Chapter 2131: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (20)

Actually, she knew that she wouldn't die because when she decided to run with the God Executing Altar, she asked the system if it would work.

After all, the defenses of the heavenly palace were tight and it was very hard to leave through normal methods unless one was heavily guarded.

She had given Ning'er and Xiao Lang this chance, but she couldn't leave.

Although it was a last resort to escape using the God Executing Altar, stealing the God Soul wasn't easy to begin with.

She heard the wild wind whistling in her ears as countless sword formations appeared around her, creating light blue sword glows that surrounded her in layers. She raised her right hand and the Exquisite Ring's golden glow surrounded her.

When she was about to resist with all her power, there was a red glow that appeared around her as a cool as water voice with a bit of arrogance rang in her ears.

"Fool....."

"Damn! Who?"

As soon as her voice fell, she felt the red light around her explode as it wrapped her up. The powerful God Executing Altar couldn't hurt her at all.

Without knowing how long passed, there was only a 'hong' sound before she lost consciousness.

When she opened her eyes again, she was in a sea of flowers and the blurry scene gradually cleared.

"She's awake, she's awake!" Ning'er was very excited as tears fell down her cheek.

Luo Qing Chen revealed a faint smile, "It seems like the most dangerous time is over."

She took a deep breath and stretched out her waist, "Of course, we have to thank the Moon Watching God for his help."

The Moon Watching God who had his arms crossed turned around and said with a helpless sigh, "You, ah you! It took a thousand years to reassemble your primordial spirit and you do such a risky thing."

Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug, "So what do you think I should do? Be a flower immortal of the heavens? Diligently watch the flowers of the other shore, forget the three words Luo Qing Chen and become Poppy?"

If you could live a second life, but had to live a useless life, you would just wait for others to recognize you and to hurt you.

Waiting for disasters to befall you, what kind of life was that?

“But how can you fight the entire heavens with your current ability?” The Moon Watching God looked at Luo Qing Chen with a helpless look, “Stealing the God Soul is a death penalty in the heavens, the heavenly emperor won’t let you go. This place won’t be safe soon.”

Luo Qing Chen’s lips curled into a taunting smile as a bit of helplessness appeared in her clear eyes, “Moon Watching, you’ve changed.”

He was so rebellious, unafraid of the heavens or humans before, only doing what he wanted to do.

A thousand years of peace made him stick to the rules, becoming blindly respectful of the heaven’s system.

“I just.....”

The Moon Watching God wanted to explain, but his words were stuck in his mouth and wouldn’t come out for a long time.

His best friend pierced the greatest doubt in his heart, the things that he desperately tried to hide had been brought out by her with a few words.

How shameful.....

“I don’t think I need to say anything else. The heavens have done all these injustices and if you want to be a god who does nothing, that is your matter.” Luo Qing Chen opened her palm and said, “Give me the God Soul. If you are still the Moon Watching God I knew before, I hope that you will give them a new identity.”

She was a bit angry. All the people in the world could not understand her, but the Moon Watching God couldn’t.

They had been through life and death together, repeling the foreign enemies, but what did that matter in the end.

The empress’ framing a thousand years ago, the hypocrisy of the heavenly emperor, the indifference of the crown prince.....

“Then what about you?”

Chapter 2132: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (21)

For a long time, there was silence in the air.

The Moon Watching God silently looked at her before saying, “Don’t worry, I’ll take care of them.”

“Thank you.” She gave a nod as her anger slowly dissipated and sincere gratitude came out.

The Moon Watching God said with a chuckle, "Actually I'm not worried about you since you have half his divine power in you. I think that you should have felt it when you jumped into the God Executing Altar."

Luo Qing Chen was surprised when she heard this. She suddenly thought of that proud and cool voice.

"You mean....." Luo Qing Chen said in a surprised voice, "Ye Xuan Ji can talk to me?"

God! Was that true!

"Not only can he talk to you, he can guess your thoughts better than normal people." The Moon Watching God said with a chuckle, "So it wasn't me who protected you in the God Executing Array, but rather him."

