Chapter 2311: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 55)

Returned to the chaos.....

Taoist Abyss was dead?

Luo Qing Chen looked at the boy with a surprised look as her hand holding the crystal trembled slightly.

How could that be? How could he suddenly die?

“Murong Nan.....” She looked at Murong Nan with a bit of panic and his solemn look made her even more afraid.

Could it be that Feng Ling Er wasn't dead, she was still alive?

Murong Nan tried to calm himself down as much as possible and gave her a nod, “Continue.”

Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes and held the crystal as her heart panicked.

It was as if everything happening today was different from what she imagined. Unexpected things would make people feel at a loss as to what to do.

She took a deep breath and muttered, “I met you in Long Peace, I miss you in Long Peace.....”

It wasn't just the heavy words in her heart, it was what she always wanted to say to him.

She wanted to finish it all, not leaving any regrets.

After all, it was likely that this was her final day in this world. Since even a cultivator like Taoist Abyss couldn't bring him back from the underworld, then there was probably no one in this world who could.

“I hope to meet you in the next life. If you don't love me, I will return all the love that you had for me in this life.”

As soon as her voice fell, there was the sound of crying that rang out as a sad atmosphere filled the entire cemetery.

She pursed her lips as broken tears fell one by one. They fell onto the back of her hand, falling onto the cold crystal.

There was a majestic voice that suddenly rang out as the winds were raised.

Luo Qing Chen could tell that this voice came from the dead Taoist Abyss, but she only heard the voice and didn't see anyone.

“Elder Abyss.....” Luo Qing Chen's eyes trembled as she tightly held the crystal. She took a deep breath and said, “Is that you?”

“Your highness, if you could return to the beginning, would you be willing?”

This voice clearly rang out in her ears, but she couldn't see the figure of Abyss.

She just desperately nodded and said, “As long as he can come back, anything is fine!”

She could give up everything, status, fame, power.....

She could ignore all these mortal things as long as Mo Ye came back.

At least, at least if she could see him again and tell him everything that needed to be said.

“The crystal is something that connects space and time. Your highness, this old man can only help you this much.” As soon as the voice fell, the wind stopped.

Luo Qing Chen saw the dazzling light coming from the crystal she was clenching, a white light that filled her eyes.

“Little girl!” Murong Nan called out in shock as he saw her figure fading and an anxious look appeared in his eyes.

Without knowing why, he had a very strange feeling that she was about to leave and she would never come back.

There was the box that he gave her the day of her wedding in his pocket and inside was a red satchel.

The day Mo Ye left, she had thrown this away and he had found it later.

“Murong Nan, I.....” Luo Qing Chen wanted to say something, but she felt herself being surrounded by the white light before a large circle of white light appeared.

They surrounded her as countless images started to flash in her eyes.

“Take this!” Murong Nan shouted out as he threw the satchel in his hand in her direction.

It landed right in her hand.

She closed her eyes and tightly held the satchel, feeling the world change around her.....

Chapter 2312: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 56)

[Host, welcome to a thousand years in the past.]

This was the long lost system. After the world changed around her, these were the first words it said.

What? A thousand years ago?

She called out in shock as her heart almost jumped out of her chest.

Standing in the bustling Moonlight City, she suddenly felt like she was in a dream.

It turned out that the system had a reason for making her wait.

It turned out that Abyss' sacrifice had a reason.

She was back, back to a thousand years ago where her biggest regret was.

Actually, back then, the previous host regretted many things. Because she couldn't describe them all, she called herself Gui Niang and used this name to travel the world.

System, I want to know, what time is it a thousand years ago?

[The Luo Family has been convicted, but they haven't been executed yet.]

After a while, she took a deep breath as her clear as water eyes suddenly turned sharp.

[Is Mo Ye that Mo Ye?]

Although a thousand years ago and a thousand years later, Mo Ye was still the same person, she selfishly hoped that the Mo Ye would be the Mo Ye from a thousand years later and not the Mo Ye from a thousand years in the past.

