

Quick T 1991

Chapter 1991: Master, please step up (Part 28)

Luo Qing Chen on the other side didn't sleep well that night as she had many strange thoughts filling her mind, so she couldn't sleep.

As a third year in high school, although there weren't many classes on the weekend, they still had to go to school.

"The hard working third year." During the break, she didn't forget to give a sigh. Cheng Xing Xing beside her came over and said, "Do you not want to come to school and want to play with great god Admiring the Moon every second after forming the contract?"

Luo Qing Chen rolled her eyes at her, "Am I someone like that?"

"Yes!" Cheng Xing Xing gave a very direct nod.

"You!" Luo Qing Chen pretended to be angry as she looked at her.

Cheng Xing Xing took out a bag of mung bean cake and said, "Just kidding, just kidding! Have some, my mom made them herself!"

She didn't feel hungry, but she was a bit hungry when she saw the mung bean cakes.

She put a piece in her mouth and said, "The taste isn't bad."

Her throat was a bit itchy when she ate it.

Ten minutes later, Gong Mu Bai came into the classroom with a stack of tests and he said to everyone, "All third year students will be taking the city wide evaluation test in a few days. This is a test that I wrote, we will be writing this test in the next two periods."

"Ah!" There were sad voices that rang out.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows as her stomach felt a bit uncomfortable.

What was going on? Was Cheng Xing Xing's mung bean cake poisoned?

"Hey, where did you get the mung bean cake!"

"My mom made it last night!" She was surprised when she looked at her, "Wa, Qing! Why does your face look that bad....."

"Last night.....it should be fine." Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath and shook her head, "I didn't sleep well last night."

Before Cheng Xing Xing could say anything, the test reached her.

These questions weren't difficult for her, but sweat appeared on her forehead when she reached the end.

She was clear that this definitely wasn't a lack of sleep, it was most likely food poisoning.

But she only ate a mung bean cake and nothing else! How did she get food poisoning?

[The previous host should be allergic to mung beans.]

Damn! Why didn't you say so earlier!

[The system wasn't certain either.....]

Luo Qing Chen wanted to curse out in her heart, but the intense pain made her unable to divert her attention.

Her vision became a bit blurry and the hand holding the pen couldn't stop trembling.

It hurt.....It really hurt.....

She should raise her hand, but the person standing there was Gong Mu Bai. She felt that she shouldn't act weak since she wasn't one of those girls.

She.....She was a powerful healer who had fought a three on one!

When she was in so much pain and was planning on asking the system for an antidote, there was a large and warm hand that was placed on her forehead.

Luo Qing Chen was surprised. She suddenly looked up to see a pair of deep eyes that had slightly knitted brows.

"You're burning up, I'll take you to the infirmary." Gong Mu Bai's beautiful voice slowly rang in her ears. It was cold with a bit of concern in it.

She quickly became the center of attention for the class.

Some people were envious, some people were jealous, and some were unwilling.

For example, Guan Zi Yang.

There was only one thing that Luo Qing Chen was feeling which was——

Shame.

Chapter 1992: Master, please step up (Part 29)

Cheng Xing Xing who was sitting beside her was scared by this and she stuttered, "Qing.....Qing! Your face.....why is it so white?"

Luo Qing Chen didn't even bother rolling her eyes at her. She looked up at Gong Mu Bai and said, "Teacher.....I'm alright."

Actually it wasn't that she was being stubborn, she could feel that her legs didn't have any strength and she couldn't move at all.

Her eyes flickered. She thought that Gong Mu Bai wouldn't keep asking her, but she never expected——

He leaned down in front of her. His tone was still cold, but there was also anxiousness.

Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and decided to go all out.

“Thank you teacher!”

She climbed onto his back, burying her red face in her hands.

She could feel a burning heat from behind her which came from the gaze of others.

“Teacher!” When Gong Mu Bai was about to head out the classroom, Guan Zi Yang shouted out.

