Chapter 201: Weak king's seventh princess consort (Part 18)

The drum was playing the «Weeping Ode» and on stage was a pair in purple and white clothes acting out the life and death of a pair of lovers. It made people unable to stop their eyes from turning red.

Luo Qing Chen wiped her tears as she watched from under the stage. Chu Nan Xian saw how sad she looked and he said with knitted brows, "I suddenly regret bringing you out to see this play."

"Don't regret it, don't regret it." She saw his knitted brows and quickly shook her head, "Look how good it is! Being this brave just for love, giving up everything else!"

"But there's no need to be this sad!" He softly stroked her head as his eyes filled with a pampering smile.

Actually he just didn't want to see her feeling sad.

"That's right!" Luo Qing Chen felt it was very logical as she shook her head. She said in a teasing voice, "This life and death scenario can only happen in a play. If we ever meet the same thing as them, we would already be sent on our way by a great disaster."

"I won't leave you!" His beautiful eyes glowed like the moon, filling with a glow of determination.

"My master, you're so serious!" She leaned up against him and revealed a faint smile.

She was just teasing him, but she never thought that he would be this serious.

"Move aside, move aside, the crown prince is here and you're not moving aside!" While Luo Qing Chen was focused on watching, there was a sound that came from the entrance.

"Quickly run, the crown prince is here!"

"Don't kill me, don't kill me.....Ah——" After a scream, the man who called out fell into a pool of blood.

She slightly looked up and saw Chu Nan Xian tightly knitting his brows.

The citizens around them heard this and they all instantly panicked. According to the rumours, the crown prince was cold and arrogant, using very ruthless methods.

Seeing the real person now, their souls flew out in fear.

"Ah——" Luo Qing Chen wanted to get up when she was hit by a man. Then when the crowd surged forward, she was pushed into a corner.

"Qing Qing——" Chu Nan Xian watched as she was swept up into the crowd, but he couldn't catch her.

But he didn't give up. Although his face was pale, he kept charging in her direction.

Only when he saw her cute bewildered face did his heart finally settle a bit.

He quickly ran forward and grabbed her, but he suddenly realized that almost at the same time, her other hand was grabbed by someone else.

An enchanting smile appeared on Jun Yao Chen's face as he looked at Luo Qing Chen while saying, "If the miss likes this kind of play, this crown prince can send them to the King Chu Manor to let them sing nightly. This is to repay the miss for that day's.....life saving grace."

As his voice fell, he slightly raised one brow. He looked at Chu Nan Xian not far away with a look of challenge in his eyes.

"Many thanks to the crown prince for saving my wife." Chu Nan Xian's eyes narrowed as he softly pulled Luo Qing Chen towards himself. He looked right into Jun Yao Chen's eyes and a cold aura that kept people thousands of miles away was released from him.

"Oh?" Jun Yao Chen's lips curled slightly as he unhappily let go of Luo Qing Chen's arm. His lips were slightly curled as he said, "No need to be polite."

After saying this, with his hands behind his back, he walked toward the actors.

"From this day forth, you will perform in the King Chu Manor. If this miss does not like you, you better think about whether there is a need for you to remain alive in this world." His enchanting voice slowly drifted out, just like the sound of a devil, filling her ears.

"No....."

She wanted to say something, but she was stopped by Chu Nan Xian beside her.

He looked over and with tightly knit brows, he shook his head.

Chapter 202: Weak king's seventh princess consort (Part 19)

"You can all follow Nian Nian to the side hall to stay for now. When the limelight is gone, I'll send you out of the city." Chu Nan Xian said to the members of the performing group.

"Thank you your highness."

"Please come with me." Nian Nian nodded and led them away.

"Master, why didn't you let me reject him earlier....."

"Qing Qing, perhaps you don't understand the crown prince. His style and method of acting is even more cruel and ruthless than the current emperor." Chu Nan Xian held her hand as he walked to the inner hall, while explaining to her, "If you didn't want this troupe, they wouldn't have been able to exist in this world any longer."

Chu Nan Xian's eyes sunk, as he remembered the way he looked at Luo Qing Chen back then.

In those evil charming eyes, there was a trace of excitement and a look of possessiveness.

