Chapter 2321: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 65)

It had to be said, the treatment at the temple of law was better than Lin Jiao's small secret room.

Especially the death row cells. Not only was it much cleaner, there was also delicious food.

"It's the last meal before death, enjoy it properly!" A guard on duty said, "Be a stuffed ghost on the road to the Yellow Springs."

Mi Sha looked at the food and cautiously said, "It can't be that it's poisoned, right!"

The guard laughed and said, "You're going to be burned at the stake tomorrow, we'll all be buried with you if you were poisoned before then!"

In their eyes, death by poison was much faster than being burned at the stake!

After the guard left, Xu Nuo looked at them and said in a soft voice, "Eat your fill, then we should think of a way to escape!"

"What is your opinion?" Luo Qing Chen took a sip of the wine as a sparkle appeared in her eyes.

Actually, she still hadn't thought it out yet. If it wasn't for Mi Sha and Xu Nuo, she could escape in an instant.

But because they were here, it was a bit difficult to escape.

"I think that he'll come save me....." Mi Sha put down the chicken leg as her eyes filled with a bit of frustration and a bit of expectation.

She was still waiting in the end, waiting for Ye Ran. She felt that her childhood friend, her senior brother would definitely come to save her.

Luo Qing Chen knitted her brows before giving a sigh, "I think that he should already know about a large matter like being locked in the temple of law."

It wasn't that Luo Qing Chen was trying to deny this man, but rather.....

Since he hasn't appeared, it meant that he wasn't intending to get involved.

"No!" Mi Sha was very determined, looking at them with a very firm look, "Ye Ran will definitely come, he won't leave me!"

Xu Nuo saw that she was about to cry, so he shook his head at Luo Qing Chen before changing the topic, "If.....I'm saying if.....your senior brother doesn't help us, do you know anyone else important enough who can save us!"

Luo Qing Chen looked at Xu Nuo's relaxed expression and started to doubt his identity.

It seemed like he wasn't a normal person.

"I think that no one should be coming to save me." Luo Qing Chen pursed her lips into a bitter smile, "After all.....I don't know anyone here."

The only person that she did know was the supreme emperor who gave the decree.

“People! Always believe in miracles!” Xu Nuo saw her disappointed look and revealed a smile, “Perhaps there will be one!”

That night seemed to pass by very slowly.

The three who had met for the first time were people that were going to the Yellow Springs together.

It’s because of this strange fate that made them chat all night.

Mi Sha said that she liked Ye Ran very much, she was attracted by his appearance from her first time meeting him.

It was completely love at first sight because of his appearance, but it was a pity that Ye Ran didn’t like her.

No matter how hard she tried, Ye Ran never liked her. She thought that she wasn’t good enough, but when Ye Ran saw Lin Jiao for the first time, he had fallen in love at first sight.

Only then did she come back to her senses that it wasn’t that she wasn’t good, but she had never entered Ye Ran’s heart.

Xu Nuo said that he never loved anyone, but he had a brother who took care of him. Yearning for freedom, yearning to learn medicine, yearning to use his hands to save many, many people.....

Actually, from a different perspective, Xu Nuo’s personality was a bit twisted. He liked war, but he didn’t like killing and he liked saving people.

In his eyes, only the time of war could reflect a person’s values.

In order to save people, looking forward to casualties.....

And she.....told a very sad story that came from a jug of wine.

Chapter 2322: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 66)

When she thought about it later, she suddenly thought of the reason why he didn’t let her drink the pear blossom wine back in the Splendid Moon Hall.

It wasn’t because he wasn’t willing, but he was protecting her.

“Wa!” Mi Sha was stunned after listening before clapping her hands together, “So handsome! But it was just a small cup of wine! If it’s a long term poison, one cup shouldn’t have been anything!”

“Indeed.” Luo Qing Chen nodded with a faint smile, “Thinking back now, his eyes really were filled with flaws. If that woman looked at him carefully, perhaps his plan would have been exposed!”

Feng Ling Er should have sincerely loved Mo Ye!