Gong Mu Bai knitted his brows and his eyes that were as deep as the stars became bottomless.

He didn't reply, so Guan Zi Yang continued, “Teacher Gong, you still have to invigilate the test. How about I carry classmate Luo Qing Chen to the infirmary! I'm already done with the test.”

What? He already finished those two hundred and five questions?

Luo Qing Chen didn't believe it at all! Although she was in poor condition and had only left the two big equations, she had taken a few seconds to calculate each of the answers before, so it was impossible for Guan Zi Yang to be faster than her.

“Your score?” Gong Mu Bai's voice slowly sounded with a bit of a chill to it.

Guan Zi Yang was surprised before looking at his test and nervously saying, “Teacher, I'm not good at math, but I should be able to pass.....”

“This new student.” Gong Mu Bai slowly turned around and narrowed his beautiful eyes to look at him, “Our class' math average is one hundred and twenty five points. If you only want to pass, this might not be the best place for you.”

“Si!” Everyone took a cold breath at once.

Although the math teacher was right.....they felt that he was a bit harsh on the new student.

But Gong Mu Bai didn't care at all. He didn't like this person who jumped in between a teacher and a student.

It was like he was jumping out because he cared about someone.

Guan Zi Yang wasn't a fool, naturally he could tell that he was being humiliated.

But he was clearly his best choice to approach Luo Qing Chen and there was a teacher in his way.

Luo Qing Chen was beautiful and good at math in his eyes, she was like a goddess.

This goddess was much better than his real life girlfriend Xia Tian Xin or his in game contracted Cute Darling.

It was a pity.....that he had no chance!

Gong Mu Bai didn't waste words with him since in his eyes, Guan Zi Yang couldn't even be considered an opponent.

Before leaving the classroom, he said, "The class representative and the vice representative will be in charge of invigilating the exam. This is the best chance to test your grade, if you want to copy someone else, I hope you can do it in the university tests as well."

As soon as his voice fell, everyone stopped thinking about gossiping and lowered their heads to focus on their papers.

After all, this was a test that most people could only take once and there wasn't anyone who didn't care about it.

Other than classmate Luo Qing Chen.

She was only thinking about finding a tree trunk to hide her face and body in.

Just how did Gong Mu Bai notice that she wasn't feeling good! She had clearly put her head down!

Then again, she wasn't sitting in the front row either. What kind of eyesight did this male lead have?
so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 1993: Master, please step up (Part 30)

But she didn't have time to think about Gong Mu Bai's vision.

After all, there were always people walking through the halls even if it was time for class.

"Wa! The new transfer student? So handsome!"

"It doesn't seem so, he's not wearing a uniform!"

"The girl on his back should be the class flower of year three class one!"

"Luo Qing Chen?"

"Right, right, right!"

"Wa, wa, wa! It can't be her boyfriend, right!"

Luo Qing Chen really didn't know whether to swear or not!

Wasn't that ability of the gossipers just too strong?!

If it wasn't for her stomach hurting too much, she would have charged over at them!

[Complain about what? Could it be that the host isn't happy hearing these comments?]

You leave!

The system always liked to say strange things and it had poked through her thoughts with these words.

If it was said that she was only angry hearing this, it would have been a lie.

She just didn't know what Gong Mu Bai thought hearing this since he didn't know that she was his in game contracted.

In his eyes, perhaps she was just his student.

No, not perhaps.

It was just a student.....

In the infirmary.

There was a faint scent of alcohol in the air. She held her stomach with her right hand and didn't look up at him as her eyes trembled.

"You are....." The female doctor looked at Gong Mu Bai with a bit of confusion in her eyes.

But since she was a doctor, she didn't guess like the students and directly asked.

Perhaps this was the difference between mature people and immature people.

"I am the new third year math teacher." Gong Mu Bai honestly said, "She is my student."

"Oh." The doctor revealed an awkward smile, "So it's like this. Please wait a bit, I'll check her now."

