher, I’ll be heading back to the classroom first.”

Gong Mu Bai’s eyes were very deep as he narrowed them, as if he could see through everything.

Luo Qing Chen escaped from his gaze and left the office as fast as lightning!

It’s all Cheng Xing Xing’s fault, why did she call her now! Is taking the day off that great!

Luo Qing Chen fell into self reflection for the entire afternoon. The worst result was that Gong Mu Bai knew that they played the same game and that they were in the same guild.

A guild had over a hundred people, it wasn’t easy to find out who she was!

[Why does the host not want the male lead to know who you are?]

Because.....I want a fantasy romance too. I feel that the setting in real life is too.....taboo.

Although she didn’t know if this was the right way to describe it, she felt that the relationship between a teacher and a student was a bit bold!

When she went home that night, she bought a large cup of bubble tea. She quickly finished off the math homework while also taking care of her daily tasks in front of the computer.

Everyone in the guild was preparing for the league. With Luo Qing Chen’s battle power, she would definitely be in the league and would be in an important position.

Hundred Dream Scholar: Everyone, get on YY to prepare for the league at eight. Everyone with at least forty thousand battle power, join my group.

Luo Qing Chen thought about joining the group, but she never thought that Blossoming would DM her.

[DM] Blossoming: Summer, quickly get in the group! We’re fighting Fighting the World Together today! I heard that Sun God raised his battle power to forty five thousand last night!

Ha, ha! She knew about this. Not only did she know, she knew the follow up which was he was forced to transfer after stealing his father’s credit card.....

But to fight this quickly, Luo Qing Chen’s heart was still filled with excitement.

She stopped doing her daily tasks and clicked the name Hundred Dream Scholar to join the group.

When she did, she was transferred from the ninth team she had been into the first team.

There was a familiar name that entered her gaze, Admiring the Moon.

She was on the same team as the great god, she was a bit excited!

[The great god is the math teacher who gave you two worksheets.....]

Can we not talk, I feel that it's better when you're silent! I want to slap you whenever you talk!

[.....]

The system was helpless as it spread its non-existent hands. It showed that the host really didn't care about the real life relationships between people of this world!

The league started at eight, it was a thirty man battlefield.

To put it simply, Fighting the World Together and Drunken Dream Lazy Flower Wine would both send out the strongest thirty people to fight each other.

This was also Luo Qing Chen's first time using a healer to participate in the league. She was afraid that she would forget to heal and would go deal damage.

Admiring the Moon could see through her thoughts and wrote a line in the guild chat.

[Guild] Admiring the Moon: Healers, on me! I'll kill who you want to kill, don't you move yourselves.

The entire Drunken Dream Lazy Flower Wine blew up and the girls who had been hiding for a long time came out to worship their god!

[Guild] Hundred Dream Scholar: Admiring the Moon, don't be this handsome! My young girl's heart is surging!

[Guild] Cold As Autumn: Vice guild master, what is an old man like you surging for, it should be me that's surging. This is my first time seeing the great god speak, I'm a bit nervous and a bit excited!

Chapter 1985: Master, please step up (Part 22)

[Guild] Cutting the Sword of Love: Great god, notice me!

[Guild] Blossoming: Great god, notice me!

[Guild] It's Glazed Glass: Great god, notice me!

.....

The girls in the guild covered the screen in requests without a response, until Luo Qing Chen sent a message.

[Guild] Summer: Great god, notice me!

Gong Mu Bai replied.

[Guild] Admiring the Moon: Noticed.

The members of the guild started teasing, but Gong Mu Bai didn't care and he didn't say anything else.

Until right before eight, Luo Qing Chen received something in her mailbox which came from her apprentice, White Clothes like the Beginning.

This mail had various enhancement potions, food items, and pills. As well as a sentence that said, waiting for master to kill in all directions!

Kill.....in.....all.....directions!

I'm afraid that master will have to disappoint since master is a healer!

But in order to respond this casual player apprentice who made all these buff items for her, Luo Qing Chen seriously replied with her thanks and praised him for being a good apprentice that everyone loved!

As soon as she sent this, the other side had already logged off.

Did he.....go to eat dinner?

Luo Qing Chen didn't have time to think as she filled up on the potions and entered battle state.

The battle was about to begin. Fighting the World Together as the winners last week, their experts couldn't help sending a few horns.

Of course, Sun God who raised his battle power to forty five thousand also sent a horn.