“Actually, I can understand.” Xu Nuo’s eyes swept over Luo Qing Chen, “Truly loving a person, I wouldn’t want a single bad thing to happen to her.”

"I can understand that now....." She revealed a faint smile as a sparkle appeared in her eyes.

Understanding Mo Ye's endurance, understanding Mo Ye's broken promises, understanding Mo Ye's love.....

"But he's no longer around, right?" Xu Nuo narrowed his eyes and said in a deep voice, "Perhaps some people can only be with you for some time and some people can be with you for your entire life."

When Xu Nuo said this, his expression was focused and sincere.

Luo Qing Chen said with a teasing smile, "Who is the one that will be with you your entire life?"

"Me!" Xu Nuo didn't hesitate to look into Luo Qing Chen's clear eyes. He leaned against the wall as he revealed a faint smile.

"Wait, wait, wait, wait." Mi Sha blinked and blinked again, "You are confessing?"

Xu Nuo heard this and gave a shrug before saying with a faint smile, "It's just a joke before dying!"

He looked at Luo Qing Chen and added, "Miss Xiao Qing shouldn't take it seriously!"

"Whether it's real or not, I will pick the one who can be with me for some time." Luo Qing Chen seriously said, "Only him."

"So.....the one you're talking about will save you?"

Xu Nuo's voice wasn't loud or soft, but it was like a needle that pierced her.

At the same time, in the palace.

In a crystal coffin was Lin Ying's corpse.

The face was pale, the lips were purple, and there were no signs of struggling. The perpetrator could only be an acquaintance.

"Emperor, the imperial edict has been sent." A eunuch on the side said, "The evidence is conclusive. Miss Lin Jiao has sent them to the temple of law and they will be executed tomorrow at noon."

"Un....." Mo Ye softly replied. His expression didn't change, but his right hand kept calculating.

Seven years, an entire seven years. Reincarnation of all things was a set law.

He had already calculated her fate and as long as his master did everything, she would appear in this world a thousand years ago.

It was this time, the world that he was in.

As a fortune teller, this was the only way he could keep her at his side.

Lin Ying's death was inevitable. There should be a soul that merged with this body tomorrow.

Her soul from a thousand years in the future.

In these seven years, the divinations one after another had changed this irreversible fate.

Every time, it was all for her to come to this world without any mistakes.

For example, the powerful Chen Family should have perished three years ago, but to change this world with the 'butterfly effect', he had let them escape.

Those who should have died survived and those who should have survived died.

He had gone against destiny, just so he could smoothly get her here.

But why did he feel a panic that he hadn't felt in a long time? Wasn't she about to come soon?

Chapter 2323: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 67)

"Miss Lin Jiao said that the three of them used cruel methods to make concubine Ying die....." The eunuch said this while wiping away tears, "She is the emperor's favourite concubine, burning at the stake is too little for these three murderers!"

As the closest eunuch, even if he followed Mo Ye for many years, he wasn't clear on his temper.

He only knew that he had emptied the harem and had only accepted this sleeping woman as a concubine.

This woman's family had already lost all their power after he had ascended the throne and gradually declined.

But it was at that time that Mo Ye had accepted Lin Ying who was in a coma as his concubine, letting the Lin Family rise again.

This also allowed her big sister Lin Jiao to freely move in the palace, with no one restraining her!

He did all of this just for tomorrow.

"Un." Mo Ye softly replied, but his expression was still serious.

He could forget about Lin Ying's death. As for how she died and who killed her, he didn't care at all.

He only cared whether his seven years of hard work would let them see each other again through the void of a thousand years.

The next morning, when the sun was up high, there was a burning heat in the air.

Ye Ran stood behind Lin Jiao with a gray robe and his eyes were a bit heavy. He slightly knitted his brows when he moved past Mi Sha, but he didn't say anything.

Mi Sha looked at him and passed by him while being escorted by the guards. When she looked at him like this, he held an umbrella for Lin Jiao as she went by.

The beautiful dreams of the past had all been shattered at this moment.

Luo Qing Chen's group were taken to the execution ground. It was a bright sunny day and Lin Jiao was standing not far away in normal clothing. Her eyes were red, but her lips had a slight curl to them.