"Alright." Gong Mu Bai gave a nod before stepping behind the curtain.

The female doctor checked Luo Qing Chen while saying, "Your math teacher really is handsome!"

Luo Qing Chen thought: Can you take care of my illness first?

Un! She only said this in her heart and didn't reply to the female doctor.

She continued to say to herself with the faint smile, "I don't know if he has a girlfriend or not....."

"Aiya!" Luo Qing Chen heard this and angrily pretended to be in pain.

Actually, it wasn't considered pretending because she was actually in pain, alright?

"Ah!" The female doctor was scared by this, "Sorry, sorry. You should have had an allergic reaction, I'll go get an IV drip for you first."

She replied this time and she gave a very serious nod!

Luo Qing Chen never would have thought that her pretending to be sick would make the man outside the curtain stand up.

He knew that he was nervous.

After ten minutes, the curtain was pulled back and the female doctor came out with a smile, "It's a lot better now that she's had an IV, it shouldn't be anything serious."

"Thank you." Gong Mu Bai knitted his brows, feeling that this smile looked quite unpleasant.

"Teacher, please sit over here!" The female doctor didn't notice the other side's displeasure and said, "I'm sorry about just now! I didn't know that you were a teacher."

"Un, I just transferred in." Gong Mu Bai didn't sit and even his answer was concise.

“That.....” The female doctor didn’t sense the other side’s feelings and asked, “I wonder if you have a girlfriend or not? If you don’t, there must be many.....”

“I do.” Before the female doctor could finish, Gong Mu Bai cut her off.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 40%.]

so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 1994: Master, please step up (Part 31)

She had heard Gong Mu Bai’s words. She had also felt the system adding affection for her.

The ice cold salt water mixed with medicine flowed into her veins and her mind felt very clear.

This clear feeling suddenly made her brain turn.

If in this situation Gong Mu Bai gave her affection, didn’t that mean.....

He knew who she was!

The female doctor outside the curtain gave an awkward laugh, “Ha, ha, ha, then she must be very lucky.”

Although there was a curtain between her and the female doctor, she could feel how awkward it was.

“It’s alright.” Gong Mu Bai’s beautiful eyes had a sparkle in them, “Perhaps she doesn’t know.”

He was a bit vague when he said this, as if he wasn’t talking to the person in front of him.

“What?” The female doctor was surprised, not understanding what he said.

“Nothing.” He shook his head, “Can I go see her now?”

“Oh, oh, yes, yes, yes.”

“Thank you.”

He gave a nod and then went behind the curtains.

“Da, da, da.” Luo Qing Chen could hear his footsteps slowly approaching.

Suddenly the atmosphere around her became tense.

“Si.” When the curtain was pulled back, she quickly sat up to look at Gong Mu Bai, “Teacher.....Hello teacher.”

It suddenly became a bit strange.

Gong Mu Bai was surprised by her before saying, “How are you feeling?”

“Much better.” Luo Qing Chen gave a nod, “It should be the mung bean cake from this morning.”

“Un.” He gave a nod before focusing on her, “I looked at your blood diagnosis, it should be a mung bean allergy.”

As soon as his voice fell, he knitted his brows as he couldn't say what he wanted to say.

Although it was rare to hear about a mung bean allergy, she should have known about this before, so how could she still eat mung beans.....

It really.....was a bit confusing and a bit unsettling.

"Yes.....Yes!" Luo Qing Chen nodded before saying with a smile, "I forgot because I was hungry this morning."

Although this answer sounded a bit off, it was hard enough when she accepted the memory, so how could she remember that she had a mung bean allergy since she was young.

Thinking of it now, it seemed like there was this matter, but she didn't really remember it.

"A person who is allergic to mung beans, mung beans are no different from arsenic to her." Gong Mu Bai broke through her careless answer right away, "I don't think that people will eat arsenic if they are hungry."