[Doesn't the host have the satchel from Murong Nan? Why don't you open it?]

Satchel?

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows as she pulled the satchel from her pocket.

She had always thought that this was a wedding gift from Murong Nan, but she didn't expect that there was a letter in the satchel.

It was a letter written by Mo Ye to her.....

——Qing Chen: Please forgive me for leaving without saying goodbye, please forgive me for not keeping my promise, please forgive me for my selfishness, please forgive me for my deep love.

If there is a chance that you see this letter, please forgive me for everything that I've done and then don't forget about me.....

I hope that Murong Nan will properly take care of you. When I handed him this letter, I never thought that it would land in your hands.

But I had hope in my heart that you would see this letter.....

If you don't see it, it proves that Murong Nan is a bad person! But he is a bad person that will treat you well. If you see it, this means that he is a good person, a good person that will treat you well.

I used a secret technique and if it succeeds, I won't be going to hell. Although the chances are low, I still wanted to give it a try.

Because I think.....that if there is a miracle in this world, god will give me a chance to.....love you.

——From Mo Ye.

Luo Qing Chen's right hand holding the letter couldn't help trembling. Mo Ye was a bright fortune teller, but the letter that he wrote made her a bit speechless.

There were times that being too eager to reveal your thoughts would make people panic.

System, so he's my Mo Ye?

[.....] The system spread its non-existent hands to show that it was a bit exhausted.

[Yes!]

Ha, ha! So he's been in this time for seven days?

[Seven years.]

Seven.....seven years?

Luo Qing Chen was surprised. She looked at her clothes and saw that it was from a thousand years later and not a thousand years ago.

Then, could she see the.....previous host?

[The host won't see the previous host because this is a parallel world. The previous host is already on the way to the border in this parallel world, she's with her mother.]

Luo Qing Chen gave a nod of understanding. She knew the concept of parallel worlds better than anyone.

This meant that other than the previous host, there were others that still existed. Among them included Feng Ling Er.

Thinking of this, her heart strangely sank.

Feng Ling Er.....It turns out it didn't end a thousand years in the future, but a thousand years in the past.....

Chapter 2313: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 57)

Moonlight City was as beautiful as it was in the past. Mo Ye had already been in this world for seven years.

She didn't know how he felt spending seven years in this world, seeing the same blue sky as her from a thousand years later.

"Come, come, come, take a look, take a look! The palace is choosing new medics and nurses!" There were several soldiers that walked by her and posted an announcement on the bulletin board.

Luo Qing Chen came forward to look at it when someone beside her took down the notice.

She was surprised as she looked at the girl beside her. She was wearing a long robe with a hint of arrogance in her eyes.

This was a beauty, but not a beauty that liked wearing makeup.

After she took it down, she said to the soldier beside her, "I want to apply as a nurse."

"You....." The soldier's eyes swept over her before saying, "Can you really do it?"

It wasn't that the soldier was looking down on the girl beside her, but she really didn't seem like a nurse. It felt like no matter how one looked at her, she seemed too weak.

"Won't you know if you try it." The girl looked up and inadvertently looked at Luo Qing Chen as a sparkle appeared in them.

"I also want to apply." Luo Qing Chen looked up with her clear eyes, "How about you let me and this miss enter the palace!"

The soldier looked at Luo Qing Chen, clearly looking quite satisfied. He waved his hand and said, "Then follow me. If your medical skills aren't on par, you won't be spared the board."

In the palace, it was like springtime. The garden was filled with peach blossoms which truly looked beautiful.

There was a strong scent of peach blossoms in the air and when she closed her eyes, she felt that nothing had changed.

She was still a princess and he was still the fortune teller that made peach blossom wine for her.

"I am Mi Sha, who are you?" The girl beside her suddenly spoke as those clean eyes seriously looked at her.

Luo Qing Chen raised her eyes, "Xiao Qing."

