Chapter 2151: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (40)

She didn't like to be jealous. Ye Xuan Ji told her that it would be the Qixi Festival in the mortal world in two days and it would be very lively, so he asked if she wanted to go along with him.

Of course she wanted to go since there would be food and drink, as well as a chance to visit Ning'er and Xiao Lang. She heard that the Moon Watching God had prepared a small wooden house for them by the Flower Sea ten miles away from the city.

She heard that there were magnolias by the door and Ning'er even planted some vegetables. She also heard that Xiao Lang was good at fishing and since they lived near the ocean, he would often catch fresh fish for Ning'er to make fish soup with.

The Moon Watching God was that Moon Watching God from before, he didn't go against his heart just to keep the status quo.

But she was still worried. What kind of punishment would he receive for helping her steal the God Soul and hiding them?

Thinking about it, since he was an upper god, even if Di Fan Yu wanted to do something, with how weak the heavenly court was now, he shouldn't really dare do anything to the Moon Watching God.

The road from the Myriad Demon Mirror was a gray blue staircase. There was faint blue smoke all around and the closer to the mortal world one came, the louder it would become.

"Large pancakes, delicious large pancakes....."

"High grade makeup, do you need any?"

"This is a new batch of silk, it's all first class goods. Miss, how about you get one? This emerald green colour suits you!"

.....

There were shouts that came from all around her and she felt that the mortal world was much more comforting.

There's no releasing spiritual energy with a wave of the hand, nothing mattered no matter what you did.

This kind of life didn't seem to have any meaning.

"Ha, ha, so lively!" Luo Qing Chen gave a chuckle as a sparkle appeared in her eyes.

Ye Xuan Ji standing beside her had his beautiful eyes on her the entire time as he said with a smile, "I knew that you would like it."

"It really is worthy of being the day of the cow herder and the weaver girl, there are loving young married couples all over."

"You're wrong about that." Ye Xuan Ji looked up with his clear eyes and shook his head, "They might not be married couples!"

Luo Qing Chen gave a snort, "If they're not couples, would they be brother and sister?"

She suddenly thought of a phrase that was said in a previous world: Wishing all lovers are brothers and sisters who had been separated for many years.....

"Like you and me." Ye Xuan Ji narrowed his eyes and revealed a smile that was hard to hide, "Or in Qing Chen's mind, are we....."

"Brother and sister!" Before Ye Xuan Ji finished, Luo Qing Chen decisively cut him off without any hesitation. She acted prideful as she said, "I already said that based on seniority, you should call me big sister."

"I won't." Ye Xuan Ji took her hand without another word, "No matter what happened in the past or what happens in the future, at least today we are going to spend this day for couples together."

His eyes were very sincere. There was a faint sparkle in his starry eyes, as if he could see her figure in his eyes.

It felt like the relationship between them wasn't that close, but they were doing brave things for the other side.

Giving divine power, stealing the God Soul.....

After experiencing all these dangerous things, now he was holding her hand in this crowded market with a faint smile on his face, telling her that this was a holiday for them.

This feeling really wasn't bad.....

"Alright!" She revealed a smile. Her right hand touched her slightly red ear as she said, "Then little brother Xuan Ji, I want to eat some candied hawthorns."

"Call me big brother!" He gently tapped her head before saying, "I'll buy you two sticks."

Chapter 2152: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (41)

Although Luo Qing Chen didn't compromise by calling Ye Xuan Ji big brother, she still took the two sticks of candied hawthorns.

The sky gradually dimmed and Luo Qing Chen raised her head by chance, seeing the starry sky above them.

Stars that were like diamonds scattered in the vast sky, filling it with silver lights, as if one could even see the entire galaxy.

"It really is beautiful here. The Moon Watching God putting Ning'er and Xiao Lang here really was a wise decision!"

“This place is called Peak City, it’s the border of the world. The people here don’t believe in gods and don’t fear demons. They believe in miracles and their own hearts. As long as they are sincere, they will definitely achieve it.” Ye Xuan Ji looked over at her with a complicated look in his deep eyes.