"It's.....it's this terrifying?" Luo Qing Chen thought in a daze: What difference is there from having a second system!

[Of course there's a difference! The system can know the host's thoughts 100%, the male lead is only relying on guesses, alright?]

It gave the mechanical response while spreading out its non-existent hands in a proud manner.

It seemed like everything had its pros and cons! While obtaining the divine power of the Demon God, she was also being spied on by that divine power!

"But this is also good. Since you have half of Ye Xuan Ji's divine power, I'll be more at ease when you go to the Myriad Demon Mirror." The Moon Watching God took out the God Soul in his right hand, "You can give this to him, he will tell you how to get there."

Luo Qing Chen slightly knitted her brows before looking up and shaking her head, "You can help me send the God Soul over, I have somewhere more important to go."

Her eyes were very determined because whether it was for her or the previous host, she would fight to the death.

"Where are you going now?" The Moon Watching God knitted his brows, "The heavenly court will definitely send people to hunt you down. Even if they knew that they can't get back the God Soul, they won't let you off."

"So the upper Moon Watching God hopes that I can join the demon race, becoming part of the Myriad Demon Mirror so the heavens won't chase me down?" Luo Qing Chen gave a soft laugh as a faint smile appeared in her eyes.

"At least hiding in the Myriad Demon Mirror is the only way out." The Moon Watching God's voice was very certain, along with an absolute look of certainty in his eyes.

He didn't understand the Luo Qing Chen in front of him. She had the same arrogance and aura as before.

But there was something that was off.

For example, she was strangely determined and was missing a coldness that kept people away.

Actually, the Roaring Flame God was just indifferent in the beginning, but she gradually changed after meeting Di Fan Yu.

She was indecisive about things, but she always compromised after thinking it through.

But now her eyes gave him a feeling that she had already planned everything and she was moving forward step by step according to her plan.

“Actually, you’re right. If I go to the Myriad Demon Mirror with the God Soul and half of Ye Xuan Ji’s divine power, not only would I be protected, I would be supported by all the demons there. After all, I am the one who will save their demon lord.” Luo Qing Chen revealed a smile before saying, “But in my vocabulary, there isn’t the word hide.”

She could go to the Myriad Demon Mirror, she could fight the heavens, but it wasn’t with this identity, the identity of a flower immortal.

Since she would take revenge, she feared nothing.

The previous host could become a god, she could do the same!

“You.....Then where do you want to go?”

Chapter 2133: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (22)

The return of the king, that was the ending she wanted.

She wanted to let everyone in the heavens know that Di Fan Yu used the previous host’s sincerity and his own despicableness to abolish her divine power.

She wanted to take everything back.

Of course she would take back her divine power first.

“Good words!” There was a beautiful voice that rang in her ear. Luo Qing Chen rolled her eyes and said, “Don’t secretly listen to me!”

“What did you say?” The Moon Watching God clearly didn’t know who she was talking to, but he reacted after a while and said with a faint smile, “It seems like the divine power he gave you is working!”

“Humph!” Luo Qing Chen gave an angry snort, “When I finish the Soul Devouring Tower, I will give this divine power back to him!”

This feeling of letting others listen to your words, feel what you feel, it was very strange, alright?

“I never easily take back the things I give out.” Ye Xuan Ji heard her words and immediately replied.

This beautiful voice slowly talking in her ears, it really made her tremble.

Because to be honest, it really was.....nice.

After bidding farewell to Ning'er and Xiao Lang, Luo Qing Chen and the Moon Watching God headed off together.

He went to the Myriad Demon Mirror while she headed to the wilderness.

Since becoming the Roaring Flame God, the previous host hadn't been in the wilderness for over a thousand years.

When she had charged into the Soul Devouring Tower with her blue sword, no one was optimistic.

Even some demons laughed at her, thinking that since she was neither demon or immortal, she was just sending herself to her death.

With her abilities, she wouldn't even get past the first floor.