"You murderers!" She roared out before holding her chest, "Why, why did you do this to my little sister? She was still so young, how could you do these evil things for your own benefit!"

The citizens around heard this and they all began discussing this execution.

"Ai! I heard that the one who died this time was the emperor's favourite concubine....."

"Yes! It is because of this that they've been given the death penalty! These three really deserve death!"

"Who knows what's happening in the palace? Disputes over benefits, officials going against each other, and all kinds of other things! Perhaps they're just scapegoats!"

.....

The various whispers filled Luo Qing Chen's ears. She looked up at the burning sun and slightly knitted her brows.

It seemed like she had to use her abilities.

"The time is here, the execution——"

A token fell down from above. Other than Mi Sha who was praying to god, Luo Qing Chen and Xu Nuo were both calm.

Several torches were thrown at the straw at their feet and the flames instantly jumped up.

Luo Qing Chen closed her eyes to use the space and time freeze, but with a cold breeze, a youth in black robes fell from the sky and immediately undid the ropes holding them in place.

"How, how, how, how, how.....how bold!" The official shouted in shock, "Someone! There's someone intruding on the execution grounds! Someone come quickly!"

Due to inertia, when the rope broke three, all three of them couldn't help falling off the platform that they were on.

When Luo Qing Chen was about to twist to land, Xu Nuo took her wrist and pulled her up from the ground.

As for Mi Sha——

"Ah, ah, ah, ah, save me!"

Chapter 2324: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 68)

In an instant, the black robed man took Mi Sha's waist and took her in his embrace.

There were some people that took a thousand years and there were some people that fell in love at first sight.

Most girls yearned for heroes and Xu Yan appearing at the moment of life and death had become Mi Sha's hero.

"What are you in a daze for! Just catch them all!" Lin Jiao angrily roared, "If they dare resist, execute them on the spot!"

It was clear that she was a bit anxious. This matter couldn't become bigger, she had to kill them as soon as possible.

"Just with you?" The black clothed man's eyes narrowed. He put Mi Sha behind him before his ice cold dark eyes looked at her, "You're worthy of killing this prince?"

In the chaos, Luo Qing Chen used the cover of the flames to take the Phoenix Dance Sword from her storage space.

Dress in white, her cold eyes narrowed.

The civilians around them all scattered and other than the normal guards, there were also imperial guards and guards from the Lin Family.

Around forty to fifty people.....

Luo Qing Chen's group only had four people! One of them was Mi Sha who didn't know martial arts and the other was Xu Nuo who it was unknown if he knew martial arts or not!

They greatly suffered when it came to numbers!

"You.....Where did you get a sword?" Xu Nuo saw Luo Qing Chen who was ready for battle and a trace of doubt flashed in his eyes.

Actually, he had strangely felt a sense of panic earlier and the urge to protect her had spread in his heart.

It was like they had met before, or they would meet in the future.

"Picked it up!" Luo Qing Chen said, "This isn't the time to discuss this, do you know martial arts?"

"No!" Xu Nuo honestly shook his head, "But I can cheer for you!"

Luo Qing Chen snappily rolled her eyes: She didn't need him lying on the ground cheering, alright?

"Ai, this big brother! How many can you beat?" She looked at the black clothed person with an ice cold face, "How about we take care of half of them each?"

Three seconds later, he said with a cold laugh, "You protect them, I take care of everything else!"

"Un." Luo Qing Chen replied before charging into the crowd with the Phoenix Dance Sword in hand.

Before landing, she didn't forget to add, "I rather like going head on, so I'll leave the matter of protecting people to you."

"Kill her for me, don't let her live!" Lin Jiao bit her lip as her bloodshot eyes filled with killing intent.

"He, he, come all you want!"

With the burning sun in the sky, the Phoenix Dance Sword followed the wind and there was a touch of gold that sliced through the air with each slash.

Although there was no blood, there were still small wounds that cut the skin.

There was a faint scent of blood in the air. These people all came forward, but they couldn't even touch the hem of her clothes, let alone hurt her.