Luo Qing Chen heard this and couldn't help feeling a bit afraid. This person had never appeared in the task panel before. Even if the system gave a few sentences introducing him, it all seemed irrelevant. However, she couldn't stop the unsettled feeling that filled her heart.

She felt that this person would be the most terrifying person in this world.

Two days later, King Chu followed the emperor to the Evil Monarch's Court on Floating Wind Mountain to participate in the worship ceremony.

Luo Qing Chen didn't know why the emperor worshipped the Evil Monarch's Court's pavilion head this much, but he must have used something unusual to exchange for something.

[The host is quite smart!]

In the bumpy carriage, when she thought of this matter, the system's voice suddenly appeared!

She really treated like it wasn't there!

Damn! You mean that the emperor really exchanged for something with the Evil Monarch's Court's pavilion head?

[Yes!]

What did he exchange for? It wouldn't be.....

[Yes, the emperor's throne.]

WTF? Who did the emperor's throne belong to back then?

[King Chu.]

When the system said these two words, she felt her body tremble. Even Chu Nan Xian who was holding her felt it!

"What is it, are you cold?" Seeing her body trembled, he knit his brows in worry.

Floating Wind Mountain couldn't compare to the city, it was covered in snow and was an extremely cold place. But he knew that as he approached the Evil Monarch's Court, his body would become stronger.

This was because he was moving closer to his two souls and six spirits.

She looked up at his knit brows and couldn't help saying with a smile, "Master doesn't look good with knit brows at all, it's a waste of such a good looking face."

He slowly raised his hand and softly tapped her nose with pampering eyes as he said, "You, oh you, going good looking all day. If I wasn't as good looking as you called me, would you still love me?"

"Puchi——" Luo Qing Chen heard this and couldn't help smiling as she said, "Master, I feel like this questions should be something that a woman asks a man."

"It seems to be....." Chu Nan Xian gave a nod as his lips curled into a faint smile.

Without knowing why, he suddenly felt that he was very blessed.

The normal conversations like this could fill his heart with warmth, heating it up.

"I will always like you and I will always be by your side, never letting you be alone." After a while, she leaned into his embrace and looked at him with serious eyes, saying this in an incomparably clear voice.

She just suddenly wanted to talk about their love.

Chu Nan Xian was stunned and it took him a while before he came back to his senses from these warm words.

His right hand tightly held onto her leaning against him and his left hand softly covered her eyes.

He leaned in to give a kiss.

Chapter 203: Weak king's seventh princess consort (Part 20)

Chu Nan Xian's kiss was very soft like a drop of water, leaving as soon as it touched.

It just left a slightly sweet and had a bit of a begonia fragrance.

Luo Qing Chen felt her breathing stop and her heart beating faster. She could feel the sweat coming from his palms and the heat that filled it.

Without knowing how long passed, he finally slowly moved his hand from her eyes.

In that instant, Luo Qing Chen quickly raised her sleeve to cover her completely red face, shyly drilling herself into his arms.

"Ke, ke." Chu Nan Xian's cleared his throat before a gentle voice entered her ear bit by bit, "Qing Qing, we're here."

For a while, Luo Qing Chen didn't react.

Chu Nan Xian touched her hand with a bit of worry as he said, "Are you asleep?"

"No!" After that, she suddenly stood up. Her eyes were sparkling as a faint blush filled her face.

This kind of cute appearance, it really drilled deep into his heart.

The large caravan rested at the 'Bright Moon Mountain Villa' at the base of the mountain before heading up the next day.

That night, it really took a long time to pass.

"It really is too cold, the young master and princess consort Qing should just sleep near the oven." Nian Nian prepared the bed while raising the temperature of the oven.

Luo Qing Chen looked at the coal in the oven before saying, "Nian Nian, go and find a housekeeper to bring some more coal. This bit won't be enough for tonight."

As kings and nobles, they lived in first class rooms of the 'Bright Moon Mountain Villa'. Normally speaking, they wouldn't only have this little bit of coal.

Looking at it, it really wasn't enough for tonight.

"Yes, Nian Nian will go now."

There was a sinister feel in the 'Bright Moon Mountain Villa' tonight. The sky was dark and there were sounds of crows squawking, not matching the make of this villa at all.