But the previous host was like a death warrior that wouldn't fall. She ignored all her wounds and the blood on her, only having killing intent in her eyes.

She killed her way from the first floor to the second floor, then the third floor, the fourth floor, the fifth floor, the sixth floor.....

No one knew if she was alive or dead, they just knew that of their group that entered the Soul Devouring Tower, she was the only one who reached the fourth floor.

The others were all wounded or dead and no one knew what was going on inside.

Did she already lose her soul or was she still fighting.....

Until seven days later, there was a white light that came from the top of the Soul Devouring Tower. This light was not something that immortals and demons could look at, only gods could look at it.

Because it was the light of a god.

When the heavenly court learned of this, they immediately sent many gods and immortals to invite her to the thirty three heavens.

To keep this god, the heavenly emperor of that time had even built the Fire Phoenix Hall for her.

The Fire Phoenix Hall wasn't bound by the rules of the heavens. Whether it was a maid or her disciple, they were all managed by her.

The previous host hadn't cared then and went to the heavenly palace with them.

Later on, she participated in many battles, slaying monsters and demons, becoming the only war god in the heavenly palace.

Countless gods and immortals in the heavenly palace worshiped her and some immortals believed that only someone like her was qualified to rule the world.

The thirty three heavens couldn't have two kings. The more dazzling she was, the more the heavenly emperor disliked her.

On the way, Luo Qing Chen thought about what happened in the past. She would occasionally whisper something and a certain someone would answer.

"Soul Devouring Tower....."

"You can wait for me to go in together. When the Moon Watching God delivers the God Soul, I only need to retreat for forty nine days and I can go to the wilderness to find you!"

"Who needs you to come find me, I can do it myself!"

"Fool! It'll be very difficult if you charge into the Soul Devouring Tower with your current immortal power. Be good and wait for me."

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 10%.]

Chapter 2134: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (23)

Hearing this 'be good' and having the affection increase made Luo Qing Chen white as snow face turn red.

She cleared her throat and said, "Sir demon lord, based on age, it wouldn't be strange for you to call me 'auntie'."

Actually, what she was thinking was that it wasn't even an exaggeration to call her 'grandmother'. Only she had the heart of a little fairy and the word 'grandmother' was just too old for her!

"Little sister flower immortal, the problem is that you could even be my daughter with your current age!" Ye Xuan Ji gave a chuckle as he said, "You really don't think that you're still the Roaring Flame God, right!"

Actually, these words gave Ye Xuan Ji a very excited feeling.

He could see the world from another angle and talk to the opponent he respected the most previously like this.

Although he knew that his recklessness had changed her life, turning her from a person that everyone respected to a person that everyone walked over.

So when he learned of the Mirror of Samsara, he accepted the Moon Watching God's request without any hesitation.

Half of his divine power was important, but losing his only opponent in the world was more regrettable.

Only he thought that the Roaring Flame God would be cold as ice, but when he actually talked to her, he found that she was a bit indifferent and a bit cute.

“Daugh.....Daughter?” Luo Qing Chen gave a cold laugh, “You must be joking!”

“I.....” Ye Xuan Ji wanted to refute with something, but then the warm voice turned ice cold as he shouted, “Be careful of the left.”

In an instant, Luo Qing Chen narrowed her cold eyes and jumped out, dodging a blue glowing arrow.

She really hadn’t noticed anyone to the side and even didn’t sense anything when the enemy attacked her.

As expected, her immortal powers were too weak.

Even if she had divine artifacts in her storage space, it wasn’t enough for her to sense higher rank gods and immortals in this world.

“Is ambushing a special skill?” She revealed a taunting smile. Then she raised her right hand and the might of the Exquisite Ring attacked the enemy.

In an instant, a blue figure appeared in front of her.

“Wind immortal.” Luo Qing Chen pulled out the Phoenix Dance Sword without another word and attacked him with a smile on her face.

Every move was fatal, not leaving a single bit of room for him.

Actually, if it was another immortal, she might show some mercy.