"You....." Luo Qing Chen was a bit speechless. She bit her lip and said, "Teacher, I'm fine, you can go back now!"

She was strangely a bit angry at this moment.

After all, she was the one who had gotten food poisoning and had suffered, but now she was being scolded after suffering this much!

Who doesn't want to be a small princess, acting proud at this moment!

Gong Mu Bai narrowed his eyes and helplessly shook his head. There was a bit of helplessness in his voice as he said, "I have no way of dealing with you."

The wind blew through the window at this time.

There was the faint fragrance of camphor trees that blew in that lifted her hair, tugging at his heartstrings.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 50%.]

so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 1995: Master, please step up (Part 32)

At this time, she was certain that Gong Mu Bai knew that she was summer. Although she didn't know if he had evidence of this or he was just guessing.

Looking into each other's eyes, the scattered sunlight fell onto the white sheets. Even if they weren't talking, there was a sweet atmosphere.

"Why aren't you saying anything!" The female doctor had heard voices from the beginning, but she came over when she didn't hear any voices at all.

"It's nothing." Gong Mu Bai casually said before turning to Luo Qing Chen, "Rest up tonight, you don't have to participate in some activities."

Tonight? Some activities?

Damn! Territory battles!

For a battle player like her, the territory battles were the most fun in the game.

It was once a week and it was only for two hours.

How could she not participate!?

No, she still had the most fundamental questions to ask!

"That——" She bit her lip as she looked at Gong Mu Bai to ask, "How did you know....."

"WeChat." Gong Mu Bai's lips curled into a smile as a faint sparkle appeared in his eyes.

Luo Qing Chen was surprised before suddenly understanding!

In order for high schools to contact students easier, there was a WeChat group for each class.

Her WeChat name was Summer. In their first communication, she had sold the treasure to Gong Mu Bai for nine thousand and he had used WeChat to pay.

Although that treasure was still in her hands now.....

Then did Gong Mu Bai know that she was Summer on his first day in the class?

My god, he hid himself that deep?

It was already noon after she finished the IV. Cheng Xing Xing brought her bag to her in the infirmary and other than apologizing to her, she also brought some news.

"The math teacher helped you take the day off with the head teacher!" Cheng Xing Xing said this as she played with her hands, "You should have seen the head teacher's expression, she was completely stunned."

There was nothing wrong with Cheng Xing Xing's words, the meaning behind them was clear.

If one had to mention something wrong, it was the relationship between them.

"Then I can go home in the afternoon, right?"

"Yes! The teacher helped you take the day off, why won't you go home!" Cheng Xing Xing rolled her eyes at her before pursing her lips to say, "I envy those third year students that don't need to go to school every weekend!"

"You didn't say this when you took a day off two days ago." Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle, "But it's indeed not bad."

That man was indeed not bad.

When she came out of the infirmary, Luo Qing Chen and Cheng Xing Xing bumped into Guan Zi Yang who had been waiting for a long time.

When she saw him, Luo Qing Chen couldn't help knitting her brows, completely matching him with Sun God in the game.

He was holding a piece of cake and a carton of milk in his hand as he looked at her to say, "Although it's a bit abrupt, please accept it. People who are sick need more nutrition."

Actually, Guan Zi Yang's voice really wasn't bad. Although it wasn't like Gong Mu Bai's cool and low voice, his voice was a bit more soothing.

But this voice didn't match that face at all!

Also, she didn't like this kind of open flattery.

What about the contract? Treating the previous host so cruelly in another world, now you want to hit on her after seeing her face?

After a few seconds, Luo Qing Chen still didn't respond. She just narrowed her eyes to watch Guan Zi Yang's embarrassing one man play.

so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 1996: Master, please step up (Part 33)

Cheng Xing Xing noticed that it felt off and quickly said with a smile, "Thank you! But there's no need anymore."

"But....." Guan Zi Yang didn't give up as he said, "She hasn't said anything yet!"