[Horn] A Bowl of Diamond Instant Noodles: Trash of Drunken Dream, you think you can win with a few more healers! Father will still beat you up!

[Horn] Sun God: A handicapped person will never be able to create a storm!

Everyone knew that Sun God's simple words were directed at no one else but Luo Qing Chen.

Even with a few victories in planting the flag, the previous host's deep rooted impression of being handicapped was still in his mind.

In his eyes, she had beaten Fairy and Tail purely because of luck and her battle power.

If they were fighting in the league, she definitely wouldn't have this kind of luck!

Of course, it would seem cowardly if the enemy guild didn't send some horns, so Drunken Dream's experts fought back since they couldn't keep watching.

[Horn] Hundred Dream Scholar: Don't you know in your heart why you won last week? Did you have fun on your holiday? How many of our experts didn't go? You think you're that great because you won when Admiring the Moon wasn't here?

[Horn] Sun God: What a joke? Can your Admiring the Moon beat an entire team! I'm afraid that he can't even beat two of me!

Since the other side was still the number one expert in the server, although Sun God wasn't convinced, he didn't dare say he could fight him one on one, he could only say two of him.

But this was cowardly in the eyes of the people watching!

[World] Falling Happiness: Why do I feel that Sun is strangely afraid!

[World] A Small Bear: Ha, ha! Fellow person! Since he's using two of him to compare, this sentence is quite low!

[World] Forgetting the Dream, Forgetting You: Actually it can also mean that this person called Sun has a bit of self awareness!

.....

The ridicule of the entire world made Sun God unable to take this and he couldn't help sending another horn in his anger.

[Horn] Sun God: How so? A bunch of poor people who only dare to talk in world chat and doesn't dare to send horns! When Fighting the World Together wins, don't come back kneeling and begging.

[Horn] Hundred Dream Scholar: Stop talking if you can make a move, waiting on the battlefield for you!

Chapter 1986: Master, please step up (Part 23)

At eight, they entered the league battlefield right on time.

During the preparation time, Luo Qing Chen looked over the battlefield data. Although there were quite a few experts in Fighting the World Together, there were also some noobs.

For example, the three plastic sisters.

This Fairy, Sweetheart, and Cute were all healers! Although their skills weren't bad, they could only be considered mediocre in her eyes.

Adding in the fact that their battle power wasn't high, when facing such a powerful DPS like Admiring the Moon, they couldn't take the damage output of his unparalleled skills at all.

Facts proved this as Drunken Dream took three points right at the beginning of the match.

Luo Qing Chen followed Admiring the Moon, watching him kill from double kill to triple kill to killing in all directions to super god.

He was like a god of war as he charged into the crowd of red names, unleashing his 'Thousand Flashy Blades'.

The three 'darlings' couldn't resist at all as they could only look at their black and white screen, choosing to revive.

Ten minutes later, Drunken Dream already created a large gap in score with Fighting the World Together. Luo Qing Chen and Gong Mu Bai stayed at Star Moon to make sure that no one stole points from them.

When the enemy was about to lose, Sun God led the three healers to the point they were occupying. Charging forward in an imposing manner, without a single word, he went in Gong Mu Bai's direction.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes. She switched over to damage and headed in the direction of the three plastic sisters.

Since they had to fight, she wouldn't waste the buff potions that her apprentice sent her.

Seeing the names of the three healers, there was a strange flame in her heart. She used all kinds of sharp plays to control them while dealing damage.

But they were three healers, so she couldn't take care of them with just a few skills and she let them heal a bit for Sun God.

But it was only a bit of HP in her eyes. The healer with the lowest battle power among the three of them was Cute Darling, so she used a CC skill and a damage skill to take her out directly.

When Fairy Darling wanted to revive her, she used a big skill to take them away.

Then she finally killed the supporting female lead, Sweetheart Darling.

She didn't even understand why this person was the supporting female lead, but since the bronze mirror gave her this title, it meant that she would definitely meet her in real life.

When she killed the final healer of the girls group, the match ended!

There was a big 'victory' that was displayed on the screen.

When Luo Qing Chen with a happy face was about to type on the keyboard, she suddenly saw the Light Blade with five hundred HP left standing not far away, as well as the corpse at his feet with the ID Sun God!

Si!

Didn't she forget something?

"Du, du, du, du." It was a message from the great god.

[DM] Admiring the Moon: I used one life bar to fight a Burning Sky with five life bars.....

[DM] Summer: Great god! It's my fault! $\sum(0.0)?$!