But she wouldn’t do this for this wind immortal.

Since she was Yue Bing Xin’s person. Thinking of Yue Bing Xin, she felt that she looked down on her too much. A trivial wind immortal could catch her, but her immortal power couldn’t match her with the Exquisite Ring and the Phoenix Dance Sword.

The battle lasted no more than ten rounds and her Phoenix Dance Sword was pressed right against her neck.

There were gusts of wind that blew in her ear like they were trembling.

“Flower immortal.....no.....Flame God, spare me.....”

Luo Qing Chen gave a cold laugh after hearing this and shook her head, “I still remembered that when I was tortured on the God Executing Altar, you kept sending your wind at me. You looked quite happy doing it.”

She would always remember the look of this wind immortal when she used her wind, looking that proud and joyful.

“I.....”

With a single sound, Luo Qing Chen didn't let her finish and cut her primordial spirit with the Phoenix Dance Sword.

With a wild gust of wind, the wind immortal's primordial spirit was scattered in front of her.

Chapter 2135: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (24)

The wind immortal's primordial spirit was torn to pieces bit by bit as the sky suddenly darkened before slowly brightening again.

This was a heavenly sign, when the primordial spirits of gods and immortals scattered, the heavens would darken for a second.

"Ha, ha, ha! So domineering."

Although it wasn't considered a hard battle, she was already panting after a few rounds because of her low immortal power.

Cheers kept coming from her ears, as if Ye Xuan Ji had treated it like he himself had won.

What was even more unbelievable was——

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 20%.]

He actually gave her affection at this time even though she didn't understand why he gave her affection.

Could it be that she had been too handsome in the fight and that attracted him?

[The system feels that the male lead feels like you are him.]

"What?"

"What, what?" Ye Xuan Ji said, "I said that your actions were very domineering just now!"

Luo Qing Chen wanted to say something after hearing this, but felt like something was stuck in her throat. She didn't say the words and silently swallowed the words she said to the system!

After all, in this barren place, other than the wind immortal's primordial spirit that was scattered, there was only her alone.

But there were three consciousnesses!

This.....Wasn't this scary?

System, do you mean that his affection was actually for himself?

[The system doesn't know, but the hint is Ye Xuan Ji really admires himself!]

Luo Qing Chen's lips twitched as she felt a bit helpless, but she could also understand it.

After all, Ye Xuan Ji could be considered alone in his field, so it was unavoidable that he would become a bit narcissistic.

It could be seen from many angles that there wasn't much in this world worth being cherished by him.

Even half of his divine power, he could donate it without any hesitation because of some guilt.

For him, even divine power didn't matter. So what did he really care about?

"Ye Xuan Ji, do you have a dream?" Thinking of this, Luo Qing Chen couldn't help asking this question.

After all, if a person didn't have a dream, it was no different from being a salted fish.

Even if he was the demon lord that led the Myriad Demon Mirror, he would still feel bored over millions of years.

"I did before....." Ye Xuan Ji thought about it and said, "It probably doesn't exist now."

Oh? Before! Why couldn't she tell?

"Then what was your dream?" Luo Qing Chen picked foxtail before asking this while walking.

"To fight with you!" Ye Xuan Ji answered her question without any hesitation.

It was as if this matter was the greatest obsession in his life and the thing he wanted to do the most!

"Then why does it not exist anymore?" Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips as she asked this.

Could it be that he fell in love with her beautiful face or because of her queen behaviour that could change at any time?

[.....] The system was silent as it thought: The host will be disappointed!

"Because it would be an easy win!" Ye Xuan Ji seriously replied, "Your current immortal power is too low, fighting you is just bullying you."

"You....." Luo Qing Chen heard this and suddenly felt hard to breathe.

Actually, there was nothing wrong with what Ye Xuan Ji said, it could even be considered reasonable!

But why did it sound so unpleasant!

Chapter 2136: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (25)

"What do you want to say!" Ye Xuan Ji revealed a grin and said in a gentle tone, "Relax! I won't take this chance to bully you, I'll even protect you!"