Luo Qing Chen saw his eyes and slightly knitted her brows, “Do you have something on your mind?”

“Anyone in a high position can’t be distracted.” Ye Xuan Ji said in a very serious voice, “It’s the same with the heavenly emperor.”

Luo Qing Chen seemed to have understood a bit of the emotions in his eyes. There was a persistent belief in his heart, as the only Demon God in this world, his strong belief would be able to help him accomplish what he wanted to do.

“You are not the same as him.” Luo Qing Chen stopped smiling. She pursed her lips and looked at the beautiful sky as she said, “He isn’t worthy of being a god.”

The memories of the past appeared in her mind. In order to achieve his goals, he recklessly went to the Fire Phoenix Hall again and again to become her apprentice.

Even when she put down the condition of ‘becoming a god’, he had still worked hard to accomplish it.

Finished what? But if there was strong belief in the heart, there was still boundless power.

“Perhaps you don’t understand me that well yet.” Ye Xuan Ji revealed a smile as a bit of helplessness appeared in his eyes. Then there was a sparkle in his eyes as he said, “No one will show their terrifying dark side on the surface, they will hide it well from the beginning.”

Luo Qing Chen heard this and felt that each word was like an ant running across her heart, feeling very uncomfortable.

At that moment, she felt that Ye Xuan Ji’s gaze was a bit unfamiliar. Even if she had 70% affection, she felt that he was unfamiliar.

“The play in front is about to begin, everyone, let’s go and watch!”

The silence between the two of them was broken by the people beside them. Ye Xuan Yi’s right hand tapped her forehead, “Come! Let’s go take a look.”

It took her three seconds before her lips twitched with helplessness, “Alright.”

Actually, although it was only for a few seconds, she could feel the uneasiness in her heart that spread little by little across the bottom of her heart.

But the warmth from his hand was real, so she didn’t worry that much.

It was a simple play. The female lead was a fox that had cultivated until she turned human and the male lead was a war god from the heavenly court.

When they met for the first time, the little fox was seriously injured by him. When she thought that she was dead, the war god stopped.

Because he saw her slowly rolling up her fox tail and licking her own wounds.

His heart was moved and he released this little fox.

The second time they met, the war god faced the king of the demon world and was seriously injured, falling into the bamboo forest.

The little fox saw this and didn't want to save him at first since she still hadn't healed from the injury he inflicted.

But she was a kind little fox and decided to save him in the end.

Chapter 2153: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (42)

The war god was very grateful towards the little fox after waking up. He decided to bring her to the heavenly court, but the little fox refused.

Demons and gods were destined to be at odds. Even if the little fox was kind, she wasn't a fool.

But the little fox never thought that the two would fall in love while recovering from their injuries.

The war god promised that he would come to find her after reporting back to the heavenly court and the little fox gave a serious nod.

"You don't need to go anywhere, just stay here. Wait for me to come back....."

"Alright, I'll wait for you. You must come back, I will always wait for you....."

One year, two years, three years.....

Ten years, twenty years, thirty years.....

Since he left that day, the war god never came back to the bamboo forest. The strange thing was that every flower in the bamboo forest that hadn't bloomed for ten thousand years had suddenly bloomed.

Each spring, flower petals filled the air, scattering around, looking incredibly beautiful.

The little fox didn't know why the war god never came back, but she obediently waited and waited.

Until one day she heard a little sparrow tell her that the heavenly court was holding a grand wedding between the war god and the heavenly emperor's daughter.

The little fox left the bamboo forest without a word, but the strange thing was that it was like there was a barrier around the bamboo forest and it couldn't leave no matter how it tried.

In the end, the little fox cut off her own tail and turned it into a weapon, creating a hole in the barrier.

She scattered all her cultivation to reach the heavenly court to see the war god and the heavenly emperor's daughter.

The war god was still the war god from before, with a face that hadn't changed after all those years. The daughter of the heavenly emperor had a nation collapsing beauty. The two of them were a special match.

The little fox cried. She didn't know why, but it was like the promise from before never existed.