Ze, ze, ze, how to describe Guan Zi Yang right now!

Un, he doesn't want face when given it.

Cheng Xing Xing had given him a way down, but he didn't take it!

"Because I'm too lazy to say that I don't need it." Luo Qing Chen looked up and said in a voice of disdain, "There's even less of a reason to thank you."

As soon as her voice fell, she turned and walked off without any hesitation, not looking back at all.

Cheng Xing Xing followed behind her and when she passed Guan Zi Yang, she didn't forget to roll her eyes at him, "Not knowing people's good intentions, you deserve it!"

Guan Zi Yang heard this and his face turned red. He wanted to find a hole to bury himself in because he felt very embarrassed.....

He thought that he would leave a good impression by showing concern when she was sick.

But there was a feeling of sticking his hot face to a cold butt. The other side didn't just treat him like a stranger, there was also.....hostility.

Cheng Xing Xing caught up to Luo Qing Chen and said in a confused voice, “Qing! Do you hate ugly and fat people flirting with you?”

“Am I a person who judges people by appearance?”

“Yes.....Of course not!” Cheng Xing Xing said with a confused look, “Then why was your attitude so bad to that new student! There were people who flirted with you before, but you’ve never treated them that badly!”

“Because.....” Luo Qing Chen raised a brow and said, “He is that ‘famous’ Sun God, don’t you know?”

“Ha?” Cheng Xing Xing excitedly jumped up and down, “Is that true!”

“Of course.”

Cheng Xing Xing kept asking her questions when they headed home together, it was all about whether Guan Zi Yang and Sun God were the same person.

Luo Qing Chen replied many times until she finally said with a ‘fierce’ look, “Games really are illusions!”

When she came home, her low grade fever finally went away after lying in bed all day. She had the same dream as usual.

She was wearing a red robe and stood in the hall of hell, surrounded by flowers that were red as blood.

While she was dreaming, at eight at night, the weekly territory battle of Heavenly Mandate began.

The battle between Fighting the World Together and Drunken Dream Lazy Flower Wine went back and forth for an hour, with the number of people present reaching three thousand.

Then in the second hour, Fighting the World Together had found a way into Drunken Dream Lazy Flower Wine’s voice call, causing them to be surrounded by the other side.

Admiring the Moon of Drunken Dream Lazy Flower Wine had been followed by several high level members of Fighting the World Together and he didn’t have a high level healer with him, so he couldn’t break through the encirclement to retreat.

“Admiring the Moon, bring your team to defend Middle State, that place can’t fall.” The commander roared in the voice chat with a bit of helplessness in his voice.

Middle State – Heaven Praying Temple, it was a place that represented sovereignty. Those who won Middle State would be the strongest guild in the server.

The difference between the territory battles and the league was that the league limited the number of guild members that joined while the territory battle didn’t.

This was the most intense battle between the strongest guilds of the server.

Admiring the Moon didn’t say anything and just typed in the guild chat: Alright.

It was his same cold and aloof style, simple and concise.

After all, he was a bit absent minded right now. He didn’t know if that little girl’s fever was better.

Before he could think any more about it, Sun God led a group of people from Fighting the World Together to charge the Heaven Praying Temple.

A mass of red names charged towards them.

It was at this time that there was a friend notification that made him tremble.

[Notification: Your contracted Summer has logged on!]

so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 1997: Master, please step up (Part 34)

Gong Mu Bai was stunned when he saw this notification. Even when Sun God came to his side and cast his skills, he didn't react at all.

He heard Blossoming shouting in the voice chat, "God Admiring the Moon, we're in the one o'clock direction."

Gong Mu Bai knitted his brows and came to the flank without any effort. There were many people on the other side, they wanted to Central State by force while most of their forces were somewhere else.

In the horn channel of the game, there were several experts of Fighting the World Together who thought that the situation was stable, so their words were confident.

[Horn] Sun God: We're taking the Heaven Praying Temple this time.