"Nian Nian has been gone for quite some time....." As the temperature in the room gradually dropped, she looked up at the darkness outside the window and couldn't help feeling a bit worried.

"The owner of this villa was not good. Although he is already deceased, it doesn't mean this place is safe." Chu Nan Xian slightly knit his brows as a trace of worry filled his face.

Luo Qing Chen heard this and tightly knit her brows. They came out with the emperor today, it was best if they didn't make a big mess."

"Master, I'm going to the storage room to check, don't leave this place." She thought about it before deciding to go look for Nian Nian.

After all, this time was enough for her to take three trips.

Nian Nian was not a careless person. If she didn't meet something hard for her, she must be in some kind of danger.....

"I'll come with you."

"No." Luo Qing Chen said while shaking her head, "It's too cold outside and the master's body isn't good, you mustn't go out. Trust me, nothing will happen to me."

She definitely wasn't careless with her life, she had the system! She had exchange points! She wouldn't be afraid if anything happened!

"I want to go with you." Chu Nan Xian came forward to grab her sleeve like he was afraid she would leave. There was a deep look of determination in the bottom of his eyes.

In that moment, he kept feeling like his divination would come true and his heart became even more unsettled.

Luo Qing Chen said with a soft laugh, "If the master comes with me, I'll be worried about you. Not only would I not find Nian Nian, if something dangerous really happens, we'll both suffer! How about this, if I'm not back in an hour, master can think of a way to find me. But remember, you can't come find me alone."

It was wise for her to go alone, alright? If someone tried to attack her, how could she run with a person that only had one soul and one spirit!

Chapter 204: Weak king's seventh princess consort (Part 21)

In the end, Chu Nan Xian still couldn't beat her. With an uneasy heart, he let her go look for Nian Nian alone.

Actually their room wasn't that far away from the storage room, only this path was arranged with the five elemental path, so it was rather hard to walk.

Logically speaking, the priests following the emperor had already taught them how to walk this path, so they wouldn't be lost.

"Xiu——" With a cold breeze, the surrounding light dimmed. If the candle in her hand went out at this time, she wouldn't have been able to head back.

"Wu——"

"Who?" Before she reached the storage room, she heard a faint sound from the fake rocks in the garden.

"Wu, princess consort Qing, run quickly——"

"Nian Nian."

"Xiu——" There was another gust of wind, but this was different from before. It was the sound of someone rushing up beside her.

"What, Qing Chen isn't happy to see this king?" A familiar voice came from behind her.

Luo Qing Chen tightly knit her brows. She naturally knew who the person behind her was, but she didn't know why that person had kidnapped Nian Nian.

"Chu Bei Ye." Her eyes turned cold and her brows slightly knit. She pursed her lips as she said, "It's the middle of the night, so Nian Nian and I won't disturb young master Bei any longer."

After saying this, she turned to leave, but she found that the other side was faster than her and grabbed her arm. His slender fingers tapped twice on her back and she couldn't move at all.

Chu Bei Ye gave a cold laugh before softly saying in her ear, "Luo Qing Chen, how long are you going to keep pretending? Aren't you just playing hard to get? This king will give you this chance tonight."

"Let go of my princess consort Qing." Nian Nian forcefully broke free of the guards holding her and charged to Luo Qing Chen's side. A pair of hands covered in blood grabbed Chu Bei Ye's legs.

Her face was very pale, but there was a deadly determination in her eyes to protect her master.

"What did you do to Nian Nian?" Luo Qing Chen saw Nian Nian covered in blood and said with gritted teeth, "Chu Bei Ye, just what do you want to do?"

"Ha, ha——" Chu Bei Ye gave two loud laughs and forcefully pulled with his hand, bringing her into his embrace. He said with an evil smile, "Qing Chen, Qing Chen, you didn't call me this in the past. Tell me, did you really fall in love with that sickly king?"

After that, he kicked away Nian Nian holding his leg and said to the two guards behind her, "Lock her up. Before this king is finished speaking, block her mouth."

"My master definitely will not let you go." Luo Qing Chen watched the other side drag Nian Nian away as they gradually faded into the night, only leaving behind a heartrending cry.

Chu Bei Ye heard this and leaned in beside her ear to take a deep breath, as if he was taking in the smell of her body. Then he said with a faint smile, "That ignorant girl actually compared this king to that sickly and weak coward, he, he.....It truly is laughable!"