Later, she thought that she would have her body shattered from being thrown out of the heavenly palace by the heavenly soldiers, but she never thought that she would be firmly caught when she landed in the bamboo forest.

Since then, the little fox was always unhappy and she never left the bamboo forest.

She devoted herself to cultivating, not caring about the world. Other than accumulating hatred in her heart, she didn't have any other emotions.

Another year, another ten years, another hundred years, another three hundred years.....

The vitality of the bamboo forest became weaker as time passed and soon the trees returned to how they were before, not blooming with a single flower.

In the end, in the three hundredth year, she became an immortal and arrived in the ninety nine heavens.

When she saw the war god again, the war god knitted his brows as he said, "This immortal, have we met before?"

"It turns out the memory of a heartless man isn't that good?"

"Heartless man, why does this immortal call me that?"

"Do you still remember the little fox from the bamboo forest three hundred years ago?"

The war god's expression changed as it filled with shock. The little fox gave a laugh of ridicule after seeing his shock, "It turns out the war god has remembered."

"So it's you." The war god helplessly shook his head, "I've never been to the bamboo first. The one who went to the bamboo forest three hundred years ago was my twin older brother, not me."

When the little fox heard this, she was frozen in place. She never thought that there would be two identical war gods.

And she finally learned the truth of the past from the war god's little brother, as well as why the bamboo forest was so strange.

Three hundred years ago, the war god asked the heavenly emperor and the empress to take the little fox as a wife after returning to the heavenly palace. The heavenly emperor and empress agreed on the surface, but they already sent someone to kill the little fox.

Chapter 2154: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (43)

After the war god learned of this, to keep the little fox safe, he took out his primordial spirit without another word and put it in the bamboo forest.

He was the war god of the heavens, no one could enter the place that he guarded.

The heavenly emperor and empress were shocked by this matter and regretted their decision, so they never sent anyone to the bamboo forest again.

The reason why the bamboo forest was so prosperous was because he saw that the little fox was sad, so he scattered his primordial spirit to make her happy.....

The reason why the little fox could become an immortal so fast couldn't be separated from the war god.

After the little fox learned of this, she wildly ran back to the bamboo forest, but the aura of the war god was gone.

She guarded the bamboo forest day and night, just like how the war god had protected her, staying there until her death.

.....

"Pa, pa, pa, pa, pa." After a few seconds of silence, there was a thunderous applause.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes that had turned a bit red. This was a very moving story with a very sad ending.

Ye Xuan Ji who was standing beside her was silent for a long time. She called him many times, but he couldn't pull himself out of the story.

"What's wrong with you?" Luo Qing Chen stood on her tiptoes and softly patted his head. Then she said with a faint smile, "Big brother Xuan Ji, wake up, the story is already over!"

"Ah!" Without another word, he took her in his embrace without any hesitation and said in her ear with a faint smile, "There are many times that when you see the truth, it isn't the truth. Everyone will lie to you, don't believe anyone....."

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 80%.]

This was the first time that someone giving her affection made her feel not happy at all.

She thought that when she fell into this warm embrace, he would say some warm words of love, but she never thought that it would be this kind of strange cold advice.

"I know!" Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes and laughed at herself, "When I was the Roaring Flame God, I experienced more betrayals than you can imagine."

"Un." He softly replied, but he didn't let her go. Rather he held her even tighter, as if he was trying to hug her with all his strength.

In the silent night, she didn't fall asleep at all.

It wasn't because of what Ye Xuan Ji said, it was just that her heart was beating too strongly as she laid there.

Since ascending to become a god after exiting the Soul Devouring Tower, she had this kind of feeling. It was as if she suddenly couldn't breathe.

It seemed like the severe injuries of the Soul Devouring Tower were still affecting her.

Or perhaps it was because her primordial spirit was gathered together again, so it couldn't be healed in just a few days.

Luo Qing Chen never would have thought that while she couldn't sleep, she would see a white light falling from the sky before suddenly exploding.

"Qing Chen." Ye Xuan Ji's voice came from the door.

She suddenly sat up and opened the door, "Did you see that? That light."