"You should walk your primordial spirit before saying this!" Luo Qing Chen gave a soft snort before heading forward.

So angry! There was a feeling of anger, but she couldn't do anything.

Ye Xuan Ji could tell that she was angry, but he didn't know why she was angry.

Could it be that he said something wrong?

In the afternoon, Luo Qing Chen couldn't help talking to herself and didn't say a single thing to him.

Ye Xuan Ji couldn't read her thoughts, so he didn't know what to say.

Until Luo Qing Chen was grilling fish at night, he slowly said, "I like fish."

For Luo Qing Chen, her anger came fast and left just as fast.

After all, the other side didn't have any ill intent and was sincere about protecting her, he was just a bit serious, it wasn't that much.

"If you like it, when you recover your primordial spirit, I'll make some for you." She gave a chuckle. She carefully turned the fish as the fragrance drifted up.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 30%.]

She understood the affection increase this time. Her words should have touched his heart!

"My mother told me this before." His voice in her ears suddenly became a bit heavy, as if he was remembering something.

Endless thoughts with a bit of sadness.

"I've never seen your mother before. Even two thousand years ago when I was still a god." Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and said, "You were still only a hundred and twenty years old then!"

"Un." He softly replied, "She died not long after I was born."

"Why?"

"Because I had divine power that could destroy the world. My father knew that I was a once in a million year Demon Lord before I was even born." He laughed at himself as he said, "Actually, my father wasn't even willing to let me live."

"You mean that he didn't want you to be born?" Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows with a bit of confusion as she made a guess, "Could it be because you were a threat to his position as the demon lord?"

"Little flower fairy, you're wrong this time." Ye Xuan Ji shook his head, "He loved my mother and because of the divine power inside of me, I started draining her strength from inside of her. Endlessly draining, taking away all of my mother's life force."

"I seemed to have heard of this in the heavenly palace before." Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and said, "It's the legends related to the Demon God."

She suddenly felt that this world's pros and cons were truly balanced.

You had a power that no one else in this world could ever have, but you would lose the maternal love that most people in this world would have.

“This isn’t a legend, it’s the truth.” Ye Xuan Ji gave a sigh before slowly saying, “I remembered my mother being very thin. Even with my father healing her every day, she couldn’t last long and left us.”

It became silent for a long time.

Luo Qing Chen felt that she wasn’t very comforting and she felt that anything she could say was wrong.

It was unknown how long passed before Ye Xuan Ji’s beautiful voice slowly rang in her ears, “Why aren’t you saying anything? Are you asleep?”

She was surprised before taking the advantage to say, “Un! I’m asleep.....”

“Then go to sleep, I’ll keep watch for you.” There was a layer of red light that appeared around him and the cold air felt much warmer. He said with a grin, “Don’t worry! Other than the Roaring Flame God, no one else can approach without me noticing them.”

Chapter 2137: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (26)

Hearing Ye Xuan Ji’s soft words, she suddenly felt quite at ease. However, there was a special tone of admiration in this Demon God’s voice when it came to the Roaring Flame God.

It seemed right when she thought about it since a lonely person cared more about his opponents.

This was an understanding between experts!

At the same time, in the thirty three heavens.

Di Fan Yu was on the throne with a dark look. Yue Bing Xin beside him pretended to wipe her tears as she said in a choked up voice, “The wind immortal has always diligently contributed to the heavens, I never thought that the Other Side Flower Fairy Poppy would be this fierce.”

All the immortals looked at each other, not saying a thing.

Yue Bing Xin saw no one spoke and continued, “Not only did she steal the God Soul to help the demon lord recover his divine power, she even killed people. The heavenly court will never tolerate such a cruel person!”

She was too confident after all. She thought that this woman’s primordial spirit had been scattered since she jumped into the God Executing Altar.

But after checking the book of life and death, they found that she didn’t die and had escaped the thirty three heavens.

She had no choice but to believe that this woman really was the Roaring Flame God from a thousand years ago.