The commoners standing on the second floor of the teahouse and Xu Nuo's group standing not far away all looked at her in 'shock'.

This girl that no one believed could even take a hit was actually hiding this kind of power inside of her.

When everyone around her fell to the ground, what caught her eyes were Lin Jiao's pale face and Ye Ran who had unknowingly taken a step back.

Ye Ran's actions made her feel that he didn't love Lin Jiao that much and he loved himself the most.

Because he was in danger, he didn't stand in front of Lin Jiao like a man and stood behind her, even taking a step back.

Luo Qing Chen quickly arrived in front of Lin Jiao and placed the Phoenix Dance Sword on her neck. She narrowed her cold eyes and said, "I want to see Mo Ye! Oh, right, it's your emperor!"

Chapter 2325: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 69)

The crowd all took a cold breath. No one had thought that Luo Qing Chen would be this direct.

A criminal who was to be burned at the stake dared to say the emperor's name!

This kind of actually really was hard to believe.

"You.....Don't you mess around....." Lin Jiao's voice trembled a bit. When the cold Phoenix Dance Sword was at her neck, she could feel her death approaching.

The person in front of her who looked very similar to her little sister no longer looked that familiar.

Especially those eyes that were indifferent, but were filled with killing intent.

She didn't seem like she was afraid of anyone. It was like she was standing in front of any random stranger when she stood in front of Lin Jiao.

But if she was displeased, the blade would fall and her life would be gone.

"I don't know if I'll mess around, but——" Luo Qing Chen narrowed her eyes and said with a smile, "My temper isn't good and I get angry easily. Once I get angry, I will lose my mind. If I lose my mind....."

She gently moved the Phoenix Dance Sword in her hand and said, "The sword doesn't have eyes."

"I.....I'm warning you! You've already killed concubine Ying, if.....if you do anything to me, the emperor won't let you off!" Her voice was trembling even more. The Phoenix Dance Sword hadn't moved, but there were traces of blood on her neck already.

"I am a person that is already sentenced to death, do you think that I would be afraid?" Luo Qing Chen gave a shrug. She had a smile on her lips the entire time, but it was a cold smile.

One would feel a strange chill if they took an extra look.

Lin Jiao gave a gulp as her face looked very ugly. She wanted to calm down, but her body was very honest with its shaking.

On the way, she kept telling herself: Don't be scared, don't be scared, don't be scared.....

Even if the girl in front of her looked similar to Lin Ying, she wasn't Lin Ying in the end.

After so many years, there were many girls who had gone in and out of the palace that looked like Lin Ying.

But the emperor never looked at them, which was enough to show the place that her disfigured sister had in the emperor's heart.

Now that her little sister was dead, as the emperor who had protected her, he definitely wouldn't let the one who killed her go!

Then he would definitely protect her! After all, she was Lin Ying's only big sister in this world.

Thinking this, she didn't seem that afraid and even walked a bit faster.

She wanted to see Mo Ye quickly to ask him for him, to complain to him!

The two brothers Xu Nuo and Xu Yan and Mi Sha followed Luo Qing Chen. Mi Sha's eyes had been on Xu Yan since the moment that she had been saved.

Although it wasn't love at first sight, she was looking at him with a gaze of admiration.

After all, this day had completely changed her concept of love.

The little Mi Sha who only liked her senior brother Mi Sha had completely died when she was to be burned at the stake.....

It was the Supreme Hall not far away. Walking through the main gates of the palace, there were guards all around them with weapons drawn.

Luo Qing Chen wasn't afraid, she just had a casual look on her face as she stood in front of the Supreme Hall. The imperial guards all came forward and surrounded them with their swords drawn.

"Quickly.....Quickly contact the emperor." Lin Jiao's eyes filled with a bit of excitement as her wide eyes fell onto the leader of the imperial guards.

The sky that had been bright suddenly darkened.

Chapter 2326: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 70)

The thick dark clouds filled the sky and covered up the light layer by layer.

There was a cold wind all around and everything seemed to turn foggy.