"There will always be egoistic people who think they are beloved by all, but actually they are nothing more than petty villains." Luo Qing Chen's eyes had a resolute cold look as she said while biting her lip, "You aren't worthy of comparing to him at all because nothing about you is as good as him."

She knew that she was surrounded by Chu Bei Ye's people. If the system was to help, it definitely wouldn't be here.

"Oh?" There was a deep rage in Chu Bei Ye's eyes. He looked at her snow white skin and outstanding appearance and he couldn't help liking her. Why didn't he feel that she was this beautiful back then? He was suddenly filled with regret at performing the wedding swap incident.

"This king will let you see whether this king can compare to him or not in the bed."

After saying this, he lifted her up by the waist and headed to a secret room.

Chapter 205: Weak king's seventh princess consort (Part 22)

The "Bright Moon Mountain Villa's" secret room was behind a fake mountain and inside a circular stairway, giving people a very ominous feeling.

Luo Qing Chen didn't feel any danger, rather she was a bit worried about Nian Nian. If she exchanged for a skill to escape by herself, not only would she leave all these 'evildoers' alive, there was also the danger of Nian Nian being killed.

Therefore she decided to take it step by step.

System, system, I want to exchange for a Purple Glowing Divine Sword! How much will it cost?

[5000!] The system didn't give her a chance to bargain at all!

Damn, so expensive! Then how about lending me the Exquisite Ring to use?

[10000!] For a divine item, this was already quite cheap!

Why don't you go to the heavens?

[The system is afraid of heights!] The system spread its non-existent hands, showing that it was very honest!

Damn! Trash system, then how about you give me a mace later!

[The system recommends the host to directly exchange for teleportation, after all, Chu Bei Ye is not a normal person. The host might not be able to beat him with the mace!]

WTF? Chu Bei Ye was this powerful!?

Luo Qing Chen hadn't finished discussing the matter of exchange points with the system when she had already been thrown onto a crystal bed in the secret room by Chu Bei Ye.

The secret room was filled with twelve faint blue candles and there was faint musk in the air that made people a bit confused when they took a breath.

"Luo Qing Chen, you loved this king this much back then and now that you've changed your heart after being married to that sickly king for just a few days, it really hurts me." Chu Bei Ye didn't throw himself onto her like a wolf, rather he angrily looked at her and vented the complaints in his heart.

"He, he." She gave a soft laugh before saying with a cold snort, "What? Young master Bei is no longer interested in Qian Chu Yue and wants to change your tastes?"

Her tone was filled with sarcasm. Others might not understand Chu Bei Ye, but how could she not? The original host died so tragically and it really didn't lack merit from him!

Chu Bei Ye angrily stared at her and said through tightly gritted teeth, "You love this king, right? You're just waiting for this king to pamper you, that's why you're deliberately being this cold to this king, right?"

He didn't believe it, he definitely didn't believe it! Luo Qing Chen's eyes had always been looking at him, so why did it suddenly change!

The unwillingness in his heart gradually became stronger and it soon filled his entire heart.

Even now he began to find that Qian Chu Yue unpleasant to look at!

"Chu Bei Ye, have you not woken up from your daydream? Keep dreaming if you haven't woken up yet, alright? Coming to the worship ceremony to desecrate the gods, be careful of heavenly punishment!" She gave a cold snort. Seeing how egoistic Chu Bei Ye was, she really wanted to exchange for a mace to wake him up!

It was simply like his brain was kicked by a donkey!

"This king is the one who saved you back then and now you've already forgotten this life saving grace completely." Chu Bei Ye saw that she refused to submit and used the matter of that year to remind her of his life saving grace.

But he never thought that.....

"Who saved me back then, you know in your heart. There are only the two of us here, aren't you tired pretending like this?" Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat before saying these powerful words that were like a red hot slap that hit his face.

"Luo Qing Chen, you....." Chu Bei Ye was clearly angered as he leaned forward with clenched fists. He looked at her white face and said, "You'll be mine after tonight. Even if your little mouth is strong, it will be beneath me."

After saying this, he reached out to grab her clothes. After that, she planned on instantly exchanging for the teleportation use.