If she wasn't, how could she jump into the God Executing Altar without dying!

"Reporting to the heavenly emperor. It was wrong for the Other Side Flower Fairy to steal the God Soul, but she was already punished by jumping into the God Executing Altar." The Hundred Flower Immortal said, "The wind immortal wanted her life and in this situation, Poppy had to defend herself....."

"He, he." Before the Hundred Flower Immortal could finish, Yue Bing Xin coldly cut her off, "Hundred Flower Immortal, you mean that the flower immortal who stole the God Soul doesn't need to be punished?"

The Hundred Flower Fairy was stunned before quickly kneeling to Di Fan Yu, "Heavenly emperor, I didn't mean this....."

"Stop talking." Di Fan Yu knitted his brows as scenes of the God Executing Altar kept flashing in his mind.

Her white dress stained in blood, it was that shocking, but it also.....made one reminiscent.

"Heavenly emperor, we should send a large number of heavenly soldiers to stop her. We definitely can't let her bring the God Soul to the Myriad Demon Mirror! Or else....."

"Peng!" There was a large sound as Di Fan Yu's fist slammed onto the Heavenly Dragon Throne and he roared out, "I said stop talking, do you not understand?"

"I....." Yue Bing Xin trembled as she was shocked by this loud voice.

She just felt her heart beating fast, wildly beating without slowing down.

How many years had it been, he had never spoken to her like this. Even if a new concubine came to the heavens, he would still care for her more.

But now.....

"There's no need for the Hundred Flower Immortal to participate in this matter." Di Fan Yu knitted his brows and said, "Taishang Jun will lead ten thousand heavenly soldiers to the wilderness to stop Poppy. You must bring back the God Soul."

"Yes."

"Also....."

"Heavenly emperor, please give your orders."

"Don't hurt her, I want her alive."

Taishang Jun was surprised before cupping his hands, "Yes."

Di Fan Yu nodded before leaving the hall. Yue Bing Xin sitting beside him wanted to say something, but she found that when she was about to speak, Di Fan Yu was already gone.

There was an indifference coming from his back. It was as if being together for a thousand years had collapsed at this moment.

Could it be that she was just a substitute in his heart?

No, she didn't believe it! Di Fan Yu loved her, he must love her!

Chapter 2138: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (27)

The next morning, Luo Qing Chen had slept soundly all night without any dreams.

This feeling of sleeping was like sleeping in the Chaos Space. Even if it was the dangerous wilderness, there was a feeling of being safe.

"Did you sleep well?"

When she was about to wash her face by the river, Ye Xuan Ji's voice sounded in her ears.

"Not bad." Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and calculated with her fingers, "Based on the Moon Watching God's speed, he should have arrived at the Myriad Demon Mirror. After you get the God Soul, you should be able to enter close doors!"

"The Moon Watching God just left." Ye Xuan Ji said with a faint smile, "I wanted to keep him for a cup of tea, but he rejected me! He said something in a righteous manner, he had to take care of two people."

Luo Qing Chen heard this and felt a bit speechless. She cleared her throat and said, "You've already gotten the God Soul, why are you still talking to me!"

"Aren't I afraid that you would be in danger?" Ye Xuan Ji's expression changed slightly, "The people of the heavenly court must think that the God Soul is in your hands and will send people after you. A little flower immortal like you, you might die before you even reach the Soul Devouring Tower."

"You....." Luo Qing Chen's lips twitched, "Relax! If I were killed by these random soldiers that easily, then wouldn't I be letting down the title of the only match of the Demon Lord?"

"I'll wait until you reach the Soul Devouring Tower still!" Ye Xuan Ji's voice became very heavy with a trace of pride, "I can't feel assured by you!"

Actually, although she only had 30% affection, she could feel the other side's concern for her.

Whether it was being afraid of losing his only opponent or for something else.

"But you should know that the heavenly court has some spies in the Myriad Demon Mirror. Now that you have the God Soul, they will definitely try to push in." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said, "You'll need some time for your closed door session."

“But.....”