Luo Qing Chen used a cute emote to ask for forgiveness since she really didn't heal him just now!

[DM] Admiring the Moon: The one vs three was quite exciting. I stood there watching for a bit or I would have half my HP left!

Damn! The great god was even in a mood to watch her, simply amazing!

[DM] Summer: The great god really is powerful! ^_^

Chapter 1987: Master, please step up (Part 24)

In order to make up for not healing the great god, she seriously flattered him.

What she didn't know was that Gong Mu Bai's words would make her want to vomit out blood.

[DM] Admiring the Moon: I just want to know if my HP reached the limit, would you turn around to heal me.

.....

Luo Qing Chen saw Gong Mu Bai's words and felt a cold wind blowing over her.

When she was thinking about how to reply, there was another message sent.

[DM] Admiring the Moon: Facts proved that you were more focused on dealing damage!

[DM] Summer: =。 = Am I being looked down on by the great god? How about I change jobs? I'm quite good at playing Flowing Light, I can heal and deal damage!

She still remembered when she played Flowing Light in this game, her healing and dealing damage had reached a level that couldn't be matched.

It wasn't that there wasn't Flowing Light in this game and there was no harm in changing jobs!

[DM] Admiring the Moon: Actually I feel that you playing healer is quite good! Could feel your healing and love just now!

?!

Why did it suddenly change!

[DM] Summer: ?! Great god, didn't you not say this earlier!

[DM] Admiring the Moon: If you change to Flowing Light, you will focus on dealing damage. It's good to be a healer, you can also bind.

When Admiring the Moon typed this, she felt strangely nervous.

This game had many definitions for bind, it could be a normal friend or it could mean.....as a contracted.

Before Luo Qing Chen could react, the entire world and horn channels exploded.

After all, last week Fighting the World Together won against Drunken Dream Lazy Flower Wine.

Actually, if the two guilds compared battle power, Drunken Dream Lazy Flower Wine should be higher.

But Drunken Dream had fewer high level healers, so when Mu Yue wasn't able to absolutely crush the enemy, it gave the opponents the chance to come back.

Although Luo Qing Chen as a healer didn't pay attention to the other healers of the group, it could be seen from the healing rankings that the healer named Blossoming had healed quite a bit.

And she was second place.

One only cared about victory and loss in the game, not the process.

Fighting the World Together had lost and lost this badly, so they could be considered humiliated.

Whether it was in the horn channel or the world channel.

[Horn] Hundred Dream Scholar: Yo, yo, yo! Where's that powerful Sun God that couldn't even deal half as much damage as father? Coward!

[World] A Small Bear: He doesn't dare come out!? After all, this score is rather shameful!

[World] Little Star Shining Bright: Ha, ha! I want to ask, who said that a handicapped person couldn't change the battle? Stand up! I saw Summer fighting three on one during the battle!

Pu! Wasn't this Cheng Xing Xing?

It had to be said that she really had a big heart! She was still clearly in Fighting the World Together and she could jump in like this!

[World] Falling Happiness: This treasure is laughing to death? Fighting the World Together, do you see this? Even your members can't watch this anymore! Y(^o^)Y~

[World] Little Star Shining Bright: Damn! Don't associate me with them! Fighting the World Together's enemies, invite me if you have the skills! I can raise my battle power, I can charge more money!

Luo Qing Chen couldn't help laughing when she saw Cheng Xing Xing's message, it really was a bit cute. There was a notification that appeared in the guild chat.

[Guild] Hundred Dream Scholar has invited Little Star Shining Bright, everyone welcome her!

[Guild] Little Star Shining Bright: Qing! I'm here for you! [Summer's status]

Chapter 1988: Master, please step up (Part 25)

[Guild] Summer:

Luo Qing Chen felt a bit embarrassed like she had been picked out!

Cheng Xing Xing didn't feel embarrassed at all as she continued criticizing Fighting the World Together.

[World] Little Star Shining Bright: There will always be a place for people! Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha!

With all this ridicule, the three plastic sisters couldn't sit still anymore.

As the contracted of Sun God, Cute Darling gritted her teeth and planned to use all her meal money for tomorrow to buy several horns.

She was so angry that she sent several messages at once!

[Horn] Cute Darling: If I am a sunflower, then you are always the sun in my heart. [Sun God's profile].

[Horn] Cute Darling: A certain someone doesn't need to be jealous! So what if you have high battle power? So what if you have the skills? No one wants you still!