A powerful white mist like spiritual energy appeared in front of them, filling the area with a faint begonia smell.

Instantly, all the lights in the secret room were extinguished.

Chapter 206: Weak king's seventh princess consort (Part 23)

That powerful mist turned into a formless figure that instantly pressed Chu Bei Ye to the ground.

The entire secret room was filled with a chill, as well as an intense killing intent.

“Who are you, daring to ambush this.....” Chu Bei Ye didn't even get to finish as a strong force pressed down on his throat and he couldn't move at all.

Luo Qing Chen felt a warm aura surround her and her acupuncture points were instantly opened.

The begonia smell covered the musk in the room and after taking a deep breath, she felt her mind feel refreshed.

“The wind sways on the evil monarch. The sword falls on the flower and the emperor seals his edict.” There was a cold voice that sounded that contained an intense cold and power.

“Gh, gh, gh.....Ghost.....” Chu Bei Ye's face changed and he was completely frightened. His eyes were empty as he looked into the dark secret room and he couldn't stop trembling.

This secret room was the secret room the previous 'Bright Moon Mountain Villa's' young villa master had brought him to all those years ago, how could anyone else know about it?!

He couldn't grab anything substantial and felt like he was trapped in a vacuum. There was a faint sound in his ears that filled his heart with even more fear.

It was as terrifying as falling into hell.....

That white mist filled with killing intent slammed him into the stone pillar on the side. Chu Bei Ye felt this shock and a sweetness filled his mouth as he spat out a mouthful of blood.

His eyes rolled back and he fainted.

Luo Qing Chen couldn't see the person's face, but there was a familiar aura in the air.

After that, she flew into the air and flew up the stairs like she was being lifted on a cloud. She came out of the fake mountain before the white mist softly put her down.

“Peng, peng—” There were two rough sounds and the guards holding Nian Nian instantly fell to the ground.

Nian Nian opened her eyes with difficulty. Her body trembled before she fell onto the fake mountain on the side. She kept chanting, “Princess consort Qing, Nian Nian is coming to save you.....”

Luo Qing Chen saw this and quickly came forward to say, “Are you alright?”

“Nian Nian is fine.....”

“Alright, Nian Nian, hold on for a bit longer.” Luo Qing Chen raised her hand to take her pulse before turning to run to the white mist.

Nian Nian was stunned as her mouth formed an ‘O’ shape. She looked at Luo Qing Chen not far away as she made a sound, “Ah.....”

“Hey!” Luo Qing Chen called out to the mist remaining in the sky.

It was like the mist felt something and the sky suddenly boomed with thunder, as the wind went wild.

After a few seconds, the sky was filled with leaves that fell to the ground, falling to form one word: Return.

She looked up slightly and saw the moon slowly peeking out from behind the clouds, as she suddenly thought of something.

She was thinking of him.

The night had been long and she thought that everything was over, but she never thought that Chu Nan Xian would have a high fever all night.

When the next morning came, he slowly opened his eyes.

The first thing he did was raise his hand to stroke her face, as he softly said, “It’s good that you’re fine.”

She gave a slight nod as her eyes misted over.

He thought that she didn’t know anything, but she actually knew everything.

The system had told her yesterday that his two souls and six spirits was using his life as a gamble when it left the Evil Monarch’s Court. He would lose some cultivation if he won and he would be turned into dust if he lost.

It was a good thing the goddess of luck was with him this time.

But next time.....

Perhaps he wouldn’t be this lucky.

Chapter 207: Weak king’s seventh princess consort (Part 24)

Chu Nan Xian who suddenly had a fever could avoid participating in the worship ceremony since the Chu Family still had Chu Bei Ye.

But nobody knew why in a single night, Chu Bei Ye had become a bit crazy.

Sometimes being afraid, sometimes wildly laughing. It was he had been hit with something shocking and his mind was destroyed.

In order to calm him down, Qian Chu Yue charged forward to hug him.

She thought that he would gently hug her waist like usual and give her a fierce kiss.

But she never thought that Chu Bei Ye would throw her away and give her two large slaps.

This scene was something Luo Qing Chen had seen. Not only her, many of the royal relatives and nobles who came to this worship ceremony also saw it.