“No buts.” Luo Qing Chen’s lips curled as she said, “Actually, this is good since I will be much safer.”

After all, the people of the heavenly court were mainly here for the God Soul. There was no difference in killing a small immortal like her sooner or later.

Unless someone’s will to kill her exceeded taking back the God Soul.

“Alright! Then I’ll close up. Wait at the Soul Devouring Tower for me, I’ll come find you after I come out.”

Luo Qing Chen thought about it before slowly saying, “Alright.”

Then the faint red light around her slowly dissipated and there was suddenly a special feeling.....of reluctance in her heart.

Perhaps she was already used to Ye Xuan Ji talking in her ears over the past two days and she suddenly couldn’t get used to it being gone.

But Ye Xuan Ji’s absence didn’t mean that the road to the Soul Devouring Tower would be harder since this road couldn’t be more familiar to the previous host.

She met Taishang Jun’s group three days later at the Soul Devouring Tower. They flew with clouds and directly reached the Soul Devouring Tower.

Her current immortality didn’t belong to the heavenly court, so she couldn’t walk on the clouds and had to go through the forest on foot.

At this time, there was Taishang Jun and his group of heavenly soldiers in front of her.

To be fair, Di Fan Yu hadn’t looked down on her. To catch a small flower immortal, he sent out this many heavenly soldiers.

“Other Side Flower Fairy, if you don’t resist, the heavenly court can make it easier on you!” Taishang Jun tapped the floor with his immortal cane, instantly shaking the surrounding area.

He was an upper immortal, so his immortal power wasn’t weak.

Since that was case, it seemed like Di Fan Yu had already guessed her identity.

Chapter 2139: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (28)

After all, if it was just a flower immortal, how could he send all these people to catch her?

“I’m sorry, I’m a stubborn person by nature and the worst thing for me is not resisting.” Luo Qing Chen pulled out the Phoenix Dance Sword in her right hand and said with a smile, “Before the time comes for the Soul Devouring Tower to open, I will play with you all.”

She jumped out into the crowd, using fatal moves, not showing any mercy.

Actually, she could feel that the other side had some reservations, but it was a pity that she didn't have any!

The previous host had wrongly believed Di Fan Yu which led to her tragic death.

Now Di Fan Yu didn't want to kill her, but wanted to satisfy his personal desires. Everything was just starting from the beginning again.

"Taishang Jun, this flower immortal's immortal power isn't that good, but that golden glowing divine artifact is too strong....." One of the injured heavenly soldiers said, "If we keep holding back, everyone will die here."

"But the heavenly emperor's orders, we have to keep her alive.....What to do....."

"The heavenly emperor's orders have changed!" A heavenly soldier slowly came over. With a flick of her right hand, the white armour turned into a blue phoenix brocaded robe.

The immortals were stunned before realizing who it was and saying, "Greetings to concubine Yue."

"The heavenly emperor has ordered me to pass down his decree!" Yue Bing Xin narrowed her eyes and looked at Luo Qing Chen with a fierce look, "This wicked traitor to the heavens, there's no need to show any mercy! Kill without any hesitation!"

"But....." Taishang Jun knitted his brows as he felt worried.

Before he could finish, Yue Bing Xin cut him off. She took the sword at her waist and roared, "All heavenly soldiers, listen to my order. Whoever takes her head will be rewarded."

"Just with you?" Luo Qing Chen narrowed her cold eyes and looked at her without any fear, "Yue Bing Xin, even a hundred of you would lose to me. I'm just curious, who has given you the courage to say these words!"

To be fair, she really was too lazy to fight this supporting female lead whose IQ was lacking! But Yue Bing Xin gave people the feeling that she was an upper god that no one could provoke, standing high above everyone else.

When in reality, she couldn't beat anyone or kill anyone.

"I was negligent at the God Executing Tower that day. I will let you know how ridiculous your words are."

As soon as her voice fell, Yue Bing Xin flew out at her. Each move she used didn't show any mercy.