"Un." Ye Xuan Ji's voice was very heavy as he knitted his brows, "The light of a god falling."

"I.....I've never seen it before." Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath, "But.....But I've heard it. What does it mean?"

"When your primordial spirit scattered, there was this phenomenon." Ye Xuan Ji tightly knitted his brows as he looked at her, "The light of a god falling means that a god of heaven and earth had their primordial spirit scattered....."

"No.....Impossible....." Luo Qing Chen desperately calmed her heart and she tightly clenched her trembling hands, "I don't believe it."

Chapter 2155: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (44)

"No matter what, we should first go to the Sea of Stars and Flowers first." Ye Xuan Ji took her hand and said, "Don't be afraid right now, perhaps the light of a god falling has another meaning."

Luo Qing Chen knew that Ye Xuan Ji was just comforting her, but this was the light of a god falling!

There were only four gods in the world right now, Di Fan Yu, the Moon Watching God, Ye Xuan Ji, and her.

It was impossible for this light to be Di Fan Yu and she was with Ye Xuan Ji, so the only possibility was.....

Sea of Stars and Flowers, this was called the most beautiful place between heaven and earth. It was where hundred flowers bloomed and birds sang, a truly beautiful place.

But tonight, it was dark without any light and any sound, like it had fallen into a deathly silence.

“Moon Watching God.....” She ran to the wooden building and with a wave of her right hand, the Exquisite Ring lit up half of the Flower Sea.

She closed her eyes as sweat dripped down her forehead. No matter how she used her divine power to sense it, she couldn’t find the aura of the Moon Watching God at all.

“Qing Chen.....”

“Don’t talk!”

“Qing Chen.....”

“Can you not.....”

Before she could finish, Ye Xuan Ji covered her eyes filled with tears. His cold voice came from behind her as he said in a deep voice, “The Moon Watching God wouldn’t want to see you like this.”

“It was me who harmed him.” Luo Qing Chen bit her lip and said, “I should have thought of it, how could someone like Di Fan Yu let him go!”

Back then, he had treated the previous host so cruelly. Now he still had a bit of affection for the previous host, which was why he could be this decisive.

The Moon Watching God was only an upper god and he was the heavenly emperor. If he wanted to kill him, it wasn’t that difficult.

“I think we should go somewhere first.” Ye Xuan Ji knitted his brows with a dark glow in his eyes.

Luo Qing Chen’s expression changed as she said, “Damn, Ning’er!”

When they came to the small cabin, the yard was in a mess with broken pieces all over and the blood on them had already dried.

“If it wasn’t an upper immortal or a god, there’s no way to use a spell to.....split a person into pieces.” Ye Xuan Ji’s extremely cold voice slowly rang out in the silent cabin.

Luo Qing Chen bent down and picked up a jade pendant from the ground.

The first time she saw Ning’er, she had this jade pendant on her. With that gentle face, she couldn’t help meddling in her business.

But facts proved that she had unknowingly harmed her.....

“Qing Chen.....”

“Un.” She replied with a voice that was as calm as water, without a single ripple in it.

“What do you want to do?” Ye Xuan Ji’s eyes had a bit of pain in them as he slowly said, “I will always be by your side.”

He wasn’t willing to see her like this, but he didn’t have a choice. He could only silently stay by her side and accompany her in doing all the things she wanted to do.

“Want to do?” Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes as her clear eyes turned bloodshot. She said in a cold voice, “If I don’t destroy the heavenly court, my name is not Luo Qing Chen.”

She could have found Yue Bing Xin and Di Fan Yu alone to settle the matter of the previous host a thousand years ago, not involving anyone else.

But now.....since those gods are so decisive, then don’t blame her for being ruthless.....

The Moon Watching God’s life, Ning’er’s life, Xiao Lang’s life, she wanted the heavenly court to be.....buried with them!

Ye Xuan Ji narrowed his eyes as he looked at her back that was so cold. His eyes that were as deep as ink had turned even darker.

Chapter 2156: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (45)

The skies of heaven and earth changed as dark clouds filled the white and blue sky. There were bursts of cold wind that also created loud and heavy sounds.