Chu Bei Ye pressed Qian Chu Yue to the ground and sent slap after slap. It was like he had gone crazy as he kept saying, "Who told you to act like a ghost, who told you to act like a ghost! This king will beat you to death, beat you to death!"

The heavy strikes hit her delicate skin and made crisp 'pa, pa, pa' sounds.

Qian Chu Yue was begging for her life, but no one dared to come forward and pull Chu Bei Ye away. They could only let her take the pain and wait for Chu Bei Ye to stop after he was tired.

To be honest, it was quite pleasant seeing this kind of scene.

This was considered drawing blood to take revenge for the original host! Although it didn't seem to come from her hand.

However, King Chu was enraged since the emperor treated this matter of worshipping the Evil Monarch's Court pavilion head very seriously.

The emperor was already watching the King Chu Manor, afraid that he would try to take the throne.

If at this time both his sons collapsed, he would definitely be denounced by all.

Chu Bei Ye definitely couldn't go in his state. Even if Chu Nan Xian's body was a bit weak, he could only bear with it.

One had to bow all the way to the Evil Monarch's Court, but before they even reached halfway, Luo Qing Chen felt her knees filling with pain.

But Chu Nan Xian to the side was in a good mood. He was happier the more he bowed.

He didn't feel like he was dying like he did yesterday with his high fever!

She couldn't help shrugging as she thought: That's about right! Of course he's happy bowing to himself!"

"Does Qing Qing's knees hurt?" He looked at how aggrieved she looked and asked this question in a pained voice.

He suddenly felt that this kind of worship ceremony was useless, it was fine to abolish it next year.

"It hurts." She pretended to look frustrated, "This bowing is inhumane!"

Her words weren't wrong! Bowing from the 'Bright Moon Mountain Villa' to the Evil Monarch's Court on the peak, this meant going up a thousand steps while bowing!

This was clearly kneeling until your knees broke, alright? How could it be humane!

“Un.....” Chu Nan Xian gave an honest nod and said with a serious face, “Qing Qing is right, there is no need for this next year.”

When he said this, he felt that something was wrong. He looked over at Luo Qing Chen with a sweet smile and said, “No need to come together.....I can just come alone.”

Actually Luo Qing Chen knew that his words meant that there was no need to hold this kind of worship ceremony next year.

Their family’s master was sometimes really cute.

A trace of cuteness with all his gentleness.

And what Luo Qing Chen didn’t know was that a pair of enchanting evil eyes had been staring at her the entire time. It was just like back at Pine Mound Mountain, it didn’t leave her for a second.

She also didn’t know that the master of this Floating Wind Mountain, the Evil Monarch’s Court’s pavilion head knew about this.

Chapter 208: Weak king’s seventh princess consort (Part 25)

No one knew why, but the Evil Monarch’s Court on Floating Wind Mountain that day was filled with wind and lightning.

The entire building was covered in a white mist and filled with spiritual energy. It was like the person inside had a faint anger and was venting it.

Then there was an old and mighty voice that came from the Evil Monarch’s Court.

“The pavilion head doesn’t like noise, there is no need to come next year.”

Shu Gu used his cultivation to send out his voice, shaking all the begonia trees outside the Evil Monarch’s Court.

In that instant, the begonias mixed with the snow, looking incredibly beautiful.

Luo Qing Chen slightly turned to look at Chu Nan Xian beside her. His eyes were glowing and there was a faint smile on his face.

Without knowing why, he had an aura that normal people wouldn’t have.

The old emperor took a step back in fear and quickly bowed as he said, “We’ve disrupted the Evil Monarch’s Court’s pavilion head, it’s these mortals’ sin. These ones will stick to a simple diet for a month to discipline ourselves.”

After that, everyone kneeled and repeated the emperor’s words.

Again and again as the snow fell around them. The wind blew across Floating Wind Mountain, carrying a solemn and majestic feel.

Only Luo Qing Chen muttered, “But I don’t want to fast, I want to eat meat.....”

“Then eat meat. Whatever Qing Qing wants to eat, you can eat whatever you want.” It was unknown how good the hearing of Chu Nan Xian beside her was. Even in such a loud crowd, he could actually hear her words.

But for the next month, Luo Qing Chen really didn't get to eat a single bite of meat.

This was because King Chu Manor's kitchen didn't buy any meat, not a single piece!