"Miss seems like spring water that's never been tainted, you really don't seem like a doctor!" Mi Sha said with a faint smile, "That soldier really only knows how to pick beauties, he's choosing people based on appearance!"

She just seemed a bit weaker, why couldn't she become a doctor?

Could it be that all doctors should be burly or beautiful?

Luo Qing Chen heard this and just revealed a faint smile.

Mi Sha saw that she wasn't a proud person and continued, "Do you know why the palace is recruiting doctors?"

She was a bit surprised as she knitted her brows. This was something that she had been puzzled about along the way.

Recruiting doctors was different from recruiting maids, they weren't chosen from the civilians. It was similar to the 'imperial exam' where they were chosen at various levels before becoming court officials.

Other than the imperial doctors which was the highest rank, the rest of the doctors and nurses were even lower than maids, but they did know their craft.

But they did much more than maids.

So it wasn't a fun occupation.

"Could it be that there's another reason?" Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said, "Is someone in the palace sick?"

Normally speaking, recruiting foreign doctors meant that the imperial doctors couldn't cure a certain disease, so they could only pin their hopes on the commoners.

"Smart!" Mi Sha gave a snap, "Moreover, a very, very important person is 'sick'!"

“The.....emperor?”

Could it be that Mo Ye was sick? She suddenly felt a strange uneasiness in her heart as her hands couldn't help turning cold.

“Wrong! It's not the emperor, but the woman the emperor cares about the most!”

Chapter 2314: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 58)

Mi Sha's voice wasn't loud, but it was like a basin of cold water that fell on her head that froze her heart.

She even stood there for two seconds, not coming back to her senses.

“Ai, what are you standing in a daze for! Quickly follow me!” Seeing that Luo Qing Chen stopped, the soldier impatiently roared out at her.

Mi Sha pulled her sleeve and said, “Don't be in a daze. The palace isn't better than the outside, you can lose your head at any moment!”

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows. Her body continued forward, but her mind was completely scattered.

She suddenly was a bit confused. Since the system said that this was a parallel world of a thousand years ago, the 'previous host' shouldn't have existed.

Mo Ye was still the same Mo Ye, but the woman that he cared about most that Mi Sha mentioned shouldn't be the previous host.

Traveling back and forth between three worlds, even Luo Qing Chen felt that her brain wasn't enough.

With the increase in the difficulty of the task, she didn't know what kind of situation she would encounter next.

But at least in this world, she really no longer needed to experience any changes.

She was already very tired.....

From a thousand years ago to a thousand years later and then back to a thousand years ago. This love tribulation was already something that no one could understand.....

The soldier brought them to the herb storage room where they were received by a white bearded old man and a very charming aunt.

Other than her and Mi Sha, there were ten doctors brought into the palace. All of them were talented people that were recruited with the imperial edict all over.

The old man seemed to be an imperial doctor and the woman seemed to be the one in charge of this place.

“Since you've all gathered, I'll give you the bad news first.” Aunt Qin looked at them and said, “Everyone here has been recruited with the edict, but this edict isn't something that can be answered so easily. If you can cure concubine Ying's illness, then you will be promoted, never having to worry about food or clothing. But if you can't.....you might not leave this place alive!"

When aunt Qin said all this, Luo Qing Chen only focused on two words, concubine Ying.

These two words kept echoing in her mind all afternoon.....

In this world.....he was married?

"Stop being in a daze!" Mi Sha knitted her brows and looked at her with a serious look, "This place really isn't a joke. There's no turning back now, no matter what, you have to pass this test."

Luo Qing Chen took a deep breath before coming back to her senses.

That white bearded old man was called Gu Jin, who was the most prestigious imperial doctor.

He was famous and skilled in medicine.

The questions that he gave ranged from simple common sense to complicated medicinal properties. It was a good thing that this wasn't that hard for Luo Qing Chen.

Mi Sha was also very good. There were times when Luo Qing Chen hadn't chosen the antidote yet when Mi Sha had already finished writing.

Other than the two of them who passed, there was a young master named Xu Nuo who also passed.