The atmosphere of the heavenly court had become even more dim. Di Fan Yu naturally knew that the Moon Watching God was dead and Poppy wouldn’t let the heavenly court off.

Or it was more accurate to call her, Luo Qing Chen.

“Heavenly emperor, we should explain that the heavenly court always valued upper gods, so why would we kill the Moon Watching God.”

“I feel that the Pagoda Immortal is right. Now that the Other Side Flower God has already become a god, she is a member of our heavenly court and should know how we treat gods.”

“Right, right.....”

Di Fan Yu sitting up high had a cold glow in his eyes before laughing at himself, “She won’t believe that the ‘heavenly court values upper gods’.”

“This.....What should we do.....” The immortals all started to panic. After all, the heavenly court was weak right now and if the demons were to attack, it wouldn’t be easy to guard against them!

“What is there to fear!” A heavenly general on the side said, “The demons couldn’t enter the heavenly palace a thousand years ago and they lost in the end! Now that a thousand years have passed, evil will not win! This subordinate requests to enter the battle!”

“Ai!” The Life Monarch gave a sigh, “But the Roaring Flame God that defeated the demons a thousand years ago belonged to our heavenly court, but now.....she’s on the other side.”

As the person in charge of the book of life for the three realms, although it took him a while, he learned that the Other Side Flower God was the Roaring Flame God from a thousand years ago.

A thousand years ago, the heavenly court hadn't held back against her.

A thousand years later, she would come back with full hatred and it would be a bloody battle.

Three hours later, the heavenly court had prepared for battle. All the gods had been recalled to the thirty three heavens, whether they were in the mortal world or if they were traveling.

Actually, if you looked at military power, the heavenly court wouldn't lose to the Myriad Demon Mirror.

With three hundred thousand heavenly soldiers and thousands of generals, the heavenly court could crush the Myriad Demon Mirror which only had a hundred thousand demons.

But the Myriad Demon Mirror had the two most terrifying people in the world, the demon lord Ye Xuan Ji and the Other Side Flower God Luo Qing Chen.

Di Fan Yu had an inexplicable feeling in his heart. He wasn't willing to fight, but he wanted to see her.

At the God Executing Altar, she had been in that blood soaked white dress catching his weapon in her hands. The hot blood splashed on her face, but her expression didn't change at all.

It was neither pain or hatred.....

Those determined eyes seemed to be telling him that she was back!

Everything had started here and it would end here!

At the same time, in the Sea of Stars and Flowers.

Luo Qing Chen was wearing a flower embroidered white dress with her hair combed in a bun with a white flower on it.

An empty silver tomb, this was the tomb that was built when the Moon Watching God was still alive. An empty tombstone that was covered in flowers on both sides.

"He will be at ease here." Ye Xuan Ji slowly came forward to silently stand by her side, feeling the sadness in her heart.

She took a deep breath before pursing her lips to say, "I just feel sorry for him, maybe being a god that didn't care about worldly matters was good."

At least, he didn't get involved in the disputes of others and wouldn't have.....died.

"Relax! The people who have harmed him will pay with their lives!" Ye Xuan Ji's voice was very cold as every word was filled with killing intent.

Chapter 2157: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (46)

“For the first time, I don’t feel that alone and helpless.” Luo Qing Chen looked into his deep and bottomless eyes and asked, “Ning’er and Xiao Lang’s matter.....”

“Relax! I will take care of it all.”

Whether one was human or god, you should at least have someone to send you off when you leave this world and you should leave with some dignity.

She thought that by stealing the God Soul and saving Xiao Lang, he and Ning’er would live a happy life.

But she never thought that things would turn out to be the opposite.

“Un.” She softly replied. She looked at the dark sky and said, “It’s time to get down to business.”

“Alright.” Ye Xuan Ji gave a nod as an unclear glow appeared in his deep eyes.

Luo Qing Chen turned slightly and as soon as she took two steps, there was a faint blue glow that appeared behind her that had the aura of the Moon Watching God.

“Wait.” She turned in surprise as she tightly knitted her brow. She looked at the empty space in front of her, “Do you feel the Moon Watching God’s aura?”