After all, the emperor had given a royal decree banning all meat for a month, so even the citizens didn't dare sell any!

This was simply the heavens letting someone down!

Chu Nan Xian saw her eating tofu while looking like she was on the edge of life and death and he couldn't help feeling pain in his heart.

It was all his fault.....

“Un——” Luo Qing Chen saw his slightly knit brows and said with a nod, “Your thoughts are very correct!”

Chu Nan Xian was stunned. A happy look flashed in his dark eyes as he said, “How does Qing Qing know what I'm thinking?”

“Does master not know that there is something called connected minds in this world?” Luo Qing Chen looked at him while innocently blinking before she said with bright eyes, “For example, what am I thinking about now? Does master know?”

“You want meat.....”

“Right, right, right! Meat, meat, meat!” She honestly nodded, not looking like she would change her mind at all.

Even like this, she was quite satisfied with her current life. Having a bit of gentleness normally and having someone warm by her side each day and night.

Watching the sunrise and sunset together, feasting on all kinds of delicacies, sometimes being naughty, and having him look at you with his pampering eyes.

The happiest thing in this life was that when you played, he laughed and warmed up your life.

“Let me thank you for giving me light and a dream.” She looked up slightly into his eyes with a faint smile on her face, saying these little words of love that warmed his heart.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 70%.]

Ya! Why did she feel that every time she said small words of love, her master would increase his affection for her!

So her master was actually this shy!

“I never thought that I would meet you in this life, the one who always stays by my side. Why are you this good to me? I'm clearly this useless.....”

“Don’t say anything else.” She reached out her hand and covered his mouth. With a faint blush, she said with a smile, “Because I like you. Because Luo Qing Chen likes Chu Nan Xian.”

Chapter 209: Weak king’s seventh princess consort (Part 26)

He narrowed his eyes and there was a soft gaze as his eyes sparkled.

His right hand softly caressed her white face as his handsome face continued leaning in.

When he was about to kiss her, Nian Nian shocked cry came from outside.

She couldn’t help stomping her foot in an unwilling manner as she softly bit her lip and said, “When will you marry Nian Nian off!”

“I think I can send her off to a good family tomorrow!” Chu Nan Xian resolutely nodded his head, showing that her thoughts were very correct!

“Very reasonable!” She looked at the reflection in his eyes and revealed a sweet smile.

In that moment, she and Chu Nan Xian were still indulging in their sweet and warm time together, slowly chipping away at their time.

They didn’t know at all that when the door opened, it would be the greatest change in their lives.....

One needed to go back a month ago, back at the Pine Mound Mountain hunt.

No one who ambushed the crown prince Jun Yao Chen lived. A month later, Northern Water Ridge City’s commander Yang Yi raised a rebellion and after he was caught by Jun Yao Chen, he confessed to being the mastermind behind the assassination of Pine Mound Mountain.

What was worth mentioning was that this Northern Water Ridge City’s commander Yang Yi was recommended for this position by King Chu three years ago.

Treason and assassination.

It was unclear whether the King Chu Manor had participated in this.

King Chu was already being watched by the current emperor, but he didn’t have a way to cut down the grass. Now that such a chance had come, how could he leave a chance for him to turn this around.

“The army will be here soon. Young master, princess consort Qing, what should we do?” After Nian Nian stuttered to repeat everything, she repeated this final sentence.

What to do, she also wanted to know what to do.....

King Chu’s recommendation, Pine Mound Mountain’s assassination, Yang Yi rebelling, and the Chu Family being implicated.....

Without knowing why, she felt that everything behind this was not as simple as it seemed on the surface.

That man with his evil charming and enchanting smile, doing all of this, what was he doing this for?

Chu Nan Xian's eyes tightly knit beside her and he tightly held her hand.

"We definitely can't run." She took a deep breath before looking into the distance and saying, "Not to mention that the King Chu Manor should have already been surrounded and the city gates should have already been locked."

"Nian Nian will protect you." Nian Nian looked at Luo Qing Chen and said this through gritted teeth.

Who would have known that after this, Ye Yu Xi would tightly knit her brows as she said to Nian Nian, "Since ancient times, everyone was killed during rebellions. All the servants would also be executed....."

"Ah.....No.....Don't scare....."