[Horn] A Bowl of Diamond Instant Noodles: Father said that we would beat you up, but I never thought that it would be so easy.

.....

Gong Mu Bai looked in the lower right corner of his computer and saw that there were five minutes left of the territory battle.

Their team had ten people and there was only Blossoming who was a healer.

The enemy had a large group of fifty people.

Gong Mu Bai quickly typed something on his keyboard.

[Team] Gong Mu Bai: All of you attack the right side, I'll go left.

[Team] Hundred Dream Scholar: Just you alone?

[Team] Blossoming: Just you alone?

.....

Hundred Dream Scholar and Blossoming sent the same three words which was the question that everyone in the team had.

After all, Admiring the Moon was one person and without a healer, it was impossible for him to fight half the enemy team alone.

But he had made such a decision!

[Team] Admiring the Moon: Un.

Before anyone else could react, Gong Mu Bai raised his large sword and charged into the enemy.

Seeing the mass of red names, he roared into the sky and activated the Bloody Thousand Blades.

Everyone around him reacted and under all these attacks, he was only left with a sliver of HP.

Enemies all around were hard to escape from.

At this time, Luo Qing Chen's private message appeared on the screen.

[DM] Summer: Use [Life and Death Together] to pull me over!

This was the special skill of contracted, they could pull their contracted over when they were fighting.

Gong Mu Bai was surprised before clicking Life and Death Together.

When Luo Qing Chen appeared, she immediately used Vibrant Cherry Blossoms which fully healed Gong Mu Bai.

The remaining people from Fighting the World together started to panic when they saw the healer appear and they couldn't help moving backwards.

After all, god Admiring the Moon without a healer could be dealt with by using a sea of people but a god Admiring the Moon with a healer wasn't that easy to kill.

When Gong Mu Bai had Luo Qing Chen, it was like he had awakened as he charged into the crowd, completely giving his life to the healer behind him.

But perhaps he didn't know that his healer was furiously typing away at the keyboard. Before the territory battle was over, before the outcome was decided, she sent a message in the horn channel.

[Horn] Summer: You can't take Central State today, it's my loss if I take even a single step back.

Closing the chat box, Luo Qing Chen quickly followed Gong Mu Bai and filled up that health bar that was almost gone.

He was this handsome in the game. Dressed in those white as snow robes and charging into the crowd, constantly releasing his light blue skills.

One red name after another falling, one enemy disappearing after the other.

They used a single team of experts to guard the Heaven Praying Temple that belonged to them which symbolized their superiority over the land.

so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 1998: Master, please step up (Part 35)

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 60%.]

In this blood battle, Drunken Dream had swept through them.

At ten, Admiring the Moon's party had defended Central State that belonged to them. Fighting the World Together had failed and lost all their points in the territory battle.

Luo Qing Chen sitting in front of the computer revealed a smile as she silently changed her title to Admiring the Moon-Together Forever.

Standing in the most sacred place in the game, she couldn't help feeling proud.

Because there was a first class god by her side, she felt that there was no fear no matter how difficult the battle was.

"Di, di, di." There was the notification of a private message.

Luo Qing Chen opened it and saw that it came from her contracted god....Oh, no, it was her concerned math teacher.

[DM] Admiring the Moon: Didn't I say that there was no need to come tonight?

[DM] Summer: I wanted to protect our Central State!

[DM] Admiring the Moon: It doesn't need your protection, it could have been defended even if you were resting.

[DM] Summer: Liar!

[DM] Admiring the Moon: You don't believe me.....

.....

Luo Qing Chen didn't reply. She just silently turned off her computer feeling depressed, Actually.....there was a bit of indescribably grievance. It wasn't right for her to get up and play the game when she was sick, but she had done it for their victory!

As her contracted and her math teacher, shouldn't he be praising her?

[The male lead is clearly caring about the host.....] The system's sudden voice had stunned her.