Luo Qing Chen didn't notice Xu Nuo at first, but she noticed him when he finished answering all the questions.

A youth with clear eyes, he was similar to Murong Nan from a thousand year later.

"The three of you can stay, the other seven will go to back to get ten boards each before leaving!" Aunt Qin gave a yawn and said, "Imperial doctor Gu, the emperor really is desperate. These people recruited from the edict are simply heaven and earth compared to the imperial doctors."

"Ai, we already passed the test, how can you say that we're heaven and earth compared to the imperial doctors?" Mi Sha pursed her lips in an unhappy manner.

Chapter 2315: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 59)

Aunt Qin rolled her eyes and said, "I urge you not to be this arrogant. Everyone thinks that they are a divine doctor that will save the world and help the commoners, but in this palace, there isn't a lack of people like that."

It had to be said that her words were sharp, but Luo Qing Chen felt that they were reasonable.

"We know that our medical skills can't compare to the imperial doctors....." Luo Qing Chen softly pulled on Mi Sha's sleeve and looked up to say, "But since Ying.....the imperial doctors can't do anything about concubine Ying's illness, at least we still have some value."

“You do know how to talk.” Aunt Qin crossed her arms and said, “The three of you will follow the imperial doctors to study concubine Ying’s medical case. I wish you luck.”

As soon as her voice fell, aunt Qin didn’t forget to look at Luo Qing Chen before turning to leave.

The soldier on the side asked, “Aunt, do you still need to continue the recruitment?”

“Of course.” She said in a cold voice, “Do you think that concubine Ying’s illness can be cured with the three of them?”

“Yes.....”

“Wa, wa, wa, they actually look down on us.....look down on us.....”

“Shh!” Luo Qing Chen made a gesture, “Didn’t you just tell me to speak less?”

Actually, it wasn’t hard to tell what kind of person Mi Sha was. If it was described in one phrase, it would be: I understand the logic, but I can’t do it!

Over the next hour, imperial doctor Gu gave them a description of concubine Ying’s records while also describing her symptoms.

Luo Qing Chen tapped the table as she learned the story of Lin Ying and the Lin Family.

It turned out that Lin Yin’s family had started declining eight years ago, but because of Mo Ye’s help, the Lin Family was able to come back from the edge of life and death.

But when Mo Ye called Lin Ying into the palace, Lin Ying fell ill. This lasted for seven years and she never regained consciousness.

There had been a chance in the past few days and Lin Ying finally woke up, but after waking up, she became a.....fool.

No one knew why Lin Ying became like this. All the imperial doctors were helpless, so they could only rely on the commoners.

The story was very short, but Luo Qing Chen felt like there was a large stone on her heart that made it hard for her to breathe.

“This illness isn’t easy to cure. Us imperial doctors have tried many methods, but there have been no results.” Imperial doctor Gu said in a slow voice, “If you can cure concubine Ying, it will be a great achievement.”

After reading it over, Xu Nuo said, “How much time do we have?”

“Three days.” Imperial doctor Gu said, “In three days, each one of you must have a treatment plan, or.....I don’t know if you’ll leave this palace alive.”

“It seems like the emperor is a very violent person.” Luo Qing Chen gave a bitter laugh as her eyes filled with helplessness.

Who was Lin Ying? Why was she Mo Ye’s concubine?

This was what Luo Qing Chen cared about the most.

That Mo Ye who said that he would prepare everything for her, why would he.....marry someone else?

“Be quiet, how could we discuss the emperor?” Imperial doctor Gu angrily reprimanded as he glared at Luo Qing Chen with wide angry eyes.

Xu Nuo standing on the side quickly said, “Imperial doctor Gu, don’t be angry. This should be this girl’s first time seeing the world, don’t take it to heart!”

“Humph!” He gave a cold snort and said, “The maid will take you to your residences later, take care of yourselves!”

Chapter 2316: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 60)

After imperial doctor Gu left, the three looked at each other before Mi Sha said with a sigh, “This is my first time seeing someone even bolder than me!”