Taishang Jun was surprised, but then decided to attack her with Yue Bing Xin.

After all, one was the heavenly concubine and one was the criminal who stole the God Soul.

Luo Qing Chen gave a cold snort and revealed a look of killing intent in those cold eyes.

After a few rounds, Luo Qing Chen felt that Yue Bing Xin's immortal power was stronger than back on the God Executing Altar.

But it was just a few days, how could she make such progress?

Of course, this was not just seen by Luo Qing Chen, but also Taishang Jun from the same camp as her.

She jumped out and waved her right hand, sending the golden light of the Exquisite Ring at Yue Bing Xin.

There was a dark red glow that appeared on her back.

“Divine Power Pill.”

“Divine Power Pill.”

Luo Qing Chen and Taishang Jun muttered at the same time. Yue Bing Xin was injured by the Exquisite Ring and tasted a bit of sweetness as she spat out a mouthful of blood!

Chapter 2140: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (29)

Why? Why? She had eaten the forbidden pill of the heavenly court just to personally kill her.

But why did it not work even after she did all this!

“So it turned out that the so-called gods can eat this kind of forbidden pill!” She revealed a smile as her eyes filled with ridicule.

Actually, she had been injured and the injury wasn't light.

When ten thousand heavenly soldiers attacked her with their immortal power, even if she blocked with the Exquisite Ring, she couldn't block it.

There was also a Yue Bing Xin who ate the Divine Power Pill!

“You shut up!” Yue Bing Xin roared out as she looked at her with bloodshot eyes, “You are a lowly little immortal, how can you compare to me! I am the heavenly consort and you are a sinner, one that anyone can beat!”

“You should know better than anyone who I am, right?” Luo Qing Chen crossed her arms. Even if she was hurt, her expression was calm, not letting anyone see anything different.

These strong words were all said to pierce Yue Bing Xin's heart.

In the previous host's world, she had recognized her with a single look. Now that she's taken all these looks, she should be clear on who she was.

But she wasn't willing to admit it. The only thing she could do was try to kill her, kill her while sparing no expense.

She wasn't a substitute, she wasn't a substitute.

"I want you to die!" There were ten dark red pills that appeared in her right hand and she swallowed them without another word.

There was a dark red glow in her eyes, like a monster that came out of the Myriad Demon Mirror. She glared right at her as she attacked her again.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows. She wanted to dodge, but she didn't have the power. The immortal power she inherited from the previous host was just too low and she had consumed most of it in the fight before, as well as being injured.

Yue Bing Xin's attack wasn't fast in her eyes, but she couldn't dodge it.

"Damn!" The sword pierced her arm and red blood fell drop by drop.

"Concubine Yue, show mercy." Taishang Jun shouted, "The heavenly emperor has ordered us to show mercy....."

"The heavenly emperor has given his orders." Her dark red lips revealed a grin, "Kill without hesitation."

Finally, she had finally stabbed her. What a pleasant feeling this was.

The fact that she hated was about to be destroyed by her hands. The only face that this emperor would love would be hers, Yue Bing Xin's.

She wasn't a substitute, she would never be a substitute!

Luo Qing Chen heard this and could see what she was thinking from her eyes. She revealed a faint cold smile as she said, "Substitute, you have to have the skills if you want to kill me!"

Luo Qing Chen pulled the sword out with her hand. The gold light of the Exquisite Ring gathered and formed a protective barrier around her.

"He, he, he, he, he!" There was a laugh that went into the sky as Yue Bing Xin couldn't control her emotions anymore.

Because Luo Qing Chen's final words were equal to admitting who she was.

In an instant, a bright moon appeared in the dark sky as the Soul Devouring Tower appeared in the center of the wilderness.

In the silent area, there were many people who charged for the entrance of the Soul Devouring Tower.

Luo Qing Chen jumped out, dodging Yue Bing Xin's fatal attack to enter the tower.

She slowly turned and looked at her with endless coldness in her eyes, "You will never have a chance to kill me in this life, so you are only worth living in my shadows."