Then she hid in her bed and angrily said, "Why are you on his side!"

[.....]

At the same time, in the European styled room, Gong Mu Bai knitted his brows as he looked at the grayed out avatar on the screen. He felt very uncomfortable as he started to self reflect.

Did he say something wrong?

Should he have not scolded her?

He was actually very proud of her. In that vast sea of people, in that situation of certain death, she had ignored everything to appear by his side and save him.

He knew better than anyone that if it wasn't for her, he would have died in Central State and Drunken Dream would have lost their Heaven Praying Temple.

He regretted it a bit. Why did he only scold her and forget to praise her.....

That night was determined.

The next morning, Luo Qing Chen felt that she had been a bit impulsive last night. She got up early to buy two breakfasts and walked to the office.

It was still too early for morning class and it was a Sunday, so there weren't any teachers in the office.

She tiptoed over to Gong Mu Bai's desk and seeing how neat and tidy it was, she couldn't help revealing a faint smile.

His desk was near the window. With the sunlight shining over the pots and the smell of the camphor tree, it really made one relaxed.

"Ke, ke." Gong Mu Bai gave a cough when he saw her back as a sparkle appeared in his deep eyes.

He was holding a strawberry cake and an oat milk in his hand. He had planned on giving it to her when she came to the office.

After all, he knew that she was angry.

"Ah?" Luo Qing Chen was surprised as the breakfast in her hand fell onto the table. She turned around and said, "Math.....Good morning, math teacher."

God, what was she say?

Gong Mu Bai slightly knitted his brows. He didn't like the words 'math teacher', but he had to accept it.

"Un." He narrowed his eyes to ask, "Are you feeling better?"

"Much better, teacher....."

so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 1999: Master, please step up (Part 36)

If they weren't at school, he might have become more 'impulsive'.

"That.....Teacher, I bought breakfast and left it on your desk." Luo Qing Chen raised her right hand to touch her slightly hot ear, "If there's nothing else, I'll be leaving first."

After all, there was still identity. She felt that if she said anything more, it would feel....awkward.

"Qing Chen."

"Here!"

Gong Mu Bai put his hands in his pocket and walked over towards her with a smile that was hard to hide.

The moment he passed by, she could smell the faint scent of lemongrass on him. Mixed with the smell of the camphor trees, it smelled quite good.

"Yesterday's scores are out." Gong Mu Bai opened a drawer for a stack of test papers and the one on top was hers with a score of one hundred and thirty eight.

Other than the two large questions, the rest of her answers were all right.

"First in the class." Gong Mu Bai narrowed his beautiful eyes and looked at her with a proud look, "As expected of the math class representative!"

Luo Qing Chen was a bit surprised. She felt that the praise that she never got for charging into a group of people for him was gotten now.

"Teacher teaches well!" Luo Qing Chen said with a smile, "After all, a great god is always a great god."

She felt that she should find a way to make their relationship less taboo and the two words great god seemed like a very good.....reason!

"It's a pity that the great god's contracted isn't that obedient." Gong Mu Bai narrowed his eyes as he directly responded with this.

There was an ambiguous feeling in the air. Luo Qing Chen blinked before her cheeks instantly filled with a blush.

Gong Mu Bai saw her like this and gave the cake and milk in his hand to her along with the test. He said with a gentle smile, "You still have to eat breakfast. If you're not feeling good, it's fine to take a few days off."

"Then I want to play games at home!" Luo Qing Chen said with a smile, "I haven't played on the battlefield for a long time, I don't know if I can still kill in all directions!"

Gong Mu Bai's expression changed. He cleared his throat and pretended to be serious as he said to her, "As a third year in high school, the most important thing is to do well in class."

"Changing so fast....." Her lips curled into a smile as she said, "You weren't saying this just now."

"People have to know how to adapt." He used the pen to gently tap her head, "Not to mention that you're a healer, how can you kill in all directions?"