“You two really are.....” Xu Nuo gave a sigh on the side, “If I didn’t see that your medical skills are good, I wouldn’t have believed that you came here for a brighter future!”

This was them wanting to die!

The two girls, whether it was in front of aunt Qin or imperial doctor Gu, were all ‘tired of living’!

“He, he.” Luo Qing Chen gave an awkward laugh, “Slip of the tongue, slip of the tongue.”

Although she had many knots in her heart, she wasn’t a person that would vent these emotions on the people around her.

There were some things that she kept in her heart since she would get an answer sooner or later!

“How about we go back and study first?” Xu Nuo gave this suggestion which both Luo Qing Chen and Mi Sha agreed with.

The maids were already waiting at the entrance and their residences weren’t far from the imperial doctor courtyard.

Mi Sha lit a lamp and she stood in front of a window, looking out in a certain direction.

Only Xu Nuo was seriously studying Lin Ying’s condition.

“What did the two of you come into the palace for?”

“Ah?”

“Ah?”

Luo Qing Chen and Mi Sha called out in surprise at the same time, as they both revealed looks of panic. It was as if they had been called out and their eyes couldn’t help sparkling.

Of course, with this kind of reaction, they both understood what the other side was thinking.

Xu Nuo narrowed his eyes and looked at them as a bystander, "Are you both.....assassins?"

"Assassin your head!" Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat and said, "I just haven't come back to my senses yet!"

"Me too, me too!" Mi Sha closed the window and walked over towards them to say, "I don't even have the power to restrain chickens, alright? How could I be an assassin?"

"No, no, no!" Xu Nuo shook his head and looked at them like he could see through them, "Your eyes are telling me that things aren't that simple? Could it be that you want to approach someone?"

"Si!" Both of them took a cold breath.

Luo Qing Chen and Mi Sha looked at each other before turning to Xu Nuo to say, "Of course not!"

After these words, Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows and felt that her denial was a bit too fake.

Xu Nuo just chuckled to himself, "The only person that people want to approach in this palace is the emperor, it can't be that you have this kind of wishful thinking, right?"

"What is with the emperor?" Mi Sha replied first, "It doesn't matter what their status is if you don't like someone! You don't like what you don't like!"

"By the way, the emperor has never had a harem girl since taking the throne. There is only Lin Ying and her big sister Lin Jiao in the harem." Xu Nuo raised a brow and said, "He should be the emperor with the deepest affection that I've ever seen."

"He really is that affectionate?" Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes and said, "That Lin Ying should be very beautiful, right!"

"No! I've heard the maids say outside the palace....." Xu Nuo shook his head and said, "Concubine Ying is a disfigured woman with scars all over her face. You can't even see her original face."

After Xu Nuo said this, there was a short silence that filled the air.

He saw that no one spoke, so he continued, "So that's why I said that the current emperor is the emperor with the deepest affection that I've ever seen."

"I want to.....see this concubine Ying....."

Chapter 2317: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 61)

Luo Qing Chen never thought that before seeing this Lin Ying, she would meet her big sister Lin Jiao the next afternoon.

Actually, it wasn't a coincidence, but Mi Sha went to find Lin Jiao.

When Luo Qing Chen and Xu Nuo came, Mi Sha was being pressed on the ground by the guards with bruises on her face.

"I thought who it was, but it turned out to be you?" Lin Jiao looked down on Mi Sha on the ground, "Are you worthy of entering the palace?"

Mi Sha gritted her teeth and roared, "Shameless!"

It was this woman who stole her childhood lover, her senior brother Ye Ran.

Who was now the number one disciple of imperial doctor Gu.

"If I'm shameless, what are you?" Lin Jiao looked at Mi Sha with a look of disdain, "Ye Ran doesn't like you, why are you still pestering him?"

It was just a little kid who had some medical skills and didn't look bad, she, Lin Jiao looked down on him, alright?