Xu Yan who had been standing behind saw that this situation was a big strange, so he walked over to Luo Qing Chen's side and looked at the imperial guards to say, "The Xu Country's prince Xu Yan is here to see the emperor of the Mo Dynasty."

Luo Qing Chen was surprised as her eyes fell onto Xu Yan. He was actually.....the neighbouring country's prince!

Then Xu Nuo.....

"Ke, ke....." Xu Nuo cleared his throat and said, "Big brother.....you.....be low key, be low key!"

Xu Nuo naturally thought that he had concealed his identity well enough. After all, no one had known who he was after coming to the Mo Dynasty.

But it was because he was the prince of the neighbouring country that he wasn't afraid of being burned at the stake.

Because he knew that his big brother would definitely come save him.

"You.....You're saying that you're the Xu Dynasty's prince?" The imperial guard leader knitted his brows, clearly not believing what he said.

Although this person's aura was imposing and not normal, how could the prince of the Xu Dynasty suddenly appear in the palace?

"I don't need to say anything else to you, I want to see your emperor!" Xu Yan's words were simple, as if he entered the main topic without any explanation.

Three seconds later, the imperial guard leader gave a nod and said, "Please wait a bit."

Mi Sha standing on the side looked at him with a bit of shock before turning to Xu Nuo, "This one is the Xu Dynasty's prince, then you....."

She thought about it before continuing, "Are you his follower or his doctor?"

Luo Qing Chen was surprised when she heard this. Xu Yan standing beside her was also surprised.

It had to be said, Mi Sha really was too simple.

To have the prince of the Xu Dynasty come to a foreign country to save them, this person had to have a very high position in the Xu Dynasty.

No matter what, it was impossible for him to be a follower or a doctor. If Luo Qing Chen's guess was right, the identity of Xu Nuo should be even greater than the prince Xu Yan.

Then adding in the fact that they were both surnamed Xu, it made it more certain that Xu Nuo was someone from the royal family.

"He is our crown prince." Xu Yan knitted his brows and spoke like an older brother, "After learning his heavy responsibility, he left the Xu Country without a word and then was caught up in this dangerous situation!"

“Wh.....What!” Mi Sha blurted this out. She took a cold breath and looked at Xu Nuo, “You, you, you.....you are the Xu Dynasty’s crown prince?”

“What? I don’t look like it?”

“.....”

Xu Nuo gave a sigh, “If it wasn’t for royal father and royal brother urging me to take the throne, I wouldn’t have run away!”

“The affairs of the nation and the decisions of the royal family are a blessing on the people, why would you run?” Xu Yan’s tone was filled with reproach. He didn’t forget to look at Mi Sha during this and his tone softened a bit.

“I don’t want to be the emperor!”

“Be quiet!” Xu Yan angrily scolded, “The heaven’s son is actually saying such a disrespectful thing! If royal father were to know about this.....”

“Big brother.” He gave a deep sigh before seriously looking at him, “I feel that you’re more suited to being the emperor. I am such a carefree person, I’m more suited to being a small king! You’ve known me best since we were young, so don’t force me to do this!”

“No!” Xu Yan’s tone was very firm as he immediately said, “The Xu Country is yours and the throne is also yours! No matter what, that won’t change!”

Chapter 2327: Love transcending a thousand years (Part 71)

“Big brother.....I.....”

“Ke, ke.” Seeing that Xu Nuo still wanted to argue, Luo Qing Chen cut him off by saying with a smile, “That, our situation doesn’t seem suited to be discussing this, right?”

After all, the three of them had just escaped from the execution grounds.

Although she never thought that she would die, this was her first time seeing Mo Ye since coming to this world.

She was actually very nervous. It was a kind of nervousness that made her scalp tingle.

The black clouds pressed down layer by layer that made people strangely depressed looking at it.

This place was a bit weird, it can’t be that Mo Ye wouldn’t appear, right!

Thinking of this, she couldn’t help slightly knitting her brows. This place really was too weird.....

“Un!” Xu Yan raised his right hand and stopped Mi Sha who was about to come forward. His deep eyes looked at the entrance to the Supreme Hall and he softly said, “I’ve heard that the emperor of the Mo Country can contact spirits, he’s very skilled when it comes to the matters of yin and yang.....”