She actually wasn’t certain. First, it was because she had just become a god and while her spiritual power had instantly become stronger, they were still unstable. Second, it was because her recent mood wasn’t stable.

“I didn’t feel his aura.” Ye Xuan Ji turned around and looked at the empty tomb with slightly knitted brows. He shook his head and said, “There’s no aura of his primordial spirit or the soul that mortals would have. A long time after the primordial spirit scatters, it will be in deep sleep and the longer it sleeps, the more likely it will gain consciousness.”

Luo Qing Chen understood what Ye Xuan Ji meant, but she wasn’t willing to hear it.

She hoped that the Moon Watching God could gather his primordial spirit again and come back.....

But even if she knew that there was this possibility, it would be something for millions of years later.

Seven days later, Luo Qing Chen killed her way into the thirty three heavens with Ye Xuan Ji’s demon army.

Fighting day and night, being covered in blood. Whether it was the demons or the gods, they suffered countless casualties.

But the demon race had Ye Xuan Ji and the gods didn’t.....

It was because of this endless dark battle that Luo Qing Chen was able to truly tell how strong Ye Xuan Ji was.

With just a slight wave of his hand, he could smash the primordial spirit of an immortal with a single blow. The spell was neat and killed with a single move.

“Heavenly emperor, the southern gate can’t hold on any longer!” The heavenly general rushed in covered in blood and knelt down, “Heavenly emperor, please make a decision.”

Di Fan Yu's face was pale, but it wasn't as anxious as before.

After all, what should come would come. The things that he did in the past were his fault, so he should bear the consequences alone.

After being the heavenly emperor for a thousand years, he thought that he wouldn't tire of this high position, but in the end.....he was tired of it.

Perhaps if he didn't want this position in the past, he and his master.....would have had a different ending.

Many people wanted to enter the Fire Phoenix Hall and become her apprentice, but she kept them all out.

She only had him as a disciple and no one else.....

But for his own crown prince position, he had done many cruel things to her.

"Taishang Jun."

"This minister is here."

"Go to the Western Paradise to seek the help of the Buddha." Di Fan Yu knitted his brows and said, "Don't sacrifice the lives of the gods for nothing."

"Heavenly emperor....."

"I will personally go and meet them."

Gratitude and resentment, there should be an end.....

Chapter 2158: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (47)

Southern Heavenly Gate.

The demons already had red eyes from killing. Ye Xuan Ji waved his hand and there was a barrier that was set on the road to the mortal world.

If he didn't do this, the heavenly court would be seriously damaged and the human world would be destroyed.

"Xiu, xiu."

When the immortals and demons were facing each other, with a beam of golden light, Di Fan Yu descended from the sky and stood in front of everyone with his hands behind his back.

"We meet again." His deep voice slowly rang out, but there was helplessness and a hint of guilt in his voice.

"If the heavenly emperor's memory isn't wrong, you should remember what I said to you that day on the God Executing Altar." Luo Qing Chen looked into his eyes as she spoke with an ice cold voice.

She didn't understand why a proud person like the previous host would fall to his hands.

But she did fall and had a miserable end.

"I remember." Di Fan Yu nodded as his eyes never left her body. Then he looked her as he slowly said, "The matters between us, there's no need for outsiders to interfere.....master."

As soon as his voice fell, his eyes swept over Ye Xuan Ji on the side with an unkind gaze.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and coldly said, "I think I know who the outsider is."

"A thousand years....."

"You're not qualified to mention what happened a thousand years to me." Then Luo Qing Chen slowly raised the blood soaked Phoenix Dance Sword to point at him as she said, "A life for a life."

Silence, silence, silence.....

There was a deathly silence in the air as the soldiers of both sides had stopped fighting.

Di Fan Yu narrowed his cold eyes and said, "Alright."

He leaped into the air, flying out in Luo Qing Chen's direction. Black smoke filled the air and thunder roared.

The bright heavenly palace had become darker than the Myriad Demon Mirror.