"Nian Nian, I'm not scaring you this time."

As her voice fell, she watched as the guards charged towards the Heart Palace and surrounded them in.

The one leading them was a familiar figure.

Jun Yao Chen was in a black robe with golden trims and embroidered dragons. Under the wild wind, he looked quite intimidating.

After he entered, his eyes fell right onto Luo Qing Chen. He put his hands behind his back and a faint smile appeared on his lips, "Take them all away."

Her heart turned cold as she slightly looked up at Chu Nan Xian beside her.

He had narrowed his eyes and a look of extreme coldness was in his eyes.

She had never seen this expression before, there was an impenetrable emotion in those eyes.

Worry, anger, confusion, and determination.....

But his hands tightly holding hers didn't let go for an instant. Without knowing why, he was a bit afraid.....

He was afraid that if he let go, he wouldn't be able to hold them again.

Chapter 210: Weak king's seventh princess consort (Part 27)

But in the end, this pair of hands was still forcefully separated by the guards as they dragged him away.

In a certain moment in the future, when she remembered the expression Chu Nan Xian had in that moment, her heart would strangely fill with pain.

He kept looking back as he was pulled away, watching Jun Yao Chen holding onto Luo Qing Chen, biting his lip so hard that it was almost bleeding. Those deep eyes filled with a soft mist, as they filled with pain and unwillingness.

It was like he wanted just another look of her and a single look could last ten thousand years.

Why was his time together with her so short? Why was it that life couldn't delay these changes? Why was it that he was so helpless when he faced these changes?

It wasn't like he didn't know the fate of rebels, so the instant Jun Yao Chen took her away, he had made up his mind.

At least she didn't need to die with him.

But he still wanted to take one last look at her. At least before the instant he closed his eyes forever, he wanted his eyes to be filled with her.

Luo Qing Chen was after all General Luo's daughter and she hadn't been in the King Chu Manor for long, so if they tracked things back three years, it was all unrelated to her.

The emperor said that on account of General Luo's loyalty in fighting for the country and adding in the crown prince's Jun Yao Chen's strange pleading for her, he would agree to placing Luo Qing Chen under house arrest at the general's manor for now. After the Chu Family's rebellion verdict was over, he would decide what to do with her.

Although the emperor hadn't been clear about this, all the bystanders could hear that Luo Qing Chen's life had been spared.

Outside the throne room—

General Luo kept thanking Jun Yao Chen. Although he was an old person, he could tell from how the crown prince looked at his daughter, he could see a strange feeling.

"The general's manor is far and the young girl has suffered quite a bit of a shock today. How about letting her stay in the Eastern Palace for a few days, which would also help the court's investigations." General Luo slightly bowed before looking at Jun Yao Chen in front of him, speaking what he wanted to say.

After being an official for several decades, how could he not know that the crown prince who had always acted alone had never pleaded for anyone in the court before. Now he had pleaded for mercy for his daughter, he really never expected this.

If he knew back then that Jun Yao Chen had affection for his daughter, he never would have married his daughter to the Chu Family.

"I'm just afraid young miss Ye won't be accustomed to this prince's Eastern Palace." Jun Yao Chen revealed a polite smile, not showing any arrogance in front of General Luo at all.

"It's good you know." She coldly looked up, but she knew it was no use if she rejected him at all.

With how dangerous the situation of the Chu Family was, she definitely couldn't act out. She definitely, definitely had to calm down.....

"Qing'er, don't be rude." General Luo angrily reprimanded as he raised his hand to teach her a lesson.

But in that instant, he couldn't change Luo Qing Chen's expression at all. Her eyes were cold and they were filled with disdain.

When he wanted to send a strong slap across Luo Qing Chen's face, Jun Yao Chen steadily grabbed General Luo's hand and said, "Young miss Luo doesn't understand, the general shouldn't be angry. If the general wants to bring young miss Luo back, this prince will order someone to prepare a carriage immediately and send you out of the palace. If you are worried that young miss Luo is too tired to travel, it is fine if she temporarily stays in the Eastern Palace."

Jun Yao Chen's words sounded like he was giving General Luo and Luo Qing Chen the right to choose, but there really wasn't one.

Those determined eyes said everything.

"Then I'll have to trouble your highness to take care of my daughter."