[Horn] Cute Darling: So what if you win? If the most important person in your heart doesn't love you, that truly is sad!

.....

When these horns were sent, even a fool would know who Cute Darling was talking about.

But everyone seemed to have some thoughts about what she said.

After all, the one who broke the contract yesterday wasn't Sun God, but rather Summer!

[World] Thinking of Autumn Wind: Did I remember wrong? Wasn't it Summer who broke off with Sun yesterday?

[World] A Small Bear: You're not wrong! It's her brain that isn't good!

[World] Our Memories: I'm laughing to death! The sun and a sunflower, aiyo! Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha!

.....

When Sun God saw his contracted being laughed at like this, he was filled with even more rage!

Before yesterday, he was the first class god that many girls in the game loved! Why did he suddenly become someone that everyone mocked!

No! It can't be like this! His character couldn't collapse! He had to pamper Cute Darling and become the image of a good man in the game.

[Horn] Sun God: Wife, love you!

[Horn] Cute Darling: Husband, I love you too! Let those poor worms with no contracted envy us!

[World] Fairy Darling: Cute is right! I feel sorry for those people who suck up to experts but can't get them!

[World] Sweetheart Darling: Supporting Cute!

Seeing all these hypocritical words in world chat, Luo Qing Chen felt disgust as her arms were covered in goosebumps.

When she was about to angrily go to the cross server channel, that girl named Blossoming went to the horn channel first.

[Horn] Blossoming: The plastic sisters are here again! I finally understand the words of the ancestors, things that are alike gather with one another.

Seeing Blossoming's horn, Luo Qing Chen revealed a smile as she quickly typed something on her keyboard!

But before she could send it, there was a popup that appeared on her screen.

[Player Admiring the Moon invites you to his party! Accept/Reject]

Luo Qing Chen clicked accept and then there was another popup that appeared.

[Player Admiring the Moon has summoned you to his side! Accept/Reject]

Party summon, to where?

She wasn't nervous when she clicked accept, just a bit confused.

But when she appeared by Admiring the Moon's side, she felt her hand cover in a cold sweat. She took a deep breath as her heart started beating fast.

Her mouse couldn't help coming to the name on the map in the upper right corner: Contract Land.

Chapter 1989: Master, please step up (Part 26)

She didn't know why she felt like she couldn't move at all, as if from the computer screen, she could feel.....an ambiguous feeling.

The gentle music coming from her headphones with the sounds of birds and insects, the pink petals that slowly fell from the sky and the rivers of stars that filled the sky.

She remembered when she came here alone yesterday, it wasn't like this at all.

This time, she felt immersed in the atmosphere and was secretly happy.

[DM] Admiring the Moon: Bind as a healer, alright?

Actually, he wasn't planning on forming a contract with her this quickly. But without knowing why, seeing Sun God and Cute Darling in the horn chat gave him a feeling of wanting to protect her.

This feeling had been hidden deep in his heart and now it was slowly spreading.

[DM] Summer: A contract! What is the great god's dowry?

Luo Qing Chen had said this as a joke, but Gong Mu Bai took it seriously and sent a cross server message.

[Cross Server] Admiring the Moon: How about this Wild Hero Spirit as a dowry gift? [Wild Hero Scroll★★★★]

She was stunned when she saw the cross server message. Wasn't this the hero spirit that she sold to him for nine thousand?

The world exploded afterwards! It had completely exploded!

Of course, what everyone was focused on wasn't the hero spirit worth nine thousand.

Rather was the number one expert of the server, god Admiring the Moon planning on forming a contract?

[World] How Many Flowers Falling in the Dream: Damn! Father has a feeling of eating glass!

[World] A Small Bear: Tell me! Who is the one that god Admiring the Moon is giving the dowry to?!

[World] Blossoming: Ha, ha! I know who, I saw them in the contract land!

At the same time, there were a bunch of people that came to the contract land through the teleportation array at the entrance.

Moreover, in Fighting the World Together's YY, there was someone called Sweetheart Darling gritting her teeth with an unwilling look.

"I don't believe it! How could god Admiring the Moon have a contract? Give me a Thousand Mile Chasing Wind and I'll go kill her!"

“Sweetheart, calm down. We know that you’ve loved god Admiring the Moon for a long time! But we really can’t afford to offend the god.”

Before Cute Darling’s voice fell, they saw the cross server message that Luo Qing Chen sent.

[Cross Server] Summer: Alright!