In her eyes, her other half had to be the most excellent person in the world.

For example, the emperor.

But she didn't understand why the emperor with such a dazzling appearance only cared about her fool of a little sister who had a ruined face!

As sisters, her face was very similar to her little sister's. When Lin Ying hadn't been disfigured, she could be considered a beauty. But many years had passed since she had been disfigured and she couldn't even remember what Lin Ying used to look like.

But the emperor above everyone still held her hand.

"If it wasn't for you, he would have liked me." Mi Sha cried out in a tearful voice.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows as a faint sparkle appeared in her eyes.

It turned out that the direction Mi Sha was looking in was the imperial doctor courtyard.

She was looking for the Ye Ran that they spoke of.

Although Luo Qing Chen didn't know the story between them, based on their argument, it should be a love triangle.

"He, he." Lin Jiao gave a cold laugh, "He still wouldn't like you even if it wasn't for me. Why don't you look in the mirror? With your appearance, you might only have a chance of catching Ye Ran's eyes if you reincarnate."

She didn't like Ye Ran, but that didn't mean that she didn't like being pampered.

Ye Ran was very good to her. He had fallen in love with her at first sight and he didn't even go back to his teacher as he entered the palace.

"You be quiet." Mi Sha was crying loudly and there were many people gathering around them.

Luo Qing Chen looked at Lin Jiao and felt that her appearance was very similar to her own.

Especially.....the eyes.....

“Miss Lin, how do we take care of this person?” The guard on the side saw that there were more people coming and to avoid causing trouble, he took the initiative to ask this with cupped hands.

“Give her fifty hits with the board.” She looked at Mi Sha and said, “Throw her out of the palace if she survives and if she dies, throw her into the mass grave.”

The two guards looked at each other before saying at the same time, “Yes.”

“Wait.”

“Please wait.”

Luo Qing Chen had planned on confronting Lin Jiao.

But she never thought that Xu Nuo would speak at the same time.....

Lin Jiao knitted her brows as she looked in the direction of this voice.

Luo Qing Chen followed Xu Nuo with knitted brows as she narrowed her eyes to look at Lin Jiao not far away.

She was wearing a pink dress and her long hair was tied in a ribbon with hints of makeup on her face.

She looked quite spirited, like she wasn't worried about Lin Ying's matters at all.

Those eyes also had countless thoughts hidden in them.

But when she looked in Luo Qing Chen's direction, that face that had been quite bright suddenly paled!

Chapter 2318: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 62)

“You.....Ying Ying.....” Lin Jiao was stunned before shaking her head, “No.....it's not. There are people that can look this similar in this world.”

Mi Sha turned her head, being a bit afraid to look at Luo Qing Chen and Xu Nuo. After all, she had come into the palace with another purpose.

She wanted to rely on the medical skills she learned from her master to enter the palace to find her senior brother.

“We were ordered to cure concubine Ying.” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes to look at her slightly panicked gaze, “Now that we were in the middle of our work, this miss is trying to stop us. I wonder, why is that?”

Lin Jiao heard this and gritted her teeth. She looked over this person that looked very similar to her little sister and her heart sunk.

The entire court knew that the emperor pampered her little sister Lin Ying.

But Lin Ying had been asleep for so many years and her face had already been ruined, she couldn't even remember what she looked like.

But this person was just like her.....

If the emperor saw her face, would he.....

Thinking of this, Lin Jiao clenched her fist and looked up to say, "Bold! A nurse that hasn't even been given a title yet, you dare talk to me like this! Do you know who I am?"

"It isn't important who you are." Luo Qing Chen said with a smile, "The most important thing is that we can cure your little sister and you can't!"

Luo Qing Chen thought that her harsh words would make Lin Jiao have some scruples since it was her little sister, so she would want to see her get better.

But she never thought——

She gave a laugh and said, "I indeed can't cure my little sister, but that doesn't mean that you'll have a chance."

"Just come at me!" Mi Sha was still pinned to the ground, but she didn't forget to struggle as she said, "It's not related to them!"