“You’re very correct!” Lin Jiao who had been silent for a long time looked up with a smile, “Our Mo Country’s emperor is different from you normal people! If you annoy the wrath of the heavens, even ten Xu Dynasties aren’t enough.”

Although Lin Jiao’s words sounded arrogant, Xu Yan knitted his brows even more.

This Mo Ye had been eccentric after taking the throne. He didn’t go to war, but he also didn’t build good relations with neighbouring countries.

Some of the smaller countries thought that he was weak, so they tried to attack him.

They never thought that they would die on the way before even reaching Moonlight City.

How did they die and why did they die?

No one knew just how he killed them.

It might be a coincidence if it was once or twice, but people would start to hesitate if it kept happening.

Mo Ye had become a mysterious person among the royals of the surrounding countries. The way he did things was resolute and vicious and no matter what, there would be no room to retreat!

Actually, although Lin Jiao’s words were arrogant, they weren’t wrong.

“Then see if he chooses to kill you or kill.....my face!” She narrowed her eyes with a coldness that could freeze people.

A few seconds later, the doors of the Supreme Hall opened.

There was a youth wearing a dragon robe that slowly walked out. His deep eyes had a faint sparkle in them as they had been on Luo Qing Chen the entire time, not shifting even once.

“Your majesty.....Your majesty, save Qiao Qiao!” When she saw Mo Ye, Lin Jiao’s tears kept coming out, falling one by one. Her eyes were red and her voice was filled with grievances.

Mo Ye’s eyes were indifferent as he took a white umbrella from a eunuch on the side before walking in Luo Qing Chen’s direction alone.

Each step he took made it so that she could see his face more clearly.

Seven years, a full seven years! Using every method to travel the distance between a thousand years!

When Luo Qing Chen looked at him like this, her nose stuffed up and her tears almost came out.

Mo Ye slightly knitted his brows and started moving faster.

Finally, when he was right beside Luo Qing Chen, Xu Nuo who had been standing behind her suddenly came forward to firmly stand in front of her.

Mo Ye’s eyes were cold as he looked at him and he released a chill from his body, “Move.”

Lin Jiao, who had been standing on the side, was clearly very excited. This was simply like the perfect scene from her dream.

A hero saving the beauty, what a beautiful scene!

Chapter 2328: Love transcending a thousand years (End)

"Your majesty, your majesty." She called out twice as tears fell again. She then said in a choked up voice, "Don't come over here, it's dangerous."

"Just come at me." Xu Nuo could see the killing intent in his hands, so he directly said, "A big Mo Country shouldn't make it hard for just a single girl, right!"

His eyes trembled before his ice cold voice without a trace of warmth roared lowly, "Move."

He didn't know what had gone wrong, he didn't know why she didn't return to the body that he had prepared, but appeared again in her form from a thousand years in the future.

He didn't understand, but he didn't want to understand at this moment.

"Si!" Everyone took a cold breath. The people who talked to Mo Ye like this were all dead.

After all, the emperor was not a kind emperor. His methods were better than any emperor of the Mo Country.

"I....."

"Xu Nuo." Luo Qing Chen's left hand pulled him from behind as her right hand still held the Phoenix Dance Sword at Lin Jiao's neck.

She took a deep breath and said, "Your majesty, I'm here to overturn the case! Your concubine Ying was not killed by us, so I hope that your majesty.....will carefully consider this!"

There was a hint of arrogance and awkwardness in her voice. She might never be able to understand why Mo Ye would treat Lin Ying who looked like her that well.

He was an excellent man, because of a single body, how could he.....

"Your majesty, your majesty, don't worry about me." Lin Jiao's crying voice still rang out, "This deranged person, she.....Ah!"

"Si, si, si!"

Mo Ye's action had stunned everyone around them.

Lin Jiao's painful cries rang out as her hand fell to the ground and blood spurted out.

Mo Ye had taken her hand and using her Phoenix Dance Sword, he cut off Lin Jiao's arm.