Actually, before she even replied, she had received the dowry from Gong Mu Bai in her mailbox.

He had received such an expensive hero spirit, but he hadn’t opened it.

Because this kind of scroll would be bound once it was opened. This meant that he never thought of using it when he got it.

Because of Luo Qing Chen’s response, the entire world chat reached the point where it covered the screen.

[World] Blossoming: Ha, ha, ha! My guess was right!

[World] Falling Happiness: Wa! God Admiring the Moon wouldn’t have made a move to protect Summer because someone else was talking in the horn channel, right!

[World] Thinking of Autumn Wind: Exploding with handsomeness, alright?

[Horn] Hundred Dream Scholar: Summer, you really are amazing! I’ve known Admiring the Moon for many years and he has never had a contract in any game. I remember him saying that if he found a contracted, he would send a red packet of ten million!

When Hundred Scholar sent this horn, there was a red packet horn that was sent.

[Horn] Admiring the Moon: [Red packet from Admiring the Moon for ten million Cloud Coins]

[Horn] Blossoming: Damn! So handsome!

[Horn] Admiring the Moon: I’ve already sent the red packet, I’m going to form a contract now.

The declaration of the contract between Admiring the Moon and Summer rang out through the world.

There were large fireworks that exploded in the contract land that filled it with pink candies, gathering many people to watch.

Among them was Sweetheart Darling who still wouldn’t believe that Gong Mu Bai and Luo Qing Chen had formed a contract.

Chapter 1990: Master, please step up (Part 27)

In this romantic contract land, a loli healer in red clothes hid in the dark as she silently watched the scene in front of her.

She had the same look as the person sitting in front of the computer screen. The small mirror on the side reflected that face with the small eyes.

“Ding ling.” Her phone rang.

It was from her boyfriend of one month, Guan Zi Yang.

“Sweetheart, husband is thinking of you.”

“How was transferring to a new school today?” The girl’s voice came from the phone which had moved Guan Yi Yang’s heart.

Although this girlfriend of his, Xia Tian Xin didn’t look that good, everything else was fine and she was very provocative.

They had been classmates and their classmates had called them a couple, so they got together.

“Quite good!” Guan Zi Yang said, “Quite a few beauties!”

“Humph!” Xia Tian Xin gave a soft snort, “You can’t change your mind this quickly, I’m your small sweetheart.”

“How could I! I only love my baby!” Guan Zi Yang revealed a smile, which was quite wretched with his crooked teeth.

Hearing his boyfriend’s gentle voice, Xia Tian Xin felt very satisfied.

Cute Darling had formed a contract with Sun God yesterday and she left the YY that the three of them were in to hang out in a room with Sun God alone.

The two of them chatted for around four to five hours before Cute Darling came back to tell them how soothing and beautiful Sun God’s voice was.

She had thought: What are you showing off for? This treasure’s real life boyfriend sounds even better, even more gentle, even more smooth!

If she didn’t want to get that boss Admiring the Moon in game, she wouldn’t have hidden Guan Zi Yang in game!

“Kisses! Husband, I’m going to sleep! I have a surprise for you next Monday!”

“Good night wife! Kisses!”

Xia Tian Xin never would have known that Guan Zi Yang was chatting with her like this while also hugging ‘Cute Darling’ in game.

He would give the ‘princess carry kiss’ to Cute Darling once in a while which seemed so warming.

Guan Zi Yang enjoyed this feeling very much, having a girlfriend in real life and having a contracted.

This feeling of having ‘one foot in both boat’ really was great.

At the same time, Luo Qing Chen and Gong Mu Bai had just finished their ceremony.

Without knowing why, she felt a bit nervous. Gong Mu Bai seemed very casual, walking around in front of her with those white clothes.

He quickly put on the title: Summer·Together Forever

[DM] Summer: Is doing this good?

[DM] Admiring the Moon: Un, sleep early! Good night.

?!

Wa! Why did she feel that the great god had become colder after forming the contract!

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 30%.]

Wa! He's colder, so why did the affection increase!

Notification: Your contracted Admiring the Moon has logged off.

Actually, Gong Mu Bai sat in front of the computer for a long time after logging off.

He narrowed his deep eyes as a bit of sweat appeared on the palm of his right hand.

Un, he was a bit nervous, she definitely didn't know this.

This was the first time he had this kind of contract in a game. There was a bit of excitement in his joy and in his excitement was a bit of.....nervousness.