"Come at you? To be fair, I disdain even looking at you." She gave a cold laugh. Her eyes fell onto Luo Qing Chen and she muttered, "But some people.....definitely can't appear in front of the emperor."

Although there had been many nation collapsing beauties that entered the palace and even girls that looked similar to her little sister Lin Ying.

The strange thing was that not a single woman had caught the emperor's eyes.

He only guarded Lin Ying, this little sister who hadn't been good at anything since they were young!

Actually, she wasn't afraid of the appearance of Luo Qing Chen, but that similar face had to be used by her or it would be destroyed!

She still hadn't made a decision yet, so she could only lock them up and make a decision later.

In a dark hidden room that had nothing at all.

Luo Qing Chen's group of three never thought that Lin Jiao would be so bold to lock them up in the harem!

A person that had no status that relied on her fool little sister actually had so many rights.

It seems like the emperor really cared about Lin Ying.

"Ai....." Mi Sha kept sighing before looking at them to say, "It's all my fault, I implicated you."

"It's good that you know!" Xu Nuo leaned against the wall and looked at her to say, "So your lover likes that tigress now?"

"I like this description!" Luo Qing Chen learned from Xu Nuo and casually leaned against the wall.

"Senior brother, he....." Mi Sha bit her lip and said, "We were childhood friends, but after he saw Lin Jiao, even his soul was hooked by her."

Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said in an understanding voice, "A scumbag?"

Chapter 2319: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 63)

"Senior brother isn't a scumbag!" Mi Sha still spoke up for him as she pursed her lips to say, "He is just chasing the person that he likes! But.....but that Lin Jiao isn't worth it!"

Although Mi Sha didn't know much about Lin Jiao, she did understand a few things.

Before entering the palace, she had liked many men. The Lin Family hadn't declined yet and she was someone who took in men one after another, so many men were left brokenhearted by her.

"Miss Mi Sha." Luo Qing Chen cleared her throat and said, "Actually, I don't know what is happening between you and shouldn't make any rash remarks, but girls should have the pride of girls. If you can't love, then just don't love!"

Luo Qing Chen knew that what she was saying was 'speaking poorly from another point of view', but unrequited love could never be considered a relationship.

If that young man named Ye Ran never loved Mi Sha, then why should she spend so much of her precious time and love on someone who wasn't worth it?

"But other than him, I've never met a better person....." Mi Sha looked very annoyed. When she came to the palace from her master's place, she had never seen Ye Ran once, but she was already locked up by that nasty woman.

"The person you like doesn't have to be excellent!" Luo Qing Chen looked at her like she was teaching a young girl who was trapped in love, "Liking is liking, you can still like someone even if they're not excellent."

"Agreed!" Xu Nuo on the side didn't forget to express his opinion.

Luo Qing Chen then said, "I think that Xu Nuo isn't bad!"

"Ah!"

"Don't pull me in....."

Mi Sha's lips twitched, "I don't like little white faces!"

"I....." Xu Nuo's expression changed as he said, "How do I look like a little white face!"

"You can ask Xiao Qing if you're like one or not!"

Luo Qing Chen looked over at Xu Nuo. He really was similar to Murong Nan, but he had a more childish look to him.

"Ke, ke....." Luo Qing Chen coughed twice before saying, "Stop arguing! We have to think of a way to get out of here! If the three of us are missing, imperial doctor Gu will definitely find out. Although there are few people in the palace, that doesn't mean that the maids won't gossip. Lin Jiao can't keep us locked in here for long, so she must make a decision as soon as possible!"

“Decision? What decision?” Mi Sha had a confused look, not understanding what Luo Qing Chen was saying at all.

Xu Nuo was quick to understand. He stroked his chin as he said, “To pull us in or to.....”

“To what.....To what?”

“Kill us.” Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips and said, “If my guesses aren’t wrong, Lin Ying and I.....who is that concubine Ying should look similar!”