Actually, even Luo Qing Chen never would have thought that he would do this.

"You....." Luo Qing Chen was surprised. What she wanted to say was caught in her throat and she couldn't say it.

Then Mo Ye pulled her arm in without any hesitation, pulling her into his embrace.

She was stunned as countless questions came in her ears in his low voice.

“When did you come back? How did you come back? Why didn’t you tell me? Why didn’t you come find me? Why did you make me wait.....” He used all his strength to hold her and his body trembled as he held her.

“I wanted to come find you, but they all said that you were doting on another girl.....” She looked away with a bit of grievance in her eyes that had misted over!

“It was all in wait for you.” Mo Ye almost roared out before immediately calming down, “It’s good that you’re back.....it’s good that you’re back.....as long as you’re back, anything is fine.....”

The thick clouds in the sky dissipated. No one could understand their conversation, only they could understand it.

Then Lin Ying’s desperate voice rang out.

“Your majesty.....that person isn’t Ying Ying! She is fooling your majesty.....”

Mo Ye impatiently knitted his brows. He took the Phoenix Dance Sword from her hand and cut her neck with a single slash.

At the same time, he didn’t forget to cover her eyes with one hand, “Our family’s girl isn’t suited to seeing such a bloody scene.”

For some reason, this scene suddenly made her cry.

They had done so many things for the other person, passing through two words to get to today.

How hard.....how hard should it be.....

“At least we won’t be separated in this life, right?” She closed her eyes as the crystalline tears slid down her face.

He turned over to kiss her tears, “Not just this life, I also want the next life.”

Life after life. In fact, the love between them was already set, right?

She was willing to go forward and as long as he was on the other side, she would never turn back!

Chapter 2329: Side story: The following years were all peaceful (Part 1)

In the seventh year of Mo Ye’s reign, Mo Ye had finally gotten his empress.

She wore a phoenix crown, a red wedding dress, and had a long ribbon dragging behind her, all giving off a playful tone.

Everyone was filled with joy and only Xu Nuo drank alone.

She looked in Xu Nuo’s direction and a sparkle appeared in her eyes.

She kept feeling something familiar from him, half sunny and half gloomy.

"It seems like that kid started plotting against you from a thousand years ago." Mo Ye calmly looked in Xu Nuo's direction as a sparkle appeared in his deep eyes.

Luo Qing Chen was surprised before turning to look at that handsome face, "What does that mean? Do you know Xu Nuo?"

"If my astrolabe is correct....." Mo Ye gently took her by the waist with his right hand and pulled her into his embrace. He looked up with the look of a sovereign and said, "His name in a thousand years should be Murong Nan!"

"Wh.....What?" Luo Qing Chen's eyes trembled in surprise. When she was planning on looking in Xu Nuo's direction, Mo Ye held her face.

She awkwardly looked away with a blush on her cheeks.

Mo Ye very gently kissed her which had a bit of a chill and an indescribable feeling.

Even now, when she was firmly standing at his side as his empress, he was still afraid.

Afraid of loss, afraid that fate would suddenly change.....

After all, they didn't come from this world. After all, they had all experienced death before.

As a fortune teller, he knew what the consequences of going against fate was.

He would repay all the suffering in the next life. Just let him go in this life.

After the ceremony, Mo Ye started sorting out everything.

The ones known as the 'strongest relatives' fell into an abyss in a single night.

Some people said that the Lin Family collapsed because of concubine Ying's death and some people said.....now that the emperor had a new love, it was very normal for the old love to fall.

Luo Qing Chen never cared about these rumours, but Mo Ye cared.

Not only did he condemn the ones that loved spreading rumours, he even condemned those that spoke badly about the empress.

Some people said that it was just a new love. When a younger and more beautiful girl appeared, she would be abandoned like concubine Ying.

But no one knew that his 'sole love' concubine Ying was just waiting for her.

How difficult it was to find a person that came from a thousand years.....

No one understood how hard it was, only he understood.

But for Mo Ye, he didn't need anyone to understand.....

In the eighth year of Mo Ye's reign, Ye Ran was sentenced to death for selling drugs. Mi Sha begged for forgiveness for him and his life was spared.