"Be careful!" Ye Xuan Ji's voice softly rang in her ear as a hint of worry flashed in his deep eyes.

Although he knew that with her current divine power, it wouldn't be a problem to face Di Fan Yu.

But.....he was still worried.....

After all.....

In a duel between experts, the situation changed quickly. Di Fan Yu didn't hold back, so each attack was fatal.

He missed her, but he wanted to win more. In fact, he was contradicting himself. After all these years, he missed her like crazy, so that even after he became the heavenly emperor, the empress position was always hers.

But even so, it was just a dead person whose primordial spirit had scattered.

He kept looking for people similar to her. Her eyes, her nose, her mouth, as long as there was a single similarity, he would do all he could to bring them back to the heavenly palace.

Even if he never loved them, even if he didn't care at all if they died.

Just for a single thought, he kept them by his side.

Even as a substitute, he was willing for these millions of years.

But now that he faced her with his sword, he didn't want to lose, or rather, he didn't want to die.....

He knew that she was powerful and hoped that his own power could suppress her power.....

“Si!”

There was a tearing sound as Luo Qing Chen's Phoenix Dance Sword cut into his arm. Her eyes were as cold as ice and there wasn't even the slightest ripple of emotion in them.

“Master is master in the end.....” Di Fan Yu's face was very pale and his right hand tightly held the wound as he looked at her to say, “I wonder if it was possible for me to become a god if it wasn't for you all those years ago.”

Chapter 2159: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (48)

Luo Qing Chen was surprised as her mind slipped back to a thousand years ago.

“Heavenly emperor, we will save you!”

“Peng peng.” Countless beams of immortal power flew in Luo Qing Chen's direction, sending her and Di Fan Yu flying back.

Ye Xuan Ji narrowed his cold eyes. He flicked the tip of his finger and firmly caught her.

Actually, there was no need to catch her since she would land safely, but he was still worried in the end.

“It turns out that the people of the heavenly court can be this untrustworthy.” Ye Xuan Ji gave a cold snort. He waved his right hand and there was a black orb that appeared in the air.

“Soul Absorbing Orb.” The heavenly general took a deep breath before kneeling down in front of Di Fan Yu, “I beg the heavenly emperor to leave first, we will fight to the end. But the heavenly country.....it can never come back if there isn't the heavenly emperor.....”

Di Fan Yu held his wound as his eyes filled with a bit of unwillingness.

He wasn't strong enough. If he was strong enough, he could guard his heavenly court.

“Heavenly emperor, you can't hesitate!” The other generals all kneeled down.

“Alright!” Di Fan Yu said with red eyes, “The heavenly court won't forget your merit!”

“Don't think of leaving!” In the blink of an eye, Ye Xuan Ji threw out the Soul Absorbing Orb in his hand. There were streaks of red light that appeared in the sky.

Once they touched anyone, those with low cultivations lost their primordial spirit and those with high cultivations were seriously injured.

The Soul Absorbing Orb was the divine artifact of the demon race. Once Ye Xuan Ji took it out, he would certainly win in this battle between demons and gods.

Countless immortals fell in front of him and a river of blood appeared in the southern gates, but Di Fan Yu escaped in the end.

“He should have escaped to the Western Paradise.” Ye Xuan Ji narrowed his eyes. With a wave of his right hand, the Soul Absorbing Orb came back into his hand.

“It’s the same wherever he escapes to.” Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and said, “The Moon Watching God’s death won’t change with his escape.”

The battle between demons and gods was fierce and even if the heavenly court was weakened, it wouldn’t surrender.

Until Ye Xuan Ji scattered all the primordial spirits of the upper immortals that they couldn’t resist anymore.

Without knowing why, it felt like Ye Xuan Ji was too calm in this battle. Whether it was the heavenly emperor escaping or the heavenly court fighting to death, he had never made any moves.

Perhaps it was because of his personality or perhaps it was because.....he was desperately trying to hide something.

Seven days later, the heavenly court was officially taken over by Ye Xuan Ji. The remaining immortals in the heavenly court were placed under house arrest, Ye Xuan Ji didn’t kill them.