Actually, she was thinking that Mo Ye must have his memories from before coming to this world. Including everything that Taoist Abyss did, everything seemed like a coincidence.

But as a fortune teller, there wasn’t really a coincidence in this world.

All the coincidences were carefully calculated.

But one thing that Mo Ye didn’t know was that she had a system, a system that didn’t belong to any space and time.

“She.....she wants to kill us?” Mi Sha looked at Luo Qing Chen in disbelief, “Why!?”

“You understand Lin Jiao better than us. You should know what kind of person she is.” Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes as she released an ice cold chill. She said with a grin, “If she wants to replace concubine Ying to become Mo.....the one beside the emperor, then someone like me who looks like concubine Ying will either be used by her or can’t be kept!”

Chapter 2320: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 64)

“But.....But it's in the open and the world has laws!” Mi Sha didn’t forget to use two idioms before pursing her lips to saying, “She can’t just kill people at will!”

Xu Nuo slightly knitted his brows, “There are so few people in the harem that if she wanted to take care of us, she will have a way.....Only we are here to treat concubine Ying’s illness, so if we suddenly disappear, it will arouse suspicion.....”

“Peng!” Before Xu Nuo could finish, the door to the secret room suddenly opened.

There was a dazzling light that came in. Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and saw three people in eunuch uniforms come in.

The one in the middle opened the imperial decree in his hand, “Accept the emperor’s decree. You and the other criminals have murdered concubine Ying and the evidence is conclusive. You will be sent to the temple of law today and will be executed tomorrow!”

Luo Qing Chen’s group of three were stunned and looked up at the eunuch in front of them at the same time.

Mi Sha’s voice trembled a bit as she said, “What did you say? Concubine Ying.....she’s.....”

“You criminals can keep acting wronged. Miss Lin Jiao has already reported to the emperor that after you three treated concubine Ying, the concubine suddenly died. This is simply the greatest crime, the temple of law won’t allow this!”

The lead eunuch was a bit excited when he said the latter part. It was like he was a messenger of justice, speaking down on these evil people.

“We never even saw concubine Ying.....How could we treat her, how could we kill her.....”

“Several maids and eunuchs saw you treating concubine Ying, even I saw it happen!”

“You.....You all.....You’re all colluding like this?!” This was Mi Sha’s first time seeing someone ‘making up stories’ like this and she couldn’t come back to her senses for a while.

“It seems like miss Lin Jiao has chosen the latter! Not only will she not use us, she’s even getting rid of others!” Xu Nuo was very calm. He narrowed his clear eyes and gave a cold laugh.

“What nonsense are you saying, murder is murder! Let alone the fact that concubine Ying is the one that the emperor cares about the most! Burning at the stake is considered light for the crazy things that you’ve done!”

“We’re crazy your head.....”

“He, he.” Luo Qing Chen gave two cold laughs before cutting Mi Sha off, “It’ll just add more crimes, why bother!”

They were the ones without any identity or status. Lin Jiao could do whatever they wanted, they wouldn’t be able to do a thing.

It would be easier if she was alone, but it was more difficult with Mi Sha and Xu Nuo.

“You can be considered a smart person.” The lead eunuch said with a smile, “If you’re reborn in the next life, don’t have this face!”

Luo Qing Chen looked at the eunuch who was so proud about achieving his goal and wanted to slap him twice.

But she told herself that a gentleman doesn’t make a move.

She said with a smile, “I want this face, it’s so good looking and angers your mistress to death! Who told her to be born so badly! She was early by a few hours and missed this face!”

After saying this, she gave a proud snort and started walking forward. She didn’t forget to add while walking, “Let’s go, aren’t you going to the temple of law! What are you hesitating over, are you going or not?”

The air suddenly became unusually silent around her when she spoke.

The eunuchs looked at her in disbelief, feeling stunned by her aura.

Let alone Xu Nuo and Mi Sha standing behind her, they were also both stunned!

Weren’t they about to be executed? Why did they not feel fear, but rather why did their blood boil!