Luo Qing Chen still remembered that night with the heavy snow when Ye Ran kneeled on the ground asking Mi Sha for forgiveness.

It was unknown if it was gratitude, the fact that no one had supported him, or if it was.....love?

As an outsider, she couldn't see the truth.

She just knew that in that snowy weather, Mi Sha was only wearing a thin lace dress and Ye Ran wouldn't let her go.

It was at this time that Xu Yan with a jacket and an umbrella slowly headed towards Mi Sha.

She turned to look at Xu Yan and her eyes turned red as she threw herself into his embrace.

The love that she chased was so sad and the feeling of being loved was this good.

Mi Sha married into the distant Xu Family later. It was said that the sixth prince only favoured one person and other than his princess, he never took any other concubines.

Chapter 2330: Side story: The following years were all peaceful (Part 2)

As for the emperor of the Xu Country, Xu Nuo.

He had three thousand beauties in his harem, but he never favoured one person. But each seventh of the eighth month of the lunar calendar, he never found anyone to sleep with.

That was the day that he couldn't get the person he wanted.

Xu Nuo promised that after returning, he would never go to the Mo Dynasty again.

Until the fifteenth year of Mo Ye's reign, when he went to the small Faint Dream City within the Xu Country's borders did he meet them again.

A girl in a pink and white dress holding the hand of the handsome man beside her.

Although the man was dressed in black, it was hard to hide the aura that he released.

The woman was looking over some hair accessories and the man gently rolled up her hair, skillfully tying it into a beautiful bow.

She revealed a faint smile. It looked like she didn't like it, but she didn't untie it.

The delicate snowflakes fell in front of his eyes, mesmerizing his eyes, mesmerizing his heart.

Actually, he never went to the Mo Country to see the person that he could never forget about.

He thought that he didn't like her that much. He could still have fun with other women and he could give his body to many people.

But in the quiet of the night, he would think of that day. When she was wearing that white dress and charging into the crowd with her sword.

She didn't seem to have any fear as her clear as water eyes had a faint sparkle in them. She raised the sword in her hand and without dealing any fatal wounds, she didn't give her opponents any chance to breathe.

Perhaps it was at that moment that he who was never willing to take the throne couldn't help wanting royal power.

But he never thought that she was the same as Mi Sha, entering the palace for one person.

Mi Sha did it for Ye Ran and she did it for Mo Ye.....

They seemed to already know each other and one look would make everyone else disappear.

He knew at that moment that he couldn't have that girl with the sword in hand.

In the seventeenth year of Mo Ye's reign, after they returned to the palace from traveling the world, they heard that there was a certain woman in the cold palace who had disappeared.

It was a cold palace that no one cared about and they would hear desolate singing that would make people feel goosebumps.

No one knew who that person was or why they were locked up there, they just knew that someone brought her some rice and a pot of wine each day.

After Luo Qing Chen learned of this matter, she went to cold palace alone.

The cobweb filled courtyard had a stench to it. Even in broad daylight, it felt chilly.

She knitted her brows and wanted to open the door, but Mo Ye stopped her.

"Our little empress isn't suited to enter a place like this." His voice was very soft, being as gentle as always.

Luo Qing Chen felt her heart tremble as she knitted her brows to look at him, "You.....Did you....."

Why, why did her heart tremble for a strange reason?

The scenes of the past flashed in front of her eyes, from their first meeting to passing through a thousand years.

"So promise me....." He came forward and took her in his embrace, "Each whatever you like and I'll go with you wherever you want to go. You don't need to worry about people who bully you or even about power....."

"Mo Ye, you know everything, right?" She bit her lip as her voice trembled, "What happened in this place....."

"I don't know!" Mo Ye revealed a faint smile as he looked at her with gentle eyes and said, "It's just that our little empress looks good in her empress robes."

"Mo Ye....."

“Let’s go back, it’s time for dinner.”

“Alright.....”

With an evening breeze, he took her hand and walked to the palace where the peach blossoms fell.

She suddenly wanted to drink some peach blossom wine!