He suddenly felt that this phrase seemed a bit familiar, like he had said it before.

"No, no, no!" Luo Qing Chen shook her head when she heard this, "My disciple said I could kill in all directions!"

Speaking of her disciple, it seemed like he hadn't appeared since she had formed her contract.

Could it be because he had a crush on her, so he was jealous?

"Ding ling." The bell for the morning class interrupted their conversation. Luo Qing Chen saw the teachers coming in, so she waved her hand to Gong Mu Bai and said, "I'll head back to the classroom first."

“Un.”

Sunday morning, two math classes.

Everyone was feeling very good. After all, there was a handsome guy to stare at, so it was an enjoyable experience to have a few more math classes!

Only it was a kind of torture for Guan Zi Yang.

Because his score on the math test was only eighty five points, the lowest in the class.

so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 2000: Master, please step up (Part 37)

“This math test wasn’t hard, our class average was one hundred and ten. The highest mark was one hundred and thirty eight, which was our math class representative, classmate Luo Qing Chen.” Gong Mu Bai said, “There were no blanks other than the two big questions and all the answers were correct.”

“Pa, pa, pa, pa, pa!” There was a burst of warm applause followed by looks of admiration.

“So powerful.....Qing Chen could still get it right even though she wasn’t feeling well yesterday!”

“I feel that although our class representative always had good grade, it was never this good.”

“Perhaps the grades will increase if the teacher is handsome! I got ten more points compared to before!”

“That’s right!”

Maybe it was because everyone was working for the same goal that there weren’t any jealous or suspicious classmates, this was the luckiest thing about being an eighteen year old student.

“There were also three people who failed this time, with the lowest score being eighty five.” Gong Mu Bai looked into a corner not far away with a provocative look, “Classmate Guan Zi Yang, you should spend more time on your studies in the future. There’s no need to act ‘righteous’ in the future.”

Everyone turned to look at Guan Zi Yang. His face turned red and he clenched his fists as he lowered his head in shame.

Unwillingness spread through his heart. He hated this teacher a bit because he felt that not only did he not get to impress his goddess, he was even being shamed like this.

He would find a chance to get revenge.

There were no classes in the afternoon, so Luo Qing Chen bought a large cup of milk tea before heading home to log onto the game.

Gong Mu Bai wasn’t online, he should be checking homework or preparing his lessons in the office.

When she opened the arena and was prepared to kill in all directions, there was a private message that came up.

When she opened it, she saw that it was from her apprentice that she hadn't talked to in two days.

[DM] White Clothes like the Beginning: Master is online this early?

Luo Qing Chen checked his equipment out of habit. His battle power didn't improve and his equipment was still bad.

Didn't he win a lot of Cloud Coins the other day? Why didn't he get some equipment?

[DM] Summer: Un! There's no class in the afternoon.

[DM] White Clothes like the Beginning: Shouldn't you rest if you don't have class? =。 =

[DM] Summer: Why are you like a teacher! I told me contracted that my apprentice told me that I could kill in all directions!"

A long time passed after Luo Qing Chen sent this and the other side didn't reply. When she was about to enter the arena, there was a 'di, di, di' sound of a private message.

[DM] White Clothes like the Beginning: Master, how is it being the contracted of great god Admiring the Moon? 0.0

Luo Qing Chen sitting in front of the computer was surprised before doubtfully writing something.

[DM] Summer: Are you a man or a woman! Speak, do you want to be the contracted of the great god!

The other side didn't reply for a long time after she sent this.

When she finished an arena match, her apprentice finally replied with one word.

[DM] White Clothes like the Beginning: Male.

[DM] Summer: Then do you like boys or girls? ㄟ(^^ㄟ

Luo Qing Chen added a cute emote to help relieve her disciple's strange coldness!

[DM] White Clothes like the Beginning: I like you!

.....

.....

What was with this apprentice? He wanted to be on top? His equipment was so bad, wouldn't he be beaten to death by the great god?