Everything had happened too quickly and when she stood in front of the Fire Phoenix Hall again, she felt a bit of disbelief.

This was a brand new palace that had been completely renovated, but it was clear that no one had lived here.

In her memories, this place should have already been destroyed, so it was only possible that Di Fan Yu had rebuilt it.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and walked in. The memories that were like a flood surged forward and hit her heart.

She could feel that the previous host’s love for Di Fan Yu was deep and restrained, but Di Fan Yu was too arrogant and selfish towards her.

This combination of emotions had brought them to the edge of despair.

But even so, Luo Qing Chen believed the previous host was right. Her fate would have been the same even if she had bravely declared her love a thousand years ago, nothing would have changed.

“Xiu, xiu, xiu.” As she was lost in her memories, there was a flash of golden light that created a line of words in front of her.

Chapter 2160: Sir demon lord: Fairy please stay (49)

I owe you a life, but I didn't kill the Moon Watching God. Yue Bing Xin has disappeared and she took many Divine Power Pills, be careful. ——Di Fan Yu.

The golden light appeared quickly and disappeared just as quickly.

This was the power that all heavenly emperors had, the ability to send a message thousands of miles away.

Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as her heart filled with a bit of unease.

Di Fan Yu wouldn't lie to her in this situation and she didn't find it strange that someone like Yue Bing Xin would want to kill the Moon Watching God.

But with Yue Bing Xin's abilities, even if she ate a hundred Divine Power Pills, it was impossible to kill the Moon Watching God.

Could it be that she had a helper?

She was the concubine of the heavenly palace, how could she have helpers?

There were unanswered questions that appeared in her mind.

As night fell, the thirty three heavens didn't open. The sky looked foggy which made people feel depressed.

She took two pots of wine and headed to the Supreme Hall.

Ye Xuan Ji had stayed in the heavenly palace to handle the follow up matters during these two days, so he hadn't gone back to the Myriad Demon Mirror.

Actually, she didn't know what his plan was, whether to give the heavenly palace to a small immortal or to rule it himself.

But in this situation, no matter who it was, they would want to rule it themselves!

"Peng!" As soon as she pushed the door open, she felt a gust of wind hit her like someone was moving quickly.

"It's this late, why aren't you sleeping?" He put the pen in his hand down and slowly looked up to look at her with his deep and serious eyes.

"Un, I had a bit of worries, so I wanted to drink with you." Luo Qing Chen looked at the dark sky outside the window and said, "It's about to become winter, it's the most suitable weather to drink."

Without knowing why, even the blood soaked heavenly court didn't make her feel assured. Perhaps it was because she didn't personally kill Di Fan Yu.

Or perhaps it was the words that Di Fan Yu had sent her. Her reasoning told her that it was most likely true, but her sensibility had come up with many suspicions.

“What wine?”

“Peach Blossom Drunk.”

“I never thought that a god would make their own wine.”

“Perhaps you taught me in another world.”

As soon as her voice fell, she drank the whole jug. Ye Xuan Ji sat down beside her with a deep loving look in his eyes.

He felt that she looked very good drinking the wine, never tiring of this scene. In this situation, he was enamoured when he saw her like this.

[Ding, affection has increased by ten. Mission completion rate is now 90%.]

“I say, sir Demon God, don’t you think that I look very good?” Hearing this notification, she revealed a smile with a bit of playfulness in her eyes.

After all these things, he stood by her side which really felt good.

“Un, very good.” He took a sip of the wine before seriously looking at her, saying word for word, “The most beautiful woman in the three realms is you.”

“I’m serious.”

“So between the three realms and me, which one would you choose?”

He was surprised. It was like he had an answer, but then he swallowed it as he looked at her to say, “I seem to already have both of these things.”

“Humph, you’re not ashamed.” Luo Qing Chen gave a soft snort before looking at him with slightly glazed eyes, “When did I say that I belonged to you?”

“It seems like you never did!” Ye Xuan Ji softly patted her head and replied with a doting look, “But I always thought this in my heart.”

He didn’t know when she became this important to him, but he felt that she was very important.
